"THE FAMILY CHURCH" "AS FRIENDLY AS IT IS BEAUTIFUL"

Volume 20 | Fort Wayne, Indiana, January 4, 1962 | Number 14

FROM THE PASTOR'S STUDY

Dear Christian Friends:

The time has come for our entire congregation to begin in earnest to work toward achieving the most thrilling program ever undertaken by our Church — winning 168 persons to Christ and the Church by April 15th! The first step in any spiritual undertaking is to commit ourselves to God in prayer for His will to be done in and through us! Therefore, this Sunday during the morning worship service every person in attendance will be asked to covenant with God to pray quietly and earnestly every day until decision day — April 15th, that the minimum goal will be exceeded. Let us make this one of the real beginnings of our growth Godward!

You can help in this great Crusade for Christ by turning in the names and addresses of any members of your family who are not members of the church, names of your friends and neighbors who do not attend Church, and others you would like to see won to Christ and the Church! If men and women are saved by Christ and His Church from sin and self to life eternal, then let's be greatly concerned if members of our circle of family and friends are outside the fellowship of His Church.

The third step in the Crusade for Christ is a revival of our own spiritual strength. We ought to be having two worship services filled to the glory of God with His children who stand in need of eternal strength and help. Don't drift your way into indifference toward God and the Church! Don't worry about doing too much while others do too little! It isn't our individual share of the work needed to be done that really matters! Too often we measure our efforts on behalf of God in the light of our religious neighbor who is doing little or nothing and get a feeling of complacence. But we must test our efforts on God's behalf in the light of the efforts of Jesus Christ for our redemption! One must never judge himself in the light of his neighbor, the standard of judgment is Jesus Christ, Son of God and Saviour of men!

Sunday's Sermon: "JESUS IS THE WAY, THE TRUTH, AND THE LIFE."

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

Dear Christian Friends:

It is with a sense of satisfaction, mixed with hopeful anticipation, that we share the figures that vividly portray your loyalty and love for Jesus Christ. During the last 53 Sundays your Church School had a total attendance of 19,881, an average of 375 per Sunday. By way of comparison, this is 2,881 more than the previous year when we had 17,000 total attendance, or an average of 327. If we had worked a little harder, or if we had all "stayed well," we would have reached the 20,000 mark. We only missed it by 119 people.

Looking to the future with great expectation, I predict that we will exceed that mark this coming year. Let's get off to a good start this coming Sunday at 9:15 A.M. There are many factors that will contribute to this great victory in 1962. First of all, we have the finest people in the world in our Church School. I am convinced that there are none finer anywhere, not even in Alabama. Second, the enthusiasm of past year's performance will push us onward. Third, we will have more space for class rooms available as we realize the completion of the new rooms in the gymnasium. Fourth, God, our Partner in the greatest business in all the world, will strengthen our efforts with all the resources of Heaven itself. WE WILL NOT FAIL TO MAKE 1962 THE GREATEST YEAR IN OUR LIVES AND THE HISTORY OF THE CHURCH! It is God's will that we go forward.

I believe that this will be the greatest year that we have ever had in Church School because this is going to be the greatest year in EVANGELISM. New souls are going to be won and will become a part of the "redeeming community." Christian Education and Evangelism are inseparable. You and I are going to witness a miracle of God when 168 people make this their Church Home between now and April 15. They will need the educational program of our Church School, and we will do our best to minister to them.

Next Sunday, January 7, 1962, come to Church School and Worship prepared to sign a "PRAYER COVENANT CARD," signifying your desire to pray every day that 168 people will find God in our Church. It may well be that the someone close to you will make that decision because of your prayers and efforts during the "CRUSADE FOR CHRIST." Our world can be won for Christ if we express our sincerity by hard labor and earnest prayer. "Attempt great things for God — expect great things from Him!"

For fourteen weeks, beginning this Sunday, we will have SCHOOL FOR CHRISTIAN LIVING at 5:00 P.M. each Sunday. Sign a registration card and turn it in Sunday.

"THE FAMILY CHURCH" "AS FRIENDLY AS IT IS BEAUTIFUL"

olume 20 Fort Wayne, Indiana, January 11, 1962 Number 15

FROM THE PASTOR'S STUDY

ear Friends in Christ:

With bitter cold winds and snow across our fair city, and icy roads an added menace, ur Bible School and Worship Service were well attended. There were 233 persons who gned the prayer covenant cards and we know that there were several hundred more ho did not make it due to the weather. We will give you the opportunity to share with e others who will be praying every day for 168 souls to be won to Christ and the hurch by April 15! Here are several things you can do to help:

1. Pray every day that souls will be won to the Kingdom of God through your witness and that of the Church.
2. Turn in the names of people, whether family or friends, that you are praying will be won to Christ and the Church during this daring crusade!
3. Dare to enter into the program with courage and vision, believing that the Son of God was not jesting or lying when He said: "WHATSOEVER YOU SHALL ASK IN MY NAME, BELIEVING, YOU SHALL RECEIVE IT"!
4. Attend the Worship Services and the Bible Study Classes (morning and evening) come wind or weather! It is always thrilling to see a great attendance at worship when the weather is rough.
5. Remember, pray every day that 168 souls will be won to Christ and the Church by April 15th!

Did the weather keep you away from the School for Christian Living? Then you eally missed something! Those who attended said it was one of the finest yet! Remember, if you are really concerned about an intelligent and adequate faith, you must rovide the interest when your church provides the opportunity! We need to develop nough fire of conviction it will melt the ice in our hearts and the lead in our feet!

"I GO TO CHURCH"

"I Go to Church because I want my children to go to church. I want them to know something more of this life than business, sports, and selfish amusement.

I know only one institution that will teach them that they are divine. The church may interfere with their pleasure at times, but all things demand something of us in sacrifice. I go to church, and help support it, not only because I think the church needs me, but because I need it. It exists not only on dollars, but on men and women. It has been my source of inspiration and strength and comfort."

SUNDAY FAMILY DAY

Keep Sunday as Family Day. Next to th fact that the Lord's day is a time worship, what needs emphasizing most all today is that Sunday is Family Da It is THE day when family members co put aside their weekday routine and, i stead of going their separate ways, co spend time together to grow in Christlik love and devotion. What can be done f fuller family observance of the Lord's da Here are a few suggestions:

PRAY TOGETHER AS A FAMILY. A tend church together first of all. Join special family prayers and/or Bible rea ing.

RECREATION AND PLANNING. Sund is a time for re-creating mind and bod Enjoy recreation together. Do your fami planning on Sunday. This is a time discuss family affairs together. Anoth item on the agenda of the "family meetin might be what they'll do for discussio and for recreation the following Sunday CONCERN FOR OTHERS. Sunday is excellent day for family missionary wor Call a friend who's been absent fro church recently. Call on newcomers ar welcome them to the parish. Perhaps family visit to a sick or lonely friend relative for an hour one of two Sunda a month.

MARK SUNDAY AS "SPECIAL". Sund dinner should be a festive occasion f the whole family. Playing special mus on the phonograph, a flower or decorati for the dinner table, using your ingenui and that of each family member to he make Sunday "special".

"This is the day the Lord hath mad Let us be glad and rejoice therein."

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

Dear Christian Friends:

One of the main purposes of Christian Education is to help people discover the meaning of life, in general, and the purpose of their life in particular. G. K. Chesterson is reported to have advised some students seeking a new rooming house that their first question to the landlady should not be whether she served bacon regularly for breakfast and changed the bed linens every week, but, "Madam, what is your view of the universe?

Tell me how you will answer this question, and I will tell you if honesty is the policy you prefer. I will tell you what you will do when a crisis occurs. I will tell you what your attitude may be about life in general. I will tell you if you are easily offended. I will tell you how your children will be reared.

Christian Education seeks to give people a faith by which they may live victoriously and happily ever after. But first of all, we need to be able to answer this question satisfactorily. "What is your view of the universe?" "Where did the universe come from?" "What am I doing here?" "Where am I going?" "What is my purpose in life?" "What are my basic necessities?" "How far do I dare pursue comforts and conveniences?"

You see, Christian Education is the hope of the world, not because it seeks to merely train minds in the area of accepting creeds and vocalizing our religion. It is the hope of the world when it issues forth in faith that guides our living in every day. We may learn to sing the songs of the Church, recite scripture verses, and remember sacred stories as well as give logical reasons for our theological concepts. But we must begin to demonstrate that we are the salt of the earth and the light of the world!

Yes, Jesus called for demonstration, not debates. He challenged men to show results in their lives, not to give excuses for low-living. As a small boy, the station master in a train station used to thrill me as he called off the names of the cities where the outgoing train would stop. I said to myself, "My, he must be some fellow to have traveled to all those cities." As I grew older, I discovered to my disappointment that he had never been to a one of those cities. The lesson that Christian Education teaches us is that we should "get on board" and really live the life, not just talk about it. May we see you Sunday at 9:15 A.M.?

John W. Williams,
Associate-Minister

olume 20 Fort Wayne, Indiana, January 18, 1962 Number 16

FROM THE PASTOR'S STUDY

ear Friends in Christ:

Ours was a great experience of Christian worship this past Sunday morning! There ere nearly 500 of our fellow members in attendance, and Mr. and Mrs. Dempsey eaver came into the fellowship of our congregation. We bid them welcome and know ey will strengthen our fellowship even as we pray we will help to strengthen their es and witness for Christ. The worship services are a thrilling experience to most those inattendance. If you come to worship with a prayer for a Divine-Human enounter, and a prayer that your life will come under the spell of the Holy Spirit, you cy rest assured your hour spent in the House of the Lord will be rewarding and enching. On behalf of Christ, bring someone with you this week to the House of the rd!

If you are neglecting your spiritual life you are heading for spiritual desolation. he hour will come when you will desperately need the strength and help that can nly come from nearness to the living Christ. Be one of 500 at worship this Sunday orning!

A note for the men! The Christian Men's Fellowship will hold its breakfast meeting n January 27th at Manochio's Restaurant at 8 A.M. This gives you two weeks notice prepare for a wonderful fellowship with your Christian brethren, not only of First hristian Church, but also of the North Christian Church. We have the privilege of aving Dr. James A. Crain as the speaker for that morning. He headed up the Social ction Dept. of our national Brotherhood life for some 25 years. You will have an enyable and a profitable breakfast — AND HAVE NO DISHES TO WASH, FELLOWS! et your breakfast tickets this Sunday morning so we can prepare for the proper number!

Sunday the School for Christian Living will have the third in the series of seven essions. All who are in attendance feel that is one of the finest things we have yet atempted. Your absence is your loss indeed. Why not make it a point to be there this unday at 5 P.M.

Sunday's Sermon:"STRAWS IN THE WIND"

IF I WERE A COMMUNIST

Joseph Irvine Chapman

Our Christian faith teaches that the important values of life are spiritual and eternal. Communism teaches that the only important things are material. The areas of basic differences could be expanded and elaborated but enough has been said to point out the eternal clash between Christianity and communism.

Although I am not a Communist, never have been and never would be, I have been thinking about what I would do — if I were a Communist.

First of all, if I were a Communist, I would endeavor to destroy the Protestant Church. As a dedicated Communist, I would be most concerned about this because I would look at history and find that my cause fared better in non-Protestant countries than in Protestant ones.

Also, as a communist, I would fear the Protestant point of view of the concept of religious freedom, and the right of private interpretation, and the belief that men might obey God rather than the dictates of men.

Now how would I try to destroy Protestantism? Does it take much deductive power to imagine that the most effective way to destroy the enemy would be to "divide and conquer?"

Is there any more effective means to weaken any vital witness than to create division, mistrust and suspicion among those I set out to destroy?

Why should I enter into open warfare if I can get Proestants to fight among themselves and, in their divisiveness, to destroy one another?

Since true Christian faith is the opposite of everything that is truly communistic, I would carefully plant suspicion that respected Protestant leaders and groups are communistic. I would make charges that were half-truths, or truth taken out of context, and I would develope a strategy that would make an honest concern for real needs seem to make one a "fellow traveler."

Then, as I saw the gullible folk hurl charges at consecrated Christian leaders; as I saw "small" people in terms of true Christian faith destroy "big" people in terms of Christian leadership and commitment, I would be most satisfied. I would know that I was well on my way to achieving my objective.

When, oh when, will Christian people awaken to the fact that they are falling for "the Communist line" when they listen to the charges made against the respected leaders of American and world Christianity?

When, oh when, will thinking folk realize that the "apostles of discord," the experts in the "smear tactics," the folk who use the language of the orthodox Christian faith to destroy the very faith they profess, are the handmaidens of communism!

Think hard and carefully — if you were a Communist out to destroy your greatest enemy, which would be Protestantism, how would you go about it? Perhaps you might come to the same conclusion at which I have come.

The great fraud of our generation is that the National Council of Churches and respected denominations like the American Baptist Convention and others are tied to the communistic front organizations. God who gave us our minds with which to think, will not hold us guiltless if we are taken in by such a diabolic misconception.

The hour in which we live demands that we give full measure of devotion of mind and spirit to the truth that sets us free from all evil — including communism!

PASTOR'S CLASS

On Sunday morning during the Morn Worship Service, 10:30 to 11:45 our yo ages 10 to 13, who are interested in le ing how to become a Christian and Church membership are invited to att the Class of instruction which will be in Fellowship Hall. Rev. John Willi will teach this Class. The Class will r each Sunday morning for 6 weeks.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

Dear Christian Friends:

Work has begun on the new class rooms and they will be ready for occupancy in just a short time. The new rooms will provide us with space that we have been needing for a long time. Even this, we hope, will only provide temporarily for our growing and expanding program of Christian Education. With the membership potential of our Church, we should be moving progressively toward the 1,000 mark in Church School enrollment and participation. Our facilities for this kind of a program would be limited. But we look to the future with faith, knowing that our willingness will be matched with God's unfailing resources.

The work of the contractors should be completed in two weeks at the most and the seventh and eighth grades ought to be able to move into their new class rooms by the first Sunday in February. We are anxiously looking to that date.

It is almost impossible for us to imagine how involved and complicated movements such as this can be. It takes a lot of planning and serious thought to execute such a program. But I feel that we have made rapid progress despite all the necessary, intricate maneuvers of committees. Let me take this opportunity to thank all of those who have worked so faithfully to realize additional class room space for our young people.. May God bless you! Your greatest reward will be the Christian character that will be instilled in the lives of young people for ages to come. These class rooms will be dedicated for that purpose.

As we build additional class rooms in the Educational Facilities of our Church Building, may we build new rooms in our lives for ever expanding opportunities for the Saviour of the world to come and abide with us. It will do us no good whatsoever to build class rooms of brick, steel and mortar, if we do not build our lives for Christ. Expanded oportunity means increasing responsibility. It is a glorious thought to consider the changes that have been wrought in the lives of members of First Christian Church. Your spiritual growth has kept up with our material progress and the experiences of the past year have been closely akin to those of the New Testament pages where the miracles of God were demonstrated in human life.

Your are urged to take advantage of every spiritual opportunity that your Church makes available for you to grow into the likeness of Jesus the Christ. Three opportunities are available each and every Sunday: 9:15 A.M. Church School, 10:30 Worship and 5:00 P.M. School for Christian Living. Attend all three of these with the entire family. JOHN W. WILLIAMS riends of the Upward Way!

Once more the worship experience was a thrilling occasion! A full house and esponsive hearts always make for an inspiring service. This week has seen five people dded to our growing witness for Christ: Mr. and Mrs. Willis Wuthrick, Willis coming y confession of faith and baptism, and Mrs. Wuthrick coming by transfer of member- hip; Mr. and Mrs. J. Michael Rockwell, by transfer of membership from the North altimore Church of Christ in North Baltimore, Ohio; and Mrs. Bessie Hilfiker, trans- ring from the Linwood Christian Christian Church in Indianapolis. God bless them ll! Let us enlist these into our fellowship and into our work for the Lord.

"Master, which is the great commandment? Which comes first, which matters most?" his was the question a lawyer asked of Jesus. Do you remember the estimate of esus Himself, which commandment was the most important of all? Well, His answer as given in these words:

> "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God, with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like (or equal) unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. On these two COMMANDMENTS hang all the law and the prophets."

Why when Jesus gave the above as COMMANDMENTS do we dare relegate them o the category of idealism and sentimentalism. Why are men willing to hang them on heir walls as a motto, but reject them as practical commands of the Lord Jesus Christ? n commenting on these verses, Robert E. Goodrich, Jr. in his book, Lift Up Your Heart, oints out that these verses, or commands of Jesus, are to be observed by His followers, ot only when they feel like it or find it convenient to do so, any more than we are to efrain from murder or lying or adultery when we feel like it or find it convenient. Ie goes on to say: "There is a direct relationship, believe it or not, between the great ommandment and our pocketbooks. It is not possible to write a clearer statement of vhat we really love and care about than that which we write in our checkbooks. Our rue loves are revealed by our use of the material possessions which come our way."

Often men and women rely on their baptismal certificate to get them into heaven, ut I'm certain God will look beyond that into the stubs of our checkbooks — you see, vhat we do and what we say are very often two unrelated subjects. And what about ou?

WHEN I NEED GUIDANCE — "In All Thy Ways Acknowledge Him and He Shall Direct Thy Paths." — Proverbs 3:6

"I am an outdoor man and I find spiritual strength in being close to nature. Is it necessary to go to church to be right in God's sight?" — H. T. "Yours is an old question. You are not the first nor the last who would enjoy the benefits of Christianity without shouldering its obligations. The Bible says 'Christ loved the Church and gave Himself for it.' An institution for which the Son of God died cannot easily be written off as unimportant. I have heard many men say that they can worship God on a like as easily and handily as in church, but I have yet to see the first one doing it. They are usually fishing or boating or engaged in some kindred activity. In the church we are conscious of Christ's presence. In the Church is an atmosphere which is conducive to worship. In the Church the 'fellowship of kindred minds is like to that above.' Actually, it is not necessary to 'go to church' to be right in God's sight, but when you get right in His sight, you will seek out a Church where you will be strengthened and buttressed by other believers."

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

One of the highest privileges that can ever come to me is to be permitted to work with teen-agers. At this age, young people are very impressionable. The things they experience last forever and become the determining factors. If I could ever have it said of me that I had influenced some young person to make a noble decision, or if any young person decided to make the Christian Ministry his life, I would be thrilled beyond words. This has happened and it will happen again and again. Some adult will inspire and challenge young people forever to give themselves to Jesus Christ as a teacher, pastor, minister, missionary or evangelist. My prayer is that our young people will experience this thrill in their decisions.

Our Church, as a Church, has not fulfilled its total purpose until it begins to send men and women out to serve Christ! It is one thing to have people to unite with the Church by transfer of membership or profession of faith in Jesus as the Son of God. But it is quite another thing to fill the hearts of young people with such a burning, flaming passion to see others led to Christ that they offer themselves on the altar of Christianity as "living sacrifices!" The greatness of a Church cannot be measured in terms of how many people are "brought in," but in how many of these are "called to preach." As I see it, there is too much difference in the number who enroll in "The Christian University of Life" and the number who "graduate," receive their degrees and go out into the world under holy orders.

Since we celebrate "YOUTH WEEK," January 28 - February 4, it is my prayer that some parent, some young person will read this column and take these words seriously. Consider your life. What are you going to do with it? Is it yours to do with as you please? If it belongs to God, then why not decide today that you will be His servant for life? Prepare yourself for the Christian Ministry. The Master is here and He calleth for you!

Last Thursday evening, the Executive Committee met at my house and, after prayer and much thought, selected members of the CYF to serve as Chairmen of various committees. These young people will be installed on Sunday night, February 4, 1962. The Installation Service will be conducted in the Sanctuary immediately following School for Christian Living. We invite all parents and others who are interested in young people to be present. Young people need the reassurance that older young people are concerned about them and love them. Demonstrate this by your presence.

olume 20 Fort Wayne, Indiana, February 1, 1962 Number 18

FROM THE PASTOR'S STUDY

ear Friends:

Reading the great book of a martyred German pastor, Dietrich Bonhoeffer, The ost of Discipleship, one is forced to think and rethink his own theology. When this erman theologian came to baptism, for instance, he said the following:

> Baptism is not an offer made by man to God, but an offer made by Christ to man. It is grounded solely on the will of Jesus Christ as expressed in His gracious call. Baptism is essentially passive — being baptized, suffering the call of Christ. In baptism man becomes Christ's own possession. When the name of Christ is spoken over the candidate, he becomes a partaker in this Name, and is baptized "into Christ." From that moment on he belongs to Jesus Christ. He is wrested from the dominion of the world, and passes into the ownership of Christ."

Oh how wonderful it would be if men and women who have outwardly proclaimed ith in Jesus Christ, would inwardly surrender to His loving will. We "belong to Jesus hrist!" We are not our own! If Christ owns us and we are His, then every thought, very motive, every decision must be measured against His plan and purpose and will r our lives!

Too many want His peace and power, but without His program or plan! We say e believe in His eternal Word — but we ignore its teachings which are contrary to ur natural instincts, finding all kinds of excuses why God must not have meant what ie Scriptures seem to imply!

The little ditty of some years ago seems to lift up the proper theme for much of odern day living: "I'm forever blowing bubbles! Pretty bubbles in the air" — and the hurricane weather about us these days, our bubbles will soon burst and be lown away . . . much to our tragic loss!

IN HIS WILL IS OUR PEACE!

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

While reading a magazine entitled "PROTESTANT CHURCH BUILDINGS AND EQUIPMENT," I noticed a scene that was familiar. A little girl was sitting on the front pew in Church, and the Church just happened to be First Christian Church in Fort Wayne. You see, it was an advertisement for the company who built our pews. Scanning further, I looked for a carpet advertisement, but found none. The point is this: WE ARE MUCH MORE INTERESTED IN WHERE THE CHURCH SITS THAN IN WHERE IT STANDS!

If the Church of Jesus Christ is to move forward it must get on its feet first. A television comedian said that the surest way for a working man to get on his feet is to miss an automobile payment. This is not what I had reference to when I said that the Church must get on its feet. However, the saying might have some value here, too!

Dr. J. Wayne Drash, former minister of First Church in Birmingham, Alabama, once said, "The Church of Jesus Christ must stand for something, or it will fall for anything." Let me quote a few words from the letter of St. Paul to the Church at Ephesus: "Finally, be strong in the Lord and in the strength of his might. Put on the whole armor of God, that you may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil . . . . take the whole armor of God, that you may be able to withstand in the evil day, AND HAVING DONE ALL, TO STAND." (Ephesians 6:10, 13)

Much has been said in recent years regarding the positive approach to the affairs of the Church. We have shied away from any suggestion that the Church just might be AGAINST something. The task of Christian Education is to prepare people's minds and enable them to know what to stand for and what to stand against. If a thing is not right, never be ashamed to stand against it! If it is right, never be too timid to stand up and speak on its behalf. First, be sure that you know where you stand before you speak.

I once heard of a football team scoring a victory by 1-0. That's a strange score for football. To be sure, I had to check the calendar to see if it weren't in the middle of baseball season. We weren't! How was this done? The other team just didn't show up to play the scheduled game and they forfeited the game. Sitting? Or standing? Only you can answer that question. But be certain that when you stand that you adorn yourself with armor and might of God. Christian Education seeks to put the armor of God on your body and equip you for victoriously living the Christian life. See you at 9:15 A.M. each and every Sunday.

"THE FAMILY CHURCH" "AS FRIENDLY AS IT IS BEAUTIFUL"

THE END OF YOUR SEARCH FOR A FRIENDLY CHURCH — —

The above slogan has been printed on some publicity materials the church recently ıd printed. We printed it on our material because we believe it to be true. Yet one ould not be amiss to remind you that though you are familiar with things at First ıristian, many around you on Sunday Morning may not be! Never pass up one who a stranger to you. Shake their hands and give them a hearty smile and a glad elcome to the services. People are attracted to people and places where they feel ey are wanted! Let's make our slogan a part of our very lives, and our Church the ıd of the search of countless people for a friendly church.

We were gladdened by the coming of the Phillips family into our fellowship. Mr. ıd Mrs. Jack Phillips, Wayne, Gloria and Carolyn, were members of our Laud Christian hurch and we are grateful for their lives being added to our witness. We know they ill find a place of service here, for Carolyn has already gotten into the choir and to teaching in the Bible School. God bless them richly indeed.

So many of you have expressed your gratitude and joy at seeing our young en and women sharing in our worship service, that I wanted to say on the front age of the Tidings — "Thank You", and "Let's do it again, real soon!" Our young eople are among the finest anywhere, and our church is proud of them all! They are vital part of the church of today! May God bless them and keep them, always!

A DAD AND HIS LAD — One morning my small son said to me at breakfast, "Daddy, may I read to you? I got nine out of ten for reading at school yesterday." "Very good", said I, hardly glancing from my paper. "May I?" "Eh? May you what?" I demanded — being in haste, and wishful to glance over the news and finish breakfast in next to no time. "May I read to you?" "Well, not now, son! There's no time." So off I went to catch a bus. Home that evening, I told my little son that I would listen to his reading as soon as I had had my supper. But somebody called, and I had to see him. And then somebody else called, and I had to engage him. And finally, I went into my son's bedroom, and found him fast asleep, his cheeks wet with tears, a school reader open on the bed. Thus, through his bitterness, I learned my lesson — to love him a little more, and myself a little less.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

ear Christian Friends:

Across my desk come pamphlets of all pes and descriptions, week in and week it. Sifting through them, I detect a note insecurity and trouble. If you don't now it, our world is in turmoil. Perhaps never before, the Twentieth-Century-hristian faces facts that are heart-rend-g and soul-stirring. You read from rious reports all kinds of conflicting ccounts of the happenings around us. an a person really know the truth when sees it?

For such a situation just like this, Jesus oke, "You shall know the truth and e truth shall make yo u free." And gain, "I am the Way, the Truth and the fe." "No man comes to the Father but me." What a clear cut declaration! ese words come to us like a beam of ght to a man lost in the darkness. They re like an oasis in the middle of a esert.

Some have said that truth is relevant, nd I would agree. It is relevant to sus Christ. For a man's ability to scern truth and to arrive at a position here he is able to think clearly is de-rmined by his relationship to the Son God. When Jesus spoke the above ords, he was not talking about flesh nd blood relationships. He was not peaking of membership in some special ociety or citizenship in some state. He as talking about spiritual relationships, relationship established as the result the indwelling presence of God.

Long ago, the Prophet of God said, Having eyes, they do not see and having ars, they do not hear." Why was this ? Because the relationship between an and God was disconnected. Man ecomes oblivious to his world about him hen he ha s not experienced the new irth.

A right judgment in all things? Yes, it possible! Ultimate truth? Man can dis-over it, only when the eyes of the soul re opened to the source, Jesus Christ. hristian Education is not only the hope the world. It is the world's only alter-ative to destruction.

The Church of Jesus Chirst has a essage for you and your children. It ays, "There is a place where you can lant your feet and the sand will not ift under them, causing you to stumble." hat place is at the foot of the cross, here you must com e and take up your oss. For the truth of the matter is this: nly in conflict do we find comfort, only struggle do we find security. "We restle not against flesh and blood, but gainst agents from the very headquarters f evil."

"THE FAMILY CHURCH" "AS FRIENDLY AS IT IS BEAUTIFUL"

Volume 20 Fort Wayne, Indiana, February 15, 1962 Number 20

FROM THE PASTOR'S STUDY

Dear Friends in Christ:

Once more our hearts were gladdened by another great worship experience! The duet by Carl Smith and Mrs. Robert Cocherille was most beautiful, and the anthem by our wonderful choir was most inspiring. It also had as its theme the basic theme of the morning scripture lesson and the sermon. It's wonderful to be a part of a great fellowship like this one!

We welcome into our growing fellowship Mr. and Mrs. William King, both of whom were by confession of faith and Christian baptism. You'll be delighted to know that Mrs. King's first name is Fujie, and is a native of Japan. We welcome these splendid young people into our fellowship and pray for them a joyous experience in the fellowship of our great Church.

Have you noticed how smoothly and graciously our young men have been taking part in our worship service? They are indeed to be congratulated as they serve as junior deacons. The Church is proud of its grand group of gracious young people.

A thought to ponder: HUMAN BEINGS ARE IN SOME SENSE AKIN TO THE BATTERY IN A FLASHLIGHT: UNUSED, IT CORRODES. WHAT WE DO NOT USE IS WASTED: WHAT WE DO NOT SHARE WE CANNOT KEEP.

Sunday will be the most climatic moment of many of our young people's lives. They have studied the church and its doctrines and beliefs for some six weeks with our associate minister John Williams. This Sunday is decision Sunday for them. Their parents will know, of course, that no other decision their child will ever make will rival this one in lasting importance. Don't hinder your son or daughter by your indifference. Help them to commit their lives to God through Jesus Christ and His Church.

THEME
"SHARE IN CHRISTIAN LOVE . . . . THAT THEY MIGHT HAVE LIFE"

Milk is a lifeline from lands of abundance to people in need. Church World Service milk stations help to nourish 140,000 children every day. Milk powder is furnished for other children in hospitals, orphanages and schools.

More than two million refugees from China and Tibet receive food rations through Share Our Surplus program. Families are saved from starvation with noodles made from our surplus wheat, crackers fortified with vitamins, canned meat, corn oil and rice.

Disaster Strikes—Victims need help now! When floods, typhoons, fires, hurricanes and tidal waves sweep away the homes and livelihoods of large numbers of people — food, medicine, blankets and clothing are rushed to troubled areas by Church World Service.

These are but a few of the avenues through which we share with those less fortunate throughout the world by our offerings to WEEK OF COMPASSION — One Hour of Sharing!

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD

Dear Christian Friends:

One of the most discouraging factors that we have to deal with in the Church and the Ministry is the present day attack on the so-called-social gospel. I am sure that Jesus Christ, Himself, would come under attack today if He were visibly present, performing some of the miracles that focussed so much attention on His Ministry.

Far too often, we have been guilty of relegating the Christian Gospel to one corner of life or another. Some have paid much attention to gospel of social reform, while other have accented only the theological aspect of the Christian Gospel. But the truth of the matter is that we cannot afford to neglect either! Humanitarian efforts without spiritual and theological content is void and empty. While on the other hand, theorizing and philosophizing without social action is hollow and barren.

If we relegate Christianity to the area of meeting the physical needs of man, then we have no distinguishing mark between the Church and communism, for this is their goal, too! On the other hand, if merely attempt to verbalize our religion with theological arguments and repetition of the ancient creeds, we discover that our religion is nothing more than ceremonialism and lip service. About this, James had this to say: "For if a man with gold rings and in fine clothing comes into your assembly, and a poor man in shabby clothing also comes in, and you pay attention to the one who wears fine clothing and say, 'Have a seat here, please,' while you say to the poor man, 'Stand there,' or 'Sit at my feet,' have you not made distinctions among yourselves?" And again James says: "If a brother or sister is ill-clad and in lack of daily food, and one of you says to them, 'Go in peace, be warmed and filled,' without giving them the things needed for the body, what does it profit? So faith by itself, if it has no works, is dead."

This is what I like about the "WEEK OF COMPASSION." In the name of Christ, through it, we seek to give the needy of the world the things they ought to have, and WE GIVE OUR CHARITABLE EFFORTS A SPIRITUAL CONTENT! The hope of the world lies with Christian people who are willing to put the GO into the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Christ's Gospel is the full Gospel. It is interested in the whole of man. We cannot ignore one and accent the other. Support the "WEEK OF COMPASSION" with all your strength. See you in Church School at 9:15 A.M. next Sunday.

John W. Williams

FIRST CHRISTIAN TIDINGS

"THE FAMILY CHURCH" "AS FRIENDLY AS IT IS BEAUTIFUL"

lume 20 Fort Wayne, Indiana, February 22, 1962 Number 21

FROM THE PASTOR'S STUDY

Sunday morning there were thirteen young people who made the decision to bene followers of Christ. These young people chose one of life's highest privileges, mbership in the Body of Jesus Christ. We are most proud to see them make this in-iate decision to walk the road that leads Godward. The Church is proud to extend velcoming hand to the following: Deborah Burkett, Nicholas Church, Marlene Crouse, riel Crouse, Cheryl Franklin, Connie Hicks, Linda Jenkins, Mildred Keebortz, Steven dwig, Nancy Skelton, Craig Wascovich, Deborah Waechter, Jane Weicker.

This Sunday evening there will be no School for Christian Living. This is the first our cultivation calls. We will meet for a carry-in dinner at 6:30 and then go out to ke brief, friendly, cultivation calls. We hope that we can have several hundred ople who believe enough in the Kingdom of God that they will go out into the homes this community to extend a hand of welcome to the services of this great church.

This Sunday completes the Week of Compassion. Many made their gifts towards lping the hungry, the naked, the thirsty, the needy, in various parts of the world.
you have not made your gift, then this is the last opportunity to share in the 1962 eek of Compassion! Let's make a grand and glorious response to God's call for e "least of these."

As I write this page I am listening to the re-entry of Lt. Col. Glenn. The pages of story are being rewritten daily. The incredible soon will be the daily activity of odern men. The Church of the living God must be able to challenge an age such as is one. It must lift up the necessity of personal involvement in the struggle for a bet-r world. The struggle for freedom is the struggle of "every-man, not the struggle a few."

HE'LL BLESS ALL YOU DO!

We all have a talent—or five—or ten,
To give to the Lord and to share wi men.
It may not be teaching, music, or art,
It may be a smile that is right from t heart.
You may not be able to build or sew.
But you may have a "warm personalit glow:
A word for a stranger, a soft-whisper prayer,
A sharing of sorrow to show that y care.
Such seemingly small things are real "t ents" too.
So use them for Jesus. He'll bless you do.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD

It was certainly a high joy and privilege to see thirteen young lives dedicated to Jesus Christ at the close of the worship hour last Sunday. For six weeks we have shared ideas together and we have experienced a wonderful fellowship as we studied the Church and its Founder, Jesus Christ.

These young people came forward to express their belief in Jesus Christ as their Savior and pledged their willingness to follow Him throughout all of life. The decision that they made was their decision, and I know that each one prayerfully considered the implications before making this great step. For no matter what other choices they may face in life, this is the most important one that they will ever make. The rest of life and eternity depends upon it, and they have chosen well!

Beginning Sunday, March 4, 1962, I will begin another six-weeks session on the meaning of Church Membership for young people between the ages of 12 and 14. This class, like the one just completed, will be held in Fellowship Hall during the worship hour. It is open to all young people regardless of their relationship to the Church. I want to extend a personal invitation to those who are considering uniting with the Church during the Lenten Season. Those who participate in this class and desire to commit themselves to Jesus Christ will be coming forward at the close of worship on Palm Sunday, April 15, 1962.

One thing that we have emphasized in the classes we have held, and we will continue to do so, is that our relationship to Christ and the Church involves personal choice. This is a choice that each person must make for himself. No one else can make this choice for you, nor can it be made for them. Each person must be confronted with Christ and the decision to follow Him must be made individually.

For twenty centuries, this has been the driving impetus of the Christian Church. Christianity has always presented man with a choice. The Ministry can never make the decision that must be made by the one who becomes a follower of Christ. Christianity has existed on the basis of a personal relationship to God through His Son, and you, by your choice, establish this contact.

So, in the continuing line of history, we stand in the midstream of life, ever seeking to exalt Christ that He might draw all men unto Himself. What a glorious privilege it is to share the "Good News" that all people, by choice, have the right to become sons and daughters of God. See you Sunday at 9:15 A.M.

FIRST CHRISTIAN TIDINGS

"THE FAMILY CHURCH" "AS FRIENDLY AS IT IS BEAUTIFUL"

olume 20 Fort Wayne, Indiana, March 1, 1962 Number 22

FROM THE PASTOR'S STUDY

Sunday was a day of real inspiration to all of us at First Christian Church. Some f the reasons were so apparent: the fine anthem, written by Mr. Wetzel, the solo by arl Smith whic htouched the hearts of us all, the five persons who came into our rowing fellowship: Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Waechter, and their doughter, Stephanie; liss Ann Chevalier, and Mrs. Alan Sigrist; and above all one could sense the Pres- nce of the Spirit of God in a most real way. This week has been different for many f us because of the strength we found in the worship experience Sunday. You can hare this wonderful experience by being present this coming Sunday in the worship xperiences of your church.

The first of our cultivation calls has been made by the members of our Church, nd once again it was thrilling to see the social hall filled with those who went out o extend an invitation on behalf of Christ to our neighbors in the city. The Church s grateful for those who participated, and I know that those who went calling were ware of the blessing of their God upon their visits. God bless everyone of you, and eep up the good work!

A word about Sunday (Any Sunday):

—Sunday was made for man and not man for the Lord's Day (Mark 2:27)

—Sunday was made for man's free and glad advantage, not to lose and ignore it.

—Sunday presents an opportunity for expressing your aspirations and faith in fellowship with the Family of God.

—Sunday should be for all Christian people a day of resurrection: resurrection from the dust of earthiness, in which life may so often be buried, into the morning sunlight of the soul's awakening consciousness of new life as a child of God.

—Sunday commemorates the triumphant Conquest of Death by Jesus Christ our Lord —Does not your daily routine remind you of your own martality? Vacant places alongside your work bench, the missing friend, etc.

—Sunday reaffirms the Christian's faith in IMMORALITY, through the gift of the Son of God — don't treat it so lightly!

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD:

ear Christian Friends:

Recently, in religious publications, the rms "post-Christian" and "post-Protestnt" era have been appearing with freuency. It would seem that in the minds some that the Church of Jesus Christ as failed to fulfill its mission.

In some measure, we must stand up to is accusation like men and make an ccount for ourselves. Truly, the march atheistic communism across much of urope and Asia is terrifying. Down in ur southernmost reaches we read signs aying, "COMMUNISM IS 90 MILES FROM UR SHORES!" Startling, isn't it? A ose look at recent history reveals that uch of the world's unChristian action has emmed from nominally Christian counies. It makes us ask the question: "Is hristianity really relevant?" With all eriousness, we begin to wonder if the ays of our Master are "practical."

In a recent article entitled, "PROTESTNTISM'S AMAZING VITALITY," Kenneth cott Latourette, the greatest living church istorian, says something in defense of ie Christian mission. First of all, there as never been a Christian era. Even the oman Empire was only superficially hristian. The rise of monasticism was protest against the non-Christian lives the millions who bore the Christian ame. In the sense of mankind's conrmity to the Christian faith, there has, ien, never been a Christian era.

He goes on to show some signs of enouragement, signs that indicate to me, iat we are living on the verge of the reatest day in history. Sign # 1. No ther religion has ever had as extensive geographic spread as has Christianity the Twentieth Century. Sign # 2. Christianity is more deeply planted among iore peoples than ever before. Sign #

In no country — with the possible exeption of North Korea (where we do not ave data) — has Christianity been rased by communism. Sign # 4. Creave minorities are appearing in the Churches — proof of continuing vitality. Sign # 5. As never before Christians re approaching an answer to our Lord's igh priestly prayer "that they all may e one." Sign # 6. Christ is having a vider effect upon mankind than ever beore.

In all of these hopeful symptoms your Church is taking a vital part. Effective Christian Education for you and your famly enable you to participate more graphcally. See you in Church School at 9:15 A.M. next Sunday.

JOHN W. WILLIAMS,
Associate - Minister

One trouble with a lot of people is that they are more interested in speed than in direction.

It may be well to remind ourselves that we can't go the second mile until we have gone the first.

It is wonderful how Saint Paul covered so much ground and accomplished so much without a car.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD

In the past few months the extreme thoughts in political life have been given much attention through public news media. I am wondering if we haven't relegated, in our thinking, the Church of Jesus Christ to a status of irrelevance. Could it be that many individuals are finding in extreme groups a quality of "courage" that the Church has not demonstrated? Is the Church failing to fill the "spiritual Vacuum" in people's lives, and they are turning to some movement outside, or in addition to the Church?

Let me say this: If the extreme approach is the thing that makes a movement attractive, why do we need to search outside the fellowship of the body of Christ? Re-read the Gospels and the Acts of the Apostles. Re-read the Epistles of Paul. Re-read the Book of Revelation. Is there any note in them that would suggest that the followers of Christ in that day or this are to be less than rugged and courageous?

Dangerous circumstances surrounded the Church in its infancy! Just as the life of Jesus was almost smothered by the ruthless slaying of infants under Herod's orders, so the Church was almost snuffed out by persecution and torture. In spite of these threatening spectres, the Gospel of Christ WAS PREACHED, WAS BELIEVED and WAS OBEYED. The Church survived everything that Satan could array against it. This was so, not because people were interested in preserving an organization, but because they were involved in a fellowship that committed itself to witnessing to the truth.

"While Hitler was rising to power the Roman Catholic Bishop of Berlin, Conrad Count von Preysing, publicly summed up in one article after another the whole Nazi doctrine, and then as Bishop of Berlin he called it "a terrible creed," and he ended by saying, "I must warn you against such theories . . . Change your mode of thinking! This is my appeal to you." So, the rebirth of Christian emphasis on doctrine is not first of all the Christians' doing; our enemies have forced it on us. Communism is not only a tyranny it is a creed;. It challenges not alone the Church's ethic but the Church's theology. If we are to meet that challenge we must proclaim the truth, as we see it, about what is everlastingly so. My FRIENDS, ANY RELIGION THAT CANNOT DO THAT TODAY IS A WASHOUT." These are the words of Dr. Emerson Fosdick.

The great difference between courage and fanaticism is intelligence. The Church School seeks to make that difference in your life. See you at 9:15 A.M. this Sunday.

FIRST CHRISTIAN TIDINGS

"THE FAMILY CHURCH" "AS FRIENDLY AS IT IS BEAUTIFUL"

olume 20 Fort Wayne, Indiana, March 15, 1962 Number 24

FROM THE PASTOR'S STUDY

"Other issues can wait, and other problems can stand delay, man's main race is etween his powers for evil and his powers for good — the race is close to a decision — e bomb is fused. The time is short."

—Dr. Harold Urey, physicist.

Today, every single person is making an historic choice, which, in the end, will etermine the fate of mankind. By our words and our actions we are deciding eparably for war or peace. The problem is not posed by bombs or missiles, nor their ethods of control, the problem is implicit in the very nature of man, and in the history nations. The solution lies in clearing away the historic cobwebs which cloud and edevil man's view of life, and taking a fresh view of man's predicament in this odern world. Every facet of life reminds us that man's chief fears are not of the mensity of the universe, but of the malignity of his own aggressive instincts. You e, the church is at work at the very heart of the world's problems — changing human ature, and building a will to fellowship in a community of mutual respect and trust.

Thank God for the Church. Thank God for your Church and its community of llowship. Any person not attending Sunday's worship experience missed one of the ost thrilling worship services I have ever attended. The sanctuary was filled by the pirit of God, and vast numbers have said it was a service in which their hearts were rangely moved. The choir was great and Bob Cocherille was surely the instrument the Holy Spirit. When people say, the solo, or the choir, moved me very deeply, en I know that they were the instruments of God's peace and power. You know — I ink I'd come every Sunday to worship in this great Church, even if I weren't the inister!

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

Dear Christian Friends:

During one of the campaigns to deepen the spiritual life of his Church, a young Alabama Minister once used the slogan, "DON'T MAKE EXCUSES, MAKE GOOD!" Has it ever occurred to you that one of the great downfalls on the road to spiritual depth and vitality is the ability to make excuses for failure. Too often we discover that it is easier to make excuses than it is to make a success.

If we are ever to make a success out of our spiritual lives, we must begin to accept the responsibility for our own lives. Passing the buck will not help us pass the test. Abraham Lincoln put it aptly when he explained the character of a village scoundrel by saying: "He's got the can't-help-its." Shakespeare's word is appropriate, for we often talk as if we were "villians by necessity; fools by heavenly compulsion." Because of this, we get ourselves into fixes of one sort or another trying to please ourselves and then we look around for somebody to blame for our troubles.

Listen to Adam's complaint: "The woman thou gavest me" is driving me to distraction. Neurotic women insist, "The children thou gavest me" are ungrateful. "They are making me miserable." The ineffective workman explains his failure by complaining, "The foreman had it in for me." The lazy student says he "flunked" because "My chemistry teacher did not like me." The spoiled child explains the fact that the neighborhood children pick on him by claiming they are "roughnecks.' A poorly adjusted woman blames her unhappiness on the fact that "My mother never really loved me," as if that ended the matter.

Christian Education means growth and growth means change. But we provide ourselves with "bullet-proof" alibis when we seek to escape responsibility for our personal lives. First of all, we say, "You can't change human nature." Secondly, we cry, "Human nature being what it is, it is unfair to put character to the test." Thirdly, we echo, "Character is merely a product of the social environment."

The Christian answer is this: "YOU CAN CHANGE HUMAN NATURE." This is the essence of the Church. Christ died to change men. "CHARACTER GROWS WHEN IT IS UNDER STRESS." Beautiful music doesn't come from loose violin strings. "CHARACTER, MULTIPLIED BY PEOPLE, CHANGES SOCIAL ENVIRONMENT." "You are the salt of the earth . . . You are the light of the world." And Christian Education is the HOPE of the world. See you Sunday at 9:15 A.M.

UNIFIED PROMOTION "CERTIFICATE OF RECOGNITION" AWARDED

ar Colleague:

Sincere and hearty congratulations to you personally and to your church.

Your congregation was one of 603 churches in our brotherhood which gave to ified Promotion more than ten per cent of the total money administered by the church.

Unified Promotion represents the operating budgets of 69 brotherhood agencies. ese agencies in their operating budgets represent between 65 and 70 pr cent of all the work done in brotherhood outreach, including capital and non-Unified Promo- n agencies.

Since Unified Promotion represents such a larger percentage of the total work empted by our brotherhood, we give recognition only to churches which contribute least ten per cent of their total funds to these various causes.

Out of more than 5,000 co-operating congregations you can easily see yours is no all recognition to be receiving recognition for your support of the "bread and butter" dgets of the causes which make us a brotherhood.

Congratulations and Gods' richest blessings on you as you move from victory to ctory for Jesus Christ.

Cordially yours,
SPENCER P. AUSTIN

THOSE WE LOVE THE BEST

They say the world is round — and yet
I often think it square;
So many little hurts we get
From corners here and there.
But there's one truth in life I've found
While journeying East and West,
The only folks we really wound
Are those we love the best.
We flatter those we scarcely know,
We please the passing guest
And deal full many a thoughtless blow
To those we love the best.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

ear Christian Friends:

Stated simply, man's purpose for existace is directly related to his Creator. Untached, we become embroiled in an ndless treadmill of events that lead us where. Several years ago, I stood in e railway terminal in Atlanta, Georgia. y predicament was frustrating to a oung man away from home for the first ne. For you see, I had the misfortune having my ticket torn apart, and it ainly read: "VOID IF DETACHED." eedless to say, the ticket was accepted nd my sense of frustration was ended.

But isn't this one illustration of modern an's predicament? Away from home, etached from God's purposes for life, man nses that his moments are wasted. This ustration is expressed by the chicken ho said, "What's the use? Yesterday egg, tomorrow a feather duster." Some e else once said, "Man apart from God ecomes nothing but a glorified sewer stem." A daily newspaper carries a lumn entitled, "How to Add Years to our Life." Christian Education seeks to dd Life to Your Years by helping you to alize that you are a child of God and at He has a purpose for your life.

Churchmanship has lagged at this point. e have been negligent in educating eople to live with the conviction that the nristian religion goes beyond the baptisand continues to mold and transform e even to the grave and beyond. Chrisan people must awake and realize that od does have something to say about e choices after we identify ourselves th the Church through membership.

It is one thing for leaders in Christian ducation to emphasize the doctrines that eal with God, the Bible, Jesus Christ, the oly Spirit and the Church. But we must beyond this point and emphasize the why" of man's existence. Is man just a orified sewer system? Each individual ust decide! If he is to be a child of od, living creatively and purposefully, is he must decide, too!

Being a Christian is more than a oneot-in-the-arm experience. It invilves the ct of becoming." At every turn in the ad, every cross-roads and every fork, an must decide. If he is to be a child God, his decision must be centered in e will of God. What is the will of God r my life? That question must stare us the face every day. That's the reason e have adult classes in our Church chool. For life goes on and so do we, ut where?

See you and your family at Church chool and Worship next Sunday.

John W. Wililams, Associate-Minister

"THE FAMILY CHURCH" "AS FRIENDLY AS IT IS BEAUTIFUL"

lume 20 Fort Wayne, Indiana, March 29, 1962 Number 26

FROM THE PASTOR'S STUDY

ar Friends:

Every now and then one comes across a statement that seems to spotlight what one lieves. Recently I read the statement of Matthew Arnold: "Wandering between two rlds, one dead, the other powerlss to be born."

Can you think of anything that is more descriptive of our age? We see the world yesterday dying about us, what with its feudalism, its paternalism, its bitter race risions, its creedal divisions, etc. But we see the new world without the power to born. It lacks the strength to build a world of justice and opportunity for all, a rld where class and religious bigotries can be laid to rest. If around us we see idence of an age that is dying, can we not believe that the awful tensions of this e are the result of the powerless birth-throes of a world united in the common good?

Here is a thought to ponder: "No vital force comes into the figure of Jesus unless nan breathes into it all the hate or all the love of which he is capable. The stronger e love, or the stronger the hate, the more life-like is the figure which is reproduced. r hate as well as love can write a life of Jesus." —Albert Schweitzer.

Yes, hate and disappointment and discouragement often write a false figure of us. It is for the followers who love the Lord to put back into the figure of our Lord the love and joy they can muster. They must come in obedience to do His holy ll — and do it in enthusiastic joy! No long-faced, sad-countenanced men and women n adequately reflect the image of our Lord. To know Him is to love Him, and to ve Him is to come to know Him. What does your portrait of Jesus say to those who ow you best?

HOW TO HAVE A LIVING CHURCH

1. Always attend.
2. Always come well ahead of starti time.
3. Come expectantly, expecting to of yourself to God in service.
4. Accept office when called thereto a serve faithfully the decisions of the ficers, even though they may not ways be your personal judgments.
5. When you visit other churches, obser helpful suggestions for your ov church. So treasure your own chur that to be absent from its services worship is a minus factor in any wee
6. So do the work of a good lavm that the minister need not do all t work but is free to do the work which he was called.
7. Sit up as near the front as possib and sing out on all hymns.
8. Always tithe, pledge in advance, p in advance, and — if you are abse — remember that the church's e penses will continue.
9. Always encourage your minister. will have enough discouragemer from other sources.
10. Speak up for the fine things abc your church; the weak points are cc spicuous enough.
11. Win all the people you can to Chr and the Church, no matter who yo minister is. You are commiting the to Christ and the Church and not your minister.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD

Dear Christian Friends:

We are fast aproaching Easter! We are now in the midst of the part of the Church Year that some call Lent. Traditionally, some communions have observed this season, while others have ignored it. For those who have observed it, the season has held an attraction for it invites followers of Christ to spiritually discipline themeselves.

I, for one, have held to the idea that the entire year should be devoted to this effort, rather than spending ten and one-half months of the year living as we please, making one grand and glorious stab at the effort toward Christian living in the days just before the Church celebrates the Resurrection of Jesus.

However, I do believe that the Lenten Season does have value if it causes people to re-evaluate themselves and prayerfully commit themselves to the Way of the Master. You might put it like this: a runner in a race must run the entire race, but he does make a beginning somewhere. The tragedy of Lent is that too many of us have the feeling that Easter signals the end of the race, rather than the beginning. Just take a look at the attendance figures of any Church for any year on the Sunday after Easter if you don't believe this!

Far too often we have confused self-appointed material privation with spiritual excellence. We believe that somehow, if we just do without eating certain foods or refrain from doing certain things for a brief period, that this, in itself, will produce dynamic Christian character. Let us be quick to recognize the falacy in this reasoning. If this be true, we would all be better off spiritually in jail where the comforts of life are denied. The monastic approach to Christianity would demonstrate its excellence.

The other day, I heard a man humorously remark that he had given up eating watermelon for Lent. Perhaps this is indicative of our attitude. We give up what we can't have or don't want anyway to deepen our Christian faith. It reminds me of the man who turned down an $8,000 a year job to keep a $5,000 a year position and informed the Church Financial Secretary that he was giving $3,000 a year to the Church.

And I'm not so sure that God's arithmetic works only in the area of subtraction. We are told to add Christian graces to our lives. We might begin by adding the ethical content of the Gospel as well as the theoretical. In this category, it could be added attend Church School each Sunday at 9:15 A.M.

FROM THE MINISTER'S STUDY

ar Friends:

The Great Day of Decision for Christ is almost here. There have been many thrill- g commitments of life for our Lord Jesus Chrst. Several score of fine men and women, ys and girls have committed their lives to the Kingdom of God. Now comes the untdown! Sunday morning begins the last week of preparation for the greatest max to a program of evangelism our church has ever known.

The schedule for Bible School this coming Sunday will be different. Here it is:

9:15 — 9:45 CLASS PERIOD

9:45 — 10:20 GENERAL ASSEMBLY

— Ushers will be sent to each class to usher the classes into the Sanctuary.

— The opportunity to commit life to Jesus will be given, and also the opportunity for transfer of membership. This will be a thrilling experience. Be in YOUR place promptly.

Sunday's Sermon: "THE MEANING OF CALVARY"

We will consider the meaning of life in the light of the purposes of God. We will y to see how Calvary reminds us that the measurement of success and failure is timately beyond history. The cross demands a voice in every decision we are called on to make, and in every relationship where life is seriously concerned. May we unt on you being present to share in this quest for a fuller appreciation of the Cross n yon Judean hillside?

HRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

t this time of the year, one should se all the glorious privileges that be- g to the Christian. To recapture the nificance of the events surrounding the week of our Lord's earthly journey, must certainly share His Spirit. In nall way, we come to catch a glimpse t through the re-enactment of the Last per in the Upper Room. After the per, Jesus and his disciples retired to arden of prayer, Gethsemane.

humble imitation of that august nt, our Church sets the Lord's Table he "Upper Room" each year on the rsday night before the "Resurrection day." In addition, this year our rch is preparing a "Garden of Pray- It will be observed as we partici- ed in the Chain of Prayer last fall. At P.M. following the Lord's Supper on il 19 we will begin a continuous iod of prayer — 30 minute intervals — will continue until 7:00 A.M. on Easter day. There will be 115 thirty minute ods available. You will be permitted select one of these periods during rch School or after the Worship Ser- e for the next two Sundays. Act soon! et me share with you a quotation from Harry Emerson Fosdick. "If one says t in the crisis of his last week in Jeru- em Jesus turned to prayer in the Gar- of Gethsemane, the answer is that nly he did not turn to it as an un- ustomed, emergency measure. Note brevity of his praying! He faced an rgency indeed; there was no long e for supplication; it was too late for to have broken an untraveled path the presence of the Father. He could y so briefly yet so powerfully in the den because prayer had been his it before. When, therefore, the ambush s sprung and the terrific crisis was him, his feet followed a familiar path d his words were few: "Not my will, but ne, be done." What reorientation of a moment of prayer can work in one whom it is habitual! But if one is to re this experience when he critically ds it, he must have known it before." Will you be one of the 115 who will n Jesus in the "Garden of Prayer"? Take vantage of this spiritual opportunity. s not a trick or gimmick. You are not ed to "promote" any special program, you are invited by the Master, Himself, share this opportunity to enrich your ritual life. Pray for yourself and your ow Christians. ODE . . . to Mrs. Lillian Scott (Recognizing and honoring her on her 35t anniversary as Organist of First Christia Church).

Three decades and five our organ keys
Have known her steady hand;
And the music of the bells she's raised
Across our blessed land.

For weddings and for sadder days
Her music has been given . . .
The notes eternal have pealed forth
To lead us on toward Heaven.

And preachers come and elders go in
One ethereal river;
But still the organ's music swells
As though t'would last forever.

We love you dearly, Mrs. Scott — of thi
You may be sure;
Your notes have raised us to the skie
Or dropped us to the floor!

And some day on another shore
We'll hear a glad amen,
And we will sing anew the songs
We used to sing "back then."

Then the choirs of all the ages will Know the Master's hand;
And faith triumphant o'er our fears
Will find the Promised Land.

The heavenly hosts will sing with glee
A new and glad refrain,
And we will know the ones we've "lost
And welcome them again.

And in the midst of all this joy
The organ's thunderous voice shall ris
As Handel directs the Hallelujah by th
Chorus in the skies.

On the organ keys shall rest the hands
Of the finest of the lot . . .
Whose gift of earth shall gladden heaven-
Our own Dear Mrs. Scott!

ar Friends In Christ:

How can one casually write of the wonderful things in store for our church as our usade for Christ progresses? As I write this on Tuesday afternoon I am thrilled the knowledge that the callers led 38 people to make decisions for Christ and the urch on Monday evening! You should have seen the joy of their hearts reflected their faces as they returned from the Lord's vineyard! Only the Spirit of the Lord uld bring such wonderful results, and the joy we share comes from Him.

What a week to receive the doctor's orders to remain silent for a week or ten ys! Seems my throat needs a rest — "not a word, and not a whisper, and not even clearing of the throat" — said the throat specialist! My wife often puts it in other rminology, like "Ah, shut up!" You see the doctor has learned how to say the same ng, but in softer tones. If you speak to me and I don't seem to be speaking loudly ough, there's nothing wrong with your ears — I'm just not talking aloud! I have s permission to preach Sunday, but only if it is a short, short sermon (Alma says I n't have any of those kind!) . . . and only if I lean heavily on the speaking system! working on the length of the sermon, and Mr. Tharp and Mr. Heller will have to the microphone! This Sunday ought to be fun for everyone!

This Sunday you will see another TRIUMPHANT ENTRY OF JESUS into many arts and many homes! It will be one of our greatest days ever! Be in your place r a thrill of a lifetime!

Remember, there will be two worship services:

8:00— 9:10 A.M.

10:30—11:45 A.M.

Sunday's Sermon: "AN UNHAPPY CORONATION"

Sunday's Early Service Sermon: "THE CHOSEN CROSS"

SACRIFICIAL SERVICE

The Christian Women's Fellowship will observe the annual Sacrificial Service, Tuesday evening, April 17, at 7:30, in the Sanctuary.

The Service will open with music for meditation by Mrs. Robert Scott. A litany, "The Light of The World" will be led by Mrs. John Williams. Rev. George Wascovich will preside at the Communion Table for observance of the Last Supper. A Candlelighting service will be presented by Mrs. Wascovich and Mrs. Helmuth. Mrs. Henry Schryver will furnish special music, accompanied by Mrs. Scott, at the organ.

All members and friends are welcome.

HOW DO YOU SAY "THANKS?"

The Choir, at their monthly Coffee Hour held in the home of Rev. and Mrs. George Wascovich, paid tribute to our own Mrs. Scott. This coming Easter will be her 35th year as our organist, playing the mighty music of the Master as only she can. 35 years of unfailing loyalty and love and time to serve her Lord through her music.

The Choir presented Mrs. Scott with a beautiful purse and gloves to express in a small way our gratitude and appreciation, but, honestly, "How Do You Say Thanks?"

We thank God for her desire to serve Him with her God-given talent.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD

Dear Christian Friends:

Pondering the last week in the earthly life of Jesus Christ, our minds naturally turn to the Cross and its meaning for us. In the Hebrew Letter, chapter twelve, verse two, the writer says, "Who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross."

Just a casual glance would cause us to observe at first impulse that Jesus accepted death on the cross as an alternative to joy. But the Greek, as well as the English, makes possible another translation. Could this verse possibly mean "Jesus endured the cross for the joy that was in it?" According to our modern philosophy this sounds like so much nonsense, utterly impossible.

Since the cross was a combination of every conceiveable type of torture, combining ignominy and shame, throbbing pain and burning thirst, noisome, buzzing insects, and long, slow hours of suspended helplessness, almost beyond human endurance, so that death would come ss a welcome relief, who could ever see any pleasure in such a thing?

I do not believe that the cross was some dramatic change from the normal routine of the lift of Jesus. Neither was prayer in the garden. They were representative experiences of the whole of the life of Jesus. Men seem to forget that Jesus lived a life of supreme joy and happiness. True, he was a "man of sorrows, acquainted with grief," but he was never able to attract little children by displaying a perpetual, pious portrait. Even the Pharisees accused him of being a glutton and a wine-bibber, because they couldn't understand his enthusiasm and zest for life without overindulgence.

You don't invite a "kill-joy" to a wedding feast ,either! When we limit the religious content of life to the ceremonial, we are often prone to over-emphasize the limitations, taboos and restrictions of a cheerless law. This is exactly what the Pharisees did.

Jesus demonstrated, climactically that the only way to abiding joy and happiness was through submission to God's will wherever that may lead us. The cross was not the will of God, but it was God's will that Jesus should remain faithful to the end. In this was the joy of Jesus manifested. Now what does this mean to us? "Take up your cross daily and follow me," is the formula for happiness. Christian service brings joy untold.

See you in Church School this and every Sunday.

Associate-Minister

"THE FAMILY CHURCH" "AS FRIENDLY AS IT IS BEAUTIFUL"

ume 20 Fort Wayne, Indiana, April 19, 1962 Number 29

FROM THE PASTOR'S STUDY

r Friends in Christ:

Sunday lifts up anew the grandest hope that man has ever held — that life is of death! Christian faith rests upon the truth that the Son of God could not be d by the tomb! And because He lives we will live also! Thank God for a faith allows one to look beyond the valley of the shadow into the sunlight of a brighter orrow!

It was Victor Hugo who wrote: "When I go down to the grave I can say like many ers, 'I have finished my day's work.' But I cannot say, 'I have finished my life.' day's work will begin again the next morning. The tomb is not a blind alley; a thoroughfare. It closes on the twilight. It open on the dawn." Thank God!

Palm Sunday, 1962, is now history — and what thrilling experiences this church will ill when Palm Sunday — 1962 is remembered! There were 45 persons making a mitment of life to Jesus and the Church. They were the first wave of the 75 who de a commitment during the week of visitation evangelism! To the blessing of God a job well done, I should like to add my own personal gratitude for the wonderful nner in which the visitors went to bear witness to Jesus Christ! Monday evening en I went to sleep, thrilling at the first 38 decisions, I little realized that it was the night of calling that week for the minister. Laryngitis may be awful for a woman, it is sheer tragedy for a minister! But while you were calling in the homes of this mmunity, I was calling on our heavenly Father on your behalf. I want to express gratitude of this congregation for those who made the dinners, those who called, telephone and by visitation; for Mr. Wm. Ganter for his untiring efforts to make achievement possible, for Mrs. Culbertson and Mrs. Vaught for the numerous letters t went out into the homes of prospects, and for those who kept the nursery open. victory was not possible without the full cooperation of you all. God bless you, ryone! (The number of decisions in the Crusade came to 127!)

A thought to ponder:

"What is excellent
As God lives, is permanent;
Hearts are dust, hearts' loves remain;
Hearts' loves will meet the again." (Emerson)

EASTER

Those who have given Christ a place in their hearts know He has risen from the dead, because He lives in them.

Easter symbols are an egg or a butterfly, both being significant of wonderful changes, from death to life, from stagnation to motion, from darkness to light and color and beauty. These are what immortality means.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

James Denney once said, "For the mod ern mind, as for the ancient, the attractio and the repulsion of Christianity are con centrated at the same point; the cross c Christ is man's only glory, or it is hi final stumbling block." Is it little wonde then, that the cross has been a contro versal figure across the ages? Even to day it stands as the criterion of our faith the standard by which we measure ou lives, the dividing line between right an wrong.

Consider, also, this great mystery. "Fo the Jews demand signs and Greeks see wisdom, but we preach Christ crucifie a stumbling block to Jews and folly t Gentiles, but to those who are called, bot Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of Go and the wisdom of God." It would seer from where we stand when we read thi passage that the power of the Crucifie Christ depends upon our relative positior It either attracts or repells us. It is eithe a stepping stone or a stumbling block.

The cross is changeless! Why does evoke one response from one man an another from a different individual? Th cross, itself, is not the differentiating facto but the human heart. What do you seek Some seek a national deliverer, some onl want to be left alone, others seek privileg for vested interests, some desire to be er tertained, intrigued and astonished by th graciousness, astuteness and boldness c Jesus. One thing for certain, every ma who sees the cross responds according t the hopes he cherishes and the interest by which he lives.

Even the Church and religious group have presented the Cross as a talisma a magic formula to bring happiness. Th is the tragedy of confusion that alway results when men seek to use Christ rathe than to be used by Him. It is much easie to give our approval to Christ than to giv our obedience! The world is full of peopl who would be equally shocked to fin Jesus' deity denied or his teaching ap plied.

Yes, let the cross be a matter of swe sentiments, and no one cares. But let interfere with our affairs and demand fo giveness and justice and the resolutio of our prejudices and the sacrifice of ou privileges, and we are all aroused. Chri and the cross can touch anything but ou practices.

omeone has said that the deepest trag- is not to crucify Christ, but to ignore . I tell you, you can't ignore the cross. you and all, it is either the sign of vation to the world or it is a spectre t haunts us to Hell.

John W. Williams

"THE FAMILY CHURCH" "AS FRIENDLY AS IT IS BEAUTIFUL"

Volume 20 Fort Wayne, Indiana, April 26, 1962 Number 30

FROM THE PASTOR'S STUDY

Dear Friends:

When I think of the glorious services which we shared this past Sunday morning, I am reminded of the drunk standing in front of the Sheraton Hotel. As he got into a taxi he said to the driver, "Quick, take me to the Sheraton." The driver answered, "You're here." The drunk said, "O.K., but next time don't drive so fast!" — You see, I fervently wish that the Easter power would abide all year through, somehow its glory is so transient. But thank God for a day that has the pull and tug of the Eternal Quest of God for man. We respond for a million and one reasons, but they surely are of God. Nearly 900 men and women came to worship God on Easter morn — what could happen if that were true on every Sunday the whole year through?

A mighty important victory was achieved for the Kingdom of God by our committed giving — there was more than $1,300 given for the causes of Christ around the world. I thank God for every one of you, and for your sharing in the causes which are his.

Say, have you heard of the prospective groom and his conversation with his father the day before the wedding? Seems the father put his arm around the shoulder of his son and said, "Congratulations, my son. You will always look back upon this day as the happiest day of your life."

"But I'm not getting married until tomorrow," replied the son.

"Oh yes, I know," answered his father.

SUNDAY'S SERMON: "Let's Take The Church Seriously"

CANTATA

The Westfield Presbyterian Church Choir will present the Easter Cantata "Life Eternal" written by Fred B. Holton, next Sunday evening, April 29, at 5:30 P.M. in the Sanctuary of First Christian Church, under the direction of Mr. John Renforth, with Mrs. Hugh Werstler at the organ.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cocherille, Mrs. J. E. Weicker and others will be the soloists. A meditation will be given by Rev. Wascovich.

The public is invited.

ETERNAL REVENUE

Recently a prominent member of our congregation was called upon to give an accounting to the Collector of Internal Revenue. The matter which was in question was his giving to the Church. He came through with flying colors. We can think of no greater compliment that can be paid a church member than for his giving to be so high that it would be a matter of doubt.

We would like to print the following article which we copied from a newspaper:

I work for the Department of Internal Revenue. Yes, I am the chap that everybody loates. I go over your income tax return.

The other day I checked a queer return. Some guy with an income under $5,000, claimed he gave $624. to some church. Sure, he was within the 15 percent limit . . . but it looked mighty suspicious to me. So I hopped a trolley and dropped in on the guy and asked him about his "contributions."

I thought he would get nervous like most of them do, and say that he "must have made a mistake."

But not this guy! He came back at me with that figure of $624 .without batting an eyelash.

"Do you have a receipt from the church?" I asked, figuring that would make him squirm.

"Sure," he said, "I always drop them in my drawer where I keep my envelopes." And off he went to fetch his receipts.

Well, he had me! One look at the receipts and I knew he was on the level. So I apologized for bothering him, explaining that I have to check up on deductions that seem unusually high. And we shook hands at the door, he said, "I'd like to invite you to attend our church sometime."

"Thanks," I replied, "but I belong to a church myself."

"Excuse me," he said, "that possibility hadn't occurred to me."

As I rode the trolley home, I kept wondering what he meant by that last remark. It wasn't until Sunday morning when I dropped my usual quarter into the collection plate, that it came to me."

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

Dear Christian Friends:

Throughout all cooperating religious communions, CHRISTIAN FAMILY WEEK is being observed May 6-13, 1962. This is one of the many areas of responsibility of leaders in the field of Christian Education, to make God real in the home.

Several years ago, Dr. J. B. Phillips, New Testament translator, wrote an interesting little book entitled, "IS GOD AT HOME?" In this book, Dr. Phillips points out that there is little familiarity between the language of the Church and the language of the home. He indicates that the Church and the home must begin to speak the same language and he underscores the need for deeper communication between the two. In other words, the God of the Church must become the God of the Home and all of life.

One day I had lunch with a man who had raised three lovely daughters to mature adulthood, only to have his wife leave home and marry another man. During this man's married life he said that he had felt and experienced an infinite fellowship with God. I asked if his wife had felt that way, too. He replied that he took it for granted that she had, but really never gave the idea much consideration, at least not enough to engage in conversation with her about God during their entire married life.

A stranger came to a farm-house door and asked the lady of the house if God lived there. When her husband returned from the field, she related the peculiar incident, provoking this repry from him, "Didn't you tell him that we belonged to the Church, that we attended every Sunday, that I was a Deacon, that you were a Church School teacher and that we tithed?" To which his wife replied, "He didn't ask me all those things. He only said, 'Does God live here?'"

What about your home? Does God really live there? To many, God may be "at home' 'in his own inaccessible heaven, but he's not "at home" to us poor mortals who sometimes long for the reassurance that he cares about us. The good news of the Christian faith is that although God is "at home' 'to every sincere seeker after truth, yet, he did not stay at home. He came into human life seeking us. Through Bible study, prayer, Christian attitudes and actions, God comes to our homes to be a permanent Guest. The Church exists that this might become a reality rather than a dream.

"THE FAMILY CHURCH" "AS FRIENDLY AS IT IS BEAUTIFUL"

ume 20 Fort Wayne, Indiana, May 3, 1962 Number 31

FROM THE PASTOR'S STUDY

"SEE YOU IN CHURCH SUNDAY" — this is to be the theme of our CHURCH WOR-P EVANGELISM MOVEMENT. It is an effort to deepen the spiritual life of our great rch ,and to make our Christian Faith more relevant to our everyday walk of life. s is part of a world-wide movement to enlist more of the Christian peoples in a gram of prayer and worship. The call to the church is to take its part in the creation a new world . . . The task of a living church is not to defend the forms of inherited ditions from a former age, but in loyal response to the call and guidance of God in present situation to create new avenues of service through which God is brought focus for seeking men and women. The church of our Lord was built to disturb peace of men; but often it does not perform its task, lest it disturb the peace of the rch. What kind of artillery practice would there be if men were afraid of kicking r the gun carriages, or waking up the sentinels asleep at their posts? Let's awaken ur responsibilities as sons and daughters of God! Yes, SEE YOU IN CHURCH SUN-Y!

A gem to ponder: "I am afraid that the only broad church possible is one that has creed in the heart, and not in the head — that we shall know its members by their its, and not by their words." Thus wrote, Oliver Wendell Holmes.

And what of the question submitted to us by James W. Brougher, "Why should the rld come to the church when its own members do not?"

The attendance at worship will be faithfully kept by the committee and then once nonth a general visitation program will be made to enlist those who for one reason another have failed to attend services of worship during the month.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

Dear Christian Friends:

One of the greatest needs of man today is a chance to engage in solitary introspection. We call this "soul-searching." There are many stopping places in life that give us this opportunity. It doesn't have to be in the Church Worship Service, but it can be. For unless we take spiritual inventory, we never get anywhere.

In his "DIARY OF PRIVATE PRAYER," John Baillie has compiled a list of penetrating questions that we should ask ourselves in our quest for spiritual depth. Do we fall short and fail to be true to our own accepted standards? Do we practice self-deception in the face of temptation? Do we choose the worse when we know better? Do we fail to apply to ourselves the standards of conduct that we demand of others? Are we blind to the sufferings of others and slow to be taught by our own? Are we complacent towards wrongs that do not touch our own case and oversensitive to those that do? Are we slow to see the good in our fellows and to see the evil in ourselves? Are we hard of heart towards our neighbor's faults and, yet, ready to make allowances for our own? Are we willing to believe that God has called us to some small task and our brothers to a greater one?

I am certain that we are all guilty, if we are truthful with ourselves. We would have to check many of the above in the minus column of life. Yet, we cannot glory in our guilt. We must ascend the stairway to the spiritual stars and seek celestial peace. The glory of it all lies within the framework of God's mercy and grace that permits us to grow as His sons and daughters.

The only sin that God cannot and will not forgive is that of insisting that we are good enough when we know better that we are certainly aren't. Harold B. Walker, in his book, "THE POWER TO MANAGE YOURSELF," says that the only sin that God cannot forgive is "the sin that you will not confess" . . . . and "the sin you dress up in the white robes of righteousness." The New Testament teaches that the Unpardonable Sin is committed when we attribute the works of God to the Devil and vice versa. Isn't this the heart of It: a misplaced sense of values?

Christian Education is always relevant, because we never catch up with our standards. If our living outstrips our standards, our standards are too low. And if Christ is our standard, there will always be room for improvement! You are invited to join in Church School each Sunday at 9:15 A.M. and study to show thyself approved unto God.

"THE FAMILY CHURCH" "AS FRIENDLY AS IT IS BEAUTIFUL"

lume 20 | Fort Wayne, Indiana, May 10, 1962 | Number 32

FROM THE PASTOR'S STUDY

ar Friends in Christ.

From the office of the Chief of Chaplains, Washington, came word of the following ɔute to church attendance. A young Lieutenant wrote in a letter to his mother, the lowing words:

"I went to church this morning. Church out here is a privilege so rare I shall not forget it. There were only about 35 present, but it wasn't the numbers. Our altar was a stand over which draped a cloth of deep red . . . The platform was covered with a white cloth . . . We had a small organ about three feet high, a small hymnal and a service pamphlet which I am sending you in this letter. Behind the altar a canvass screen was set up. We were seated on the sand with no overhead shelter. I felt the presence of Almighty God like I never have before. I think partially because I felt so much in need of an assuring hand. I could not keep the tears from my eyes, and Mom, I could feel myself being cleansed of all impurities. In the Bible it speaks of washing away our sins. It was never so plain as today. If I can only stand by faith as He has by me, I shall never be afraid. You and Dad will never know what blessings you brought on us by bringing us up in the House of the Lord."

ose words were written in the days of the Second World War, and have real meang for these days when a world-wide crusade has begun to enlist Christians in Church ɔrship attendance. We must develop the vitality of faith in quiet days if we would an upon it in storm-tossed times. What will your children think of your attitude toard the services of God in the days of their testing? Will they thank you for a faith at sees them through, or will they wonder why you never gave them something to ld on to when the going gets really rough?

SEE YOU IN CHURCH SUNDAY

Sunday is MOTHER'S DAY in our nation. Our Church will be giving a token of reembrance to all Christian mothers by lifting up several for special recognition: the dest mother present, the youngest mother present, the mother having come the longest stance, and the mother with the most childrn present with her in the worship service.

SUNDAY'S SERMON: "The Lift of Love"

HONOR HER ON

MOTHER'S DAY

ATTEND CHURCH

Through sorrow, trial, e'en death and tears, Mother's love endures.

It cannot be tarnished or soiled with passing of the years.

But greater far than Mother's love and all that she has done,

Is God's redeeming, cleansing love—the blood of Christ, His Son

Your Mother Will be Proud to Know You Attended Church to Honor Her

WELCOME — NEW MEMBERS

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

Dear Christian Friends:

This coming Sunday is Mother's Day, and it is right that we should honor the ones who gave us birth, nurtured us to manhood and womanhood, stood by us through many of the critical years and waited patiently and tearfully through the long watches of many a dark night.

Some one has aptly said that it takes more "than giving birth to a child to make a woman a mother." And I believe this to be true! There are many mothers, in the true sense of the word, who have never given birth to a single child. Likewise there are many who have given birth to children, but that's about all that can be said for them. But thank God for mothers, whether they brought children of their own into the world or not, but who have expressed by their lives what mothers ought to be!

To those of you who are fortunate enough to have a living mother, let me say that she is the most wonderful relationship that you can enjoy. Many years ago when Grover Cleveland was sitting alone after his election as Governor of New York, he began to think of his early life, his apparent successes, and the future. He was writing a letter to his brother, and in it he said, "Do you know, if Mother were alive I would feel so much safer." There are men and women today who would feel much safer if their mothers were alive. She would steady the hand and the heart and the step, and put inspiration and renewed ideals into the hearts of her grown sons and daughters. Abraham Lincoln once said, "Whatever I am or ever hope to be, I owe it to my mother."

Ideals that are expressed have a tendency to sour. Some young man may read this and say, "I love Mother and appreciate her, but she'll think I'm a sissy if I tell her. Besides, she knows anyway." That is pure, unadulerated nonsense! No mother ever tires of hearing and seeing her children express their love and gratitude.

For those who have only a memory of one who has joined the family in heaven, take comfort in the fact that God is caring for them in a better way than we could ever. Jesus demonstrated this in his final hours when he made provision for his mother to be cared for by the Apostle John. Also, when we sit at the Lord's Table, we share in "the communion of the saints," and we are drawn nearer to those whom we have loved and lost a little while. The fellowship around His Table is enriched when you are there.

John W. William,
Associate-Minister

"THE FAMILY CHURCH" "AS FRIENDLY AS IT IS BEAUTIFUL"

ume 20 Fort Wayne, Indiana, May 17, 1962 Number 33

FROM THE PASTOR'S STUDY

ır Friends in Christ:

We know you are all interested in Alma's progress. Tests given so far have not dered sufficient knowledge on which to base a conclusion. The tests will be con- ued. Your prayers are coveted. We will keep you informed of her progress.

EVERY TIME YOU ENTER THE CHURCH you make your appearance before God, here He confronts you with Himself. You enter to thank Him. Whatever else brings u to the house of the Lord, you come to thank. The hour of worship is supremely the ur of praise and adoration. If the sermon fails to edify and the music fails to inspire, hour is not lost, for you have not come primarily to receive but to give God the nksgiving of your heart.

You enter to pray. Life is too much for you . . . alone. You need His help. With- His forgiveness you cannot dispel guilt and receive peace. Without His comfort u cannot carry the week's sorrows and anxieties. Without His power you cannot mount the fears and temptations that assail you. You enter to learn. His Word, ntained in Scripture and song and sermon, will impart the truth to you . . . the truth out His will, the truth about His salvation, the truth about the Christian's glorious hope.

You enter to fellowship. The stranger in the next pew is your brother in the faith. the Christ whom you both worship as Lord and Savior, you are one in one glorious mpany called the Church.

Thank God that you can enter. The church doors are open, and what is far more portant, the way of God is open to you because the Christ of the Cross died to open e way for you. Be glad that you can enter.

In a little while we are all going church: Dad and Mother, Brother and Siste And what we shall do there our radio lustrates, that is, the tuning in is mu like it. God is always broadcasting to H children, yet we are so busy with mar things that we do not listen at the ve times when we might receive help. B when we go to our lovely church, it is listen carefully to what our heaven Father is saying. The first thing we mu do is to "tune in" our minds and spiri At church we shall have many help friends will be there; there will be beau and quiet and gentle music; whisper and silent prayer will bring us to a reve ent, seeking attitude of heart; and we sh hear our good minister saying calmly, come, let us worship and bow dowr When we have each tuned in we may e pect to hear a Voice speaking to us abo those things which will help us to live t good and Godly life. Surely, we sh hear much — in hymn and prayer a sermon — about our Lord Jesus Chri the Saviour of men, and our hearts sh be glad. We shall dedicate ourselv anew to God. Enriched by our Pasto sermon, we shall return home, renew in strength for our Christian living.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD

Dear Christian Friends.

Young people are asking, "What shall I do with my life?" And Christian young people are turning to the Church for an answer. Never before have so many young people approached this question so seriously. It seems that the heavy responsibility of building a world of righteousness is resting precariously on the immature shoulders of fragile youth.

I believe that they sense the uneasiness of our times, and yet, courageously, they are seeking to carry the cross of our Lord in times and places where it will bring about the most good. To their undaunted enthusiasm, we owe a debt of tribute. For many who are seeking Gods' way, it is a lonely quest. Others simply know that there is a job that needs to be done and they are willing to dedicate their all.

Let me suggest some points to consider as we quest for God's will to be done in our lives. It is natural to assume that since we are speaking of young people within the framework of the Church, that they are seeking God's will in that structure. A person's role in the Church should be determined BY HIS GIFTS. This includes aptitudes, but it is much more than that. It is education, experience, standards, skills and faith.

The second thing to consider is the various methods and means by which we may serve. In the Church, there are many functions that call us to serve God. To mention them in a broad way, the preaching ministry, the teaching ministry, the healing ministry along with social services. Church related vocations are almost too numerous to mention. Our world today has its problems, but it has multiplied the ways by which a man may serve God.

In the third place, I would suggest that we remember that whatever area of life we choose, we belong to Christ. We are taught by him to serve as though we were serving him. For, in reality, we are. The question is not one of "Who pays your salary?", but "Who are you working for?" The steel mill may pay your salary, but we must realize that we are working for God, if we are members of His Church.

Your faith and your life's work are inextricably bound together. Make your faith vital by attending Church School and Worship every Sunday at 9:15 and 10:30 A.M.

Associate-Minister

r Friends In Christ:

Just a brief word to express once again our heartfelt gratitude for all the many dnesses shown to us during Alma's stay in the hospital. I'm sure your prayers d thoughts helped us more than words can ever tell. The final tests revealed nothing, d so the doctors assure us we may never know what caused her illness. Our prayers tinue that she may never again have a recurrence and may continue well and ong. Again, "Thank you, and may God bless you, every one."

Did you know that our attendance in both worship and Bible School is running ove that of last year? Keep up the good work. Bring your friends and family to House of God during the warm summer months just as you do throughout the rest the year. Our souls need God in the summer quite as well as they do in the winter.

Sunday's Sermon: "Living For Tomorrow."

The first Sunday in June is Children's Day. It is one of the four missionary offering ys of the year. It is also the time when once more we have the Rose Service, for dedication of parents, and the blessing of babies. Parents promise to rear their ldren in the Christian Faith, and the Church lifts up both parents and children fore God for His divine blessing. If you plan on bringing your child for this meaning- service, please contact the church office.

WORLD OUTREACH GIFTS HELP SPREAD THE CHRISTIAN FAITH

by Robert J. Larson
Missionary to India

As I sit thinking about what your gift do to help spread the Christian faith around the world I remember the people who receive sight . . . the orphans in Christian homes . . . mothers who are given prenatal and postnatal care . . . young people who are helped to advance in training for a profession or technical trade . . . farmers who are shown how to improve their farms . . . small village churches that receive aid to employ a pastor.

I haven't time to tell about all of these people, but let me mention just one young man whose life was touched and helped by Christianity. His name is Israel. He attends Brooks Agricultural High School which is sponsored by the Disciples of Christ Mission. He and his brother were orphaned when both parents died. Their two married sisters were unable to support them, because of their poverty, so the two boys took to the streets as beggars.

One day Israel and his brother appeared at the door of one of our student pastors who was attending the seminary. This pastor and his wife decided to try using the boys to care for their children while the pastor was in classes and his wife was also studying. Israel and his brother proved so promising and responsible that the pastor and his wife decided to send them to school. In this way the boys might advance in life, beyond the status of beggars.

World mission work and that of other causes in the cooperative life of our brotherhood depends upon the outreach giving of our people. To fall short is to place in jeopardy this world-wide program of Christian service.

FRIEND:

When you come to Church, leave it not without a prayer. No man entering a house ignores him who dwells in it. This is the House of God and He is here.

PRAY THEN TO HIM WHO LOVES YOU and bids you welcome and awaits your greeting. Give thanks for those who in past ages built this place to His glory and for those who, dying that we might live, have preserved for us our heritage.

PRAISE GOD FOR HIS GIFTS OF BEAUTY in paintings, handicraft and music. Ask that we who now live may build the spiritual fabric of the nation in TRUTH, BEAUTY and GOODNESS and that as we draw near to the ONE Father through our LORD and SAVIOUR JESUS CHRIST we may draw near to one another in perfect brotherhood.

Welcome, Friend in Christ! This is "The end of your search for a friendly church!" The unity of this congregation is not based on conformity of thought, but on commitment to Christ.

John W. Williams,
Associate Minister

WHAT IS NEEDED MOST

Today the greatest thing in the world is not money, nor big buildings, nor armies of atomic power, but character. The world needs men who can be depended upon, who are able to add something to the uplifting of political life, something to the brotherhood of social life, something to the practical efficiency of spiritual life. Then we shall have done mankind a real service.

FIRST CHRISTIAN TIDINGS

"THE FAMILY CHURCH" "AS FRIENDLY AS IT IS BEAUTIFUL"

ıme 20 Fort Wayne, Indiana, May 31, 1962 Number 35

r Christian Friends:

When hearing one of our modern-day Christians talking of sacrifices one makes for Kingdom of God, I recall the words of James Chalmers, of New Guinea. James lmers was a missionary whose service on earth was ended by being clubbed to th and eaten by cannibals. He once declared:

" . . . the word of sacrifice ought never to be used in Christ's service." And in a speech in Exeter Hall fifteen years before his death, he exclaimed:

"Recall the twenty-one years, give me back all its experiences, give me its shipwrecks, give me its standings in the face of death, give it me surrounded with savages with spears and clubs, give it me back with the spears flying about me to the ground — give it me back, and I will still be your missionary."

This type of Christian witness brought the realization of the living Christ to the world. en men and women are willing to risk their all on the far-flung fields of Christian vice, can you and I sit at home and not send them the tools with which to labor?

Sunday is an opportunity that comes four times a year to share in the World-wide ks of Christ. We need always to remember that it is human to keep what one has, it is Christian to share it. Did not Jesus say, "He that seeks to save his life will e it" . . . Letus share in the purposes that are God's by giving generously to the rld-wide missionary tasks of the churchl

In a certain neighborhood two men had gardens — the same size, same soil, with just a fence separating them. One cultivated his garden every year, and he had a beautiful garden. The other did not, and he had a patch of weeds. A new neighbor one day moved in across the street Both men became acquainted with him at the same time. One cultivated his acquaintance, and he had a splendid friend. The other did not.

"THE FAMILY CHURCH" "AS FRIENDLY AS IT IS BEAUTIFUL"

lume 20 Fort Wayne, Indiana, June 7, 1962 Number 36

FROM THE PASTOR'S STUDY

ear Friends.

Sunday is Pentecost! What a thrilling day the first Pentecost was! The Spirit of the ving God fell with consuming power upon a handful of men and women afraid of the wer of the world, and from that moment on they went forth unafraid to turn the world ight-side up." They faced the cruel sword of the Caesars, lions' dens, crosses, burn- g stakes, etc. unafraid, assured that the kingdoms of men would become the Kingdom their Lord, and that beyond the horizon of time a new world awaited the sons of light. ie world has never been the same. The Church has brought a universal awareness of an's inherent value. The Church has uplifted the fallen, comforted the sorrowing, tablished the first schools and hospitals, and in innumerable ways, brought light to world in the throes of darkness. Every advance for the betterment of humanity'es lot as been fostered by the influence of the Christ of th Church.

It's time for the church to call the good man's bluff. The great gap that worries ncerned churchmen is the gap between what we profess and what we really are. Ve attend church so that our friends and neighbors will think of us as religious people, ut we refuse to be vitally concerned in the program and purpose of our Lord. Don't d yourself — we are living at a bending time in human history, between a world at's dying and another not yet born. Our civilization is caught — bogged down — etween an inadequate past and an unknown future. But human history is our busi- ess! The Church of Jesus Christ exists to remold history and remake man. You and I ave but two choices before us: we can take the program of Jesus Christ and His Church eriously, or we can leave it!

When we are brutally honest we realize that often, ah, too often, it is the good eople who are the main concern of the Church — for they are often chronic absentees om the main tasks of any Christian. By and large, modern man and all his institutions re worshippers at the altars of the god of the surface of things. From a Christian oint of view, our culture is heretical and therein lies the secret of its chaos and con- usion. Ah, to soak up all the benefits of living in a society that has its spiritual basis ecured by the organized Church and never to move into real and responsible mem- ership with it — that is heresy, and the basest for mof ingratitude.

MOTORIST'S PRAYER

Each time I take the wheel
Oh Lord, I pray,
Grant that no harm
Shall come of me, today.
See over hills for me,
On curves, stand by,
Post some bright Angel near
To see that I
Observe the playing child,
The old, less spry;
No act of mine must cause,
Someone to DIE.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THHE WORLD

Dear Christian Friends:

While reading the letters to the editor of the "CHRISTIAN," I came across one of interest. Mrs. Herman C. Rupe of Ottumwa, Iowa, wrote.

"Today I offered an acquaintance an opportunity to share in one of the most rewarding experiences she could ever have and she said, 'No.'

"This thing I offered is something that leads a person down a path where may be discovered truths that can change your own life as well as the ones that accompany you on your journey . . .

"Together you learn to know what true brotherhood is, what you as a Christian should do about your time, talent and money. The things you share together are endless and wonderful.

"All these things I offered this person and thus she answered: 'Oh, I'm just swamped; seems I can't ever get all the things done I need to do. And I don't feel very well part of the time . . . '

"You see, what I was offering this person was the opportunity to be a substitute teacher in the seventh grade in the Church School."

Mrs. Rupe concludes her letter by saying, "No wonder Jesus sits weeping over Jerusalem!"

Let me take this opportunity to express appreciation to all who have volunteered willingly and joyfully to serve in our Vacation Bible School this year. I am sure that your joy will increase throughout the years as you see your work come to fruition in the lives of these young people.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL starts next Monday morning at 9:00 A.M. It will continue each week-day, Monday through Friday from June 11 - 22. In case you have not registered your child, you may do so in advance this coming Sunday morning after the Worship Service. Registration is $1.00 per child.

olume 20 Fort Wayne, Indiana, June 14, 1962 Number 37

FROM THE PASTOR'S STUDY

ear Friends.

Recently, in speaking to the High School young people, I reminded them that ynbee had pointed out that 16 civilizations may have perished to our knowledge, and at 9 others were at the point of death. He said, "We the 26th are not compelled to bmit the riddle of our fate to the blind arbitration of statistics." Then he added:

> The divine spark of creative power is still alive in us and if we have the grace to kindle it into flame, then the stars in their courses cannot defeat our efforts to attain the goal of human endeavor."

It is a wonderful age for men and women unafraid of a great challenge. We live an age that demands we dedicate ourselves to a cause that will outlive our time.. e must rededicate our lives once again to the great moral precepts that have out- ed empires! There must come to us a reawakening of the spiritual world as a prac- al way of living. We must stop thinking of religion as something that makes one el better when he is in trouble, or that one can take or leave as he sees fit, but if he kes it then be certain to take it in small doses. We must come to believe profoundly at nothing matters so much as being in a living fellowship with a living God! Going Church and bowing our hearts and minds before God will assure us that we will bow fore little else. The surest way to steer clear of false and pagan philosophies of life to keep our hearts in tune with the Lord of time and history.

A thought to ponder: Edwin Way Teale, in his book, North With The Spring, tells a small species of bird "whose eyes weigh more than its brains." Could this pos- bly be the trouble with our modern age? What our eyes behold is more important us than what our hearts and souls know to be the true goal of our seeking! Is this r tragedy?

DEAD WEIGHT

I've been a dead weight many years,
Around the church's neck
I've let the others carry me,
And always pay the check.
I've had my name upon the rolls,
For years and years gone by;
I've criticised and grumbled too;
Nothing could satisfy.
I've been a dead weight long enough,
Upon the church's back.
Beginning now, I'm going to take
A wholly different track.
I'm going to pray and pay and work,
And carry loads instead;
And not have others carry me
Like people do the dead.

There is a widespread notion today that men may be educated into Christianity. Religious Education is one of the greatest abominations of the present day. The idea is that you can take a child and instruct him along the lines of the Christian philosophy and thus educate hi minto salvation. I do not object to the term Christian Education. I believe that it is a right and proper thing. It is right and proper to instruct the Christian along Christian lines. But religious education which simply tries to make people Christians by educating them into it, will I believe, be the means of making tens of thousands of hypocrites instead of making them Christians. "Ye must be born again." There must be the communication of a new life. — H. A. Ironside, Litt.D.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD

Dear Christian Friends:

You may be familiar with the Russian story of the shoemaker who felt that Christ would call on him one day. So he cleaned up his shop, put on a clean apron, prepared some food, and waited for Christ to call. While he was waiting an old man came along. It was a hot day, and the old man sank to the sidewalk in exhaustion. The shoemaker was a little bothered because he thought it might discourage Christ from coming into his shop. So he went out and got the old man and brought him in. He noticed that he was thirsty, so he got him a cold glass of water and gave it to him.

A little later a woman came in with a little boy who obviously needed a pair of shoes. As he looked at this boy, the shoemaker could not quite dismiss the child's need from his mind. So, finally, he went into his back room where he kept the shoes of his only son whom he had lost through death. You can imagine the drama as he debated whether or not to give up those shoes. He returned to the shop, however, gave the shoes to the little boy, and the woman and the little boy left. On another occasion that day, the shoemaker gave the lunch he had intended for himself to a hungry person.

As the day closed, he was very, very sad because Christ had not come to him as he thought he would. Then a minister, dropping by, reminded him of a passage in Matthew, "'as you did it to one of the least of these my brethren, you did it to me'."

Well might the shoemaker ask, "Lord, when did I see thee hungry and feed thee, or thirsty and give thee drink? And when did I see a stranger and welcome thee, or naked and clothe thee?" And the answer is "'as you did it to one of the least of these my brethren, you did it to me'."

(Matthew 25:40).

Christian Education teaches us that the need of man is the need of Christ. Your neighbor's need is really your only opportunity to serve God. God's call to service comes through everyday reality. Many times the Church becomes the voice of the needy. On some occasions, the Church is the ONLY voice that will ever be lifted up for those who are down-trodden, oppressed, poverty-ridden and enslaved. The call to serve in the Church is a call to serve God by ministering to the needs of humanity. And we can begin by being present at Church School, Worship Service and by volunteering to be used for God. See you at 9:15 A.M.

"UST-WUZZERS"

We are indebted to Carl J. McClenna minister of the First Christian Church i Zanesville, Ohio, for the following fro his Church paper:

"Usta-wuzzers: Every Christian worke who has been endeavoring to build up th Kingdom of Christ has come into conta with a certain class of people who ar best described by the coined word, "Usta wuzzers.'

"A 'Usta-wuzzer' is a person who take pride in telling you about all he 'usta' d in the Church. He attended so many yea without missing a Sunday; he 'usta' sin in the choir; he 'usta' teach a class i Church School; he 'usta" be a contribut to the Church; he 'usta' visit the sick re ularly; he 'usta' read his Bible daily; h 'usta', 'usta', 'usta' . . . but not any mor 'Usta-wuzers' are just plain indifferent no while others really think they've done the share of Kingdom building and they cc now rest on their laurels. They've accur ulated enough 'credit' in the Lord's ey (so they think) that their salvation is a sured. The sad thing is that 'usta-wu zers' don't know that their faith is dead.

"James says, 'Even so faith; if it ha not works, is dead being alone.' The Scri ture adds, 'Without faith it is impossib to be pleasing to God'.

"If you are a 'usta-wuzzer' now is t time to change to an 'Am-Now.' Con and help us build our Church School a worship services for the Lord."

FIRST CHRISTIAN TIDINGS

"THE FAMILY CHURCH" "AS FRIENDLY AS IT IS BEAUTIFUL"

olume 20 Fort Wayne, Indiana, June 21, 1962 Number 38

FROM THE PASTOR'S STUDY

ear Friends.

Sunday we honored our fathers, marking three special concerns of the Christian me: Children's Day, Mother's Day, and Father's Day. This coming Sunday I shall be eaching on the subject: "HOW TO BE HAPPY THOUGH MARRIED." Marriage may e a colony of heaven or hell, and people make it what it becomes for them. It has ways been most interesting to me that often marriage is neither heaven or hell, just ll routine and responsibility. I suppose this is worst of all. It's like the sweet young ing, snuggling up to a prospective husband, who said:

"I want to share all your problems!" To this he replied,
"But I haven't got any problems." And she replied,
"Oh, I mean after we're married!"

And she wasn't fooling! Most problems of marriage come after the era of moonght and promises have vanished, and reality must be faced. Those who learn to ccept fear and frustration without losing face and faith can nd the happy, abundant fe. Much like the colored maid who arrived for work recently, head swathed in bandges, the result of a disagreement with her bad tempered husband. The conversation etween the mistress of the home and the maid went something like this;

Lady of the House: "Jennie, your husband treats you outrageously! Why don't you leave him? Hasn't he hurt you enough?"
Maid: "Well, I don't 'zactly wants to leave him."
Lady of the House: "But hasn't he dragged you around by your hair?"
Maid: "Yas'm, he has done dat!"
Lady of the House: "Hasn't he choked you into insensibility?"
Maid: "Yas'm, he sho has choked me!"
Lady of the House: "And now he hits you on the head with a club?"
Maid: "Yas'm, he has done all dat," agreed Jennie, "But he ain't done nothin' yet so bad I couldn't live wid him."

Yes, lets all be in church Sunday, for reevaluating our concepts of Christian marriage.

IN SYMPATHY

The father of George Bruckman passed away Sunday, June 17 in Indianapolis. Our deepest sympathy is expressed to this family.

Don't you trouble trouble
Till trouble troubles you.
Don't you look for trouble
Let trouble look for you.

Don't you borrow sorrow;
You'll surely have your share
He who dreams of sorrow
Will find that sorrow's there.

Don't you hurry worry
By worrying lest it come.
To flurry is to worry,
'Twill miss you if you're mu

If you care you've got to carry Wait till 'tis at the door;
For he who runs to meet it Takes up the load before.

The very birds reprove thee
Withall their happy song;
The very flowers teach thee
That fretting is a wrong.

"Cheer up", the sparrow chirpe
"Thy Father feedeth me;
Think how much he careth,
O lonely child, for thee!"

"Fear not," the flowers whisper
"Since thus he hath arrayed
The buttercup and daisy,
How canst thou be afraid?"

Then don't you trouble trouble
Till trouble troubles you;
You'll only double trouble,
And trouble others too.

TRIBUTE TO VACATION CHURCH SCHOOL WORKERS

My most sincere thanks
For a job well done,
And now that it's over,
Really . . . wasn't it fun?

I'm sure there were times
When you would vow and declare
That "on the morrow
You just wouldn't be there!"

Don't you feel more contented
Knowing there were lives
Only you could touch,
And upon you, and your talent
They depended so much?

I pray God go with you . . .
Be it far or near,
And when "the call' comes to you again—
Please! Don't turn a deaf ear!

Your heart has been touched,
Now think — don't you agree?
So do like Isaiah of old and say,
"Here I am, Lord, send me!"

—June Williams

FROM THE PASTOR'S STUDY

ar Friends in Christ:

Your church is looking for men and women! No, not just men and women, but men d women who will dare to try being "God's men and women!" Men and women:

- Who put God's business above any other business.
- Who bring their children to Church rather than sending them.
- Who are willing to be the right example to every boy and girl they meet.
- Who think more of their Sunday School Class than they do of sleeping and loafing.
- Who measure their giving by what they have left rather than the amount they give.
- Who go to church for Christ's sake rather than for himself or someone else.
- Who have a passion to help rather than to be helped.
- Who can see their own faults before they see others.
- Who are more concerned about winning others for Christ than they are about winning worldly honor.

— — — — — — — — — — — — — —

As I write these words I feel a sense of pride at what is happening within the fel- wship of our great Church. So very many lives are truly trying to find the meaning God for their lives in these troubled times. I'm certain that as week after week comes id goes we will see a deepening of the spiritual life of this congregation.

As we journey together towards Christ our Lord let us remember that God's self- sclosure comes to completion only as it evokes a response. Revelation is revelation ly as it reveals, and the measure of revelation is according to the measure of faith. o one can center his life in a God of whom he has no awareness. Therefore, "Seek e the Lord while He may be found" . . . . My constant prayer is that we shall dare ace our lives in the care of God, and seek in His Word for His will for our lives.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

Dear Christian Friends:

This is the last issue of the Tidings until September. Many of our people will be taking vacations, scattering from one end of the country to the other. May I offer one suggestion? Please don't take a vacation from God, and when your vacation is over return to Church and Church School. We'll be waiting for you and will be glad to see you!

As you journey, think of the beautiful words of the poet, Eugene Field:

"It seems to me I'd like to go
Where the bells don't ring nor the whistles blow,
Nor clocks don't strike, nor gongs don't sound,
And I've have stillness all around.

Not real stillness, but just the trees'
Low whispering, or the hum of bees,
Or the brooks' faint bubbling over the stones
In strangely, softly tangled tones.

Or maybe the cricket or katydid,
Or the song of the birds in the hedges hid,
Or just some such sweet sound as these
To fill the tired heart with ease.

If 'tweren't for the sight and sounds and smell,
I'd like the city pretty well;
But when it comes to getting rest,
I like the country the best.

Sometimes it seems to me I must just quit the city's din and dust,
And get out where the sky is blue
And say, how does it seem to you?"

See you in Church School next Sunday morning at 9:00 A.M.

JOHN W. WILLIAMS,
Associate-Minister

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD

The Christian Education Committee is calling its first meeting of the Fall Season for Monday evening, September 10 at 7:30 P.M. at the Church. Church School Officers and Teachers and Officers of Classes are expected to be present at this very important meeting.

* * *

Once again, the call comes to you to "CLEAR THE DECKS FOR ACTION!" Put Christ and His Church first. Learn the lessons in your Church and Church School that will enable you to be a good soldier for Christ.

It should be remembered that education is taking place, our minds are constantly being trained. The Church seeks to provide a CHRISTIAN education. This is a two-fold process. It is imparting and it is receiving. If we possess a Christian Education we must share it.

Christian Education is not an end in itself, it is the means to an end. The desired objective is a transformed life. When our lives are transformed and as we grow physically day by day, so, too, our souls grow. Christian Education takes place when our lives are big enough to let God live in us.

Come and bring some one with you to Church School next Sunday at 9:15 A.M. See you then.

JOHN W. WILLIAMS
Associate Minister

AN OPEN LETTER from
Spencer P. Austin, Executive Secretary Unified Promotion

Dear Friends:

A preacher friend of mine once wrote his church bulletin: "Blessed is the m who pays his church pledge before go on vacation."

I would like to paraphrase that qu to say: "Thrice blessed is the congregat which maintains its remittances for m sions during the vacation season of year."

July and August are generally the "le months" of the church year. Hence, are very grateful for your faithfulness sending your August remittance. closed is our treasurer's receipt for $667

We begin the new year with deep c profouund thanks for the continued fa fulness of our churches and church org izations in witnessing to the unsearcha riches of Christ.

Cordially yours.

"THE FAMILY CHURCH" "AS FRIENDLY AS IT IS BEAUTIFUL"

olume 20 Fort Wayne, Indiana, September 13, 1962 Number 50

FROM THE PASTOR'S STUDY

The fall and winter program has begun. The choir was back in the choir loft this st Sunday and once again we shall be thrilling to their wonderful music. Mrs. Janet eicker's solo was most beautiful, and the radio audience has expressed its apprecia- n of the fine program. This coming Sunday the worship service will once again be rried live on radio station WGL. Robert Cocherille will bring the solo and the sermon ll be on: "Look Now Toward Heaven." The sermon shall be based on the great pass- e in Gensis 15. Don't stay at home to worship by the radio, but come to the sanctuary d tell your shut-ins and neighbors who cannot get out to listen to your church and broadcast.

The theme for the fall and winter program shall be: "PUT YOUR HEART IN THE HURCH." We shall be making some strenuous efforts to deepen the spiritual commit- ent of our lives and of our church as a body of Christians. The Bible School will be ving a Church-centered program of attendance and effort. Won't you help? Be in e Church School and in the Worship Services this coming morning. Bible School at .5 and Worship at 10:30 A.M.

Several programs will be offered this fall and winter which will be directed toward ecific areas of Christian life.

1. Christian Family Life and Better Home Discipline
   (Discussion of home life and childhood problems and tensions, and some helps in developing a Christian Family Life and Better Home Discipline.)
2. How To Handle Life's Problems
   (This class shall be limited to the first 10 or 12 couples who indicate their interest. This will be a class directed toward the building of techniques to handle, jealously, selfishness, grief, anger, unreasonableness, and other such personal situations in which one needs to be a voice and not merely an echo. This will be a ROLE PLAYING GROUP). IF interested please call the office and indicate your desire to be part of the group.
3. EVENING VESPERS
   This will be a period of hymn singing (the "old, familiar ones we love so well"). Mr. Wetzel will direct the group singing and Mr. Cocherille will be bringing some of the great spiritual hymns of our heritage. We shall be having some special solos, quartets, etc., each Sunday night. Our Chi Rho and C.Y.F. will form our choir. This will start November 4th. The minister will present a message in the form of a Bible Study. Better get a Bible dusted off by Nov. 41

WELCOME — NEW MEMBERS

We were happy to welcome into our Church Family last Sunday George and Sara Davis; Dr. James and Deanna Ruble; and Gerald and Doris Weaver. We wish for them a happy Church home experience at First Christian.

MEMORIES THAT BLESS

More than any other one thing, religious educators today are emphasizing the importance of the home and the church working together. The fortunate child whose parents cooperate with the Sunday church school teacher will find in later years that God and his home are his most treasured memories. Only experiences which we remember as good and wholesome will come to our aid in future years as angels of joy and light. Those remembered otherwise will make us hang our heads. Sordid and shabby experiences leave nothing for memory but regret. Let us so live and serve today that tomorrow will find us rich in memories that bless.

—Frank Johnson Pippin

FOLKS I ENVY

By Margaret Rorke

There are folks whom I know
Whom I'm envying so
As I think of their courage and mine.
Folks so strong that they take
Life and luck's toughest break
Without stopping to whimper or whine.

There are folks without health
Who are counting their wealth
In their friends or their family ties.
There are folks down and out
Who still keep their hearts stout
And their minds on the race for the prize.

There are folks under strain
Who will never complain
For within them there's always the will
To be shining the dark
With a confident spark.

You can't change the nature of sin by giving it a high-sounding psychological, innocent-looking name.

Do not spill thy soul in running hither and yon, grieving over the mistakes and vices of others. The one person whom it is most necessary to reform is yourself.

A CHALLENGE TO OUR MEN

The Indiana Christian Men's Fellow Retreat will be held at Camp Barbee, S tember 21, 22, 23. The Theme is, "Resp sible Churchmen." This is a wonde opportunity for the men of First Chris to consider with other men of the a the problems that face the Church to and as Christian men interested in going program of Christ's Church find solutions.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

ear Christian Friends:

Christian Education has something to y about the nature and purpose of the nurch of Jesus Christ. Through Christian ducation, people come to an awareness at Christianity is something more than st a way of looking at life — a philoso- ıy. It is something more than a way of ving — an ethic. To be sure, it is more an a set of ideas — a theology. It is all these, but more! A university is some- ing more than just individual schools. also is Christianity more than theology, hics or philosophy.

Christianity is an event, a deed, an ccomplishment, a victory. Christianity is n outgrowth of the life of Christ. In the olossian Letter, St. Paul expresses it this ay: "Now I rejoice in my sufferings for our sake, and in my flesh I complete hat is lacking in Christ's afflictions for e sake of his body." The Church of sus Christ is composed of those who are nited with him in his death, burial and surrection.

Needless to say, as long as the gospel being preached, taught, believed and beyed, the body of Christ, the redemptive llowship, is being enlarged. Therefore, e Church is both being and doing. It annot be what it should be without doing hat it should be doing. What a thrilling ought it is to share in the glorious enter- rise of extending the growth of this body!

To be a part of "the people of God," he new creation," "the household of od," and "the body of Christ" is not the ame as having one's name on the records f the Church. For the Church was never eant to be a static organization to which eople belonged merely for the sake of be- nging! It came into existence for the urpose of redeeming people. While the hurch is looking unto "the fields that are hite unto the harvest," it must be aware f the fact that those who are part of the edemptive fellowship are in need of spir- ual renewal.

Sometimes in our state of emotional im- aturity, we are afraid to confess our spir- ual shortcomings and failures. In St. ames' Epistle, he commands us to "Con- ess your sins one to another." The re- emptive process is not something initiated y mortals. It wasn't conveniently in- ented to cover up skeletons in our clos- ts. It is part of the nature of the Church n relationship to its Lord. The Church is nade up of "The forgiven and the for- iving."

Come to Church School each Sunday nd learn more about Christ's Church.

"THE FAMILY CHURCH" "AS FRIENDLY AS IT IS BEAUTIFUL"

ume 20 Fort Wayne, Indiana, September 20, 1962 Number 51

FROM THE PASTOR'S STUDY

If you missed the worship experience last Sunday, you missed one of the finest ex-iences of worship ever held in our sanctuary. More people have commented on the ver of that service than upon any other since I have been here. The anthem by the ir was lovely indeed, and the solo by Bob Cocherille was a moving spiritual experi-e. Yes, indeed, if you missed the worship experience of your Church last Sunday, missed a touching spiritual experience.

By the way, I'm sure this Sunday's worship will be just as rich and rewarding to se who come with questing hearts. Will you be a part of Sunday's great throng?

Often people ask themselves the question, "Why worship anyway?" Some people l that they are not sinners and therefore all this spiritual enriching program is not cessary for them. But sin is not largely wrongdoing. It is not basically a matter of aking the law. It is not first of all shortcoming or missing the mark. Sin is a kind ife, a quality and direction of living. Before sin becomes sins or acts, it is a state of ng. Sin is a matter of being before it becomes a matter of doing. Jesus clearly in-ated that inactivity on behalf of God was sin indeed! The letter of James indicates t sin is a matter of knowing what is good and not doing it. The Bible is emphatic hat a person commits sin when one refuses to be involved in an active participation building the Kingdom of God. Do you not recall the words of Jesus, "Not everyone o says, Lord, Lord, shall enter the Kingdom of Heaven, but he who DOES the will he Father who is in heaven."

Therefore, participating in the worship experiences, planning the work and pro-m of the Church, attending meetings as responsible Christians, working in the Bible hool, the women's groups, etc. — all these activities is the doing of our Father's will. lk is cheap and easy! Deeds of kindness and concern demand much, oh so much re than the average nominal Churchman is willing to give!

SUNDAY'S SERMON: "Sharing God's Outlook"

Before looking around at what the neighbors and friends are doing, let us look up what God would have us do, then act in His Name and by His Spirit and Power.

HRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

ar Christian Friends:

)ur Fall program is rounding out into ull-grown schedule that will make our ople increasingly aware of the import- ce of Christian Education as it is related the growing body of Christ. The Re- nptive Community must keep in mind o things: (1) The mission of the Church to constantly reach out to proclaim the ssage of salvation through faith and edience to Jesus Christ. (2) The mis- n is not complete unless we take into nsideration that inward redemption is t as necessary as the outreach of the spel.

Christian Education is something more n a program. It is an association. It a fellowship. It is, indeed, personall re than anything else, we must become are of persons and their continuing ed of the personal relationship to God ough His Son Jesus Christ. In the light this important question we must ask rselves the question, "What difference es Christian Education make in my ?"

Those who teach and those who learn st confront themselves with the import- ce of growing in capacity to give and receive. If lives go unchanged, it may that we ought to concentrate more on r ability to learn(the capacity to re- ive), or our ability to teach (the power impart). One thing we must all confess, d that is our following the Master from ar. As I examine my own life, I know at it is impossible to give something at I don't have. I can lead persons no arer to Jesus than I myself have been. know, too, that I cannot follow where ners would lead unless I have a desire tread in the steps of the Master.

In this matter, there aren't two classes, e guilty and the innocent. We all stand the balance scales of life and are found anting. Let it be our prayer, then, that e will determine to make our the fellow- ip of the "forgiven and forgiving."

Please keep in mind the important date, ctober 5, 1962, 7:30 P.M. This is PRO- OTION NIGHT. All Church School teach- s, parents, children, and Church Officers e requested to be present in the Sanc- ary. Remember, October is CHURCH OYALTY MONTH!! Demonstrate your yalty by being present each Sunday at 15 A.M.

FROM THE PASTOR'S STUDY

Someone has written, "The New Testament knows nothing of unattached Christians." have only to read the Acts of the Apostles and the Letters of St. Paul to know how e this is. The wonderful new life which Christians experienced in New Testament es came through the Church. This is still true. If we really want to experience new ritual life, we must find it in Christ. One of the best ways to do this is to seek Him ough a deepening Christian companionship in the Church.

Another writer has said: "We begin to grow only when we begin to worship." It uld then follow, that when we stop worshipping, we stop growing. Here in the House God we come face to face, not only with the divine promises, but also with the divine mmand to take up the cross and follow Christ.

LET US WORSHIP TOGETHER! Let us PRAY together! Let us SEEK GOD'S GUIDCE together! Let us SHARE together in God's program and promise! Let us SERVE ether!

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD

Dear Christian Friends:

One great desire that seems to be prevalent in Christian circles today is that the power of God should touch human life and reclaim and restore and revitalize it. From young children right on through every age, people are craving the recreative influence of God. For this reason, Christian Education is a part of the total picture of the Church, is utilizing the best that it has to help people mature in Christian faith.

The Church as the body of Christ and the redeeming community is seeking to evangelize the world. At the same time it is aware of the continuing need for nurturing the spiritual growth of those already within this framework. As St. Paul words it in the Roman Epistle, "For I am not ashamed of the gospel; it is the power of God for salvation to every one who has faith, to the Jew first and also to the Greek. For in it the righteousness of God is revealed through faith for faith; as it is written, 'He who through faith is righteous shall live.'" (Romans 1:16,17)

You see, the gospel is the power of God both for those who are part of the body of Christ and for those who are being brought into it, the Jew and the Greek. What St. Paul is saying is this: even though we become a part of the Body of Christ, we do not outgrow our need for God's power in our lives to redeem, recreate and reclaim. And he is saying that the power to accomplish this, whether we are in the body of Christ or out of it, is the good news that Christ died for our sins and lives that we might live, too.

The one central aim of Christian Education is to communicate the presence of the living Christ as the Savior of the world. Unfortunately, the entire world, that is, every single person, will not necessarily be influenced by this gospel. St. Paul did not say that it was the power to every one, but he made it conditional. It is the power and does become the power to those who have faith, who believe in and trust the living Christ, not just once as in the act of "joining the Church," but by living daily in that life of trust. It is a growth process today as it was in his life.

REMEMBER, The Church School meets each Lord's Day at 9:15 A.M. to encourage and strengthen your faith. If you miss, your soul has lost a golden opportunity. May we see you this and every Lord's Day?

JOHN W. WILLIAMS,
Associate-Minister

How Big Is The Church In Your Heart?

The above is our slogan for the fall and winter program! Let us all put the Church o our hearts and our hearts into the Church! The Bible School and the Worship ex- iences are opportunities for spiritual growth than ought not to be taken lightly. ery life is made richer and sweeter by having fellowshipped with the family of God a Sunday morning. The sweetest memories of my own life center about a small vn church! I thank God for that Church and the men and women who helped to ape my life godward. Will your sons and daughters have formed this type of mem- of their early years? Ah, yes, let's put our hearts into the Church!

TIME FOR FELLOWSHIP. This coming Sunday the District churches will meet the fall rally at Auburn, Indiana. Registration will be $1.50 for adults and $1.00 for youth — this price will include the evening meal! Some 15 of our youth have already ned up to attend, and we are still looking for many more youth and some fine adults. ou do not buy a ticket to eat at the Church you may be hard-put to find an eating ace in Auburn on a Sunday evening. Let's have a great gathering of our own people fellowship.

Did you know that there were 37 of our young people gathered together Sunday ening for the program and choir? It was a wonderful group of Christian young ople. This coming Sunday evening Chi Rho fellowship gets under way. Let's have out 65 or 70 of our young people present!

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

Dear Christian Friends:

Friday, October 5, 1962, at 7:30 P.M., our Church will participate in one of the most important exercises of the Church Year. This is going to be "PROMOTION NIGHT" at First Christian Church in Fort Wayne.

Everyone is asked to be present, in their designated pews, promptly at 7:30 P.M. Each class and department will have assigned seats to which they will be led and seated. REMEMBER: the program starts at 7:30 P.M., and you should be here a few minutes before.

Because we believe that Christian Education is the hope of the world, we also believe that it is important enough to expect all members of the Church, Church School Teachers, Members of the Board and Parents to be in attendance.

Immediately following the Benediction all teachers will retire to their class rooms with their NEW pupils. At this time, parents may come by the classes to get acquainted with the teachers and get to know something about what is going to take place in the year ahead.

Part of the program this Friday night will be devoted to a service of commitment and dedication. This is not to be a service of commitment just for teachers. For the entire church is involved in the educational ministry, and the whole congregation is called to commit itself to the work of redemption.

There will be a new class this coming Sunday morning, October 7, 1962. It will be the Ninth Grade with Mr. John Barbre as the teacher. All Chi Rho and CYF'ers are urged to remember that there will be no choir rehearsal October 7, but we will resume practice on October 14. We have 15 YF'ers going to District Convention in Auburn.

Teachers, youth workers, parents and Church Officers are urged to attend CHRISTIAN LIFE DEVELOPMENT SCHOOL at North Christian Church, October 12-14, 1962. Please see the south entrance Bulletine Board for further details. See you Friday night at 7:30 P.M. and Sunday at 9:15 A.M.

"LET'S GO NEIGHBORING"

This coming Sunday afternoon we propose to practice Christian fellowship. We are ting all who would like to make several friendly visits on some of our wonderful nbers who have not been here since our fall program got under way the first Sunday eptember. All calls — I repeat — all calls, will be made on our own Church mem-s! It is the first of our planned events to encourage our membership to PUT THE URCH IN THEIR HEARTS. The question you have seen in three color posters und the Church is: HOW MUCH DO YOU LOVE THE CHURCH? HOW BIG IS THE URCH IN YOUR HEART? Then in bold and lovely red letters it challenges all who it to PROVE YOUR LOVE!

Attendance has been registered at all of the services and anyone who has not yet nded this fall, along with our wonderful shut-ins will receive a friendly, neighboring this coming Sunday afternoon! Help us keep the calls to a minimum by being in ndance this coming Sunday morning and signing an attendance card. They will checked immediately after the service to help keep the number of calls to a mini-n. We hope we have more who are willing to call than need calling upon. God ss you!

HAVE YOU NOTICED THE PAINTING AND REPAIRING OF THE SANCTUARY GO-ON? This is the first upkeep we have expended on our lovely building. Several rs ago when we started on the ten year loan, which will see the end of our mort-e indebtedness, many people immediately dropped their building fund pledge as ugh the need was gone. Did you forget that we have a real need of at least $1,200 onth for the mortgage payment, and that the total scope of the repairs now needed the building amount to over $6,000! At this writing it doesn't appear we'll be able o what must be done because we do not have any such figure in hand as $6,000. he near future we are going to have to reactivate our building fund or reeducate people as to the continuing needs of a church as large as ours, and one with a gram that seeks to minister to every area of Christian concern — at home, in the e and nation, and across the world. We have obligations, morally and spiritually, be a complete Church, witnessing to our faith wherever human need is seen. We o have a need to erase as quickly as possible the debt of long standing. We dare ignore it. We cannot feel that we have done our share. As long as need is here, anywhere around the world, we are held accountable by God for doing now what can do! Ah, yes, how much do you love the Church? Keep the Church in your heart.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD

Dear Christian Friends:

On Saturday, October 20, 1962, 6:30 P.M. all Church School Teachers and officers of the adult classes are invited to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Weicker, 5200 North Washington Rd., for a weiner roast. You won't need to bring a thing but yourself. Come dressed for comfort and everything else will be furnished. THE PURPOSE: to get acquainted with the forthcoming emphasis in November, "PROVE YOUR LOVE" —"Put Your Heart in the Church."

Our love for Christ and His Church should be a growing experience for each follower of the Master. When we ask ourselves the question, "How big is the Church in your heart?", we must answer that it is not big enough until we are caught up in a consuming devotion. If the Church is not bigger in my heart today than it was yesterday, it isn't big enough.

In this highly secularized world, when we see atheistic materialism almost snuffing out spiritual values, the forces of evil and oppression on the march, and the revival of ancient non-Christian religions, we should all take heart that our Church is calling us to a renewed sense of dedication. And that is exactly what the "PROVE YOUR LOVE" emphasis is designed to do.

I fear that, all too often, allegiance to Jesus Christ has been merely "the respectable thing to do" for many of us. We have given intellectual assent to a noble idea. Our minds have told us that Christianity is plausable. But what about our hearts and emotions? To be sure, Christianity is based upon intellectual pursuit of the truth, but its message is directed at the moving emotions of man.

Christ had much to say about man's emotions. He challenged men to follow him on the basis of a deep, affectionate loyalty. He said, "If you LOVE me you will keep my commandments." And he also clearly taught that the badge of discipleship was not Church Membership, but LOVE. "By this shall all men know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another." "Greater love has no man than this: that a man lay down his life for a friend." "You are my friends if you do whatever I command you." The response to the gospel of Christ is a response to the supreme act of God's love. We must respond with our emotions, or the intellectual pursuit is meaningless.

PUT YOUR HEART INTO THE CHURCH and attend Church School at 9:15 each and every Sunday Morning.

JOHN W. WILLIAMS,
Associate-Minister

FIRST CHRISTIAN TIDINGS

"THE FAMILY CHURCH" "AS FRIENDLY AS IT IS BEAUTIFUL"

ume 21 Fort Wayne, Indiana, October 18, 1962 Number 3

"HOW BIG IS THE CHURCH, FOR WHICH CHRIST DIED, IN YOUR HEART?"

A most interesting question was asked me this week by a friend and I've thought ut it for a long time. The question, "Why is it the Church has to practically beg called" Christians to worship and support the Kingdom of God?"

A lot of quick and easy answers rose to my mind, but my friend didn't want a quick easy response. Well, why does the Church of the Living God, even in times like e, still have to practically beg "so-called" Christians to attend worship services to support the program of the Kingdom of God?

—First, I believe those who have little taste for the worship of their Saviour and little faith in giving their money to support its witness within this community, this nation, and around the world, have little of the Spirit of Christ. And the scriptures has warned us, "they that have not the Spirit of Christ, ARE NONE OF HIS!"

—Secondly, I believe that evil influences keep men lukewarm in their response to Christ, and I believe that lukewarmness is the surest sign of a life apart from God. (See Romans 7:7-25) (Rev. 3:15-16) !

—Thirdly, I believe the world is more real to most men than is God ! They prefer the things of the world to the things of the spirit, (I John 2:15-17). And the Word of God clearly states. "If anyone loves the world, love of the Father is not in him."

All this is not to excuse the responsibility of Christians to seek and to save those o are being lost: Our task as followers of the Divine Shepherd is to endeavor in ry way possible to bring back those who by indifference are slipping away from d to loneliness and lostness.

Let's quit fiddling with Christianity — Read Matt: 14-18-35 !

PROGRESS THROUGH PREPARATIO

The Christian Obligation of Our Da

"The time has come for a new intel tual awakening among the Christ Churches . . . It is our responsibility answer the Lord's call for great lead in every field of learning."

—Perry E. Greshar

"Daily we are encouraged by the panding circle of friends who are join us in our work. Churches, individu foundations, and corporations are say "We, too, believe that the best poss preparation must be provided for the fi ministerial recruits, if the church is to complish her mission in this decisive h of history."

Many people are impressed by the citing but frightful potential of this sp age, but thinking men and women are creasingly investing their faith in Gospel as the power of God for the demption of the world.

We make progress in our mission w we are prepared to do so. It is my h that you will determine to join us in task as we prepare effective leaders tomorrow's church."

—Beauford A. Norris, Preside Christian Theological Semin

$1,500.00 OUR GOAL!

HRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

r Christian Friends:

fter seeing the eye-level streamers und the Church Building the past two days, many people have asked the stion, "When does the "PROVE YOUR VE" Crusade begin in our Church?" answer is that it has already begun. t Board meeting all members of the cial Board signed commitment cards dging their support through attendance four consecutive Sundays during the ith of November.

he next two Sundays you will be given opportunity to sign a commitment d, following the leadership of your cial Board. The card reads: "I WILL OVE MY LOVE. My Church has a large ce in my heart and unless prevented circumstances over which I have no trol I will be present all four Sundays ing the "PROVE YOUR LOVE" Cru- e. 'Christ also loved the Church and e himself for it.' (Ephesians 5:25)."

Our goal is to have every member of Church enrolled in this emphasis to nd Church School. This is a solemn enant between you and your God. We that God is calling each one to dem- trate his loyalty and commitment to Church through regular and consistent ndance. If you are physically handi- ped and circumstances do not permit to attend, please drop us a card ing us know that you are praying for success of the crusade. If circum- nces beyond your control do not permit to attend, this is a matter between and God. But if they do not, we will expecting to see you in your class the morning and evening worship vices.

firmly believe that when a man loves wife and children, the sheriff doesn't ve to get a warrant to make him go ne at nights. Likewise, I believe that en people love the Church as Christ , they will be in their places on Sunday rning. This entire emphasis deals with human heart, the emotions and the ngs a man loves. It will touch your art and rekindle the fires of faith if u put your whole heart into the Church d the Church into your heart. Try God's y. It works!

We'll be looking forward to seeing you d your entire family in Church School 9:15 A.M. next Sunday morning.

WHAT WILL YOU DO WITH JESUS?

You can take the attitude of the Scrib and Pharisees: dodge the issue and rai other questions. They were willing accept Jesus as a great teacher, a peerle prophet, a wonderful example, but r as the Son of God. Unbelievers still dod vital issues. You can take the attitu of Judas, who sold Jesus for thirty piec of silver. Judas said, "The temporal worth more than the eternal. I'll sell h out." You are selling out Jesus when y let business, pleasure, family, or pow come between you and Jesus. You c take the attitude of the mob and t soldiers who made up their minds crucify Jesus. They d idn't ask, "Is th man telling the truth?" or "Is this justice They had made up their minds. Ma people have made up their minds to as they please, whether it is right or n You can take the attitude of the thi on the cross and ask for mercy. You c trust in the saving power of the Lo Jesus Christ; you can receive forgivene and salvation. What will you do wi Jesus?

"THE FAMILY CHURCH" "AS FRIENDLY AS IT IS BEAUTIFUL"

olume 21 Fort Wayne, Indiana, October 25, 1962 Number 4

"Now what use is it, my brothers, for a man to say he "has faith" if his actions do ot correspond with it? Could that sort of faith save anyone's soul? If a fellow man or oman has no clothes to wear and nothing to eat, and one of YOU say, "Good luck you, I hope you'll keep warm and find enough to wear," and yet give them nothing meet their physical needs, what on earth is the good of that? Yet that is exactly nat a bare faith without a corresponding life is like — USELESS AND DEAD." (James 14-17) (Phillips Translation).

Just put the aim of Christian education in the 14th verse, and it wouldn't be too r fetched to say, "If your Christian Theological Seminary has real needs to be met by our financial support in order that young men and women might be trained for the sks committed to the Church, and you say "Good luck, we hope you'll find the eans to keep your doors open, and your students in classes," but do not give your nancial support to see that the Seminary is provided with an opportunity to serve, HAT ON EARTH GOOD IS YOUR GOOD WISHES? What is the use of wishing for hristian Education without the commitment to undergird the Seminary with your oney. Is it not useless and lifeless?"

We fell short of our goal of $1,500 by $650.00! Last year we went over the top! It is true that we always wait one week for those who have not made their gifts and that usually several hundred dollars comes in during the week for the special causes. Well, without adequate seminaries there would be no trained ministers, no chaplains, no religious education directors, no brotherhood leaders, no Seminary professors, etc.

I always feel embarrassed by a Church as great as ours missing the goals, especially when I know that it isn't our lack of this world's goods, but the lack of interest in causes that reach beyond the local Church. It's always thrilling for me to see some fine young Christian family sharing in sums that startle me, and I am saddened by seeing those who can but won't!

I write this the morning after our President sent our naval forces to blockade uba. What he is really saying is, "Talk won't do! It's high time for actions to do our peaking"! Frightening? Yes! Terrifying! But we know that freedom's cause demands frightful price — and we are willing and ready to pay it!

What about the Church? Time for talking is over! Let our actions and our check-ooks speak for our Christian concerns andcommitment!

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

Dear Christian Friends:

Dietrich Bonhoeffer, a courageous pastor of the German Confessing Church, was put to death by special order of Heinrich Himmler on April 9, 1945. If you go to the Church in Flossenburg, you will see a tablet with this inscription:

"Dietrich Bonhoeffer, a witness of Jesus Christ among his brethren. Born February 4, 1906, in Breslau. Died April 9, 1945 in Flossenburg."

Because he refused to have any part in the "German-Christian" compromise with the Nazi government, he was imprisoned on April 5, 1943. Doubtlessly during these years of imprisonment, he came to a deep awareness of the Christian fellowship. It is said that his last sermon was based on the text, "With his stripes are we healed." He has been described as "a witness who saw the way of discipleship and walked it to the end."

In regard to the Christian community he had these words to say: " . . . Between the death of Christ and the Last Day it is only by gracious anticipation of the last things that Christians are privileged to live in visible fellowship with other Christians." And the next sentence, I want to underscore. "IT IS BY THE GRACE OF GOD THAT A CONGREGATION IS PERMITTED TO GATHER VISIBLY IN THIS WORLD TO SHARE GOD'S WORD AND SACRAMENT." "It is easily forgotten that the fellowship of Christian brethren is a gift of grace, a gift of the Kingdom of God that any day may be taken from us, that the time that separates us from utter loneliness may be brief indeed."

Furthermore, he emphasizes the fact that Jesus Christ is the center of our fellowship. "We belong to one another only through and in Jesus Christ." " . . . The Christian is the man who no longer seeks his salvation, his deliverance, his justification in himself, but in Jesus Christ alone."

Consider these potent words in the light of our own attendance at Church functions. Friends, whatever time we have to fellowship with one another is given to us by no other means than the grace of God. And if we had forever, that time would be all too short! Your Church meets for fellowship, instruction and inspiration at 9:15 and 10:30 A.M. each Lord's Day. Our fellowship is not complete without you and your family.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD

Dear Christian Friends:

If Christian Education is to induct grow ing persons into the life of the Christia fellowship it must recognize that it is dea ing with something more than huma quest for the good life. It is the sharin of something that is divinely given. I last week's article I quoted from the note of Dietrich Bonhoeffer as he explaine that Christian fellowship is a gift of God grace.

Christian Education makes two emphat statements. (1) God has revealed himse by way of his own free choice. (2) H son, Jesus Christ, by whom he reveale himself, is the means by which we com to God and experience fellowship with or another.

In the light of this, we trace Christic Education to its source and we follow to its logical conclusions. We are not th origins nor the destinations of Christic Education. Since Christian Education di not begin with us and it does not conclud with us, it is reasonable to believe th we are channels through which it can pa through to others.

Did you ever ask yourself these que tions, "Where did my Church School teac er come from?" Where do people get i volved in all of this business? How c teachers appear "from out of thin air" guide my thoughts and the lives of m children? Where do the teaching an learning processes originate?

Go back one more step. Where c thoughts come from? Where do the rive of emotion and desire begin? These a questions that Marxists and materialis dare not ask. They dare not ask them b cause the answers will cause their philo ophies to tumble. The basic assumptio upon which they work is that only th material universe, that is, that which c be communicated through the five sense is the only ultimate reality.

Christian Education says that there something beyond the physical, and it the spiritual. It is this spiritual reali that gives our material world meaning an purpose. It says that God has penetrat the barriers between the two in the pe son of his Son Jesus Christ. Yes, and t Church seeks to call men and women something more than a quest for the "go life." It calls us to love and obedience God.

Will God speak to and through us? T real question is "Will we listen if does?" See you and your family at 9: A.M. Sunday.

JOHN W. WILLIAMS,
Associate-Minister

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

Dear Christian Friends:

Our Church School as a whole achieved its goal for attendance last Sunday, and for this we are thankful. Let me list the classes and departments that surged ahead. They are: Babes and Toddlers, Nursery, Kindergarten, Primary Department, Berean, Progressive, Men's, and the Friendly Classes.

Honorable mention should be made of the classes that just barely missed their goal. They are: Junior Department, '58 Class, High School, Junior High (Chi Rho), and Ladies. These just missed by one or two in each class.

THE HONOR CLASS, all spelled with capitals, is the PROGRESSIVE CLASS. Our hats are off to them. Under their dedicated leadership, they set a good goal of 40. But when counting time arrived last Sunday, they had 60 adults present with two babies that didn't get counted at all. Let's all take a lesson from this great class and learn their "secret" for getting things done. What a Church School we would have if every class went over its goal by 20!!! The building committee would have to go to work to locate adequate space to house them.

IF YOU NOTICED, there were not many visitors present last Sunday. It was just like Easter Sunday. Our people all came out in force. But there were many who were still absent, and we missed them. With a little more work this week we can fill every available space in Church School and the two worship Services. The enthusiasm generated from last week's attendance should boost us over the top this Sunday. But enthusiasm without work will die.

TO KEEP IT GOING, here's what you can do: (1) Resolve to continue by being present yourself. (2) Pray for the Church to occupy the number one spot in your heart. (3) Class officers can call all members urging them to be present. (4) Invite your relatives, friends and neighbors. (5) IF YOU MISSED OR WILL MISS A SUNDAY, you may make it up by bringing a visitor either the Sunday after or before your absence.

OUR GOAL NEXT SUNDAY IS 438, but let's exceed 487 we had last Sunday. Let's make it SRO (Standing Room Only) in every class. REMEMBER: "Christ also loved the Church and gave Himself for it." Prove your love by being present each Sunday.

JOHN W. WILLIAMS
Associate-Minister

SINCERE SYMPATHY

We wish to express our sincere s pathy to Mr. Ted Bryan and his famil the recent loss of his father at Hunting Indiana.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

ear Christian Friends:

FOR THE SECOND SUNDAY IN A ROW ur Church School has exceeded its total oal for attendance. Despite the fact that any were ill, our attendance was 458 st Sunday. Two classes joined the ranks those who have reached their goals. hey are the High School (CYF) and the adies Classes.

WE OVERLOOKED ONE CLASS LAST EEK THAT REACHED ITS GOAL on November 4, 1962. That class was the Fifty-ight Class. By virtue of seven teachers ho were filling their posts, they had 44 resent. This was not an intentional mis-ake!

THE HONOR CLASS THIS WEEK, and m almost embarassed to print the name, the Come-Double Class. I'm delighted at this class did reach their worthy goal! he point of embarassment is that I'm the eacher, and it could sound as if I were oing some "horn-tootin'." Their goal was 2 and they had 66 present. This was ieir second Sunday to reach their goal.

THERE ARE ONLY TWO MORE SUNAYS left in the "PROVE YOUR LOVE" mphasis, so let us push forward to make ie m even better than the first two Sundays. Long after this emphasis is over, ur people will be enlarging the place in ieir hearts for the Church for which our ord gave Himself. Yes, lasting results ill be felt throughout the years as people ake anew their vows of loyalty and love.

NEXT SUNDAY IS THE LAST SUNDAY o examine and order books from the Christian Literature Week" book display. ou may do so immediately following the Vorship Services and during the Fellowhip Supper Hour. The books that are ot sold will be returned.

AS WE LOOK FORWARD TO ADVENT ND CHRISTMAS SEASON, please reserve ie dates. December 16 and 23. The eveing hour or Vesper will be devoted to ie children on the 16th and the Choir's hristmas music on the 23rd. Please set iese dates aside now and plan to attend nd participate.

OUR GOAL FOR CHURCH SCHOOL is 38. Next Sunday let's have SRO in every lass room at 9:15 A.M. See you then.

JOHN W. WILLIAMS,
Associate-Minister

WE ASK THE CONGREGATION'S INDULGENCE

Some may be wondering why we have all those wiggly children in the balcony each Sunday morning. This is a part of the planned program for Primary department children, under the supervision of Mrs. James Naile, during the Church Hour.

The children remain for the Communion service and then leave the sanctuary for their class rooms for a story hour.

The officers of the department are putting out an SOS call for volunteers to help with the children. If you would like to serve in this way, please see Mrs. James Naile, or Mrs. Wm. Love.

IN SYMPATHY

Sorrow has touched the hearts of several families in the Church this last week.

Mrs. Eva Mosier passed away last week. She was a faithful member of the Church for many years and served with the Choir faithfully and well.

* * *

The mother of Mr. Rufus Quinn passed away recently after a long illness.

* * *

Also, the mother of Mr. Kenneth Zingrebe passed away several days ago after being hospitalized for several weeks.

* * *

We wish to express our sincere sympathy to these families. May God comfort and sustain them in their sad hours.

* * * * * * * *

ON OUR PRAYER LIST

Mr. Thomas Hagar has been a patient in St. Joseph's Hospital.

Mrs. Ralph Simmons is a patient in St. Joseph's Hospital, Room 380.

Mrs. Edna Mapel is a patient in Lutheran Hospital, Room 338.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

Dear Christian Friends:

THE BEST NEWS IS HERE! The "PROVE YOUR LOVE" Emphasis DOES NOT end this coming Sunday! That's right, it is going to continue as long as men and women, boys and girls make Jesus Christ the Master of all of life. The worthy goals that each of you helped to establish should never be discarded. Instead, they should encourage us to reach greater heights.

TALK ABOUT THIS IN YOUR CLASS THIS SUNDAY: can we conscientiously offer anything other than the best to our Lord? If we have pledged to work harder, pray more and believe bigger during the month of November, can we dare accept a lower standard for December? May each class resolve to move forward from the achievements we have realized!

THE HONOR CLASS THIS WEEK is not a class but a whole department. For three weeks in a row they have exceeded their goal of 50. They had 64 present. This is not the only class that has reached its goal three weeks in a row, but it is our Honor Class for this week. NEXT WEEK WE WILL PUBLISH THE NAMES OF ALL CLASSES THAT HAVE REACHED OR EXCEEDED THEIR GOALS. Next Sunday may well be the one that will put your class over the top. If you have been absent, your absence will not count against you and your class record if you bring a visitor with you.

THE ONLY DEPARTMENT THAT HAS NOT REACHED ITS GOAL is the Junior High Department. Their goal is 52. We are looking forward to their achievement this coming Sunday morning. Come on, kids! We're pulling for you!

SPECIAL MENTION SHOULD BE MADE about the Bible reading program of the High School (CYF) class under Mr. Jim Naile. They are reading the Bible through, five chapters a week, beginning with Genesis. Maybe your class would like to follow their example.

DID YOU KNOW that the word "thank" came from the Anglo-Saxon word "think"? To fail to give thanks is to fail to think! I'll see you in Church School at 9:15 A.M. Sunday.

JOHN W. WILLIAMS,
Associate-Minister

FROM THE PASTOR'S STUDY

The greatest theft of all time is the spectacle of man stealing his existence from God. e moment we treat one hour of time, one square foot of soil, one ability or one talent if it is ours to do with as we please — that moment man becomes an embezzler.

Only God has title to existence, whether it be the existence of a star, a day, a mole- e or you.

In the courts of the land you hold title, perhaps to a car, a house, a quarter section and. But in the courts of God you hold no right of ownership; your rights, and your y, are that of a manager, a steward, a trust officer. In a civil court you can defend ir right to burn down your house if you will, because the house is yours.. You can- make the same defense in the courts of God, because the house is God's, not yours.

Everything we have is a loan from God. He may lease it to us on a short term sis or long. Today we may have possessions, tomorrow we may not. Today you ght hold your little daughter in your arms tomorrow swift death may terminate the se. To treat one moment of your daughter's life as if it is you;rs to keep is to rob d of that which is His and not yours. Rather it is for us to thank Him for every mo- nt given us with that which is not really ours.

Only one gift is conveyed to you in title. One gift, and one alone, cannot be taken m you ever, against your will. This gift is forgiveness and life eternal with Him. ither the angels of heaven nor the demons of hell, nor God Himself, can take from u the right to be His throughout life and eternity. It is the will of God Himself to give u the Kingdom! A Cross certifies this right to you forever more. You lose it only en you yourself surrender it. You keep it in a faith which He bestows upon you, and d keeping it you have life eternal!

As you ponder your pledge to the Kingdom which centers around a Cross, remember, t year Americans spent $2 for tobacco for every $1 given to Churches; and approx- ately $8 on alcoholic beverages for every $1 to the Kingdom of God! Last year nericans spent more than $90 million more on their pedigreed dogs than they gave ectly to their Churches!

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

Dear Christian Friends:

Let's try it again! That was a familiar exclamation to those who once drove Model T Fords in the hill country. About halfway to the top of the hill the car would stall, the driver would hold the brake, while everybody got out. He would roll back down the hill, get a running start, and almost stall at the same place. But this time, those who had been riding on the first attempt, would run along the side of the car and give it a push until it reached the top.

That's what we needed for Church School last Sunday to push us over the top in our "PROVE YOUR LOVE" emphasis. We sailed through the first three Sundays, but the fourth Sunday, we stalled. The long Thanksgiving week-end just took too much out of us. But we are going to try again! The world didn't come to an end when we didn't make it to our goal. Our Church is no Model T Ford Church in the jet, space and atomic age. We have the power and the people to make ours a greater Church. We still need that extra push that each person can give. LET'S HAVE SRO IN EACH CLASS THIS SUNDAY just to prove that we can!

THESE CLASSES OR DEPARTMENTS REACHED and exceeded their goals for the month of November: Men, Progressive and Primary. There were several classes that reached their goals three out of four Sundays. Only one did not reach it! All of our classes and departments will keep on, though.

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 9, our Church will have the privilege of hearing speakers from the Gideons organization. We will have three men to visit our Church, one speaking at the Adult assembly, one at the Junior assembly and one at the Primary. They will tell about the work that Gideons perform in placing the Word of God in hotels, motels, prisons, school rooms and army chapels. These men give their time and provide their own travel expenses, and not one cent that is given for this work is used for anything except to print and publish the Word of God. An offering will be taken at the cl ose of the morning worship. A Gideon will stand at each door with an open Bible upon which you may place your gift for this work. Plan now to be in the assemblies to hear these men of God. I'll see you Sunday at 9:15 A.M.

Associate-Minister

"THE FAMILY CHURCH" "AS FRIENDLY AS IT IS BEAUTIFUL"

lume 21 Fort Wayne, Indiana, December 6, 1962 Number 10

FROM THE PASTOR'S STUDY

One of the thrilling experiences of the Christmas season is to watch the growing ticipation of children. Their slowly emerging patience and goodness is touching, and eir voluntary helpfulness is quite a change! Their hearts are wide with the wonder- ent and merriment of Christmas—and well they should! But what of His coming to you

"In my opinion whatever we may have to go through now is less than nothing compared with the magnificent future God has planned for us. The whole creation is on tiptoe to see the wonderful sight of the sons of God coming into their own. The world of creation cannot as yet see reality, not because it chooses to be blind, but because in God's purpose it has been so limited—yet it has been given hope. And the hope is that IN THE END THE WHOLE OF CREATED LIFE WILL BE RESCUED FROM THE TYRANNY OF CHANGE AND DECAY, AND HAVE ITS SHARE IN THAT MAGNIFICENT LIBERTY WHICH CAN ONLY BELONG TO THE CHILDREN OF GOD!" (Romans 8:18-21. Phillips Trans.)

Here is something of the universal Christmas Spirit — a tiptoe excitement for the ure God has planned for those who have loved Him and have obeyed His command- ents! Something of the very essence of the Christmas Spirit is here present; that is, e one having disappointed God will have little to look forward to in the coming Day His judgment, but to those who have loved Him and obeyed Him, there shall be un- erable glory as men and women are "rescued from the tyranny of change an decay!"

A great difference between our Christmas gifts and God's would be that ours will on come under the dominion of change and decay. Time will lay our best in dust, t time and decay have no power over the gift of God! You see, friend, you are but e swift heartbeat, and but one whispered breath, from the rim of eternity! Nothing u do, or refuse to do, can ever change that! And then what?

Christianity could be equated with the word "giving." God so loved the world He ave His only begotten Son," and the Son so loved us He gave His life on the Cross of lvary, and down the long corridor of the centuries those who have loved Him most, ve given most of time and talent and treasure, and the circle became complete. God ve Jesus—Jesus gave us His very life—and we give back to God crystalized life that s saving grace may be known abroad!

Will Christ be central in your Christmas? Then there must be a Stable—A Star—Cross—and A Crown!

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

)ear Christian Friends.

Approaching the Advent Season, that is, ıe coming of Christ, we are reminded that ur God is a giving God. Whatever we ıay say about Christmas, with all the tin-el, wrappings and high celebrations, we ıust remember one thing—it is a time of iving. No matter what else we may learn bout Christmas, if we fail to learn the)y of giving we have completely missed s meaning.

A minister friend of mine was soliciting)r a worthy cause and was turned down y a curt letter that ended with this sen-ence: "As far as I can see, this Christian usiness is one of continuous give, give, ive." The clergyman wrote back, "Thank ou for the best definition of the Christian fe I have ever heard."

A committee went to see a rich man in ew York, asking for a gift of one thou-and dollars for a certain charity, and he aid, "No." He was even rude about it. s the committee started away, he said, Go to that young attorney at the end of ıe hall, and tell him I said to give you ne thousand dollars for this cause." "But ou yourself have given nothing!" they ex-laimed. "No," he replied, "that is the agedy. I have it all right, and there was time when I could have given it to you nd would have been glad to do so, but have loved it so long that the springs of hilanthropy have dried up."

Christianity began with a gift, it was ramatically magnified by a gift, and it as continued by the giving of God to is people and their giving of themselves Him. God gave His only Son, His only on gave His life, and early Christians ave of themselves and the material pos-essions to extend the Kingdom.

Is it little wonder then that every day eems like Christmas for those who have aptured and shared this secret of life. iving is not giving unless we catch this pirit and make it a permanent part of our ves. St. Paul reminds us that we are to e "instant in season and out of season." would like to paraphrase this and make say, "Let us learn the lesson of giving nd catch this spirit that we may be giv-g, not just at Christmas season, but all roughout the year."

Walter Judd, the great Christian states-an, has said it well, "If Christians are ver going to begin to give as they should, ey must be taught to give." The great-st Christmas gift that you can ever give ourself is the new way of life, the way giving!

JOHN W. WILLIAMS,
Associate-Minister

FROM THE PASTOR'S STUDY

Do you remember the Christmas text of last Sunday's sermon? Many wanted to now so they could read it over again in their own Christmas meditations. It is II eter 1:3-4. In the Phillips translation it reads:

"He has by His own action given us everything that is necessary for living the truly good life, in allowing us to know the one who has called us to Him, through His own glorious goodness. It is through Hi mthat God's greatest and most precious promises have become available to us men, making it possible for you to escape the inevitabie disintegration that lust produces in the world and to share God's essential nature."

And then verse ten states it pretty conclusively: "Set your minds, then, on endors-g by your conduct the fact that God has called and chosen you."

The man on whom the gloryof Christmas has not fallen is poor indeed. Not to have nown the saving grace of our blessed Lord and Saviour is to have missed the purpose being born! Man is born to give glory unto his creator. The quest of human life is become partakers of Hisdivine nature and fellow-workers within His fellowship. If e hope to "share the glory that shall be unfolded to us" (I Peter 5:1) in the life that is et to be, we must begin here and now to be partakers of His plans and purposes. There ill be no crown wearers in heaven who have not been cross bearers here below! et's keep Christ central in our Christmas observances!

Sunday evening will be the special Christmas program with our children presenting e program in word and music. The minister's meditation will be entitled: "SYMBOLS F CHRISTMAS." Robert Cocherille will sing "Jesu Bambino."

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

Let me tell you about an interesting experience. Surgeons at the University of Minnesota have performed an operation during which a healthy person "loans" his heart to a patient on an operating table. The surgeons operate on the "idle" heart in the patient while life processes flow into his body through plastic tubes connected to the donor.

Perhaps there are those who are even now reading this saying to themselves, "If only they had known how to do this years ago, my father would have lived on today." Or a statemnt might be along these lines: "I would be glad to loan my heart that others might be made to live longer."

If we pass up this experience in the light of Christmas, we miss the whole point of the Advent of Jesus. Nearly two thousand years ago, this is exactly what God, through Christ, did for the heart of a sinsick and dying world. He not only "loaned" His heart, but He "gave" it without measure.

Gabriel Marcel, French philosopher and dramatist, put a play on the French stage that contains an eloquent description of our world. One agent cries: "Don't you feel sometimes that we are living . . . in a broken world? Yes, broken like a broken watch. The mainspring has stopped working. Just to look at it, nothing has changed. Everything is in place. But put the watch to your ear, and you don't hear any ticking. You know what I'm talking about: the world, what we call the world of human creatures . . . It seems to me it must have had a heart at one time, but today you would say the heart has stopped beating."

And then we remember the technician in New York City who alertly detected two wires disconnected just before the King of England was to give his annual Christmas message to the Empire. He held the loose ends, allowing the current to flow through his body long enough for the King's message to be heard.

What a graphic picture of the Christian's opportunity! We meet people each day who have been overwhelmed by life. Their hearts have become heavy and broken. We loan our hearts to them through understanding and sympathy and follow the example of One who has ever loaned his heart to the least and the lost. No wonder then that the Church asks you to PUT YOUR HEART INTO THE CHURCH!

PROVE YOUR LOVE by giving your heart and life to Christ in a growing relationship. See you at 9:15 A.M. this Sunday.

JOHN W. WILLIAMS,
Associate-Minister

ENCOUNTERING THE CHRIST OF CHRISTMAS

As we move forward toward Christmas our busy schedules will become even more y, and the tragedy is that many will push aside their opportunities to worship and re the One who came to earth to impart eternal blessings. Too busy messing with el and trinkets to pause and adore the God-Man, who is Christ the Lord! Incredible? but tragically true!

You see, friends, if Christ, the Lord, is what the Churches have always claimed . . . encounter with Him is inevitable. It may be the hour of death, or some hour of sical weakness, or mental unrest, or loneliness, but it will come. If Jesus were just eamer of beautiful dreams who healed the sick and consoled sinners, and comforted fallen, but who after cruel death passed into the great silence to live again no longer, we might ignore Him. But if He be God incarnate . . . if He incarnates all the es of God which a truly human person can express without His humanity being dis- ed . . . then I affectionately urge you to realize that YOU CANNOT EVADE HIM!

In every human life, at some point, there comes the inevitable encounter! Why not e it this moment and this day? Let Christ be supremely yours at this Christmas son.

I AM YOUR CHURCH OFFICE

I am your church office — I feel neglected.

When you are planning to move, you notify every magazine to which you subscribe, you notify your friends, but you fail to notify me. I am your church office — I feel neglected.

When your class plans to have a meeting, you notify all the members of the meeting, but you fail to tell me. Sometimes you plan to have a meeting in the church, and still you fail to let me know. Sometimes it almost embarrasses me, because I have promised the room you want to use to another group. You see, I am your church office — I feel neglected.

When a member of your family is ill, you seem to manage to call all your friends, except me. I like to know all our people who are ill, so why don't you call me? I am your church office — I feel neglected!

THE PERFECT CHURCH

I think I shall never see
A church that's all it ought to be;
A church whose members never stray
Beyond the straight and narrow way;
A church that has no empty pews,
Whose pastor never has the blues,
A church whose deacons always deak,
And none are proud and all are meek;
Where gossip never peddle lies,
Or make complaints or criticize,
Where all are always sweet and kind,
And all to others' faults are blind;
Such perfect churches there may be,
Yet not a one is known to me;
BUT STILL FOR CHRIST:
We'll work and pray, and pay and plan
To make our church the best we can.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

Dear Christian Friends:

Have you ever asked the question about Christmas, "Does it make any difference?" To be certain, there are many physical exasperations accompanying all of the celebrations and ceremonies. When Christmas does come and go, I am sure that lots of us are prone to heave a sigh of relief and rejoice that it is all "over for another year."

We would have it no other way, to be truthful about it, for how else could we have Christmas? The world would not be the same if we just passed this season by and paid no attention to it at all. Whatever we may say or feel, Christmas does make a difference.

Gerald Kennedy was once lecturing at Nebraska Wesleyan University on the subject, "THE DIFFERENCE CHRISTIANITY MAKES." In preparation for this lecture, he wrote to one of his old professors, asking for suggestions. The old professor wrote back and said, "Above all, don't exaggerate. Understate everything Christianity did for the world, because even then the case will be so tremendous no one can doubt it. You don't need to exaggerate."

A Jewish soldier who had attended Protestant services during the Second World War went to a rabbi and asked him the difference between the Messiah of the Jews and the Jesus of the Christians. The rabbi explained: "The difference is that we Jews believe the Messiah is still to come, whereas Christians believe he has already come in Jesus." To this, the soldier asked what I assume was an unanswerable question: "But rabbi, when our Messiah does come, what will he have on Jesus?" Certainly, it would not be purity of life, positive goodness, or perfect righteousness.

The whole meaning of Christmas, the miracle of Christ's birth, his death and his resurrection, is that once and only once in human history was there such a being. He so loved his fellow men that his whole life was dedicated with least alloy of self to the relief and service of all those who stood in need of them. He left us two commandments: that we should love God — whose nature he revealed to us by his own — with all our being; and that we should love our neighbor as ourselves. However far we are from fulfilling either, we all of us, as a result of Christ's life, come at Christmas for a moment a little nearer to both.

May God bless you, one and all, at this season of the year.

JOHN W. WILLIAMS
Associate-Minister

"THE FAMILY CHURCH" "AS FRIENDLY AS IT IS BEAUTIFUL"

lume 21 Fort Wayne, Indiana, December 27, 1962 Number 13

FROM THE PASTOR'S STUDY

From beyond the ramparts of eternity there comes to us another year. Its joys and burdens are unknown. It comes to us as an unsealed gift. What happiness is apped up in it lies just beyond the rim of our awareness. We must walk into the ew Year one step at a time. The moments and the hours are but the forerunner of e passing years. As we make our exit from this old year we need to take the time remember the good wishes we had at its inception which have long since turned to hes. We need to remember the joys and sorrows which came into our fleeting days, bduing our pride and pointing us to innate needs beyond earth's power to meet. We, e the Psalmist of long ago, can but declare, "Lord, Thou has been our dwelling place all generations." Unto Him we have fled often for refuge, and in the shelter of His wer and presence we have found a peace which transcended the agony and ache the moment.

Remember, friend, man does not live by bread alone, but by beauty and harmony, ıth and goodness, work and recreation, affection and friendship, aspiration and wor-ip.

Man does not live by bread alone, but by splendor of the starry firmament at mid-ght, the glory of the heavens at dawning, the gorgeous blending of colors at sunset, e luxuriant loveliness of roses, the sheer magnificance of mountains.

Man does not live by bread alone, but by the majesty of ocean breakers, the shim-er of moonlight on a calm lake, the flashing silver of a mountain torrent, the swirling ace of falling snow, the emerald green of the grass of spring.

Man does not live by bread alone, but by the lyrics and sonnets of poets, the wisdom our sages, the holiness of saints, the courage of great souls, the tenderness of a ɔther's kiss.

Man does not live by bread alone, but by comradeship and high adventure, seeking ıd finding, creating and cooperation, serving and sharing, loving and being loved, being faithful in prayer, responding to the leading of God's gracious Spirit, and by king up the cross and following the Christ of God into a brighter tomorrow. Life, at best, is fleeing. Let us move forward into the New Year with faith and courage. ose the old year with its regrets and regal joys by being in worship Sunday. Face e coming tomorrows with your face sunward and Godward!

ONLY BY FAITH

Arthur Compton, Nobel prize winner in physics, has written: "Every great discovery I ever made, I gambled that the truth was there, and then I acted on it in faith until I could prove its existence."

The mountain of difficulty must be removed by faith. It is easy to believe when we have no problems, but we need belief to remove problems. We must remove the mountains of slavery by faith. It is only by faith that freedom in God is achieved for the individual.

WORTHY RESOLUTIONS!

Full usefulness depends on new thoughts and new horizons. Life must look to the future, not to the past.

Take time to live — it is the secret o success.

Take time to think — it is the source o power.

Take time to play — It is the secret o youth.

Take time to read — it is the foundation of knowledge.

Take time for friendship — it is the source of happiness.

Take time to laugh — it helps lift life's load.

Take time to dream — it hitches the soul to the stars.

Take time for God — it is life's only lasting investment.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

By the time you read this, you probably will be asking your friends, "What did you get for Christmas?" For days the packages have been piling up under the Christmas tree, so that each one has seemed to support the evergreen. You have awaited anxiously the time when the children would get you out of bed and drag you downstairs to open all of those packages marked, "Do Not Open Until Dec. 25."

All of this is wonderful and exciting, and to be sure, it is part of Christmas. But Christmas must be more than this. Toys and trifles cannot take the place of Jesus, our Saviour and Lord. He gives HIMSELF. If Christmas is to mean anything, it must compel us to give ourselves. Far too many of us have given money and things, when we should have given our beings. This is not to say that toys and trinkets have no place for our children. They do, but not as a substitute for the giving of ourselves.

"Would you like to know," a prosperous businessman asked Leigh Mitchell Hodges, "what I'm giving my boy for Christmas?" Expecting it to be some costly present, Hodges was surprised when the man handed him a paper on which was written: "To my dear son: I give you one hour each weekday, and two hours on Sundays, to be used as you wish — Your Father." "The greatest gift a man can give — yet a gift every father owes to his son," was Hodges' comment.

In this age of abundance, it would seem cruel and caustic to deny our children some of the trimmings of Christmas. But how much more cruel would it be — in the ultimate perspective of things — not to give them ourselves? You see, the gift without the giver can add not one iota to a person's spiritual image.

When God chose to express his love to his children, isn't it odd that he didn't continue to send down manna and quail from heaven? Our minds rebel at the thought that somehow God might try to express his love by giving material luxuries or temporal power. The truth of the matter is that God gave HIMSELF to his children. If we miss this, we lose sight of the total framework of Christianity.

The giving of one's self, nor the giving of a gift does not end in the act alone. It must flow forth into fruition and respond by the act of giving again. At this Christmas season, whatever may have been our past, whatever our condition, let us realize that God has given of HIMSELF, and we must respond by giving of our total personalities to Him. If we fail to complete the exchange, we have negated God's gift.

ume 21 Fort Wayne, Indiana, January 3, 1963 Number 14

FROM THE PASTOR'S STUDY

HAPPY NEW YEAR! I will tell you a few of the UNCLAIMED PROMISES (a future non topic!) of God which can make your New Year bright with hope and heavenly n peace of heart and mind;

(1) GOD WILL ALWAYS BE WITH YOU: "As I was with Moses, so will I be with you; I will not fail thee, nor forsake thee. Be strong and of good courage . . . " (Joshua 1:5-6)

(2) ABUNDANT BLESSINGS FOR YOU FROM GOD'S HAND: "Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse, . and prove me now herewith, saith the Lord of Hosts, If I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it." (Malachi 3:10)

(Note: This is one of the most proved promises of God. It never fails. Give God His biblical share and He will give you far more than your share. You will indeed be aware of His blessings in a thousand ways. Tithing is the stimulator of prosperity in all aspects of life, material and spiritual)

(3) TO HAVE ABUNDANT LIFE — GIVE IT! "Whosoever will save his life shall lose it and whosoever will lose his life for my sake shall find it." (Matt. 16:25)

A curious promise that runs counter to the world's concept that to have abundant life one must get and keep! But for those who live for selfish ends life shrinks and eventually withers. But those who give generously to help others in Christ's name find life growing abundantly. Lose yourself in the big things of life and you will find your real and better self.

(4) GREAT PEACE MAY BE YOURS FROM THIS MOMENT ON: "And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus." (Phil. 4:7)

Here is the offer of the peace men have sought for in all ages, and by all means, save surrender to the love of God There need be no anxiety or restlessness if you will but claim this holy promise of God!

(5) A CLEAN START CAN BE YOURS, IF YOU WILL IT: "If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness." (I John 1:9)

Lay aside all burdens of the heart and mind, claim His loving forgiveness and walk with a light heart and a clean mind in the joy of your Lord.

THE INADEQUATE PASTOR

A pastor could spend twelve hours day, seven days a week, calling on th lost and unchurched. Or, he could spen those hours calling in the homes of th members, sick, and inactive. Or, he migh spend all these waking hours doing or ganizational work with the Sunday Schoo youth groups, meeting with the dozens c other organizations that comprise a Churc Or, he may spend his time ministering t the troubled, distressed humanity, some how managing to handle funerals, wed dings, and countless other social obliga tions that come, or he may spend twelv hours a day in his study with great profi to himself and the Church. Denomination al activities and meetings he must worl in somewhere.

So, a pastor — any pastor — must for ever remain inadequate. He can attemp to cover five fields of endeavor, in part devoting about twenty percent of his time to each, leaving each job eighty percen undone! Any pastor must always remain in that category.

Do not pity the preacher. He is having the best time of any one on earth, doing work he loves. He may spend six nights away from home by choice. Inadequate desperately busy, always behind with his work, the preacher thinks his job is the best on earth Pray for him and bear with him; he is the only member of the church who has no pastor.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

ar Christian Friends:

Iowever we may phrase them, we all ve goals in life that we want to reach. this time of the year, you may call m "New Year's Resolutions." We say, is year I'm going to be a better man!" did the thought ever occur that we y not have a year to live at all. We only a breath, only a heart-beat, only vhisper away from eternity. Therefore, should not try to live 365 days all at e. But we should live one day at a e. All of our days should point us in direction of our goal.

here is an old story to the effect that e a traveler in ancient Greece had lost way and, seeking to find it, asked the ections of a man on the roadside, who ied out to be Socrates. "How can I ch Mt. Olympus?" asked the traveler. this Socrates is said to have replied vely, "Just make every step you take in that direction."

is not enough just to know where you it to go and be willing to make every point in that direction. We must be ing to give help to others we meet ng the way of life. An old man lay y ill. A friend came to see him and, r talking for a while, asked him, "In r life, have you any regrets?" The old n's mind was way back in his child- d "When I was a boy," he said, "I n used to play with my school friends on the roadside. One day, after my ms had gone away, I found at the ner of the road an old rickety signpost. risted it in its socket, so that its pointer s pointed the wrong way. Just today, some reason or other, I've been won- ng how many travelers I sent that day the wrong road."

harles F. Kettering once said, "The past one and static. Nothing we can do change it. The future is before us dynamic. EVERYTHING WE DO WILL ECT IT. Each day brings with it new tiers, in our homes and in our busi- ses, if we will only recognize them. are just at the beginning of progress very field of human endeavor.

emember three things: (1) Make every count. (2) Help point others in the t direction. (3) The future is always ad of us. With these three things in d, may we dedicate ourselves anew n day to the task of building a Chris- world, beginning with me! May we you and your family in Church School :15 A.M. each Sunday during the New r?

BABY BLESSING AND PARENTAL DEDICATION DAY

As part of the morning worship experience this coming Sunday we shall share in e lovely Blessing of Babies, when parents dedicate themselves to giving their children ery advantage of the Christian faith and heritage. Here the parents bring their ildren for the blessing of God and ask for God's help and guidance in bringing the ild up in the fear and admonition of the Lord. Parents who have not been contacted ior to receiving this note may share by merely letting the office know prior to Sunday.

I would be remiss in my pastoral duty if I did not let all of you know what an forgettable experience each Sunday evening vesper hour is to those who share in e informal singspiration and meditations. The quartet is truly wonderful, and sing the eat hymns of faith we love so well. Bob Cocherille has a winsome wonderfulness at touches us all. You would go a long, long way to share such an experience if u knew how very much the hymns and special music can mean to your life through- t the rest of the week. Join with us this coming Sunday evening at 7 P.M.

This year we are going to make every effort to reach our goals in missions and are in the United Capital Funds Appeal of the Christian Churches of Indiana. We e also going to place a mortgage reduction and elimination effort under way in the ar future. When you prepare your tax returns this year, you will learn that our vernment has provided a way for you to honor God in your financial affairs. And ay not, this government of ours came into being because men of God and their omen as well, came in quest of a way of life and government that was free under od! By honoring your church in your budget (the government allows as much as %) you help keep a government of law in a free society and a free church. Why ve more than you really have to a budget where the vast majority is spent to provide eapons of destruction, and give so little to a budget where God is honored and aches out with the instruments of life and love into the far corners of the earth, as ell as into the city and state where we live.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

Dear Christian Friends:

"In this time of rapid social change, we cannot rely on the power of tradition or of the moral values inherent in our society." So spoke one of the foremost Christian educators of our day, Dr. Randolph Crump Miller. This highly mobile society, moving about like sheep from one pasture to another, faces the danger of losing much of its morality and goodness. We are living in the "age of the displaced person," when countless millions have adopted the life of refugees, fleeing from one form of oppression or another.

When many of our own people living here in the United States are moving from "one green pasture" to another, we need to ask ourselves the question, "What are we, as a Church, doing to advance God's Kingdom and stop the movement of the corrosive forces?" In the first place, I firmly believe that man needs to recognize God as the only source of all authority for living. Believing in a universal God, we must take all of our living problems before Him and discover his will for their solution.

It is a certainty, that we cannot make our common experiences the standard by which we judge conduct. For to be truthful about it, we do not all have exactly the same common experiences. Jesus said, "If the blind man tries to lead another blind man, they both will fall in the ditch." Isn't this the tragedy that has befallen many who value human experience about the revealed Word of God?

Dr. Miller points out that "in Germany during Hitler's time an enlightened liberalism could not withstand the onslaughts of a totalitarian state while a confessing Christianity could do so." I ask you what made the difference. Christianity has a responsibility to the Divine Authority!

Once my father asked me to build a picket fence. He gave me a picket for a pattern. Gradually, as I cut each picket, I began to use other pickets for the pattern. The original was lost in the shuffle. When the fence was completed, I discovered to my astonishment, that the fence was four inches longer at one end. Yes, Christianity must declare the whole counsel of God, never shaving one iota from God's revealed Word. The Church School exists to teach God's Word that we may all have the same pattern for living. We'll see you and your family at 9:15 A.M. each Sunday.

JOHN W. WILLIAMS,
Associate-Minister

FROM THE PASTOR'S STUDY

Yesterday I brought back from the doctor's office a magazine with an article telling ad story of why an outstanding minister of a fine Presbyterian Church had left the stry. (By the way, I asked and received permission from the doctor to take the azine, I don't recommend you walk out with your doctor's magazines without his ission!) He left, he said, because, among other things he found that Church-mem- weren't really interested in the Kingdom of God! He stated most church-members just interested in a place to practice speaking, singing, and develop a respectable ding in the community. To some degree he speaks a universal truth.

Yet this morning as I prepared to leave for the office I received a long distance call Mobile, Alabama. I learned through the soft crying of a friend that one of my dear- iends had stepped across the line between the physical and the spiritual! Ah, here a Christian man! He had one of the most generous hearts on earth! He gave large s of money to his Church, and every special missionary offering received a substan- check from Mr. Jarrell. But beyond this, his love reached out to the poor and the ast. I have sat in his fine office and heard him tell of a poor negro school child ing his office that had brought tears to his face that morning! He bought clothes food, etc., for numberless people who never knew his name! I had been his min- in his joys and in his sorrows. I had stood by his side when he laid his wife to and a small infant granddaughter, and I saw a faith that shone through all the ness which swirlled about him. Ihave seen him laughing when fishing and hunting. once took his poor preacher along to Congressman Frank Boykin's hunting lodge, re he stood among federal judges and a governor, etc. He could stand with the and mighty, and be at home with the poor and humble!). And HE was a member e Church! You see, friends, the world is often tempted to turn hard and sour and cal because it observes only the fence sitters, the ones Jesus pointed out to follow for the "loaves and the fishes." What I'm trying to say is, the church of our Lord s Christ still produces the finest people earth possesses! Don't pay any attention to sour apples, there are so many, many wonderful, sweet ones in the orchard of the !

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

Dear Christian Friends:

Let me share with you a poem that will stir our hearts to renewed devotion to Christ and His Church:

WANTED — A MESSENGER

The Lord Christ wanted a messenger one day,
To speak a message of cheer
To a heart that was weary and worn and sad,
Weighed down with a mighty fear.
He asked for mine, but 'twas busy quite,
With my own affairs from morn till night.

The Lord wanted a hand one day
To do a loving deed;
He wanted two feet on an errand for Him,
To run with gladsome speed,
But I had need of my own that day;
To His gentle beseeching I answered, "Nay."

So all that day I used my tongue,
My hands, and my feet as I chose;
I said some hasty, bitter words
That hurt one heart, God knows.
I busied my hands with worthless play,
And my willful feet went a crooked way.

While the dear Lord grieved, with His work undone,
For the lack of a willing heart!
Only through men does He speak to men,
Dumb must He be apart.
I do not know, but I wish today,
I had let the Lord Christ have His way.

FROM THE PASTOR'S STUDY

OPPORTUNITIES FOR LEARNING OF JESUS AND HIS CHURCH: Beginning on ruary 3, during the morning worship hour, Rev. Williams will take the 10 - 12 year youth and begin a four week course on Jesus and the Church. This pastor's training ss is one of the two that will be used to prepare our young people for a growing erstanding of the call of Christ and their response within the fellowship of His urch. Parents of these children are urged to see that your child is given this opportty for learning more about Jesus. We can prepare the opportunity, but the home st see that the child is prepared to accept his opportunities for developing his itual life.

A second class for 13 - 15 year old youth will begin on March 10th and run for following four Sundays. Plan now to see that your son or daughter attends this cial opportunity for learning of the Master and His plan for their life.

The Functional Departments of our Church life are active and hard at work on ire plans and programs. When you are asked to share some responsibility for the and witness of this great church, please accept in Christ's name, and do your level t at the task. Christ and the Church asks no more. It is our hope and dream that ndreds of our people who have not been caught up in the life and work of the urch will become active on some committee and share the work load with other ually busy people.

That I have wasted half my day
And left my work but just begun.

So clear I see that things I thought
Were right, or harmless, were a sin;
So clear I see that I have sought
Unconscious, selfish aims to win;

So clear I see that I have hurt
The souls I might have helped to save;
That I have slothful been, inert,
Deaf to the calls Thy leaders gave.

In outskirts of Thy kingdom vast,
Father, the humblest spot give me;
Set me the lowliest task Thou hast;
Let me, repentant, work for Thee.

—Helen Hunt Jackson

There are one hundred and thirty-five passages in the New Testament where life is referred to, and only in seven of these is the reference to mere physical life. Life is an endowment in the body, but the reality of life is a thing of the mind, the heart, the will and the activities of the whole man. It becomes clear that life can only, therefore, be completely fulfilled and enjoyed in the spiritual capacities of character and service.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

Dear Christian Friends:

Several days ago, one of the strangest meetings took place. I would like to tell you about it, but since I wasn't present, it is impossible to relate all of the details. In essence, this is what it was all about:

"A MEETING OF THE BOARD OF ABSENTEES"

1. The Board of Absentees will meet each time the services of the Church meet. At this meeting ways of keeping the attendance as low as possible will be discussed. We will see that there is no enthusiasm for increased attendance.

2. The Board of Absentees will seek ways and means of decreasing the offerings and rendering Christ's work ineffective.

3. The Board of Absentees will seek to weaken the preaching of the Word of God, because it points men to the way of salvation and eternal life.

4. The Board of Absentees will discuss ways and means of decreasing any evangelistic efforts in the Church.

5. It is the desire of the Board of Absentees to close the doors of this Church as soon as possible. If you want any excuse for being absent we have all the answers. We have no fee and we will appreciate your attendance at the meetings. WILL YOU BE THERE?

6. The Board of Absentees is composed of the following members. Mr. Real Unconcern, Chairman, Mr. and Mrs. Take-It-Easy, Mrs. At-Ease, Mr. and Mrs. Lazy, Mrs. Every-Other-Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Don't-Come-At-All, Mr. and Mrs. Don't-Come-At-All, Mr. and Mrs. Don't-Like-The-Teacher, Mr. I'm-Just-Too-Tired, Mrs. It's-Too-Hot, her sister, Miss Too-Cold, and Mr. and Mrs. We-Have-Company-For-Dinner.

Thank God, thank God, this Board of Absentees is small and relatively ineffective in our Church. But it is still on record as having dedicated itself to the goal of getting you to join with them in achieving its purpose of closing the doors of this and every other Church. Experience has taught that there is little reason to doubt that Satan, himself, is calling all the shots for this Board. As members of the body of Christ, let's push them out of Church forever. Better still, why don't we all join forces to bring each one of them to the redeeming influence of Jesus Christ and His saving power.

See you in Church School at 9:15 A.M.

JOHN W. WILLIAMS,
Associate-Minister

We all have a talent—or five—or ten,
To give to the Lord and to share w men.
It may not be teaching, music, or art,
It may be a smile that is right from t heart.
You may not be able to build or sew.
But you may have a "warm personalit glow:
A word for a stranger, a soft-whisper prayer,
A sharing of sorrow to show that y care.
Such seemingly small things are real "t ents" too.
So use them for Jesus. He'll bless you do.

FROM THE PASTOR'S STUDY

This is youth week across the nation. America is producing some of the finest of istian youth, though often this fact is lost sight of amidst the delinquents of this age. own Church has a host of splendid Christian young people and we are indeed ud of them all. This coming Sunday four of them will share in the leadership of our ning worship experience and many others will share by helping in the ushering l serving of communion as they do each Sunday morning. Let's have our youth in prayers daily. They have more temptations in a day than we had in our youth in ear. One wonders what our own lives would have been had there been cars, money, e, and all the rest, to do with as we chose! I have every confidence in the youth of Church. They will go far if we encourage them in the tasks of Christian maturity.

Did you remember that during the morning worship hour Rev. Williams will be ching a class on The Meaning of Church Membership? The class is for the 10-12 r olds. Here is an opportunity to enrich your child's concepts of God, Christ, the urch, baptism and the Lord's Supper, the Lord's Day, etc. Be certain that if you ne and bring them, they will come home with a growing concept of what it means belong to Christ and His Church!

WORSHIP THIS SUNDAY MORNING — for worship marks the uniqueness of the urch. Many of the other services which the Church is impelled to render are also formed with less or greater effectiveness by other agencies. But the Church alone bring people to the worship of Him who is the Lord of the Church and of Histor . . . a y vital responsibility which lies at the heart of everything else that we do as mem- s of the Body of Christ.

—Worship is an offering which man brings to God of his time, his attention, his mind and heart and will.

—Worship in indeed a "means of grace." When men worship "in spirit and in truth" something happens to them, there comes a reawakened sense of expect- ancy and reality of the spiritual world.

—Worship is a witness men give to the faith that is in them, a witness that is desperately needed in today's world.

What witness are you giving when the Lord's Day rolls around? See you in worship nday'

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

Dear Christian Friends:

Beginning Sunday, February 3, 1963, the Chairmen of the Functional Departments will be giving five-minute-talks about the work that each department is responsible for in the Church. This will take place during the opening assembly at 9:15 A.M., and each Chairman is asked to have all members of his department present and on time to grasp the vision that will be shared with us each Sunday for the next nine Sundays. You will want to visualize the vastness of the entire Church Program and see how this work personally involves you, your life and your family in the work of Christ.

The week of January 27 - February 3, 1963 is YOUTH WEEK. We are proud of our young people in the Church and are encouraged by the interest that they show in the spiritual world. Saturday is a special day for them when they will be having a banquet and speaker for the evening. After the banquet, they will be enjoying an evening of entertainment. Special guests will be invited from our two sister Churches here in the city and the Laud-Saturn Unity. Mr. William Weber, the Laud-Saturn Minister, will be the speaker.

At the Worship Service next Sunday morning, four of these young people will be participating by reading the Litnay, the Scriptures, having the morning prayer and the benediction. Our young people deserve your sincerest support for the wonderful work they are doing for the Church.

During the Worship Service, I will be teaching a group of Juniors about the Church and what it means to become a follower of Jesus. This class will be conducted during the Worship Service through the month of February. The ages for thsi class are 10-12 inclusive. No pressure is ever brought to bear upon a child to "join" the Church. But we feel that he will be prepared to take this step if he desires to do so. Beginning March 10, 1963, we will be conducting a similar class for ages 13-15 at the same hour.

PLEASE REMEMBER to be present for the assembly each Sunday morning morning for the next nine Sundays. You will be better informed about what your Church is doing if you attend. If you are better informed, you will be a better witness for Jesus Christ.

May we have the pleasure of seeing you and your family at 9:15 A.M. each Sunday?

John W. Williams
Associate-Minister

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

Dear Christian Friends:

ATTENTION! ALL YOUNG PEOPLE! Information about camps and conferences in the State of Indiana has been received by my office. For the dates of both CYF Conferences and Chi Rho Camps please take a look at the poster on the bulletin board at the Church's South Entrance. The cost for CYF Conference (6 days) is $19.00, and the rate for Chi Rho Camp (5 days) is $17.00. The full fee is required when you send in your application blank. If cancellation is made at a later date, only one-half of the fee is returned.

PLAN NOW TO GET AN APPLICATION BLANK and get it in early. Some of you may remember that last year's experience proved that you can't register at the last minute for either camp or conference. Other young people from all over the state are clammoring to get to go to camp or conference. The directors and staff members aren't just waiting with open arms for you to come in at the last minute as though you were the only one that mattered. SO, IF YOU WANT TO GO, you had better get an application, fill it out and get it in to the Church Office with your part of the fee immediately, if not before.

You may secure an application blank from Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Klepfer, Mr. James Naile, or myself. Be sure to have the entire blank completely filled out before bringing it in to the Office. You may choose any of the three camp-conference sites, but if one is over-crowded the directors and staff will have the prerogative to "relocate" you in one that isn't. By and large, our young people attend Camp Barbee and are not refused permission unless they are late getting their application in.

One last word that I would leave with you about camp-conference experiences: these are privileges (not rights) that your Church and the Churches of Indiana extend to young people. A good time you will have, but this is not the proper motivation for attending. You will be sadly disappointed unless you come to contribute something of your life and to gain mountain-top spiritual experiences by studying and working with others.

THIS COMING SUNDAY IN THE ASSEMBLY AT 9:15 A.M. Mr. Rufus Quinn, the Chairman of the Christian Education Department will explain some of the highlights of that Departments hopes and dreams. ALL FUNCTIONAL DEPARTMENTS, Chairmen and members are urged to be present.

John W. Williams,
Associate-Minister

WEEK OF COMPASSION — FEB. 17 - 24th

Now is the time to lend a helping hand to those who are hungry and cold through basic fault of their own. Across the world there are millions who have been made eless and helpless because of the communist tyranny in their countries. This is age of the rootless millions. There exists a vast need for clothing, shelter, food, and licines. Will you help? Mark your special offering for THE WEEK OF COMPASSION!

WANT TO TRY AN EXPERIMENT IN FAITH?

I believe that countless of our people lack peace of heart and mind because they technique for spiritual growth. Try using the following suggestion several es a day for a week and see what happens. Cut out the following note and put it ere you will see it several times a day, and when you do, meditate upon it.

"Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid." —John 14:27

Without a deep inner state of quietness, one becomes prey to tensions, worry, and ill health. A song, a sunset, moonlight, the sea washing on a sandy shore, these administer a healing balm. But they lack power to penetrate the inner recesses of the soul.

A profound depth therapy is required to attain healing quietness. An habitual repition of this above text will, in time, permeate your personality with a complete sense of peace.

When tense or restless sit quietly and allow these words to pass unhindered through your thoughts. Conceive of them as spreading a healing balm throughout your mind. Think that even now your Lord is touching you with His gift of peace . . . peace . . . wonder working peace!

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

Dear Christian Friends:

For twenty-five years a suburb of London, England has had a do-as-you-like school. In it boys and girls could smoke, drink beer, neck in class, and dress as they chose.

Students decided for themselves whether to attend classes, or remain in bed. One of its pupils, a boy of ten, did not attend class in two years. He told his teachers: "I'm too busy. I have outside interests!"

The school, at the time of closing, had thirty-six pupils — most of them boarders. The majority of the parents were artists, musicians, actors and writers — none of them famous. The fee for boarders was $924.00 per year.

The faculty, according to news reports, was dedicated to the belief that children should do as they like; that there was no right or wrong, and therefore no punishment. They believed that helped develop character and avoid complexes.

The school closed for lack of funds. (Could it be that the parents reasoned that since the school had no moral standard — no right or wrong — there was no obligation on their part to pay the annual fee?)

Some verses of Scripture came to my mind after reading about this unusual school. This is one of them: "Even a child is known by his doings, whether his work be pure, and whether it be right." (Proverbs 20:11).

This is another of them: "The rod and reproof give wisdom: but a child left to himself bringeth his mother to shame." (Proverbs 29:15). It was that wise King Solomon who said: "Correct thy son, and he shall give thee rest; yea, he shall give delight unto thy soul." (Proverbs 29:17). He also said: "Train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it." (Proverbs 22:6).

The Apostle Paul wrote to Timothy: "From a child thou hast known the Holy Scriptures which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith that is in Christ Jesus." (II Timothy 3:15).

There are multitudes of men and women today who rise up and call their parents "blessed" for teaching them the Holy Scriptures, wherein they have learned the way of salvation through faith in and obedience to Jesus Christ, who died for our sins and rose again.

To allow a child to always do as he likes, and expect him to be an honor to God and man strikes me as being so ridiculous as to expect roses, dahlias and orchids from a garden left to itself.

Associate-Minister

WHEN LINCOLN PRAYED . . .

General Daniel E. Sickles has recorded for us this intimate revelation from the t of the Great Emancipator. The General had been severely wounded on July 2, , and after suffering the amputation of a leg, was removed to Washington where he visited by the President. We quote from General Sickles:

"Mr. Lincoln, we heard at Gettysburg that here at the capitol you were all so ous about the results of the battle that the governmen officials packed up and got ly to leave at short notice with the official archives."

"Yes," he said, "some precautions were prudently taken, but for my part I was sure ur success at Gettysburg."

"Why," I asked, "were you so confident? The Army of the Potomac had suffered y reverses."

There was a pause. The President seemed in deep meditation. His pale face was ted up by an expression I had not observed before. Turning to me he said:

"When Lee crossed the Potomac and entered Pennsylvania followed by our Army, t that the crisis had come. I knew that defeat in a great battle on Northern soil olved loss of Washington, followed, perhaps, by the intervention of England and nce in favor of the Southern Confederacy. I went to my room and got down on my es in prayer. Never before had I prayed with so much earnestness. I wish I could eat my prayer. I felt that I must put all my trust in Almight God. He gave our ple the best country ever given to man. He alone could save it from destruction. d tried my best to do my duty and found myself unequal to the task. The burden more than I could bear. God had often been our Protector in other days. I prayed He would not let the nation perish. I asked Him to help us and give us the victory . I felt that my prayer was answered. I had no misgivings about the result of tysburg."

God preserved the Nation a hundred years ago this year in answer to prayer. He he same Almighty One in 1963 as He was in 1863. Are you constant in your yer life?

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

Dear Christian Friends:

An interesting item came to my at tion while reading Life Magazine the o day. My attention was captivated by article telling about a pencil thin b of light developed by General Ele Company of Schenectady, New York. can actually cut diamonds, using the cess of "light amplification by stimul emission of radiation." The name of light is called "laser."

The "laser" light is compacted into heart of a ruby, then forced out one of it into a very narrow beam which the diamonds. Sounds simple, doesn' Most things do after they have been vented. Often we pay little attentior the efforts and energies that are c pounded into great experiments, the sults of which add comfort and joy to living.

The head of the general engineer laboratory said: "If we can cut diamor we can use the light beam to cut c thing." Think of how the costs of ma facturing can be reduced! Imagine power that can be harnessed for gooc evil! You want to build a road thro mountains and you cut the granite stone as if you were slicing butter v a hot knife. Or you could employ same technique to destroy an enemy m sile, that is heading for your city. I haps this same discovery will one c perform surgery in a painless way to move deadly cancers from our loved or

A technique that man did not origin has been employed over the centuries perform spiritual operations. The Bi teaches us that a thin beam of spirit light can cut through the hardest of hea For example, when the Apostle Peter c his contemporaries, on the Day of Per cost, turned the light of the gospel up men who were guilty of the cold-bloo murder of Jesus Christ, they were cut the heart and asked, "What shall I d (Acts 2:37).

And when that hard-hearted Saul Tarsus was exceedingly mad against Lord and against all who believed in H as he was on his persecuting way to D mascus, he was stricken down by a li shining from heaven — a light above brightness of the sun — he fell to earth, and asked: "Who art Thou, Lor and again, "Lord, what wilt Thou h me do?" (Acts 9).

After his conversion experience, he co write, "For God, who commanded light to shine out of darkness, hath shin into our hearts, to give the light of kno edge of the glory of God in the face Jesus Christ." (II Corinthians 4:6). It not necessary for a person today to h hold a literal light shining above brightness of the sun to be changed. esus said, "I am come a light into the vorld that whosoever believeth on me hould not abide in darkness." (John 2:46). May we see you in Church School t 9:15 A.M. next Sunday?

CHOIR CHORDS

We, of the Choir, are sorry to lose one of our faithful members of past years. Miss Mary Leeson has accepted a position with a clinic in Grand Rapids, Michigan. Many church members will remember her violin solos and her smiling face among the choir members these many months. We are sorry she is leaving, but our best wishes go with her to her new work.

The members of the choir enjoyed a pleasant evening and Coffee Hour at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Harold Crowder, on Thursday of last week.

With Easter drawing near, more voices are needed. YOU are invited to join us each Thursday at 7:30 for rehearsal.

BLANKET DRIVE FOR ALGERIA

In our recent blanket drive for Algeria First Christian Church received 24 sheet blankets and 12 heavier blankets. The committee wishes to thank all who participated in this drive.

A SERMON IN POETRY

Three Thousand for my convertible,
Five thousand for a piece of sod,
Ten thousand I paid to begin a house,
A dollar I gave to God.
A tidy sum to entertain
My friends in pointless chatter,
And when the world goes crazy mad
I ask "Lord, what's the matter?"
Yet there is one big question —
For the answer I yet search —
"With things so bad in this old world, What's holding back my Church?"

'TWILL SOON BE SPRING . . . .

Beneath the winter snow lie buried millions of seeds waiting the warmth of spring the thawing ground so that they can thrust their way upward into life! When the nth of spring has come, the earth will be alive with glory. Flowers will burst forth bloom, the grass will turn emerald green, and all life will be alive with a music d throughout the land. How eagerly we await the coming of new life! Soon our will be filled with the grandeur of springtime, and our hearts overflow with grati- for a million bursting forms of new life!

In a few weeks the world shall pause to remember that God is Life, and that the God Is, He seeks to bestow upon His children! Easter is more than a high and holy on the Church's calendar, it is the glorious promise of a Father's love. We who e pledged ourselves to walk in His way need to be reminded that it is the way of Cross, but that beyond the rim of Calvary there is the horizon of God's tomorrow, our nal homeland!

Take these next few weeks to prepare heart and mind and soul for a glory that bulge back the narrow horizons of our discordant world. Through Church attend- e, prayer and family devotions, the study of God's Word, through witnessing to rs of His love for you and your love for Him — you can deepen your spiritual life. e is no other way . . . and the time allotted to us is so very short . . .

I am reading a book called, "Dying We Live," a collection of farwell letters written ie face of death by men and women of the German resistance during Hitler's ter- years. I have been moved often to tears by their courage in Christ, and touched ays by their complete commitment. It makes a good book for the preparation which it to be ours during the period called "Lent." Select some book that can prod your t awake, and then look deep within your heart for a devotion that needs to be used Godward if it is to burst into open flame . . .

Sunday, Rev. John Williams will preach at both morning and evening services. I l be in Richmond, Indiana for a week of preaching services. They have asked me e God's instrument for kindling a flame in the hearts of their Church members. My er is that one shall be kindled within my own heart. Will you pray for me and me in this venture of faith?

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

Dear Christian Friends:

One day a Bible School Teacher a a little boy, "Teddy, what would yo if some day Jesus would appear at door and ask to come in?" Teddy qui replied, "I would say, come in, Jesus, see my books." To many of us, this

But what a mountain of wisdom the to digest!

One does not have to belong to Church for a long period to discover he has a lot of reading to do in orde morning at the close of the Worship S

It isn't a bit unusual to find these pe complete this phase of education thro correspondence courses. Some are e attending night classes for further a the Church!

You see, we often assume that pec may or may not be true. As Christi we are commanded to study "to s ourselves approved of God." It is in sistent to persist in the belief that so how God is just going to "award" u diploma on graduation day. It would ridiculous to think that a child gets high school diploma or college deg

the age of 18 or 22.

In our Church School, we have a g deal of freedom as to the choice of cla that we will attend, or whether we attend any or not. Along with the f dom of choice always there follows responsibility of consequence. A stu may choose not to study, but the result will be ignorance. His life will dwarfed and limited. So it is with th who ignore the learning possibilities
the Church School.

Many people bemoan the fact that t did not get as much education as t would like. But they make up fo through reading and studying in spare time. Have you discovered this discipline? Or have you maintained an attitude that will keep you "teachable" all through life? Your Church School, through its lesson materials, offers you the best. May we see you in Church School at 9:15 A.M.?

COMING EVENTS
CHRISTIAN EDUCATION DEPARTMENT

The Special Projects Committee in this Department wishes to promote better communication between the different groups in the church. We would like for all announcements concerning coming events of the CYF, Chi Rho, Committee meetings and etc., to be posted on the large bulletin Board in the Fellowship Hall. (The dates for these events be cleared through the Church office before posting on bulletin board.)

We urge everyone to form the habit of reading the news on the Board. We believe this suggestion will be of great benefit to all.

CHRISTIAN YOUTH FELLOWSHIP

The CYF will meet on Sunday, March 3, at 5:00 P.M. There will be five minute discussions on the subject, "What Do You Want Out of Life."

These meetings can be very interesting and we should like to see more young people here each Sunday.

ON OUR PRAYER LIST

Mrs. Wm. Coblentz fell recently at her home, and sustained a fractured shoulder.

* * *

There are many of our number who are ill, or have been ill, with cold and virus. As we might inadvertently omit a name of one who is ill, we will not try to list names here, but you can remember those whom you know about.

* * * * * * *

You need not scoff at the church because it contains so many sinners. If it contained nothing but saints there might be no room for you. The Christian church was founded for sinners in the first place

FROM THE PASTOR'S STUDY

r Friends in Christ:

When the last gift was tabulated for Week of Compassion the total amount received $407.85, or just $92.15 short of the total goal and there are many who have not yet the opportunity to make their gifts. This is clear evidence of our continued concern Christian causes! A word of sincere appreciation is certainly in order. It is de- ing of the tribute, "Well done, good and faithful servants!" If you haven't made gift, then help us to go over the top for Christ!

When meditating on the grandeur of the Lord's Supper, the thought comes to me if you and I believe in the gospel, then it is a supreme privilege to be allowed to e in the grandeur of every spiritual opportunity, and you and I are committing rdonable folly by neglecting life's highest treasure—fellowship in the Body of the Jesus Christ!

The task of the living Church is not to defend the forms of inherited traditions from mer age, but in loyal response to the call and guidance of God in the present ition to create new avenues of service through which God is brought into focus eeking men and women. Your Church challenges you to live and think of your n terms of ultimate worth. You and I owe Christ, our Lord, unqualified allegiance on of God, and Saviour of our Souls!

Next Sunday morning is Decision Day for the youth who have, during the last ral weeks, been attending the Pastor's Class. At the Vesper Service at 7 P.M. will be a baptismal service for those who have made their decision to accept st as their Saviour.

GARRISON DISPATCH

Dear Ann Landers:

I am a minister of a large and inf tial congregation. But I am discour because the people won't read our w ly church paper and the Sunday bul The staff spends one entire morning week gathering material and writing articles and announcements but u: the announcements are repeated c from the pulpit, many of the congreg don't know what is going on. (Even they may not be listening. Some there is a difference between "hea and "listening." I "hear" my husban up in the morning, says the house but I don't "listen" because then I w have to up and prepare his breakfa:

What shall I do to get the peopl read their church paper carefully?

—Discouraged Minis

DEAR DISCOURAGED MINISTER:

Try making a mistake in spelling or the wrong time or date or other mis-i mation and they will notice it right c and might even call you and let know. The same thing will help listen to your sermon: The other d woman was overheard to say as she the service: "That was the most inte ing sermon. There were three mi nounced words, four dangling partici and five split infinitives, and one c lutely false statement. He also told a ling joke but I can't remember it" It work every time.

HOW SOON DO YOU WANT TO DI

A world-renowned expert on lung cer, Dr. Alton Ochsner, Director of Sur at the Ochsner Clinic in New Orl and currently President of the Interna al Society of Surgery and Past-Prei of the American Cancer Society and American College of Surgeons wrote cently in an article entitled "Dabblin Death," "You can determine how e you want to die by the amount that smoke. If you want to die early, smo lot." Dr. Ochsner continues, "Every pe who smokes cigarettes, will develop cer of the lung if he lives long eno The only thing that will ever keep from such cancer is that he will di something else before he developes He writes, "If there was one-tenth evidence that the Brooklyn Bridge wa safe for traffic as there is that canc the lung is caused by smoking, the Br lyn Bridge would be closed within twe four hours and would stay closed it was made safe."

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

A young minister was in charge of a arge church in a great industrial city. The most active and generous person in he church was a woman. She was mar- ied to one of the most prominent and vealthy men of the community. He never ame to church, he did nothing for, he gave nothing to it. And we can't blame im for doing nothing and giving nothing, because the church's work is supposed to be executed by its members.

And as the years went on, that man vas on the conscience of the young min- ster. And he said to himself, "I have to lo something about that man." So, after ong deliberation, he finally made an ap- ointment with him.

He was an older man, austere, sitting ehind a great desk in his office. The oung minister sat in front of him and roceeded with his story. In very simple erms he set before him the Christian roposition and he said, "I think you ought o do something about this one way or nother."

When he had finished, there was a per- od of dead silence. The man never spoke, ever moved. So the young man gathered imself together and went over his story gain, amplifying it a little. When he ad finished, still there was silence.

At that point he wished he had never ndertaken such a mission, but he drew imself up once again and rehearsed his tory. And when he finished, there was ot a sound, and finally, while he wished or a way out of the room, the man reached or a pad and wrote something on it.

He passed it to the young man and his was what he had written: "I am so eeply moved that I cannot speak." It vas the first time that an adult, in a frank, traightforward way, had ever set before im the Christian gospel, and he became member of the Church and one of the reat leaders in that city.

The plan of Jesus Christ is that his fol- owers should persistently, but patiently nd with love, set forth the Christian gos- el to all men in every situation in life. Christ never commanded men to call thers to join his church, nor did the arly disciples make an effort to do this. hey simply told the story with their lives hat Christ had died to forgive and that e arose from the dead to give them ternal life and forgiveness of sins. The esponse to this was committed life. The esults are still the same today.

May we see you and your family at :15 A.M. next Sunday?

John W. Williams,
Associate-Minister

THE SUMMONS OF GOD'S SPIRIT . . .

The Lenten season into which we have entered, and the approaching Easter season, ld serve as a special opportunity for us to contemplate our responsibilities and gations as followers of Christ who trod the road of sorrow, through clouds of suffer- and emerged victorious, conqueror over sin and death. Let this be a season of discovery and self-mastery, bringing to our hearts an abundant spiritual blessing.

THERE IS A GREAT NEED for marshalling the spiritual resources of the Kingdom of if we are to come to know His saving grace.

THERE IS A WONDROUS PRIVILEGE which belongs to us as a people called of to bear witness by life and lip of His wondrous mercy and peace.

THERE IS AN OBLIGATION resting upon each one of us to enlarge the fellowship e Church by our own active participation in It's life and witness, and by inviting rs to share the blessings of Christian fellowship.

THERE IS A CHALLENGE to work and pray and give so that a spiritual revival come to us and to our world.

Therefore, in a spirit of consecration of both life and possessions to Christ, our risen , let us pledge ourselves, to the extent of our ability, to a greater degree of Church lty, and to a more responsive spirit of cooperation in the Kingdom of God. You Calvary is an empty tragedy for any life unless the memory of it leads us to live by day lives that are fit to be eternal!

Are you daily remembering the "30 pieces of silver" love offering by which we contemplate the price of betrayal of life's precious things? We will grow God- l in direct proportion as we practice our faith.

CHOIR CHORDS

The Choir is indeed fortunate to have among their number gifted people who have composed sacred hymn songs. Recently both Mrs. J. F. Weicker and J. Carl Smith have sung solos which they have written. Carl Smith also served as director one Sunday in the absence of Mr. Wetzel.

We urge all our members to faithfully attend rehearsals during this Pre-Easter Season. The Choir will be participating in a City-wide musical which will be seen and heard on Television, and we will need all our members for this occasion.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

Dear Christian Friends:

Some years ago a well-meaning individual hit upon what he felt would be a sure-fire solution to the problems of the world. He said he would like to gather all the people of the world, the nearly three billion of them, into a vast amphitheater; and there he would have the most capable person in the world read to that tremendous audience in dramatic and forceful manner Christ's parable of the good Samaritan. Then he would say to the people of the world, "Go and do thou likewise," that is, be kind to one another. And with that he would send them home.

I rather doubt that it would do much good. I question that the mere telling of the story of a man who helped his neighbor ages ago, excellent story that it is, would in itself do much to ennoble the heart of him who hears it.

I fervently wish it were possible to gather all the people of the world together into one place: around the cross of Christ on Calvary. I would devoutly pray that, while they were there, they might all be unforgettably impressed with the horror of the sin of humanity and with the boundless love of God in Christ.

For if Christianity is to ever change the face of the world, it will be through Christian actions. Words alone will not suffice. The Christian life is a response and a reaction to God's one supreme act in human history — the giving of His Only Son to die on a cross. And in this action, man is expected to respond by taking up his cross and following Christ. With the re-enactment of the drama of Calvary in the life of Christ's followers, God seeks and speaks to man. If somehow Christ had been crucified and this event had been lost in the dusty pages of history, I doubt that any of us would know one inkling of what it means to be His disciples today.

But thank God for the transforming power of the Christ as it has been exhibited in the lives of those who have preceeded us! For in the spiritual heritage we have, we are convinced that Christianity is not "play-acting" for a religious convenience. We ask a question at this point: "What will the children of our day receive from us?"

Christ does not call us to debate, but to perform deeds! He does not ask us to deliberate, but to decide. May the image of His body on a cross haunt our memories until we mature in Him! See you and your family at 9:15 A.M. each Sunday.

DUAL SERVICES ON PALM SUNDAY AND EASTER

Two identical morning worship services will be held at 8 A.M. and 10:30 A.M. on Palm Sunday and Easter. We hope that even now you are inviting your friends neighbors to worship with you in this great church.

"THE WAGES OF SIN . . . "

In keeping with our resolve to present basic Christian doctrines during the Lenten od, I shall be preaching on the theme, "The Wages of Sin." We, as members of the of Christ, need to take a long, hard look at what the Bible regards as sin! We sin lightly but God never has! The Cross does not belong on the skyline of ancient ry, but deep within the heart of men, prodding them to a newness of life. Come worship with us, and why not bring your friends and neighbors?

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

Dear Christian Friends:

Upon Corcovado Mountain above Rio de Janeiro, there has been set up the largest statue of Jesus ever sculptured by man. It rises one hundred and thirty feet in height and the outstretched arms, from finger tip to finger tip, measure ninety-two feet.

It represents the labor of ten years and the gifts of Brazilian believers, which, offered in small amounts, reached a total of $250,000.00. Marconi, in Rome, flashed wireless signals which turned on a battery of floodlights making that great figure visible across the city and the wide harbor and over land and sea for a distance of twenty miles. Hundreds of thousands of pilgrims came from far to witness the impressive spectacle.

The question that we ask is: Will that great shining figure enlarge the thoughts of beholders, vitalize their faith, and lead to a more worthy conception of the imperial personality of our Lord?

Only time will answer, but meanwhile it may be said that that effort of faithful souls to honor Christ does today remind us how men across the centuries have striven to give worthy expression to their growing conception of his glory and greatness.

The strained superlatives of great creeds piled up by the labors of the theologians of other ages may be to us as cold and formal as any statue, but a far different thing is that flowerng of a beautiful personal experience which finds expression in the confident cry of Peter, "Thou art the Christ the son of the living God."

As Lynn Harold Hough has said, "It is a great day in the life of any man when his own experience compels search for a word great enough to describe what Christ means to him."

It is true! Our Christ is not a Christ of stone or marble. Nor is He a crucified Christ. He is a living Christ. You ask me how I know he lives? "He lives within my heart!" And within the breast of every faithful follower he dwells in regal majesty. The fellowship of other Christians is essential to your understanding of Him. For He lives in them, too. We learn of the living Christ by sharing in the presence of others. May we see you and your family at 9:15 A.M. each Sunday?

TO BE A FOLLOWER OF CHRIST . . . .

Someone has said a follower of Christ is a Christian with a mind through which t thinks, a heart through which He loves, a voice through which He speaks, and nd through which He helps.

A MIND THROUGH WHICH CHRIST THINKS — Paul summed it up when he wrote: e this mind in you which was also in Christ Jesus your Lord." And again, "Have mind renewed, and so be transformed in nature, able to make out what the will od is." The key to abundant life is a mind linked to the resources and power of and His will for us.

A HEART THROUGH WHICH CHRIST LOVES — Jesus' love expressed itself as He ed, "Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do." Like Jesus, do we ve those who trespass against us?

A VOICE THROUGH WHICH JESUS SPEAKS — The risen Christ gave the message brings hope and peace to a chaotic world: "Go . . . tell." This is our responsibility y, for everywhere about us are people in need — hungry in mind, body, and spirit.

A HAND THROUGH WHICH CHRIST HELPS — God is asking us today, "What is in thy hand? What God would have us do will never be done unless we allow to use our time, talent, and treasure.

Against such a standard of measurement, are you making much headway as a follower of Christ? Have you pondered His incredible words, "LAY NOT UP FOR RSELVES TREASURES UPON THE EARTH" . . . Every paycheck is a new "Eden". y opportunity for giving and for service is a new testing point for the Call of through Christ Jesus.

THE CHRISTIAN BUSINESS MAN

By Mrs. Paul Rylander

The Lord is my banker; my credit is go
He maketh me to lie down in the c sciousness of omnipresent abundance.
He giveth me the key to his strong bo
He restoreth my faith in his riches;
He guideth me in the paths of prosper
for His Name's sake;
Yea, tho, I walk thru the very shadow debt
I shall fear no evil; for Thou art with m
Thou preparest a way for me in the pr
ence of my creditors;
Thou fillest my wallet with plenty;
measure runneth over.
Surely goodness and plenty shall foll me all the days of my life,
And I shall do business in the name
the Lord, forever.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD I

ear Christian Friends:

The living Christ is trying to find an ntrance into your heart I Whatever we ay say about Christianity, we must ecognize that its goal is to redeem men nd women with the certainty that Jesus hrist is alive and welcomes an oppor- nity to live in the human heart.

Our world looks to the day when the ertainty of this fact becomes a living eality in the lives of all men around the orld. This is the desire of Christ, that l men should claim him as personal avior and Lord of all life. The business winning people to him is a serious sk. For to claim him as Lord and Savior not to engage in idle pastime, but to ake him the center of life.

When Holman Hunt told his artist ends . . . that he was going to paint hrist, they pointed out the absurdity of e undertaking. "You can paint only hat you can see," they insisted, as the rinciple of their school of painting. "You ill only waste your time trying to do e impossible." "But I am going to see m," Hunt replied.

"I will work by his side in the carpenter op. I will walk with him over the hills Galilee. I will go with him among the oor, the blind, the lame and the leprous. will go to Gethsemane with him. I will avel with him to Calvary and climb the oss with him until I see him, and then will paint him."

Those of us who have stood with oved hearts as we have looked at Hol- an Hunt's "Light of the World," knocking the closed door, feel convinced that e great painter did live with Christ til he saw him with eyes of joy and onder. But it was not a dead Christ at he saw, but the living Christ trying find entrance into the human heart.

At this season of the year, we attempt walk with Christ through all of the enues of life, observing his touch and ower of persuasion in our world today. t he calls us not to the arena of life to mere spectators, but to engage in ex- riences that will transform us through id through.

Christian Education becomes the hope pe of the world when we literally in- ct our lives into the business of duplicat- g his life in the every day affairs of m. If the Lenten Season says anything us, it must say that we can only see n as we take him seriously into "the rpenter shop," the home, the school and e hospital, the mortuary and the ceme- y. The living Christ awaits an entrance! ill you let him in? May we see you and ur family at 9:15 A.M.?

Associate-Minister

WHAT IS A REAL CHURCH MEMBER

"How many church members have you?" I am asked. Well, what shall I reply? I "You mean real church members?" "Yes" comes the reply. What is a real church mber anyway? A real church member is a born-again Christian who walks in the t of the Holy Spirit. He is one who has laid his life on the altar of God, not just name on a dotted line. He is one who has heard the wistful call of Christ, not the call join us, we have a good choir." He is one who attends the services, and participates ein. He is not a church member, who stays home repeatedly, never sings the great ns, never takes the Lord's Supper, never prays. A real church member was added to church by Christ (Acts 2:47), not by "signing up' and never showing up. A real rch member is concerned. He is troubled deep within when no one responds to the cation. He is perplexed when attendance drops, he is alarmed when stewardship es, and when interest in missions is low. A real church member shares a burden the burden Jesus bore for a lost world. A real church member allows nothing to fere with church attendance. Company, pleasure, work, and sleep will all have place in his heart. The church must come first. A real member wouldn't dream of ing his appointment with the Lord around His table each Sunday. Or if he did it, he'd be sure to make it up. How many real members will be here Sunday? It be interesting to see.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

Dear Christian Friends:

Let me make this important announcement! THERE WILL BE NO ASSEMBLY IN THE SANCTUARY FOR THE NEXT TWO SUNDAYS, April 7 and April 14. Instead, we will be having two identical morning worship services at 8:00 A.M. and 10:30 A.M. All adults present at 9:15 A.M. There are many valuable announcements that are made at this time, and you will miss out on some important events in the life of the Church if you are not present at 9:15.

We would like to underscore this fact: THE ADULT ASSEMBLY IS NOT A "STAGING AREA" to permit "latecomers" to be on time for classes that begin 15 minutes later. It is an integral part of the Church's teaching Ministry. It is not a substitute for the morning worship, but a period of preparation that will help us to receive valuable truths in the sessions that follow. We miss you when you are not present, and you miss something that is vital. Let's don't cheat ourselves.

PLEASE KEEP IN MIND THE SERVICES in our Church that lead us to Easter Sunday. Each morning, Monday through Friday, at 7:00 A.M., we will be having Holy Week devotions led by the Minister. Following the benediction at 7:30 A.M., coffee and rolls will be served for those who don't have an opportunity to have breakfast before coming. You will have plenty of time to attend these services and get to school or work or to return home for the days chores. LET'S FILL THE SANCTUARY!

THURSDAY EVENING, APRIL 11, AT 7:30 P.M. we will observe the Institution of The Lord's Supper. This is the annual Candlelight Communion Service. IMMEDIATELY FOLLOWING THE COMMUNION SERVICE, the Minister and the leaders of the Church will begin the, CHAIN OF PRAYER which will continue from 9:00 P.M. until 8:00 A.M. Easter Sunday Morning. You may register during Church School or after the Palm Sunday Worship Services for a thirty minute prayer period. There are several spaces available.

GOOD FRIDAY SERVICES WILL BE HELD HERE AT THE CHURCH. The Associate Minister will bring the first of the "Seven Last Words" of Jesus spoken from the Cross. The Minister will have the final word. Attend as many of these as you can. The time: 12-3:00 P.M. See you in Church at 9:15 A.M.

John W. Williams,

"HOPE FOR A WORLD IN CRISIS" . . .

Dr. Charles Malik, former President of the United Nations General Assembly, and ner Ambassador of Lebanon to the United States, in a recent interview has stated t, "there are three unpardonable attitudes today: to be flippant or superficial in the dysis of the world situation; to live and act as though halfhearted measures would ail; and to lack the moral courage to rise to the historic occasion." He has written important new book, "Christ and Crises." He was asked in the interview concerning erica's greatest contribution to the world of our times. His answer, coming as it s from one involved in the world's quest for peace, needs restating in every news- per in the land:

"What has been the greatest American contribution to the rest of the world? Has een money? Has it been medical skills? Has it been military might? Has it been ustrial know-how? I CAN ASSURE YOU THAT IT HAS BEEN NONE OF THESE NGS!

The greatest thing to come out of America has been the American missionary effort: quiet selfless men and women who left the comfort and security of their homeland to ng the Gospel of Christianity to less favored nations. In China, in India, in Africa, he Middle East and in hundreds of far-off-places, these obscure missionaries have n far more effective ambassadores than any of the money men or the agricultural erts or the industrial technicians.

These are great days and what is being decided in them is absolutely historic. But these things are going to pass, and with them life itself. What, then, is the life that s not pass; what, then, is life eternal? This is the first and last question. I believe t "this is life eternal, that they may know Thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ om Thou has sent." (John 17:3)

"Nothing," he continues, "is closer to our life than faith in Jesus Christ. If we have ve know how crucially important it is in our lives; if we do not have it, we live es- nged in a state of permanent torment. If we have it or if we do not have it, faith esus Christ is the first and last meaning of our life. I do not care who or what you ; I put only one question to you: Do you believe in Jesus Christ? If you believe in n, then even though you are slandered and abused and misunderstood and miserable, u will have the victory of Jesus Christ over the world and the forces of evil — the devil victory always freely available to those who love and believe in Christ. And if you not believe in Him, even though you may think that you are the happiest and most se- e person, I am afraid for you."

Thus has spoken one of the great Christians of our time. As he bears his witness to rist in his place, are you bearing your witness to the Power of His Presence?

WORLD OUTREACH

The World Outreach Department would like to urge the congregation to read the WORLD CALL magazine that comes to the homes each month. There are interesting articles informing us of the work our Disciples' churches are doing around the world. All of the functional departments of the church, as well as the C.W.F., C.M.F., and C.Y.F. will find articles useful to their work and study. Notice the Publication Schedule on Page 40 of the April issue.

IN SYMPATHY

We wish to express our sincere sympathy to Mr. Vaughn Brickley and family in the recent loss of a brother.

* * * * * * * *

CHOIR CHORDS

We wish to express our appreciation to the Choir from Central High School and our own Sanctuary Choir for the beautiful rendition of the "Crucifixion" last Sunday evening. Those who heard were deeply inspired.

* * *

We will be privileged to hear our choirs this Sunday morning as they sing for us the Easter anthems.

At 6:00 P.M. Easter afternoon the choirs will present a half-hour program over Station WPTA-TV (Channel 21). We can all share in this rich experience by watching and listening to their televized program.

* * * * * * * *

Our Choir will participate in a music program to be given at St. Paul's Lutheran Church on May 10. First Christian Church has been selected to be one of the six choirs for that occasion.

LILIES FOR EASTER

Church School Classes and individuals who plan to order lilies for friends or for the home, it will be greatly appreciated if they would loan them to the church for Easter Sunday morning. They would be helpful toward beautifying the Sanctuary on that Day.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

Dear Christian Friends:

Facing the cross of Jesus, I cannot help but remember the words of the old Negro spiritual, "Where when they crucified my Lord?" One of the great mysteries of modern conversation has and always will be the identity of the strange and generalized third person, plural "THEY." Just who is this "THEY?" I've often wondered. In moments of deeper insight and retrospect, I am compelled to shift the pointer of suspicion to myself and say the "THEY" we are talking about is actually "ME!" What a horrible revelation! Could I have been there? Could you have been there?

We cannot escape our responsibility for the Cross by a mere accident of time. Just because the actual crucifixion took place nearly twenty centuries ago, I cannot shrug my shoulders as if I had nothing to do with this event. Let me point out one factor that I observe as I reflect upon the last days of Jesus and the crucifixion. THERE WAS NOT ONE SINGLE STRANGE SIN ASSOCIATED WITH THE CROSS. We know all about each one of them, and we are guilty of them. From this standpoint, we are all involved in the Cross and the death of our Lord Jesus. Try to escape responsibility for your part in the Cross and you miss the whole meaning of it.

Were you there when they crucified my Lord? I was there? I can see myself in each one of the actors in that drama. I was there in Caiaphas who would save the nation by letting Jesus perish. I was there in Nicodemus who would not risk his position in the Sanhedrin for Jesus' sake. I was there in Peter who loved but was unprepared. I was there in Judas who followed, but sought to bend Jesus to his own ends. I was there in Herod who did not care. I was there in Pilate who was afraid. I was there among the fickle crowd. I was one of the soldiers who simply did his duty. I KNOW I AM GUILTY OF HIS DEATH, and for my only defense, I plead for God's mercy, forgiveness and love.

From the other side of the Cross, we see his tomb on Easter Sunday morning, not able to contain its prey. Stabbed wide awake by the fact of the ever living Christ, I am given assurance of forgiveness and eternal life. This side of the Cross, it ought to be "easy" to follow Christ, because he has assured victory by his conquering the grave and sin. What can I do? In grateful appreciation I can surrender my life to him, to live for him, to make him the King of my life. Won't you do the same?

A THRILLING DAY INDEED!

The weather could not have been lovelier, the choir better, the attendance much ger, etc. which added together made for a great and thrilling service on Easter Sun- y morning. There were 831 people counted by the ushers and the offering was $2,646, h some $1,225 designated for missions! This is an excellent response, but what could pen if Easter came at least once a month with all its drawing power! It has been ured that if our congregation was a tithing congregation we could have (on the sis of per capita income of Allen County) a budget in excess of $300,000! What a g road lies ahead to bring our lives up to the standards which are God's!

FELLOWSHIP EVANGELISM

The only way a Church can grow is to win others to its fellowship. Whenever you a strange face, reach out your hand and greet them and let them know you are ighted to have them worshipping with you. Each Thursday evening at 7 P.M. mem- s of the Church go visiting for Christ and the Church. If you would like to share in se wonderful experiences, we would love to have you come along. You can help submitting names of people who are in need of a church home to the Evangelism mmittee.

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT

John Ruskin once wrote, "Education does not mean teaching people what they do know. It means teaching them to behave as they do not now behave." Can we say, even more surely, that Christianity is not teaching people to believe doctrines y do not know, but teaching them how to commit their lives in the living of a life y do not now live?

Can we find Easter power for daily living? Yes, here and now we can begin to live life He came to reveal to all who would inherit the Kingdom of Eternal Life.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

Dear Christian Friends:

Last Sunday was a great day in the life of the Church around the world. It is a sad thing that, we who call ourselves followers of the Master, should think that Easter comes only once a year. The New Testament teaches plainly that every Lord's Day is another Easter. We meet together on Sunday to celebrate the Resurrection and its triumps. For centuries the Church has met on this day, and our meeting together is a loud exclamation that Jesus Christ is alive. What then, does the aftermath of Easter have to say to us? After all the pomp and splendor, the dressing and finery have been discarded, what does Easter mean?

To me, it means that all of life should be lived in contemplation of this great act of God. And it should not be an event that we relegate to ancient history, but as current and up-to-date as our latest breath.

Harry Emerson Fosdick describes his call to the ministry with these words: "Once a boy went with his family to church on Sunday morning. He was not trying hard. He did not even dream that anything was going to happen. But as the sermon proceeded something did happen. Doors began to open in that young boy's mind. Visions came that he had never seen before, and a sense of direction that he had not known. I was that boy. That happened over fifty years ago. I have never escaped the influence of that hour. Strange what a few moments of released power, when one is not trying, can do for all the years afterward when one is trying!"

The greatest hope that the Church holds today is that followers of the Christ may never escape the influence of the hour when our Lord burst forth from the grave, leaving the tomb empty. This happened to the first Christians, and they went everywhere preaching the living Christ, testifying and witnessing with their very lives. May we never escape the influence of that hour! See you and your family at 9:15 A.M. each and every Lord's day. By your attendance, you are witnessing to the glory of that hour!

John W. Williams,

Associate-Minister

lume 21 Fort Wayne, Indiana, April 25, 1963 Number 30

TO BE CONVERTED . . .

Conversion in the New Testament is upheavel, turning things upside down, finding ew outlook, maintaining new relationships, and experiencing new joys. Paul says ntly that when a person is in union with Christ he is a new creation. He has been ade, not just repainted or repaired. He was dead and has been brought to life. nversion brings a basically transformed spirit. Self is removed from the center, God comes foremost, man's heaviest responsibility is to find out what God wants done d give oneself to the doing of it. The change is as profound as the difference between y will' and "Thy will be done." "Nevertheless" becomes the decisive word; I crave s, nevertheless I will do that. Conformity to this world is rejected in favor of the way Christ, the way of doing the will of God in the face of any risk and at any cost; the y of compassionate concern and loving service; the way which leads to deliverance n fear of death, from fear of privation, from fear of defeat, therefore from fear of emies. Conversion in the New Testament is truly upheaval, turning things rightside finding a new outlook, maintaining a new relationship, and experiencing new joys.

The converted person wants to know above everything else what is right in the ht of God. He longs for wisdom and power to please his heavenly Father. He is ed with the spirit of loving kindness and is hungry for fellowship. He would rather at home in the invisible world of the spirit than to acquire comfort and fame and rldly power. He is now living in eternity in the midst of time, and he also has no r of moving through death from one room to another in his Father's house.

—Kirby Page

I AM SATISFIED WITH MY RELIGION!

We often hear people say this, and they use it as evidence that their religion is good and acceptable in the sight of God. But is this necessarily true?

The Mohammedan is satisfied when he worships in idolatry, is he right? He is satisfied.

The Jew is satisfied, even while he rejects Jesus Christ? He is satisfied.

The rich man was satisfied, and said, "I will say to my soul, Soul thou hast much goods laid up for many years; take thine ease, eat, drink, and be merry, but God said unto him, Thou foolish man this night is thy soul required of thee." (Luke 12:19). Was the rich man right in being satisfied?

To satisfy yourself is not enough. We are not seeking our own satisfaction here, but God's pleasure. Jesus "also pleased not himself," and was constantly doing God's pleasure. He said on one occasion, "He that sent me is with me; he hath not left me alone for I do always the things that are pleasing to him." (John 8:29)

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

Dear Christian Friends:

Please keep these dates in mind. They are important to CYF and Chi Rho age young people. APRIL 28, 1963, 2:00-8:00 P.M., District I, Church Youth Fellowship Youth Meet here at our Church. MAY 11, 1963, District I, Chi Rho Youth Meet at Auburn. MAY 5-12, Christian Family Week.

The central theme of the early church was "reconciliation through the gospel of Christ." It was not some organized campaign that pushed the early disciples out into a pagan world to extend the boundaries of God's Kingdom. It was a move motivated by their being exposed to a fact — and that fact was the living Christ. And how did they know he was living? There are two factors that authenticate this fact: (1) The empty tomb. (This was the first intimation of the living Christ to the early disciples.) and (2) The appearance of Jesus unto his disciples. This type of appearance puzzles many and mystifies others. But we know that the appearance of Jesus was real to them, and that is all that matters. If he becomes real to us today, in whatever way he can manifest himself to us, that, too, is all that really matters.

Wherever Jesus went, there were two things he always did. He always pardoned sins where men wanted to be forgiven and he held out the promise of eternal life. The two go hand in hand together. As the song says, "Love and marriage, like a horse and carriage," go together. So forgiveness of sins and the promise of eternal life together. You can't have one without the other.

Perhaps we have never been forgiven beause we feel that we have never done anything that needs to be forgiven. Perhaps in our contemporary morality we feel no sense of pain or guilt. We are "the average" American, and we have arrived at a status that is acceptable by ourselves and society. So if my friends and I accept me, why shouldn't God do the same?

May I call your attention to what God's Word has to say about this? "As the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways." "Men's righteousness is as filthy rags in the sight of God." When measured by God's standards, rather than by our contemporary society, man stands in critical need of a great salavtion that will result in a great gratitude and be climaxed in a great commitment. May we see you and your family at 9:15 A.M. each Sunday in the Church School?

WORLD OUTREACH

Have you read the interesting article "Monument and Mission" by Flor Rivera in the April World Call? Mrs. Rivera and her husband have been serving as missionaries in Paraguay. They are now on furlough and can be heard at the State Convention. They are two of the eleven missionary-partners who have been assigned to the Indiana churches. When they return to the Field they will begin a new work in Venezuela.

JUST SUPPOSE

Suppose you had to "run" for church membership as any candidate runs for political office. Would you win or lose? Suppose the membership was good for one year only and that re-election depended upon the good you had done in the church during the time. Would you be re-elected or not? Suppose there were a long list of those waiting to get in. Would you be more alive to your duties as a Christian? Suppose you were called on to explain just why your church should keep your name on the roll. Have you a record of helpful service to offer in your defense? Suppose every member in the church did as much for the church as you are doing? Would more seats be needed or would the doors be shut? Suppose your church had this set of rules: All dues must be paid in advance. Regular attendance at services is required to serve in some recognized, church work, such as Sunday School teacher, active member in some organization, friendly visitor. How long would you qualify? "THOU SHALT HAVE NO OTHER GODS BEFORE ME." (Ex. 20:3) —Selected

CALLING POTENTIAL BOY SCOUTS

For a long time many of us wished we had a Boy Scout troop of our own here at First Christian Church. We have felt that many of our sons were missing a vital opportunity for character building and at the same time the Church was missing an opportunity for tying our sons into the life of the church through a scout troop. Recently, Dr. Henry L. Butler volunteered to help us organize and lead a scout troop if enough boys could be gotten together to begin. I know that some of our boys are already in another troop. Some have volunteered the information that perhaps they would transfer into a Church troop here if it were formed. What about it fellas, are you interested? Let us hear from you this week!

"Faith, if it hath not works, is dead" — James 2:17

What are you doing to activate your faith? Have you recently invited a friend to worship with you? Have you ever asked anyone about their eternal soul? Why not begin this week in trying to spread the Christian faith by sharing your faith with a friend or neighbor! You, and you alone, can fill the church to overflowing. You, and you alone, can build a Christian fellowship that will win souls to Christ. You must want to win them to Christ, or your faith isn't worth spreading. Just suppose your neighborhood was burning to the ground and you possessed the only water outlet and fire department what would you do? Would it not give you great pleasure to be able to offer help in time of need? Then why do we hesitate to share the saving grace of our Lord? Could it be that the real reason is that we do not know the grace of God? God grant that isn't so!

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

Dear Christian Friends:

Please keep these dates in mind: DISTRICT ONE CHI RHO FELLOWSHIP MEET at Auburn, Indiana, May 11, 1963, from 9:30 A.M. - 3:45 P.M. We will leave the Church at 8:30 A.M. All 7, 8 & 9th graders who plan to attend, please indicate it this Sunday morning in Church School. The registration is $1.00 per person. PARENTS: We will need cars for transportation. Will you drive?

May 5-12 is "CHRISTIAN FAMILY WEEK." As a part of this observance in our Church, sheets will be inserted in the Worship Bulletin on May 12. We are asking that you write your thoughts as you worship. As we close the worship service, you will be asked to pass them to the end of your pew and they will be collected by the ushers.

VACATION CHURCH SCHOOL plans have been in the "mill" for several weeks, and the dates are to be June 10-14 and 17-21. It will begin at 9:00 A.M. each morning and close at 11:30 A.M. Registration is $1.00 per child and classes will be held for children from age three (3) through Junior High School. YOU MAY REGISTER YOUR CHILD after Worship Service in Fellowship Hall on May 19 and 26th.

ANY YOUNG PERSON DESIRING TO ATTEND CAMP OR CONFERENCE should get his application in to the Church Office as soon as possible. The camp grounds are going to be crowded this year, and those who get their applications in early will be considered first. The dates for camps and conferences are posted on the bulletin board near the South entrance of the Church.

WE ARE STILL IN NEED OF SOME TEACHERS who will be willing to substitute this summer while others are vacationing. Please think seriously about this and fill out the card that Mrs. James Naile mailed to you along with her letter recently. REMEMBER: "Christian Education Is the Hope of the World!" and "Christian Education is every Christian's business." Just fill out the card and bring it to Church with you or call Mrs. Naile at her home — 747-3789. If you let her know your age preference, she will be glad to see that you get acquainted with the teacher of that class and visit before you actually take on the responsibility.

MOTHER'S DAY IS MAY 12. We will honor the mother with the most children present in worship, the oldest and youngest and the one who comes the greatest distance. Let's honor Mother on her day for the beliefs she has communicated to us. See you in Church School at 9:15 A.M.

WHAT IS A MOTHER?

In our time the home has become merely a stopping place for a meal or a night's ing, and often very little else. As goes the home, so goes civilization. The heart ie home must be a Christian mother, and motherhood is more than a biological it. Mothers are the people who sweep out mountain cabins, run the carpet sweeper our Town, wash and iron clothes in Any Town, etc. Mothers cook, clean, wash, d, dream, punish, wheedle, improvise, cajole, and make things go twice as far as a ever could! Children are what they read to, listen for, play with, watch over, k about, pray for, worry with, and do without because of, and brag to the neighbors it. A bobby pin and gummed tape are Mother's kit of tools; intuition is her college ee and a new hat is her Declaration of Independence. Mothers are patient souls. Mother, in particular, must have been a blue-ribbon patience winner when you e young. How else could she have raised such a one as you? Patience alone dn't have done it; it took many cubic miles of love, and luck for you (lucky for all s) that a mother's heart is as boundless as the universe itself. Anyone else would e scrubbed our ears, dressed us in our Sunday best, and sent us packing to the rest orphans' home after the first two or three years of trying to convert a small ige into a civilized boy or girl.

When we were little, Mother was everything to us — police dept., board of educa- dept. of public works, the recreation commission, the finance dept., and the court rrection. And all mothers are beautiful when they are young — remember? Then ie years turn into decades, Mother meets another man besides Dad and this man ld Father Time. Her fresh beauty changes after she and Father Time get to be l friends. There are little cuts on her thumb, made by a paring knife, and the er winds roughen her cheeks when she hangs out the clothes. She doesn't carry groceries so jauntily as when you were skipping along by her side. But Mother's ity is as indestructible as Faith, Hope, and Love, because mothers are all these js and a very great deal more.

Whether Mother is 18 or 80, she is an irreplaceable treasure. None other will ever you half so well or half so foolishly. None other will be so sure you are right, , and worthy. Of course, sometimes she is wrong, but God love her for it and keep forever in His grace!

Is it any wonder God has advised: "Honor thy father and thy mother, that thy ; may be long upon the earth."

SUNDAY'S SERMON: "The Home and Young People"

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

Dear Christian Friends:

Next Sunday is Mothers' Day, and as I look forward to it, I am reminded of some words that Paul wrote to Timothy: "I am reminded of your sincere faith, a faith that dwelt first in your grandmother Lois and your mother Eunice and now, I am sure, dwells in you." (II Timothy 1:5)

You see, this being Christian Family Week, recalls to us with vividness the fact that Christianity, in the very beginning, was a family affair. It should ever be so. Even in our hymns we sing about the "Faith of Our Fathers." Isn't it significant that Paul remembered the faith as it was communicated to Timothy thru his mother and grandmother.

While we may not think so, the Jewish society placed extreme importance upon the mother. Jewish Rabbis have told me that they prefer in cases of mixed marriages that a Jewish girl marry a Gentile boy instead of the opposite. They feel that the mother is important because the religious life is communicated through her, and they would rather have it this way to insure that the child would be taught in the religion of the Jews. They have said that although a man is, according to their heritage, the head of the house, it is the mother who is the dominant teaching factor in the home. A Jewish father and a Gentile mother would leave the faith easier.

In our society, this need not be true. But consider how many homes today have both parents employed earning a living. We see that the time spent with children comes at a premium. Because of this, some children are growing up without the advantage of a Christian Mother's teaching, the teaching that Eunice gave to the young Gospel Minister, Timothy. Therefore, it behooves us to redeem our time and spend wisely.

Spending time is not enough. To be sure, there are many parents who spend a great deal of time with their children, but who are miserable failures in the art of communicating faith. May I say that time is well spent with our children when we are aware of an unseen third party, the Holy Spirit? It was this Spirit that found expression in Lois and Eunice and caused them to witness to a faith, a faith in the Son of God, THE faith, if you please!

What it did for Timothy as a young child, it will do for our children today. Paul says, "for God did not give us a spirit of timidity but a spirit of power and love and self-control." (II Timothy 1:7). Do you want your children to grow to achieve maturity and adulthood without fears and frustrations? Give them the Gospel of Jesus Christ, written in the lets of your hearts. Some would say religion irritates and frustrates, but them be reminded of Paul's words, PO ER, LOVE and SELF-CONTROL... May see you in Church School at 9:15 A each Sunday?

THE BIBLE IS A RECORD OF THE SELF-REVELATION OF GOD

George Buttrick has written: "The Bible is the Book through which God moves in m might — now in the calm of a sunset sea, now in judgment storm, now in tidal cy that floats all our beached vessels. This is the only Book of Jesus Christ, whose is the "master light of all our seeing," whose tragic cross is the taking away of the of the world, whose resurrection is the hope of men aghast at death's blight. Why ot all life well spent in the study of such a Book? If choice had to be made be- en this Book and all others, there would be no choice: who would not choose the against ten million candles?"

True study of the Bible then, will be a meditation on the Eternal Word, an exposing e soul to the Book's blessed, healing light! Are you reading the Word of the Lord?

Read the following passages in different translations and see what the Word of Lord is saying to our generation:

Ezekiel 33:30-32
II Tim. 3:1-5
Deut. 32:48-52
Gal. 2:20
Romans 1:16
Romans 18.8, etc.
Matt. 16:24-25
Phil. 1:29
I John 2:15
I Tim. 5:6

Attend a Bible Study group and get to know your Bible. It is your best access to will of the Father!

Sunday's Sermon: "This, Is Saving Faith". (This will attempt to take a hard look hat "saving faith" is and is not! Do you have a faith that saves, and if not, why Hell is the destiny of those who walk by the rule of man, and the logic of their reasoning, rather than by obedience to the revealed will of God).

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

Dear Christian Friends:

It won't be long before June 2nd will be here and our Church School will be observing two great days in one. June 2nd is CHILDREN'S DAY and PENTECOST, the birthday of the Church. I think that it is significant that these two dates should come together at this time.

Children's Day had its beginning with a group of young children who wanted to share the knowledge of Jesus Christ with children around the world who did not know Him. It has been incorporated into the Outreach giving of our Chlrch, so that adults as well as children are included in the missionary scope of this day.

More than half a century ago Archibald McLean, dynamic missionary leader among our people, wrote — "The evangelization of the world was in the purpose of God from the beginning, it was not an after-thought." Again he said—"If the Church should lose sight of her real purpose and concentrate everything upon herself, she would cease to be of any real value; she would become like salt that has lost its saving quality and degenerate into a club of some kind. It would be good for nothing . . . what is true of the church as a whole is true of local congregations . . . the Church exists as part of Christ's army of conquest." (Excerpts from "Where the Book Speaks"—McLean-Reveil).

The statements of McLean are as vital in 1963 as when written. In the course of history many things about the Church have changed and will continue to change. The message and program of the Church is always relevant to the contemporary needs of man. Man's need is for spiritual redemption, and if the message and program are not geared to meet that need, it ceases to be a Church. Only as the Church seeks fulfillment of its divine mission of the proclamation of the Gospel to the whole world does it rise to true greatness and lead man to his destiny of becoming a child of God.

Our Church through its teaching ministry seeks to fllfill the mission of the proclamation of the Gospel of Christ to the whole world. It begins at home, but it does not end there. The message of Christ is carried around the world by the missionaries we support with our offerings. When we give our money, we are not giving dollars and cents, but the message of Christ.

There is a class in our Church School for every person in your family. We will be looking for you at 9:15 A.M. each Sunday.

John W. Williams
Associate-Minister

FIRST CHRISTIAN TIDINGS

"THE FAMILY CHURCH" "AS FRIENDLY AS IT IS BEAUTIFUL"

ume 21 Fort Wayne, Indiana, May 23, 1963 Number 34

According to Mark, the earliest Gospel, Jesus began His ministry by saying, "The e is fulfilled. The Kingdom of God is at hand. Repent ye and believe the gospel." ark 1:14). In other words, "The time is ripe. God's reign opens. Think again. Change r way of looking at life and believe the good news!"

Has that realm dawned, for you? Is the Kingdom here and now, for you? Jesus d, "The kingdom of God is within you." (Lk. 17:21). Is the Kingdom of God within U? If you possess only a vague notion of what the rapture of the Kingdom is all out, begin the pilgrimage now by asking God to make you a disciple of the Kingdom God. To share in it is our birthright. To enter it means incredible happiness. To end it is fullness of joy. Let us be sensitive to its call and ready, like a child, to er with wide eyes full ofwonder and delight:

To follow truth as blind men long for light,
To keep our hearts fit for His holy sight,
And answer when He calls . . . .
THIS . . . . is my Task!

What do you say to a family when death suddenly thrusts its way into their home? ain and again it has been the lot of ministers everywhere to go to a hospital with e family and to be told at the emergency desk, "O.O.A." Then one's heart is glad these have known the saving grace of our beloved Lord. It is in moments like se that your minister knows beyond any shadow of doubting that one needs to live in the shadow of His grace moment by moment. My mind wonders at moments these just what would happen if it had been you . . or you . . or me . . are we pared for the journey out of darkness into light, or of earth into heaven? . . . We er be!

SUNDAY'S SERMON: "Epitaph for Heroes"

FAMILY NIGHT FELLOWSHIP

We will have a Church-wide family night carry-in dinner next Sunday evening, May 26, at 5:30 P.M. in Fellowship Hall.

The Christian Life Committee, under the leadership of Mrs. Harold Crowder, will present a skit on the theme of Christian Family Life and Heritage. A very fine film in technicolor, will be shown.

In order to have a balance of food we would like those of you whose names begin with the alhpabet A to K, please bring salad L to P, please bring a vegetable dish; and those from T to Z, bring meat. Please bring your own table service.

IN SYMPATHY

We are all deeply grieved in the sudden death last Tuesday of our fine member, Howard Overmyer; and we wish to express our heartfelt sympathy to Mrs. Overmyer and the children in this hour of great sorrow.

Dear BROTHER!

Here's a conversation I overheard outside the church last Sunday morning. I thought you ought to know about it.

VISITOR: Thank you for inviting me to attend your church again today. That sermon was wonderfully helpful to me. But may I ask you a question?

MEMBER: Certainly. What is it?

VISITOR: Why does your minister, who preaches so well, always end his sermons with such a stupid sentence?

MEMBER: Stupid sentence? I don't understand. What do you mean?

VISITOR: Well, just when it seems to me that he has reached the high point of his sermon he stops and says: "If there are those present this morning who would like to cough, rustle papers, put on coats, wiggle and prepare to leave, now is the time to do it."

MEMBER: He doesn't say that!

VISITOR: Well, I must confess I have never heard what he says, but that is surely what they do!

MEMBER: Come to think of it, our congregation is rather noisy at that point of the service. Come again next Sunday and I'll stay quiet until the minister has finished his sermon. Maybe others will too. That last sentence, which you have yet to hear, is our invitation for you to come forward and become a part of the Christian fellowship he has been preaching about.

VISITOR: An invitation to join your Christian fellowship? That's what I have been waiting for!

How about it? Do you think you can wait that extra fifteen seconds and open your hymnal to sing after the sermon is really over? I'd like to give that vis a chance to become a permanent fixtu

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

Dear Christian Friends:

Have you ever noticed flowers in a garden that seemed to be just a little healthier and brighter than all the others? Have you ever listened to a group of canaries when one seemed to be singing louder than all the rest? You thought to yourself he must have more to be happy about and he sings louder. Among your many friends you must be acquainted with some one who shines and radiates more than all the rest. There is a quality of life about some people that seems to draw and attract the friendship of others.

Why is it that you call certain people and share joys and victories with them before telling others the news? Some people just have a way of winding themselves around your heart and endearing themselves to you. Would you like to be that kind of person, a person who would be missed if his spot in life were vacated? You can be the very person you want to be.

One lady like this was carrying on a conversation one day. When asked how she came to be the wonderful person she was, she replied: "Our family used to be quite selfish. There were so many of us, that we felt we were sufficient unto ourselves. Last year Mother was in the hospital, and then we lost our Dad. We learned to appreciate other people then. They were so kind. When Mother came home she put a list of "Do-Mores" on the wall to remind us Do More for others. Those words changed our family." These words can change your life, too! Let me share them with you.

DO MORE THAN EXIST—LIVE.
DO MORE THAN TOUCH—FEEL.
DO MORE THAN LOOK—OBSERVE.
DO MORE THAN READ—ABSORB.
DO MORE THAN HEAR—LISTEN.
DO MORE THAN LISTEN—UNDERSTAND.
DO MORE THAN THINK—PONDER.
DO MORE THAN PLAN—ACT.
DO MORE THAN TALK—SAY SOMETHING!

Let me add one final note to these words. They will never mean a thing apart from Jesus Christ who came and lived among us and made them a reality in His life. We learn only from Him and from those who have been taught by Him. May we see you and your family at 9:15 A.M. this coming Lord's Day?

John W. Williams
Associate-Minister

ume 21 Fort Wayne, Indiana, May 30, 1963 Number 25

The CHURCH in the Twentieth Century

Today, in the midst of the twentieth century, with all of our technological advances, are apt to forget that man has the same needs that he had two thousand years ago. n is lost in the sin of self, and his soul is out of harmony with God. He needs a Saviour, l the same gospel that was preached on the day of Pentecost two thousand years and which brought salvation to lost men and women then will cure the same dis- e today. The same conditions that were necessary on the day of Pentecost then in er to the remission of sins are the same conditions that are necessary today, and the ie conditions obeyed which brought results, namely — the forgiveness of sins, com- nion and fellowship with God, the indwelling of the Holy Spirit and the promise of nal life — will, if obeyed today, bring the same results and the same promises!

What we need is not a new church for the twentieth century, but to give the church esus Christ, the church of the first century, a chance in this the twentieth century. us stop this utter nonsense about adapting the church to the age and to our social ditions. If the church in this hour (and this means you as a follower of Christ) would into practice the principles of the first century, it would create the kind of a world which man quests in a little while.

The Church of Jesus Christ is a spiritual hospital in which poor, diseased, maimed, ering humanity shall come for treatment at the hands of the Great Physician, and ll learn of the prescriptions as contained in His blessed revelation unto life ever- ing. The greatest deception the devil has ever perpetrated upon unsuspecting men women is to make them believe they can believe anything and practice almost thing, then attend church and be saved! What utter nonsense! Many a man and nan are deceived into believing that because they keep the moral laws of God they on their way to heaven, but it isn't necessarily so! Morality may keep a man out of but not necessarily out of hell! Heaven is gained by a commitment of one's life ie Son of God and doing what He would have us to do!

THE PASTOR AND THE DOCTOR

Mrs. Huff is up the miff-tree
On a seat fixed good and firm
And she'd like to tell the pastor
A few things and make him squirm.

Mrs. Huff was sick abed, sir,
Yes, sir, sick abed a week!
And the pastor didn't call, sir,
Never even took a peek.

When I asked her if the doctor
Called to see her she said "Sure"
And she looked as if she thought I Needed some good strong mind-cure.

Then I asked her how the doctor
Knew that sickness laid her low
And she said that she had called him
On the phone and told him so.

Now the doctor gets his bill paid
With a nicely written check
But the pastor for not knowing
Simply gets it "in the neck."

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

Dear Christian Friends:

Next Sunday is "Children's Day" and "Pentecost," of the Birthday of the Church of Jesus Christ. It is fitting and proper that two such days should come at once. For "Children's Day" is the outgrowth of the desire of little ones to share the knowledge of Jesus Christ with the other children of the world who have never heard of Him. And "Pentecost" is the day when we celebrate the first proclamation of the Gospel, resulting in the birth of the Church.

TEACHERS OF THE CHURCH SCHOOL ARE ASKED to meet with their classes in front of the Sanctuary, Sunday, June 2nd at 9:10 A.M. for picture taking. Following that, the teachers are asked to help their classes to be seated in properly designated pews toward the front of the Sanctuary. A short program will follow when I will explain something of the meaning of "Children's Day." Rev. Wascovich will lead in a prayer of dedication of offerings. The children will join in the singing of a children's song and the Junior Department Choir will present two numbers. The teachers are asked to escort their classes as quietly and as rapidly as possible back to their rooms where the collection of the offering boxes should take place.

EVERYONE IS ASKED TO REMAIN AFTER THE SERVICES this coming Sunday morning. In keeping with the birthday of the Church, we will have a birthday cake, reminding us of the significance of this day. Plan now to attend the fellowship hour this Sunday.

How far have we roamed from the early beginnings of the Church? How much have we contributed to the polution of the purity of the stream that represents the life and history of the Church? Perhaps the one great sin, but not the only one, that we have committed is that we have lived and believed that the Church exists for itself. We have acted as though our Christian responsibility amounted to nothing more than preserving the Church, rather than preaching the Gospel.

How often do we tell our newly made acquaintances that they need the Church? Mankind needs the Gospel. The Church exists that the Gospel might be made available. Telling a sin-sick man that he needs the Church is like telling a man dying of thirst that he needs a water pipe to stick in his mouth. That's not the case. He needs the water! But mose assuredly the water can't get there without the pipe. May we never be guilty of trying to assuage a dying man's thirst with a pipe that lets no water flow through it. Come and drink of the water of life in Church School each Sunday at 9:15 A.M.

"MAKING TOO MUCH OF BAPTISM"

Sunday morning I shall be preaching on the subject of, "Making Too Much of ptism". As a preparation for Sunday's sermon will you read the following passages scripture:

The Authority For Baptism

1. Luke 7:29, 30. God is the author of baptism, for He commanded John to baptize; those who submitted to John's baptism, "Justified God;" and those who rejected it "rejected the counsel of God."
2. Mark 1:9. Jesus, the Son of God, our Saviour, and Example, was baptized.
3. John 4:1, 2: "Jesus made and baptized more disciples than John". Jesus sanctioned and superintended the baptizing done by His disciples.
4. Matthew 28:19: The great commission instructs His followers to baptize their converts.
5. Other scriptures for its authority: Matt. 3:13-17; Acts 2.41; Acts 8:12; 8:38; 9:18; 10:47-48.

ANTECEDENTS (REQUIREMENTS BEFORE BAPTISM)

1. Preaching	(Mark 16:15, 16; Rom. 10:14)
2. Hearing	(Acts 2:37; Rom. 10:17)
3. Faith	(Acts 8:12, 13; 16:22, 34; 18.8)
4. Repentance	Luke 24:47; Acts 2:38)
5. Confession	Luke 12:8-9; Acts 8:37; Rom. 10:10)

REQUIREMENTS OF BAPTISM

1. Water	(John 1.31; Acts 10:47; I Peter 3:18-22)
2. Much Water	(John 3:23)
3. To Water	(Matt. 3:13; Acts 8:36)
4. In Water	Mark 1:5, 9; Acts 8:38)
5. Birth	(John 3:5)
6. Out of Water	(Matt. 3:16; Acts 8 39)
7. Burial	(Rom. 6:4; Col. 2:12)
8. Resurrection	Rom. 6:5; Col. 2:12)
9. Planting	(Rom. 6:5)
0. Bodies Washed	(Heb. 10:22)

CONSEQUENCES

1. Mark 16:16; Acts 2:38; 22:16, Titus 3:5.
2. I Peter 3.21; Acts 19:1-7.

CHURCH NOT LIVING BEYOND ITS MEANS

The church is not living beyond means. But many of its families are

What do you mean by that statem I mean that the families who give least require the most. The families are supporting and maintaining church do not require nearly the pas care nor the ministry as do the otl A long record of difficulties is recor usually, on the same card that bears notation "non-giver". Spiritual, phys emotional, and social difficulties affec families who are separated from God

You mean that if I do n't share, God doesn't care? No, but I mean "Where a man's treasure is, there wil heart be also"—and many a heart is dened down because it has been loc in the disease ridden areas of mat ambition, secular temptations and wo pursuits.

There is a direct ratio between moral, spiritual, emotional and s healthiness of a person or family unit the proportion of stewardship of that son or family.

Many of our families are living be their means—and courting disaster cause they fail to recognize God as r existing and, therefore, they refuse to Him at His word.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

Dear Christian Friends:

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL BEGINS MONDAY, JUNE 10 at 9:00 A.M. and will continue, Monday through Friday, through June 21. Classes will be dismissed each morning at 11:30 A.M. The registration fee is $1.00 per child. Mrs. Robert Hicks is the director this year, and she has enlisted some of the most capable people to lead the classes in crafts and studying of the Bible. If you have not already registered your child, YOU MAY DO SO THIS SUNDAY MORNING AFTER WORSHIP OR MONDAY, JUNE 10.

ATTENTION: ALL CHI RHO young people are to meet in the assembly for their department at 9:15 A.M. this Sunday morning. The department will meet in the Come-Double Class Room for announcements, singing and worship. We must be prompt and vacate this room by 9:25 A.M. in order to make it available for the Come-Double Class.

PLEASE REMEMBER that the time for Church School and Worship will change the first Sunday in July. Church School will begin at 9:00 A.M. and Worship will commence at 10.00 A.M. The Christian Education Department has recommended that the adult assembly continue to be held throughout the summer months, beginning at 9:00 A.M.

A NEW CLASS FOR COLLEGE AND UNIVERSITY age young people will begin Sunday, June 9. It will meet in the room above the Church Office during the Church School hour. We feel that this is a critical need that must be met in the life of our Church. Not only do we want to minister to the spiritual needs, but if sufficient interest in this class is manifested, there could be social opportunities for real fun and fellowship during the summer months. If you know of some friend that is not attending a Church School Class this summer and feel that we could serve, please bring him or her to this class with you. From our own fellowship, we have possibilities of about thirty or more. Let's make this the most dynamic class this summer!

May we see you and your family at 9:15 A.M. each Sunday?

John W. Williams,
Associate-Minister

Friends in Christ:

This is a world that need desperately "God's Kind of Man." We are in a battle he survival of all that is holy and decent. If we fail, some one else will have to l from the ashes of our civilization. The world needs the dynamism of Christian onality demonstrated in "God's Kind of Man."

The Christian conception is based on two simple and fundamental, but profound ositions: that man is created by God and redeemed by Christ. Christians believe each man bears upon him the impress of God's handiwork. After the conversion mperor Constantine legislation was passed abolishing the branding of criminals debtors on the face, since it is the image of divine beauty. Each man, so Christians n, is to be reverenced and respected as the creation of God.

t was this fact which moved the early Christians to utter their impassioned protest nst the universal practice of infanticide — the heartless exposure of unwanted ren on the mountainside to be mauled and devoured by wild beasts. It was ph Deissman who discovered on a piece of papyrus a letter by an Egyptian er addressed to his wife. She was expecting a baby, and this is what he wrote: is a boy, let it live; if it is a girl, cast it out."

Within three hundred years the Christians had swept this evil from the world — orphanages and hospitals showed a more excellent way. A veterinarian once me that it takes a hog only three generations to revert to its wild stage. It takes m beings less time than that! Let a man forget that God created him and that t died to redeem him, and man will demonstrate his ability to return to his savage icts.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

Dear Christian Friends.

This coming Sunday is Father's Day. In the Worship Hour, we will recognize the father who has the most children present, the oldest, the youngest and the one who comes the greatest distance to be here. "Honor thy father and thy mother, that thy days may be long in the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee." The best way to honor your parents is to be present in God's House.

PLEASE KEEP IN MIND THE CLOSING NIGHT of Vacation Bible School. The classes will have open house on Friday night, June 21, 7:30 P.M. Each class is planning a special treat for parents and refreshments will be served. Please enroll your child for the remaining sessions. Vacation Bible School is important. Did you realize that if your child attended each session he would have the hours equivalent to one half year in Sunday Church School?

ATTENTION: ALL CHI RHO PARENTS AND TEACHERS AND YOUNG PEOPLE! We are having assembly for Chi Rho age young people in the "Come-Double" class room each Sunday morning. We urgently request parents to cooperate by having children present and on time for this assembly. We only have ten minutes for this assembly. We must get out of the class room before the other class arrives. It isn't fair to make them wait. Let's be on our toes!

PLEASE REMEMBER THE TIME CHANGE IN July and August. Church School begins at 8:30 A.M. and Worship Hour starts at 9:30 A.M. throughout these two months. The adults will continue to assemble in the sanctuary before going to classes. REMEMBER: PRIMARY CHURCH AND BEGINNER CHURCH DO NOT MEET THESE TWO MONTHS.

CALLING ALL COLLEGE AND UNIVERSITY STUDENTS! Also, we would like to see other young people in the post-high school age who are not attending college, but are working at home. We are starting a class for your group for the purpose of study and fellowship. The class meets in the Associate-Minister's office each Sunday during the Church School Hour. You did get a personal invitation, didn't you? May we have the pleasure of seeing you?

John W. Williams
Associate-Minister

I WANT MY PASTOR TO GO FIRST CLASS

My pastor is a professional man. Th years and money he spent in college an in the seminary could have been spe qualifying him as an attorney, an arch tect, an engineer, and could have se him well on his way toward the practic of medicine.

But he didn't want to be an architec or a lawyer; he was called to the ministr Heaven knows the money didn't attrac him. His is a dedicated, selfless job c service that only a firm faith and a lastin devotion could support. He is my pastc because that faith and devotion wouldn let him settle for anything but the Chris tian ministry.

I had a hand in hiring him. I help t pay his salary, and I have a voice i virtually everything he does where m church is concerned. Like my church he is my responsibility, and I want hir to go first class. I have never subscribe to the theory that ministers of the gospe should eat less, dress cheaper, or liv more frugally than other professional mer

Since he is the chief representative c of my church, I want my pastor to loo like his people care about him. Whe he goes to a convention, I want him t have money in his pocket for all of hi expenses. I don't want him to have t scrimp and save from his own allowanc to accomplish the work of the church.

Whether he makes more money c less money than I do matters not whit. What does matter is that he b compensated in a fashion commensurat with his training, his ability, and his re sponsibility. If he chooses to give all c his money to the poor and go threadbar himself, that is his business. If he goe threadbare through my own parsimony that's my business.

I am proud of my pastor and the wor he does. I know he'll never be rich i material things. But when he attends m conventions, when he speaks publicly when he makes the rounds of the min istry, I want all who see him to know he has a congregation that loves him.

I want my pastor to travel first class

TAKE GOD WITH YOU

YOUR VACATION "Want to get away from it all?" O but to take God on your tion is to find meaning in all you see, opportunity for kindness. As you drive your t will be with care—Our inheritance for the past ages speaks of men who dwelt e and walked with God, heard His still small voice and found salvation.

YOUR WAY TO CHURCH

f you are here in the city or on a visit take God with you to Church every Sunday.
you can unburden the cares that have accumulated—Here you can take on ideas will be as wings to your mind. Here find substance that gives strength to your purposes—Here find fulfillment to the miracle of the Presence where two or three

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

ear Christian Friends:

Christian Education has something to ay about the nature and purpose of the hurch of Jesus Christ. Through Christian ducation, people come to an awareness at Christianity is something more than st a way of looking at life — a philoso- ny.. It is something more than a way of ving — an ethic. To be sure, it is more an a set of ideas — a theology. It is all these, but more! A university is some- ing more than just individual schools. o also is Christianity more than theology, hics or philosophy.

Christianity is an event, a deed, an ccomplishment, a victory. Christianity is n outgrowth of the life of Christ. In the olossian Letter, St. Paul expresses it this ay: "Now I rejoice in my sufferings for our sake, and in my flesh I complete hat is lacking in Christ's affilictions for e sake of his body." The Church of sus Christ is composed of those who are nited with him in his death, burial and surrection.

Needless to say, as long as the gospel being preached, taught, believed and eyed, the body of Christ, the redemptive llowship, is being enlarged. Therefore, e Church is both being and doing. It nnot be what it should be without doing nat it should be doing. What a thrilling ought it is to share in the glorious enter- ise of extending the growth of this body!

To be a part of "the people of God," ne new creation," "the household of od," and "the body of Christ" is not the me as having one's name on the records the Church. For the Church was never eant to be a static organization to which ople belonged merely for the sake of be- nging! It came into existence for the rpose of redeeming people. While the urch is looking unto "the fields that are nite unto the harvest," it must be aware the fact that those who are part of the demptive fellowship are in need of spir- al renewal.

Sometimes in our state of emotional im- aturity, we are afraid to confess our spir- al shortcomings and failures. In St. mes' Epistle, he commands us to "Con- ss your sins one to another." The re- mptive process is not something initiated mortals. It wasn't conveniently in- nted to cover up skeletons in our clos- s. It is part of the nature of the Church relaitonship to its Lord. The Church is ade up of "The forgiven and the for- ving."

Come to Church School each Sunday d learn more about Christ's Church.

CAN YOU EXPLAIN A WATERMELON?

"I was eating a piece of watermelon some months ago and was struck by its auty. I took some of the seeds and dried them and weighed them, and then I ap- ed mathematics to that forty pound melon. One of those seeds, put into the ground, es off its coat and goes to work. It gathers from somewhere two hundred thousand es its own weight, and forcing this raw material through a tiny stem, constructs a ttermelon. It ornaments the outside with a covering of green; inside the green it ts a layer of white, and within a core of red, and all through the red it scatters seeds, ch one capable of continuing the work of reproduction. Who drew the plan by which t little seed works? Where does it get its tremendous strength? Where does it find coloring materials? Where does it collect its flavoring extract? How does it de- op a watermelon?

Until you can explain a watermelon, do not be too sure that you can limit the wer of the Almighty and say what He would do or how He would do it!"

—William Jennings Bryan in "Prince of Peace."

THE WRONG EMPHASIS

When David Livingstone's body was taken back to England, crowds thronged the eets to pay tribute to the noble missionary. An elderly man among them was heard sob aloud, and people wondered at his grief. It was revealed that he and Living- ne had been close friends in their youth, and, as an ambitious young man, he had rned Livingstone's choice to give his life for Christ in Africa. With a life of selfish erest behind him, the man saw with regret who had made the wiser choice, and he ed out: "I put the emphasis on the wrong world!"

Where are you placing the emphasis of your life's thrust? This world or the next? e choice does not lie in the realm of tomorrow, it lies in the waning moments of the e and now — today!

SUNDAY'S SERMON: "Facing Up To The Truth"

FORGETTING GOD

I forgot my Lord in the summer time,
Just the time I was needed most;
I was nat away, but on each Lord's day
I failed to be at my post.

I forgot my church in the summer time,
As I lazily lay in bed,
While the faithful few had my work to do,
As I was spiritually dead.

I forgot my pledge in the summer time,
When He needed it most of all;
While my cash was spent, I was pleasure bent,
Just off duty for God 'til fall.

If my Lord should come in the summer time,
When from duty to God I'm free,
I wonder what I should do when my life is through
If, by chance, He should forget me.

LOST

I attended your church this morning. You wouldn't remember me — I may be eleven or eighty — but I was there. And I was hunting for something. I think I almost found it. I think I would have if you hadn't been in such a hurry.

The choir — even you in the congregation — sang hymns about a loving Lord that made my heart beat faster. I felt a tight, choking sensation in my throat as your pastor described the condition of a lost person.

I am lost. He is talking about me, I said to myself. From the way he speaks, being saved must be very important.

I looked about at you in the pews near me. You were listening. You seemed to think the pastor's words were important. All these people are so concerned I thought. They want me to be saved, too!

At last the minister finished his appeal and asked you to stand and sing another of the beautiful songs you know so well. I swallowed a lump in my throat and wished I knew the joy with which you sang. Then your pastor looked at me and started telling me once again how I could have this joy. But his words were drowned in a buzzing beside me.

When I glanced around you were putting on your little girl's coat and telling her to get her things. I looked on my other side and saw you rearranging your hat.

Looking in front of me, I saw you frown at your watch as if time were running out. My eyes burned, and my throat hurt. My feet were tired. I couldn't have walked toward the pleading minister.

You really didn't care. This salvation the pastor had been telling me about was

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

Dear Christian Friends:

Perhaps many miles will separate us this summer as we take our vacations and journey to other parts of this great country. But while we are absent one from another, may the good Lord watch over us and keep us safe. More than that, may He bring us back filled and revived with new inspiration and insight. May the Holy Spirit of God breathe new life into our souls. May the mountains, lakes and seashores bring the message of God to us anew. May the beauties of nature and the historic landmarks that we will see—may they stir us to new loyalties and devotions to the Son of God.

Most of all, may this summer not pass until we all know something of the indwelling of God's Spirit. The experience of God that most people find hardest to recognize is that of the Holy Spirit. Actually, it is as the Holy Spirit that we know God the best.

God the Father we may think we recognize quite clearly. It is the Great Creator who keeps the stars on their courses and holds the nations within the hollow of His hand.

God the Son comes to meet us as One whom we can know. In Jesus Christ the Infinite becomes definite in time and space. The Mysterious and Abstract shows himself to be Some One we can love and worship.

But God the Holy Spirit is not above us or coming to meet us — he is within us. He comes to us from outside ourselves, but He rises into our consciousness out of our deepest feelings. It is through the Holy Spirit that man becomes partakers of the divine nature. Man becomes something more than man when the Holy Spirit abides in him as a result of obedience to God.

Through the Holy Spirit, man is led and empowered by God Himself. I do not believe that God has abandoned the world as a house-wife leaves her laundry out to dry. Not even for that long a time would God carelessly neglect His creation. Perhaps we are not led, because we refuse to be led. It is not God's fault if we blunder blindly. He seeks a gentle entrance into our lives. May we open the door by obedience to Him.

I'm looking forward to seeing you this Sunday and every Sunday you are in town. Just because it's summer, don't take a vacation from God. He never takes one from you!

THE LAST SUNDAY OF THE SUMMER SCHEDULE IS HERE

This Sunday will be the last Sunday of the summer schedule. The time schedule follow the July and August pattern:

Bible School: 8:30 — 9:30 A.M.

Worship: 9:30 — 10:30 A.M. (This service will be taped at the early hour and broadcast over WGL at 10:30 A.M. Here is an opportunity to worship in the quiet liness of the sanctuary and then sit at home and listen to the whole worship hour more.)

*Mrs. Janet Weicker will present the special music. Come and help make this eat worship experience and then listen to it as it goes out across the city and counde to thousands of people to bless their lives.

WIDE-RANGING CONGREGATION

This summer, as usual, has seen members of this congregation span the continent coast to coast and from the Gul Coast to Canada. We hope that lives have been shed and hearts filled with much loveliness. The loveliness may fade on hill and dow, but the inward beauty will abide th passing of the years. As I crossed the t mountains in Pennsylvania and saw the little farms nestled in the great forests, I felt like David of long ago when he wrote: "I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, whence cometh my help" . . . Long after the snows have blotted out the many-ed meadows with a blanket of white, and after the trees have lost their leafy ndor, my heart shall be filled with the quiet grandeur of God's hills.

O COME, LET US ADORE HIM, CHRIST THE LORD!

If I could boast myself of noble birth,
And consort with the greatest ones of earth;
And find in every place an outstretched hand:
How dreadful in the end would be my lot,
If Christ should then declare,
"I know you not!"

If I should build my earthly mansion strong,
And entertain my soul with mirth and song;
And spend my life in luxury and ease;
And always seek my willful self to please:
What would I do at last, and whither flee?
If God my Judge should say,
"Depart from Me!"

—Cora L. Vinal

YES, IT'S TRUE

You cannot pray the Lord's Prayer
Ande even once say "I",
You cannot pray the Lord's Prayer
And even once say "My",
Nor can you pray the Lord's Prayer
And not pray for another;
For when you ask for daily bread
You must include your brother.
For others are included
In each and every plea;
From the beginning to the end of it
It does not once say, "Me".

WHAT DOES A CHRISTIAN OWE TO HIS CHURCH?

The fall and winter schedule is upon us and many will be finding their way back to ıe altar of God, and we hope and pray, to the work of the Lord.

Did you ever ask yourself the question, "What does one owe to the Church?" Well, ɛt me be so bold as to suggest a few things we owe the Church:

YOUR PRAYERS: You owe the Church enough interest and devotion to pray for Her and for Her tasks. Until we love the Church enough to pray for Her and for the plans and programs which are Hers, mankind will still wait in loneliness for an awareness of the life worth living.

YOUR PRESENCE: You owe the Church the interest, the effort and the time it takes to attend the meetings and services She sponsors. Every member of the Church ought to attend unless prevented — and I mean actually stopped — by circumstances beyond his control. Christianity faces no more important task than that of building a high regard for and morale around faithful attendance at Church services.

Millions are appalled when atheistic Communism closes churches around the world, who do not show by their lives that they care whether they are open or closed in their own country, and in their own city.

Hundreds of you women have never attended Christian Women's Fellowship, other hundreds of our men have never attended a Christian Men's Fellowship, and hundreds of parents don't care enough about the Christian education of their children to bring them to Bible School. Who is to blame for this kind of world?

YOUR FINANCIAL SUPPORT: You owe the Church of the Lord of history your support of means as well as your ability. You owe the Church a share in the major interests and abilities of your life. Somewhere in Her program the Church needs your talents. Get involved in the life of the Church for which Christ died!

You owe the Church a share of your means! How much rests with you and your conscience. The Church is no spiritual mendicant, begging for her existence, hat in hand. She has earned Her right in history to your support. The Official Board of this and of every other Church need have no qualms about presenting the claims of Christ upon your life. The programs of the Church presents to men and women great opportunities for usefulness and purpose in life!

I have no fear for the future of the Church — she has outlasted civilization after ivilization, and, should ours collapse, she will outlast it! She is our Bridge into the ıture!

LOST! A BOY! Not kidnapped by bandits and hidden in a cave to weep and starve and raise a nation to frenzied searching. No, his father lost him. Too busy to sit with him at the fireside and answer his trivial questions during the years when Dad is the only great hero of a boy, he let go his hold. His mother lost him, too. Engrossed in the worthwhile programs, clubs and high aims, she left the baby-sitter hear his prayers and abdicated her place of influence. And the church lost him. Amid sermons for the wise and well-to-do, with care for dignity and decorum, there was no place for the restless boy in worship or in sport. WAS THIS YOUR BOY? —Selected

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

ear Christian Friends:

The Fall Program is getting under way ith the whole Church returning after the mmer vacation period. I hope that this acation period afforded you time to ather your strength and refresh your ind with the good things of life. Most all, I hope that you were able to do e things you wanted to do. After all, at's what a vacation is for. Perhaps our vacation gave you an opportunity relive memories that are grand and ear to you. Mine did.

We stayed home most of the time, fix- g a disappearing stairway to the attic, ping carpentry work, painting and etc. was great to get the boys in bed, and the middle of the night get the paint nd brushes and paint the hall and stair- ay. In the wee hours, it seemed as ough the whole city had gone to the kes. Have you ever meditated while ou were painting? Has God ever en- red your mind as you sawed a 2x8 ceil- g joist? Paint over rotten lumber? No, ever! It's a waste of time. I tried it, nd remembered what Jesus said about eing born again. I recalled him saying men who practiced the external mo- ons of religion, "You white-washed pulcres. You are clean on the outside, ut inwardly are full of dead men's ones."

Electricity taught me a lesson, too. I arned that when you cross a negative nd a positive wire you get power, en- gy is released. Just as certain as this true, I am convinced that the Church powerless until it engages itself and omes in contact with its opposite. The hurch with clean hands, unsoiled and ncalloused, is a powerless Church.

Perhaps your vacation made you say, 'm going back home and go to work r God!" Perhaps it gave you renewed edication and determination to be the an or woman that God wants you to be. your vacation did this, it was worth it hatever the nickel you paid for the gas get out of the driveway.

We'll be looking for you and your fam- y in Church and Church School next unday. May we have the pleasure? et's make this the greatest year in our hurch's life.

John W. Williams
Associate-Minister

"THE FAMILY CHURCH" "AS FRIENDLY AS IT IS BEAUTIFUL"

ıme 21 Fort Wayne, Indiana, September 12, 1963 Number ~~49~~ 50

THE CHOICE BEFORE US . . .

Have you read the story of Lot recently? If not, read Genesis 13:12, 13; and 14:12, what a message for our times! You see the story of Lot is the story of every man ome measure. It is the story of one who sought the best of everything for his fam- and loved ones, never intending to be absorbed by the evil which surrounded the a of his choice of business and pleasure. Ultimately, however, the choice he made tered his life and led to death and destruction of those he loved most. Millions of -styled Christians attend church with regularity and yet have never really known saving grace of the Lord Jesus Christ! Somehow we have arrived at this paganism in the fellowship of the Church. It is not those outside the Faith that are God's rtache, but those within the Fellowship of the Church who have no more concern the plans and program of God than a grasshopper has for a Christmas savings plan! ıst going to church could redeem the world, what a wonderful world this would be- ıe! Can the membership of the Church of our Lord learn before it is too late that d calls for sacrifices not just sacraments, a vital, life-changing faith, not just forms, ievements and not just intentions? So long as ignorance and hunger and nakedness l misery stalk our world like wild animals, just so long must the thrust of a self- rificing love redress the wrongs of our time!

Do you know the lines,

"There is a time, we know not when —
A place, we know not where —
That seals the destiny of men
For glory or despair.
"There is a line, by us unseen,
Which crosses every path,
The hidden boundary between God's mercy and His wrath."

We often think of Scrooge as the symbol of the miser among us — yet his was a erliness not of money, but of human affection! Scrooge is hate, bitterness, resent- nt perched on a barren stool! His escape comes by converting the paper-thin poverty hose emotions into the immeasurable wealth which is love! Think of our beloved erica! The tumult and tragedy which seems to engulf our native land is in part, ot the whole, a result of our indifference toward God!

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

Dear Christian Friends:

It was good to see so many of you back in Church School last Sunday along with the new members and visitors who swelled the attendance to 370. But there are still some who need to get back and renew your attendance. You miss much of the real life and spirit of the Church if you miss Church School.

REMEMBER TO SET THIS DATE ASIDE: Friday, October 4, 1963 is Promotion Night here at First Christian Church School. You will want to see your child promoted from his present class to a higher grade. You will want to be on hand for the Opening Assembly in the Sanctuary at 7:30 P.M. You will want to go with your child to his new class room and meet his new teacher. Any problem about your child or question that you might like to ask will be given an attentive ear from the teachers. Get to know them and keep in contact with them throughout the Church School year.

OCTOBER IS CHURCH LOYALTY MONTH! Plans are being made to visit each home in the Church Membership the last two Sundays of the Month of September. We need volunteers from each of the classes who will bring sack lunches and eat after Worship on September 22 and 29. You will not have to ask for pledges, you will not have to seek Christian commitments for Church Membership, but you will be going out to visit the homes of each Church Member to let them know that some one is interested in them as they are already related to Jesus Christ.

WILL ALL CHURCH SCHOOL TEACHERS give Mrs. Naile the names of people who are to receive Attendance Pins on October 4th? Please be sure to give the person's name and the year pin that they are to receive. This must be done this Sunday in order to be ready for Promotion Night. Any absence because of illness is excusable if the person brings a written note from parents stating that he was ill the Sunday he was absent.

TODAY'S THOUGHT: "A man who has to swallow his own medicine often finds the spoon seems about three times as big as usual."

CHURCH SCHOOL BEGINS AT 9:15 A.M. with the Adult Assembly. All persons are requested to be present if you are in High School CYF Class or above. There is a place for every member of your family. See you there!

John W. Williams,
Associate-Minister

PENTECOST

It was a prayer meeting, nearly two thousand years ago. The place was a private home somewhere near Jerusalem. Nobody knows exactly where. Nor does it matter. But there, only seven weeks after the crucifixion of Jesus, something happened that changed the course of history. We have called the day Pentecost. Each one of the Christians who met there came into possession of a new and living communion with God. It was so different. Never before had they felt anything like it! This new consciousness of the presence of God gave them confidence and poise and renewed spiritual power — power that made them feel that they had been redeemed, power that made them effective channels of the Holy Spirit. Being "filled with the same Spirit," we must go forth to witness, bearing the message and sharing the same experience that is for all times and all people.

MISPLACED FUNDS — The average American misplaces more money each year than the per-member contributions to a majority of U.S. church denominations, says President Arthur R. McKay of McCormick Theological Seminary. Cash loss averages $75 per person annually, according to McKay, or more than the per-member giving of 15 of the 23 largest ocmmunions.

OPPORTUNITIES FOR CHRISTIAN GROWTH . . . .

In his latter years, someone asked Dr. Lyman Beecher, "What do you consider the atest, the main thing any person can do?"

Without hesitation, the sturdy old hero of many an evangelistic campaign replied, s not to delve into the mysterious realms of science; it is not to engage in theological dy; it is not to become a successful lawyer, or physician, or teacher; but the greatest ng of all is leading men to the Christian faith and cause. It is for one person to ng another to Jesus Christ, the Saviour and Lord of life."

In a word, Dr. Beecher had pointed up the chief characteristic of Christian dis-leship. For the Christian is one who, knowing Christ as his personal Saviour and d, experiences a greater inner compulsion to share the saving experience with others.

This coming Sunday, immediately following worship services, we are encouraging who will, to bring a sack lunch, and then two by two, to visit in the homes of the gregation, for no other purpose than to extend a Christian and friendly greeting to ow church-members. It is an effort to stir up enthusiasm and promote attendance the month of October, and throughout the year as well. But October is Church-alty month in nearly all denominations. Every effort should be made to be in Bible ool and Worship Services every Sunday.

OCTOBER'S SCHEDULE

Beginning the first Sunday in October, there will be two morning worship services. first will begin at 8:30 - 9:30; the Bible School program will begin at 9:35 - 10:25; l then Worship at 10:30. The Bible School will not have an adult assembly in Octo-, but immediately following the early worship experience, we shall go to our Bible dy groups.

RADIO BROADCASTS CONTINUE

During the rest of September the morning worship services will be broadcast over dio Station WGL. If ill, or shut-in, tune in and worship with us. Tell your friends l neighbors who can not get out to worship to worship with you and your church. nday's sermon will be: "Living For Tommorw" and the Choir will sing, Brother nes Air" and a trio, "Evening Prayer."

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

Dear Christian Friends:

Let me call attention to the significant date, OCTOBER 4, 1963. This is to be PROMOTION NIGHT at First Christian Church School. The whole Church School will assemble in the Sanctuary at 7:30 P.M. for the exercises. After each person has been promoted and his teacher introduced, they will proceed to their respective classes where they will be greeted by parents immediately following.

LET ME URGE YOU TO ATTEND this important function. It is one of the opportunities that you have to get better acquainted with the adults who will assume the responsibility of helping your child develop spiritually. It will enable your child's teacher to get to know you better. If you have any special problems or joys you would like to share with your child's teachers, this is one of the opportunities.

PLAN NOW TO ATTEND THE DISTRICT CONVENTION to be held in Elkhart at Central Christian Church on Sunday afternoon, October 6, 1963. Please notify the Church office of your plans to attend. We must give the host Church advance notice in order that they might prepare for the evening meal. You will want to share this rich experience of fellowship with the members of the Christian Churches in District One.

CHI RHO AND CHRISTIAN YOUTH FELLOWSHIP young people are urged to attend this Convention, too. The Fall program will be initiated on October 13, 1963. A very impressive service for the installation of officers and initiation of new members will be held for both groups. We are expecting all Junior High and High School young people to participate in the Sunday Evening Fellowship groups.

THE DEPARTMENT OF WORLD OUTREACH is making extensive plans for a School of World Outreach during the month of November and the first two Sundays of December. The tentative time schedule calls for the sessions to begin at 5:30 P.M. each Sunday during the six weeks period. Classes will be conducted for all age groups. Watch this column and other notices in the Tidings for further detailed plans.

YOU AND YOUR FAMILY ARE anxiously awaited this and every Sunday at Church School at 9:15 A.M. and Worship at 10:30.

I had enough to reach a mile.

CRISIS IN EDUCATION?

We are being told today that there is a grave crisis in education, the crisis being of too little financial resources, and too few educators. Well there is a real crisis Christian education at all times, for there are no federal tax funds to undergird our istian Seminaries. Christian Theological Seminary needs our help to defray the erating expenses of training ministers, missionaries, chaplains, etc. $1,500 is the ount the Seminary must raise for training one minister for one Seminary year. This he amount our Church has agreed to raise this coming Sunday for our response to crisis in Christian Education.

By the way, the Irwin-Miller Sweeney foundation gave $2,000,000 to help the growth d expansion of the Seminary as it moves into a new and larger quarters, but in re- t weeks it gave another $2,000,000 to help defray the operating expenses over the next ears! You see they really believe there is a crisis in Christian Education.

A friend of First Christian (one not a member) dropped in and left his check for $200 the Christian Theological Offering, because he too saw a need and wanted to share our efforts to help! Not until many who can, but have no real belief, will our Sem- ries be able to meet the financial problems they face. Are you aware that currently ery denomination is facing a critical shortage in trained ministers and missionaries? great Church historian of Yale University has said that if we fail to meet the emerg- problems of unmet needs in the area of a trained ministry, the Church and civiliza- n will gradually move into darkness, and it "may last for a thousand years!"

Your Church can but lift up the opportunities for Christian involvement! You, and alone, hold the destiny of the Church in your hands! I commend this opportunity your Christian concern and conscience*

Rembember: Sunday's service will be broadcast over WGL at 10:30 A.M. The mon will be entitled: "SONGS IN THE NIGHT."

OCTOBER will be the first opportunity to share in either of two worship services. ey will be held at 8:30 - 9:30 and Bible School at 9:35 - 10:25, and then Worship again 10:30 A.M. Let's have two great worship experiences.

shy away from deep emotional experiences and intimate disclosurse of self. It is a sorry thing that about the only Christians caring for conversion and a changed life are members of the so-called emotional sects. How tragic it is that they rejoice to tell others of how God has changed their lives while we remain silent. Perhaps it is because God has not been allowed to change our lives. We are satisfied to remain members of an institution!"

Friday, October 4, 1963 at 7:30 P.M. we are to observe Promotion Night for the Church School of First Christian Church. What a glorious thought to contemplate the fact that these children have been "in the care" of teachers and Christian leaders for a year, Christian leaders whose only desire is to see them grow and mature into the likeness of God's only begotten Son, Jesus Christ.

For them, it will be like graduation. What a thrill it is to consider graduation! Think of the excited feelings that run through the breast of the one who is to graduate, the one who looks on. But consider the pupil who doesn't pass the test and has to remain. Consider, too, the drop-outs who never return to complete their requirements.

Yes, we share in the most glorious experience in all the world. The fact that we are called, not to "join a Church," but to be transformed inwardly, so that out of our lives there grows an expression in deeds that we have "been with Jesus." How we should be moved to share in the molding of other lives that they may be moved in Christ-like direction. The greatest tribute that anyone could ever have paid would be to say, "He led me to Christ. As a result of his life, I found God's power for salvation and everyday living."

I am ashamed of the fact that my children can be emotionally moved by a TV story like last Sunday's Lassie, but respond in coldness to the self-giving of Christ on the Cross. What about you? Do you feel this way?

See you at 9:15 A.M.

THE CHURCH FACES THE ISSUES OF OUR TIME . . .

The above title is the theme for a series of sermons I shall be dealing with over the few weeks. Everywhere one goes he hears the issues of our time being discussed cussed. The Church also has a voice which must be heard amidst the discordant es around us. I need to remind you though that my voice is not necessarily equated the voice of the Church, nor the voice of God. However, when the Word of God lear on any subject, that is the Voice of the Church, and the voice of God. The ions will try to life up the issues of our day in the light of the Word of God. For t they are worth, here are the themes we shall be thinking of:

October 6 — "Man, An Everlasting Riddle".
13 — Laymen Sunday (Outstanding Churchmen will bring the messages of the day.)
20 — "Religion — Sham and Shame".
27 — Rev. John Williams will bring the message.

November 3 — "Christianity Confronts Communism".
10 — "5 Gates to Hell — Continuous Performance".
17 — Rev. John Williams will preach.
24 — "Whither Is Fled the Visionary Gleam?"

Remember, the morning worship services will begin at 8:30 and 10:30 A.M. beginning Sunday morning. The schedule will be:

8:30 - 9:30 Early Morning Worship.
9:35 - 10:25 The Church at Study (Bible School).
10:30 - 11:30 The Church at Worship.

I heard another angle the other day about the old slogan, "Silence is golden!" speaker said, "silence is not golden, it is yellow." Well, after a while it does ring ote of alarm in the conscience of a Christian, doesn't it? Suppose you knew a friend dying of a disease that was curable, but you didn't dare tell him about it . . . uld you be free from guilt in his demise?

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

Dear Christian Friends:

Jesus once said, "You are the salt of the earth," and "You are the light of the world." With disturbing clarity these words come to my ears in this day of world calamity and startling reality. I am compelled to re-ask myself this question, "Am I REALLY the salt of the earth and the light of the world?"

In such a suffering world, where ignorance, poverty and disease stalk humanity, I must add another important malady — sin. We must certainly concern ourselves with the physical problems of man, but essentially we must accept the fact that we have divine mission to perform to those who live in the darkness of sin.

Some argue that suffering belongs to the divine order of things, that there is nothing than can be done about it, since it is all a part of the divine plan. Years ago I learned a little verse as a child:

> "The rich man in his castle,
> The poor man at his gate,
> God made them high and lowly
> And ordered their estate."

Others believe that Christians have no responsibility in a suffering world — except to renounce it in order to save their own souls. John Bunyan's image of Christian fleeing from the city of destruction and passing through the world on a personal pilgrimage to the celestial city, his ears and eyes closed to the world's tempting sights and sounds, for too long has held sway as the symbol of Christian discipleship and indeed persists among large segments of the Church today.

A third conception of the Christian in a suffering world has been that his engagements in any kind of personal ministry to the poor, naked, hungry, diseased and ignorant and sinful has been less for their sake than his own. Recall the last verse of "Good King Wenceslas":

> "Therefore Christian men be sure > Rank or wealth possessing,
> Ye who now do bless the poor
> Shall yourselves find blessing."

As "The salt of the earth and the light of the world," we have this ministry under Christ. Christian Education sharpens our consciences and makes us better servants of the Master.

John W. Williams,
Associate-Minister

CONVENTION IN MIAMI

In the morning Alma and I leave for Miami to attend the International Convention Christian Churches. It may prove to be the most historic convention in our long ory. There are mighty tensions flowing through our time and through our nation, the churches are not immune to such pressures. In Christ there must be room for e who disagree without being branded traitor or heretic. It is a time that tries 's minds, as well as their souls! The ad for a cigarette company calls its filter a nking man's cigarette," but if Christian values and an enduring peace are to come ur time, it must be in fact become a thinking man's age! Extend to those who may gree with you the courtesy of Christian understanding and insight.

Here's a poem that often disturbs my thinking. How about yours?

"There's a line that is drawn by rejecting our Lord,
Where the call of His Spirit is lost,
And you hurry along with the pleasure-mad throng,
Have you counted, have you counted the cost?

You may barter your hope of eternity's morn,
For a moment of joy at the most,
For the glitter of sin and the things it will win,
Have you counted, have you counted the cost?

While the door of His mercy is open to you,
Ere the depth of His love you exhaust,
Won't you come and be healed, won't you whisper I yield—
I have counted, I have counted the cost?

Have you counted the cost, if your soul should be lost,
Tho' you gain the whole world for your own?
Even now it may be that the line you have crossed,
Have you counted, have you counted the cost?"

IS IT REALLY IMPORTANT THAT M CHILD SINGS IN THE CHOIR?

A Psychologist Says: "The children have received extensive training in c dren's choirs grow up to become hap well-adjusted adults on a higher perc age rate than do those having no c experience. I would say that the rea for this is that the principles of music harmony which are learned in choir w becomes part of the child and are s consciously carried over into his every life." —Dr. George Crane

A Doctor Says: "Singing helps to velop and strengthen the lungs and piratory organs and helps the entire b resist disease." —Dr. J. H. Moore

An Educator Says: "We are only ginning to learn that the right kind music and singing taught to children w they are young has the power to cha the course and destiny or their lives." —Dorothy Bromble

A Sociologist Says: "Music and sing are extremely beneficial, not only to well-being of a person physically spiritually, but in every experience person may have, whether public or vate." —Dr. J. J. Davis

A Philosopher Says: "Because music so much to do with the molding of character, it is necessary that we teach to our children." —Aristotle (320 B.C.

A Criminologist Says: "The child v receives music training and who finds in singing and making music will make mischief. The girls who sing play the piano do not pick your poc the boy who sings and draws the vio bow is not the boy who draws the gu —J. Edgar Hoover

A President Says: "Music and sing make for better citizenship, ;they drive envy and hate, they unify and insp Music is the one common tie betwe races and nations." —Woodrow Wilso

A Minister Says: "Our little children instruct chiefly by hymns; whereby we f the most important truths most succe fully insinuated into their minds." —John Wesley

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

In this day when human personality is being sacrificed to mechanical efficiency, the Church has something to say about individual worth. In contrast to the Church's message, let me quote an interesting epitaph for modern man, by W. H. Auden:

THE UNKNOWN CITIZEN

(To JS/07/M/378 This Marble Monument is Erected by the State)
He was found by the Bureau of statistics to be
One against whom there was no official complaint,
And all the reports on his conduct agree
That, in the modern sense of an old-fashioned word, he was a saint,
For in everything he did he served the Greater Community.
Except for the War till the day he retired
He worked in a factory and never got fired,
But satisfied his employers, Fudge Motors Inc.
Yet he wasn't a scab or odd in his views,
For his Union reports that he paid his dues,
(Our report on his Union shows it was sound)
And our Social Psychology workers found
That he was popular with his mates and liked a drink.
The Press are convinced that he bought a paper every day
And that his reactions to advertisements were normal in every way.
Policies taken out in his name prove that he was fully insured,
And his Health-card shows that he was once in a hospital but left cured.
Both Producers Research and High-Grade Living declare
He was fully sensible to the advantages of the Installment Plan
And had everything necessary to the Modern Man,
A phonograph, a radio, a car, and a frigidaire.
Our researchers into Public Opinion are content
That he held the proper opinions for the time of the year;
When there was peace, he was for peace; when there was war, he went.
He was married and added five children to the population,
Which our Eugenist says was the right number for a parent of his generation,
And our teachers report that he never interfered with their education.
Was he free? Was he happy? The question is absurd:
Had anything been wrong, we should certainly have heard.

Christian Education should make a difference. But does it?

John W. Williams

WHEN THEIR SHIPS WENT OUT

A rich man was down at the river fron waiting the departure of an ocean line He was joined by an acquaintance, wh said to him, "You seem to be much pleased about something."

"Yes," said the man, "I do feel unusual ly good today. Do you see that vessel a anchor in the North River? Well, I have on that vessel ten thousand dollars wortl of equipment for a hospital in China, and I just came down to see the vessel safely off."

"Well that is interesting, and I am glad you made that gift," said the friend

"But, you know I also have a gift on that ship. My only daughter is on tha vessel going to China to give her life a a missionary."

The wealthy man looked touchingly into the eyes of his friend and exclaimed, "My dear brother, I feel as though I have given nothing as I think of what this sacrifice means to you."

PRAY ONE FOR ANOTHER

I cannot tell why there should come to me
A thought of someone miles and miles away,
In swift insistence on the memory,
Unless a need there be that I should pray

Too hurried oft are we to spare the though
For days together, of some friends away
Perhaps God does it for us, and we ough
To read His signal as a call to pray.

Perhaps, just then, my friend has fierce fight,
And most appalling weakness, and decay
Of courage, darkness, some lost sense o right —
And so, in case he needs my prayer, I pray.

Friend, do the same for me. If I intrude
Unasked upon you, on some crowded day
Give me a moment's prayer as interlude
Be very sure, I need it, therefore pray.

INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION IS IN PROGRESS

While Rev. and Mrs. George Wascovich are attending the Convention of Christian ches in Miami our Laymen have been doing a wonderful job in filling the pulpit. e Early Morning Worship last Sunday we had the privilege of hearing Mr. William er speak on "Christian Business," Mr. Ralph Church spoke on "World Outreach," Mr. David Griggs spoke on "Stewardship." Mr. Hugh Rice was the speaker at the A.M. Worship Service. We are grateful to these men for their messages and lives.

OCTOBER IS "CHURCH LOYALTY MONTH"

What a tragedy it is that we need to even be reminded that we, as Christians, d even have to renew our loyalty to Jesus Christ! Every Sunday and every day all to Church Loyalty. But in a concerted way, we join hands with other Churches l our people back to Church after a long summer of fun and pleasure. This week "WEEK OF MINISTRY." October 27 - November 3 is "CHRISTIAN LITERATURE K." Your obligation to be loyal to Jesus Christ does not end with the last day in onth of October!

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

ar Christian Friends:

Max Doriani, a minister in the Church Russia for many years, and now the nister of First Christian Church, Eben-rgh, Pennsylvania, said these words in recent article in "THE CHRISTIAN":

'Today the Church of Christ is frequent-ly an arena in which desire for achiev-ing status is fought by various contest-ants who somehow feel that they did not receive what was due them."

The great danger of our day, when 115 llion people claim membership in some ganized religious body, is that people nfuse membership in an organization th dedication to the Son of God and mmitment to doing God's will in their es.

Belonging to the Church has endowed with a status. It has become the popu-and fashionable thing to do to belong the Church. It has become equally fashionable and unpopular to stand for nething like total commitment to Christ. e call these people religious fanatics, e lunatic fringe of religion.

Sophistication and status seem to have en our goals. We seem to be more ncerned with what our peers think of the impression we make on others, than e are about what our status is in the lance scales of God's judgment. Sooner later, we must all face the critical time life when we must decide whether to ten to the voice of the world, the cries our fellowmen, the public relations ex-rts, or God. We must decide whether e will be foolish and follow God's com-nds or whether we will be wise and ed the advice of the world.

Paul reminds the Christians of his day d our day, too, that the wisdom of this rld is foolishness in the sight of God. him, he had settled the question once d for all when he said that "the cross as foolishness to those that perished, t to those who believed, it was the sdom and power of God."

Certainly we are living in days when e wisdom of God seems so paradoxical. e have tried the ways of the world. They ve led to futility and failure. Look at r finances, look at our homes, look at r personal lives. They are failures be-use we have ignored God's Word and id attention to the voice of the world. hy don't we, oh, why don't we get down our knees and come back to God on s terms, and listen to Him and try His ay before it is eternally too late????

John W. Williams,
Associate-Minister

BOX SOCIAL

The "58" Class is avowed that the Box Social, a segment of our Americana must be preserved. With this in mind, and owing to our needs for an additional sidewalk allowing access to the northeast church entrance from the parking lot, you are invited to FIRST CHRISTIAN'S first BOX SOCIAL.

Your evening will be a memorable one. You will dine with the nicest, most friendly people in Fort Wayne (the members of First Christian Church). You will be entertained by some of Fort Wayne's finest talent. (All entertainment arrangements by Mr. Robert Cocherille and Mr. William Wetzel.)

WOMEN: Prepare and decorate a box lunch for two. Include table service.

MEN: Prepare to bid for the lunch that catches your eye. (Husbands bidding on their own wife's lunch will be automatically enlisted in the clean-up crew at the close of the evening.)

MEN & WOMEN: Prepare for a wonderful meal with a charming dinner partner. Saturday, November 2, 1963, at 7:00 P.M. in the Fellowship Hall.

"THE FAMILY CHURCH" "AS FRIENDLY AS IT IS BEAUTIFUL"

ume 22 Fort Wayne, Indiana, October 24, 1963 Number 4

" . . FIRE UPON THE EARTH . . "

In Sunday's sermon I used the text found in Luke 12:49, and many have asked again the scripture reference, so here it is. I used the translation by Phillips where the se reads: "IT IS FIRE I HAVE COME TO BRING UPON THE EARTH — HOW I WISH WERE ALREADY ABLAZE!"

Early Christianity was indeed a fire upon the earth! We have allowed the flame God to dwindle into smoking embers, or even dead ashes! Is your faith in Jesus ist a fire? Fire may be known by burning, and in the process gives off both light heat!

The other two co-texts were found in Phillipians 2:21: "ALL THE OTHERS SEEM TO WRAPPED UP IN THEIR OWN AFFAIRS AND DO NOT REALLY CARE FOR THE SINESS OF JESUS CHRIST!"

and in Phil. 3:19: "These men are heading for utter destruction — their God is their n appetite; their pride is in what they should be ashamed of; and this world is the t of their horizon. But we are citizens of heaven . . . "

Here in a sentence is the real reason underneath all the tensions of the world, ether in our homes or in the world . . .

—"All wrapped up in our own affairs" . . . and "Do not really care for the business of Jesus Christ."

—"Our God is our own appetites" (making gods of our desires, for power, money, ease)

—"our pride is in what we should be ashamed"

—"this world is the limit of our horizon" (God pity the person whose vision can see only streets and years, whose horizon ends with dust and disappearing things! Beyond the rim of our narrow horizons is an eternal City whose Builder and Maker is God! And Christians hold citizenship in heaven . . . is it any wonder that Jesus said, "LIFT UP YOUR EYES AND LOOK" . . .)

Did you know that there were only 11 people needed to put our Bible School attdance up to the 500 mark? Oh, how very easy it would be to have the greatest le School in this community, and the finest worship experiences, if only we could ome part of the fire Christ came to kindle on earth . . . let's warm the hearts of ers, and light their way to God by bringing someone else along to Bible study and rship this coming Sunday morning . . .

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

Dear Christian Friends:

One of the richest texts in the New Testament is this passage from St. Paul's letter to the Church at Ephesus: "For this reason I bow my knees before the Father, from whom every family in heaven and earth is named, that according to the riches of his glory he may grant you to be strengthened with might through his Spirit in the inner man, and that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith; that you, being rooted and grounded in love, may have the power to comprehend what is the breadth and length and heighth and depth, and to know the love of Christ which surpasses knowledge, that you may be filled with all the fullness of God." (Ephesians 3:14-19).

Is not this great messenger of God saying something about the inner man that we need to hear today? Yes, he is repeating in words the message that Jesus Christ gave to the world in living deeds through his own flesh and blood. He is saying that as God was in Christ, he can abide in you. He is saying that human life, contrary to the world's evaluation, is not cheap, but is priceless because we are the temples of God. He dwells in us, or he doesn't dwell anywhere.

When we come to worship in a building that has been set aside for worshipping God, it is not the building that suffers when we do not enter it in reverence. Quite the contrary, it is not what happens to a building if we misuse it for a purpose other than for which it was dedicated. It is the human personality that is downgraded. If I let my thoughts wander and roam from the central idea of Gods' self-disclosure in Christ and the fact that he is willing and ready to live in my life, too, I have not downgraded the building. But I have immeasurably cheated myself.

This coming Sunday, in the absence of our Minister, I will be talking about this idea more. My sermon will be entiled "THE POWER OF GOD IN YOU." As we look at the religious world, what could God do with this world if he really lived in the 115 million people who call themselves members of the Church. We could make our earth a virtual heaven on earth. Maybe this is what the Lord meant when he taught his disciples to pray " . . . thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven." You see, God's kingdom is not composed of inanimate objects, but people, in whose lives his will is being done. We may rest assured that his kingdom will endure forever, but that the kingdom of this earth and the kingdom of Satan will perish.

If God's kingdom does not abide in us, it won't be found anywhere else! To which kingdom do you belong? Do belong to his kingdom? You and alone know the answer and can decid

John W. William

"THE FAMILY CHURCH" "AS FRIENDLY AS IT IS BEAUTIFUL"

ume 22 Fort Wayne, Indiana, October 31, 1963 Number 45

A HUNDRED YEARS OF HISTORY

Yesterday it was my pleasure to bring the message at the Omega Christian Church amilton County of ONE HUNDRED YEARS OF HISTORY! As I shared in their rem- enses I thought of the changes a few years may bring. There were many lonely es against the skylines of families I knew and loved. Here and there were families en by death of children, and by passing of a mother or father. Yet I was also aware the Church had ministered to their fathers' fathers before them, and would min- to their children's children when we were but memories of a sacred past. The of life is like a restless sea, sending each succeeding wave crashing against the e where the former wave had broken.

I pray that in these tension-filled days each one of you will come to re-evaluate life and the things which possess you in the light of a hundred years. What will y matter to you a hundred years from today? Nothing, you say? Ah, but you are ng! What our sons and daughters and their children shall inherit in things of soul spirit matter a great deal. Where we spend God's eternity will matter but we will owerless to alter a moment of it! Yes, things: lands and houses, bank-accounts barns, all seem to matter so very much today, but there will come a moment when ing but the living God will matter! Why not alter the price tags on the merchandise arth today, that tomorrow may bring the soul's grand quest to a glorious achieve- t! Begin today!

Sunday evening the School of Missions begins at 5:30 P.M. with a brief snack and rmal friendship and fellowship, followed by a look at the world of our time in the t of the ageless gospel! . . . Did you say, you'd love to come but just haven't the e? . . . Nonsense! No time for God? We better take time for the things of God, or shall warp our souls and the time will come when God will have no time for us! because His love or reach is limited, but our capacity for His indwelling shall have ink to nothing!

Sunday's Sermon: "Christianity Confronts Communism"

w shall the Gospel of Jesus Christ confront Communism? A diet of fingernails and esome hysteria, or a more adequate response to the Christian gospel? Bibles or ibs? Come and let us reason together . . . .)

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF HTE WORLD!

Dear Christian Friends:

If we have a good spell of rain, the wildlife hunting season in Indiana will soon be on! What a glorious thrill and excitement it is to walk in the fields and woods when nature has converted the universe into one vast spectacle of coloramal For man gets out of his automobile and begins to walk as his ancestors did — in search of food. On his shoulder, man carries a shot-gun that gives him a sense of superiority over the beasts of the field and the birds of the air. What a tremendous boost to the ego!

Our heavenly Father has given us another "hunting season" that knows no calendar bounds. It is typified by the Good Shepherd that left the ninety-nine in the fold to go out hunting the lost one hundredth sheep.

Jesus called Peter, James and John to come after him and become fishers of men. We might paraphrase these words and say that he calls men to become "hunters of men." Our task is to seek and search for the lost. For apart from Jesus Christ, man is lost and needs a Savior. As "hunters for the Lord," we go out not to harm or hurt, but to save and redeem. Ours is a quest to share a Spirit, a Spirit that inhabits "the hunter," and this Spirit is, by its own nature, contageous. So often the growth of the Church is retarded because we Christians quarantine ourselves and seek to live in spiritual isolation.

May I say that the only equipment needed is what "the hunter" is determined to share with those who do not possess it. Let me underscore one thing: YOU CANNOT SHARE WHAT YOU DON'T POSSESS! You cannot lead where you have not been yourself. You cannot give to others a higher concept of righteousness and goodness that you do not possess yourself. You cannot teach what you have not learned before. You cannot share the Spirit of Christ with others unless you have it to begin with. And if you are possessed by this Spirit, you will not be able to keep it unless you share it. There just isn't any such thing as a "fruitless Christian." If you are possessed by Christ's Spirit, you will share it.

"And when the Holy Spirit comes upon you . . . you shall be endued with power from on high . . . you shall be my witness." Let's go hunting for Christ! See you and your family Sunday at 9:35 A.M.

John W. Williams,
Associate-Minister

"OUR CONCERN GROWS . . . "

Sunday the offering for "CONCERN" grew to $112, and as you left the sanctuary u placed on the open Bible of the Gideons another $84 to be used in the spread of d's Word. Every dollar given will put the Word of God into the hands of someone, newhere in the world! Untold billions of bombs, because we have given pennies Bibles! A great scholar once said, "because we failed to fortify justice, we must tify force." We often justify our indifference toward God and His church because actions give the lie to our words. One remembers the parable of Jesus when He d, "they all alike began to make excuses" . . . Their excuses were a cloak-like empt to hide their real interests . . . you know, — too tired, too busy, too poor, too on, too late, too early, too something or other . . . can you hear the echo of His rds . . . "they all alike began to make excuses . . . "

"5 GATES TO HELL — CONTINUOUS PERFORMANCE"

Sunday I want to think with you of the 5 Gates to Hell, and about the continuous rformance that goes on there! Byron once said of man, "he is half dust, and half ity, alike unfit to sink or soar!" I think often about the words of Emerson who said, very man is a divinity in disguise, a god playing the fool! It seems as if heaven d sent its insane angels into our world as into an asylum, and here they will break t into their native music, and utter at intervals the words they have heard in heaven; n the mad fit returns, and they mope and wallow like hogs."

The heaving hell around us is the result of the moping, wallowing, animal-like ures that strut their brief stays upon the earth. Unlike Emerson, I think it is not the g-like qualities of men that bring madness upon the earth, but their pig-like qual- s. Think this very moment of the troubled areas of our world . . . are they not result of things, some because they have so little, and the others because they have much?

Is the American tragedy this, we are Efficient in our work, comfortable in our es — and empty within!

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

The School of World Outreach experienced a good start last Sunday evening when 137 people attended the first session. Mr. Ralph Church and the Department of World Outreach are to be commended for their hard work in preparation and planning for this event in the life of our Church. It was great to see so many people in the Social Hall several minutes before 5:30 P.M. Their eagerness and anticipation was evident!

Next Sunday evening following the fellowship meal, we will be treated to another film entitled, "A WORLD ON FIRE." Friends, we not believe it, but the world is afire. The only choice that we Christians have to make is between the fires of hatred, jealousy, greed, lust, temporal power or the kindling fires of the love of God! One consumes everything in its path with destructiveness and the other — the love of God — gives new meaning and depth of dimension to life.

The task of Christian Education is incomplete until the fire of God's Holy Spirit burns with consuming passion within the breast of every follower of Jesus Christ. Are we really concerned with the affairs of the world? Do we really exercise any concern over the loyalties and allegiences of uncommitted people?

There was a time when people could have said, "That's my business!" Many of the answers to vital questions could have been settled with that one exclamation. But that is no longer a sufficient answer to any vital question. For we do not live in an isolated world of separate compartments. What goes on in Southeast Asia registers with us as much as what the man across the street does. Modern transportation and communication have brought us so close together.

A man murdered in Vietnam, his widow in the United States receives the news, her children are flown from there to Rome, all in a matter of hours. Governments topple, wives have their direction changed in a matter of moments. A plane crashes and half the leaders in a Swiss village are dead. A show comes to town, a popcorn stand explodes, 63 people are instantly killed. But it always happens to some one else! We live in a small world, but at the same time, we tread unknowingly on the rim of another existence.

Let the Church of Jesus Christ be your calm center in the time of storm. Paradoxically, the only calm that can come is to be found in relinquishing claim to calmness and entering into the struggle to bring God's eternal Kingdom into existence. Jesus said, "My meat is to do the will of him who sent me. God gives power to those who do his will.

ume 22 Fort Wayne, Indiana, November 14, 1963 Number 47

MEETING THE CHALLENGE BEFORE US . . .

A year and a half ago the Christian Churches of Indiana began a 3 year program meet the problems facing the churches of our state. There are vast areas where v churches need to be planted, a new wing needs to be added to the Emily Flinn me for the Aged, a wing needs added to the Cleveland Children's Home, the Christian ological Seminary must develop a new campus to meet the enlarged needs of the rches for more ministers, chaplains, missionaries, etc. The State goal was to reach 38,426! If we reach this goal in pledged money by November 30th of this year, Irwin Miller will give $200,000 as a challenge grant, it will be over and above the 00,000 to the seminary and other causes in Indiana he and the Irwin-Sweeney-Miller ndation has already given.

Our church accepted a goal of $58,000 to be raised for these missionary tasks over eriod of three years. It is to be done by individual pledges to the UNITED CAPITAL NDS APPEAL of Indiana churches. Our church has not as yet come to you for your mitment, but we will in the near future. I shared the story Sunday night in the ool of Missions and by raised hands a unanimous response was given when asked v many wanted to share in such a venture of faith, and how many thought we ought make an every member canvass to raise our share of the $2,738,426! To date the er Churches and Christians have pledged $2,649,701. This morning a fine Christian y placed a check on my desk for $200, and you might be interested in knowing that se Christian people are newcomers to our fellowship! May their example be in- ative of the total commitment of the total Church!

WHAT PRICE WORLD REDEMPTION?

It has been estimated that a cup or two of coffee a day for the Lord would put our epted goal into reality. That is, as little as ten cents a day for missions, above and ond our regular giving would do the task! Mr. Andrew Cook of our finance com- tee stated at the recent board meeting that if every family increased their giving by per week, the Building Fund and the emergency funds for missions would both be ched! We have more than enough to meet the task! Do we have enough com- ment? I'm absolutely certain that we have! God bless you, every one!

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

Dear Christian Friends:

To get a clear picture of the status of Christianity in our world, we are not always able to express ourselves in positive terms. We have to employ negative phrases in some instances. This is true of a medical doctor as he gives a careful diagnosis of an ailing patient. He must compare in terms of sickness and health. So must we be able to discern darkness and light, sin and salvation!

Over and over, I ask myself if the Church of Jesus Christ really is making any impact on people. And when we use the term "people" we have an inclination to generalize and to shift our imaginations to others and what they are doing or not doing. To be quite frank, why don't we level with ourselves and ask, "How is Christ doing in my life?" Let's take a good, honest, long look at ourselves, not as we think we impress others, not as we take ourselves for granted, but in the mirror of God, how do we look?

A minister once said years ago that the Church has "silenced itself by selfishness, coddled itself by comforts and lulled itself with luxuries." And today this is still true! But what about us? Is this true of us? Well, let's ask another question. Who is the Church? Is the Church some vague, hazy, remote organization that exists somewhere else? No, we are the Church. We are the Church, for better or for worse. And we need to remember that the Church will never rise above the level of the people who compose it.

May I say quite candidly that the Church will never rise above the level of its leadership! The people who accept important responsibilities, the officers, the committee chairmen, the Church School Teachers must be leaders. For wherever we go our people will follow. And to a great degree, the Church can never rise above the level of its ministry. What if we become selfish, lulled and coddled? It's like Jesus said, "If a blind man leads a blind man, they both fall into the ditch." But God pity the blind man who does not follow the leader who has eyes to see!

In these days when we are made aware of the great chasm that exists between "the what is and the what ought to be," may we be willing to accept personal responsibility for the condition that we discover in our world. May it be a part of our vital, prayerful concern that we should bring our lives to bear upon the sore spots, to bless the earth with a knowledge of the will of God through our personal ministry and witness to his Son Jesus Christ.

We are either parts of the problems or parts of the answers. May we bring our lives to Jesus Christ daily that He touch them and give them meaning. cannot share with others what we possess.

IT'S YOU

If you want to have the kind of a church
Like the kind of a church you like,
You needn't slip your clothes in a grip
And start on a long, long hike,
For you'll find what you left behind
And there's nothing really new,
It's a knock at yourself when you knock your church
For it isn't the church, IT'S YOU.
It's really strange sometimes, don't you know?
That things go as well as they do,
When you think of the little, the very small mite
That you add to the work of the few,
You can sit, stand around, complain of what's done
And do very little but fuss,
Are we bearing our share of the burdens to bear?
For it isn't the church, IT'S YOU.
So, if you want to have the kind of a church
Like the kind of a church you like,
Put off your guile, put on your best smile
And hike, my brother, just hike
To the work in hand to be done,
The job of saving a few,
It isn't the church that is wrong, my friend,
It isn't the church, IT'S YOU.

Vern J. Rossman

SCHOOL OF WORLD OUTREACH
Theme: "Disciple Decision and God's Mission

Mr. Rossman will be the guest speaker at the School for Christian Living next Sunday evening, November 24.

The School will begin with a snack supper at 5.30 P.M. This will be followed with special musical numbers by members of the Sanctuary Choir.

Vern Rossman is a missionary of the Christian Churches in Tokyo. He has been associate director of the Audio-Visual Activities Committee of the National Christian Council of Japan which serves all the churches and missionaries in Japan.

As missionaries, Mr. and Mrs. Rossman serve as representatives of the Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) through the United Christian Missionary Society.

Mr. Rossman is the son of a minister and is a native of Oklahoma. He first went to Japan as a missionary in 1952. He began his service there as an instructor in English and Bible at Sei Gakuin, Christian High School for boys in Tokyo.

The ministries of the United Christian Missionary Society are carried on through the voluntary cooperation of the Christian Churches of the Disciples of Christ Brotherhood, which is the largest protestant communion to have originated in the United States.

Mr. Ralph Church is the chairman of our Department of World Outreach. He and his committee urge everyone to be present to hear Mr. Rossman speak this Sunday evening.

"CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!"

Without it, civilization cannot hope to survive. For if we gradually drift into a materialistic, secular society, it will not be long until the level of human existence sinks to savagery. The secular educational processes have been telling our young people how to get what they want and the measure of success is self-evident. Unless this material development is accomplished by a resurgence of interest in the age old question, "WHY AM I?" it will profit us nothing to build another Tower of Babel. The Christian approach to the problem is not one of denying the existence of materialism, nor is it a retreat from reality into isolationism. The Christian answer would give spiritual content to our possessions and direction to our progress. This is the very heart and essence of our faith. The message of the incarnation is not only that God has come to live with man, but that man's struggle for existence and survival can have meaning only when it is linked with the Eternal. "The Word became flesh and dwelt among us" is not just an empty phrase; it is a forecast of the future when "as many as received Him, to them gave He the power to become sons of God."

TRUE THEN — TRUE NOW!

"Our Civilization cannot survive materially unless it be redeemed spiritually. It can be saved only by becoming permeated with the spirit of Christ and being made free and happy by the practices which spring out of the spirit. Only thus can discontent be driven out and all the shadows lifted from the road ahead."

—President Woodrow Wilson

"AMERICA FIRST"

America first, not only in things material,
But in things of the spirit,
Not merely in science, invention, motors, skyscrapers,
But also in ideals, principles, character.
Not merely in calm assertion of rights,
But in the glad assumption of duty.
Not flouting her strength as a giant,
But bending in helpfulness over a sick and wounded world like a good Samaritan,
Not in splendid isolation,
But in courageous cooperation.
Not in pride, arrogance, and disdain of other races and peoples.
But in sympathy, love and understanding.
Not in treading again the old, worn, bloody pathway which ends inevitably in chaos and disaster,
But blazing a new trail which, please God, other nations will follow into the new Jerusalem where wars shall be no more.
Someday, some nation must take that path — unless we are to lapse into utter barbarism,
And that honor I covet for my beloved America!
And so in that spirit and with these hopes, I say with all my heart and soul,
America fiirst! —G. Ashton Oldham

A saddened America, stunned by the wickedness of two senseless murders, one of the President, and the other of the president's murderer, goes back to its task of building a world of law and order where hatred and bitterness are not allowed to destroy the fruits of the labors of free men. It has been said, and well said, that things in life will not always run smoothly. Sometimes we will be rising toward the heights — then all will seem to reverse itself and start downward. The great fact to remember is that the trend of civilization itself is forever upward; that a line drawn through the middle of the peaks and valleys of the centuries always has an upward trend. Odd that one of us could miss death a thousand times in the South Pacific by the hands of a known foe, only to return and die at the hand of a fellow American. But we must live as MEN,

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

Dear Christian Friends.

Last week as I sat down to the typewriter, I never dreamed that in the intervening days our lives would be so filled with tragedy. We cannot escape the bitter fact that the slaying of President Kennedy has diminished each of us. Not one of us can stand an inch taller because his life was taken from our midst. And in a great way, we must share some of the blame for creating a climate that would permit such a thing to be done among us. If we did not participate in the building of the climate of hatred and animosity, what did we do to build a world of love and understanding?

May his death not go unheeded in the years to come. But may it serve as a clarion call to personal repentance on a national and world-wide scale. Unless we resolve to live a life of Christlikeness, he will have died for nothing. May his death challenge us to rediscover the Spirit of Jesus Christ and commit our lives to living for others.

One thing we need to grasp in this hour is the truth that life is stronger than death. Light is stronger than darkness. We mourn the loss of his life. But our loss is the next world's gain. This is the central truth of Christianity and we are not supposed to sorrow as men who have no hope. The death experience in his life and in every Christian's life is a graduation exercise. He has known no sense of lostness, for death is not the destruction of life, but a metamorphosis from one form to another. To put on immortality, we must put aside our mortality. To put on the imperishable, we must lay aside our perishable. To walk into the room where my heavenly Father is seated, I must first walk out of this room.

Have you ever been haunted by the question, "What does my life mean to others?" Have you ever wondered what impression you might be stamping on the hearts of your fellow travelers as you journey through this world? One of the measures of a man's life is the number of people who will miss him when he dies. Some great source of wisdom has said; "To be successful in life, make yourself necessary to some one." The truth of the matter is that by our nature we are necessary to each other.

What about your life? Will you be missed? Are you making such a great contribution to another life, that they would be the poorer if you departed? Would you be missed? You don't have to be great or rich — just filled with the Holy Spirit — to make an impression on some one else.

FIRST CHRISTIAN TIDINGS

"THE FAMILY CHURCH" "AS FRIENDLY AS IT IS BEAUTIFUL"

lume 22 Fort Wayne, Indiana, December 5, 1963 Number 10

"A DIME A DAY FOR THE MISSION OF CHRIST" . . . .

Sunday at both worship services we presented the challenge of what power we do ld in our hands and hearts if we combined our efforts. IF we can get each family d friend of the Church to give at least a dime a day, above and beyond their regular ving, for the cause of the UNITED CAPITAL FUNDS APPEAL, we can begin to approach r goal of $19,000 per year for the causes of Christ represented in that appeal:

—Christian Theological Seminary (increasing the potential trained leaders from about 125 per year to 500)

—Establishing new churches, both here and abroad —Adding a wing to the Emily Flynn Home for the aged —Increasing the capacity of our children's homes for the orphaned —Building a school and home for mentally retarded children, and the crippled little ones

—Providing "wheels" for the missionaries abroad who desperately need modern means of transportation to do their job for Christ

If YOU have not been contacted, why not join now with the hundreds of people here First Christian Church, and the many thousands in Indiana, who are joining hands d hearts to achieve the goals that are God's. The price of a cup of coffee a day can ell the difference between hell and hope for countless numbers of boys and girls, men d women. I know every family in the Church can afford much more than a dime a y for missions and hospitals for Christ, but this is the beginning of the challenge! ll you help us? The last Sunday of every month during the next several years will be :FA DAY! Those who have the dime a day banks will be bringing their offerings in, d if you do not have a bank, we have one for you! There are more than 400 families the Church, and we have more than 600 banks . . . don't forget these Christian con- rns for lack of a bank! A dime a day, with a prayer a day, will make the Kingdom God more real to you and your family, and will bring a bit of heavenly hope to the ast of these His brethren."

"THE DESIRE OF ALL NATIONS"

nday's Sermon: "The Desire of All Nations" will be more meaningful if you will study forehand the following passages of God's Word: Haggai 2:6-7! I John 4:7-12; Rev. 5:9-14

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD

The Church of Jesus Christ is no small thing! The Christian Church is an undeniable fact. It has behind it a history of nearly two thousand years of steady growth and amazing achievement. Today it is to be found in almost every part of the earth and numbers among its members one-third of the world's population.

To be a Christian involves membership in this Church. There can be no such thing as a solitary Christian because allegiance to Christ means a new relationship to our fellow men. We are created for community, and our lives cannot find meaning outside of our associations. And so, the Church corrects our judgments, enlarges our sympathies, reinforces our wills, and makes effective our desires by uniting us with the followers of Christ in every age.

The Church admittedly has faults and failures and possesses a human side. However, it is not merely a voluntary association of those who happen to be interested in religion nor an accident of social evolution. Its roots lie not in the minds of men but in the heart of God, and its existence is a part of God's plan for the world.

The Church is not an end in itself, but its commission is to proclaim the Good News of the love of God in Christ to all the world. From Jerusalem the Church has gone out into every land; and as Christianity continues to be propagated, it will be the Church alone which will do it. Furthermore, the Church strives to Christianize society and to bring peace to all nations. So much has the Church transformed every environment in which it has resided that no one of us would want to live in a community without it.

The Church has been so closely identified with the ongoing life and work of the Risen Lord that it can best be described as the Body of Christ. Through many trials and victories something far greater than human strength and guidance has sustained it. It has shown itself to be the special sphere and instrument of God's Spirit. The Church produced the New Testament and transmitted the whole Bible. The Church has guarded the apostolic Christian faith and has given us our religious heritage. Without the Church the doctrines of Christianity would soon become confused and dissipated. The Church proclaims the very ideal and standard by which it is judged.

We stand on the edge of a new world For every new day presents a new world. What will we do with tomorrow? Will tomorrow as you and I live it belong to Christ? Let's make our world a Christian world, beginning with me. See you and your family in Church School.

FIRST CHRISTIAN TIDINGS

"THE FAMILY CHURCH" "AS FRIENDLY AS IT IS BEAUTIFUL"

lume 22 Fort Wayne, Indiana, December 12, 1963 Number 41

"A young Timophy of mine, Bobby Morehead, minister of the First Christian Church nton, Oklahoma, wrote the following article on the front page of his Church paper. cause it is so true of every Church, we are using Bobby this week as a guest Editor."

"WHAT ARE WE TEACHING OUR CHILDREN, ANYWAY?"

One wonders what we parents are teaching our children! Oh, I don't mean what are ORALLY saying to them, necessarily. Take the worship of God, for instance. A sperately small minority of the children of our church attend morning worship servs. Why? Here are some calculated guesses . . . some children never attend a rship service, never see Calvary re-inacted at the Lord's Table, never hear the ndering voice of the prophet speak, never hear God's Holy Word read from the pul- never witness the death, burial, and resurrection of born-again souls because;

1. Some of their parents never attend! Every parent that stays home, or leaves er Sunday school is silently saying to his child; "Worship is unimportant, unnecesy, needless, and really a waste of time."

2. Some parents believe it is "cruel" to make children attend worship services. n you imagine? Somehow, church is not for children, only for grownups. Nothing ld be farther from truth! Who was it Jesus held in his arms and said, "of such is the gdom of Heaven?" Yet parents will allow their child to stay home, leave town, watch or just loaf while he or she is in church. If such laxity prevailed in the areas of ing habits, school attendance, and visits to the dentist and doctor, imagine what child would be like by age 21. Yet, to be lax with the care and welfare of his l seems in vogue.

3. Children can't behave in church, thus we think it best they not come. e preacher had always rather hear the noise of a child than the snore of an adult.) ides, they won't learn any younger! We have a Nursery for children between the es of O - 5.

BE IN WORSHIP NEXT SUNDAY MORNING

. . . . . P.S. Bring your children.

Bob.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

Before we know it, December 25th, Christmas Day, will be here. In expectation of that date, we hear people making conversation with the question, "What are going to get for Christmas?" or other similar questions, indicating that somebody is going to give or receive something.

Lest we involve ourselves in the process of giving and receiving to the point that we find our thoughts beclouded let us ask ourselves the question, "What is Christmas, anyway?" Is it a blowout with all the trimmings? Is it a riot of color and sentiment to decorate the otherwise drab year? Is it a sham and fraud perpetrated upon mankind?

In one section of the Orient, Christmas has become a thing of toys and tinsel, songs and selling. In Japan, the most industrially advanced Oriental country, apparently a few people are shocked when a Tokyo nightclub bills a striptease to the accompaniment of Silent Night, Holy Night." And this is not a Japanese concoction of their very own. Can we look accusingly at some other nation and say that Japan imported their concept of Christmas? Indeed not! For Christmas in Japan is not an import from Germany, Russia, or England. But it is typically a product of American civilization borrowed along with other technological imports.

We need not shrug our shoulders as though this is not typically American and nothing can be done about it. It is an indication of what we have made Christmas and something can be done. First, we need to tell the story of Christmas, not the one of Santa Claus cilmbing down the chimney, but the one of God emptying heaven to bring Jesus to us.

Christmas says to me that God has visited this planet and graced us with his presence. Do you remember the shrine of one of national heroes, indicated by a sign saying, "George Washington slept here?" What a thrill it is to have some important personality visit in the home! We tell our friends and neighbors, "He came to see me!" Well, God did just that. And for that reason, life has never been the same for this earth.

We need to remember that Christmas is the Birthday of our Lord. It marks for us the beginning of the presence of God in human life. Our response to that act should be one of adoration and gratitude. Since the Church of eJsus Christ is his living body, may we not give gifts to everyone else and forget to give our lives, our time, our talent and our treasures in grateful recognition that God has visited us.

olume 22 Fort Wayne, Indiana, December 19, 1963 Number 12

AN UNFORGETTABLE CHRISTMAS

Christmas Eve — 1939, David Niven, Hollywood Actor, arrived in England to serve the British Army. He was commissioned a second Lieutenant and given command 40 men. They were to leave England on Christmas Day for France and the so-called phony" war, before the big spring attack of the Germans. The men laughed at the Hollywood soldier," and the air was thick with the sarcastic remarks about the remarkable bravery of their lieutentant in the "hollywood battles!"

"It so happens," writes David Niven, "that every night of my life I have knelt down y my bed and said a simple prayer. But that night I was faced with a difficult decision. If I knelt in prayer, here in front of these men, it occured to me that 40 tough oldiers would take it as a final evidence of Hollywood flamboyance."

He continues, "On the other hand, I have always felt it wrong to avoid saying my rayers because the situation was not convenient. Besides, here it was the eve of hrist's birth. Finally I summed up my courage and knelt by my bunk. As I prayed ere was some snickering at first, but it soon died away.

When I had finished and lay down on the straw, I looked rather sheepishly around e stable (where the men were billeted in the shabby stables on a farm near Dover) nd saw at least a dozen soldiers kneeling quietly and praying in their own way. It as not the first time God had entered a stable — and touched the hearts of men."

How will YOU uphold your convictions of God's sublime gift of a Saviour this Holy eason? Can you drink liquor as a toast to the proffered salvation through the Saviour hose path led through Calvary and the empty tomb? The temptations to dilute the eaning of this Holy Season in a "Hollow - Day," will come to every one of us. Will ou have the courage of David Niven? Will you remind yourself and others that, of l the seasons of the year, this one belongs to God?

How will you plan to thank God for His "unspeakable Gift?" How are you planng on celebrating the day upon which hangs your hope of God's grace and the forveness of your sins, and the promise of life beyond the grave?" God so loved . . . e gave His only begotten Son . . . " What does it mean to me and to my loved ones?

"GOD BUILDS NO CHURCH"

God builds no churches. By His plan
That labor has been left to man.
No spires miraculously arise;
No little mission from the sk'es
Falls on the bleak and barren place
To be a source of strength and grace.
The humblest church demands its price
In human toil and sacrifice.

Men call the church the House of God,
Toward which the toil-stained pilgrims trod,
In search of strength, rest and hope,
As blindly through life's mists they grope.
And there God dwells, but it is man
Who builds that house and draws its plan;
Pays for mortar and the stone,
That none need seek for God alone.

The humblest spire in moral ken
Where God abides was built by men.
And if the church is still to grow,
Is still the light of hope to throw
Across the valley of despair,
Men still must build God's house of prayer.
God sends no churches from the skies.
Out of our hearts must they arise.

—Edgar Guest

"We have seen his star in the East,"
In the East where it first stood still
We have heard the song of the angel throng,
"And on earth peace, good will!"
But the little lights confuse,
And nearer sounds obsess,
And our hearts withhold from the Lord Love
The lives he would use and bless.

"We have seen his star in the East,"
His shining dream of the good,
When men shall claim in the Father's name
Their right to brotherhood.
O little lights, grow dim,
O nearer sounds, be still,
While our hearts remember Bethlehem
And a cross on a far green hill!

"THE FAMILY CHURCH" "AS FRIENDLY AS IT IS BEAUTIFUL"

olume 22 Fort Wayne, Indiana, December 26, 1963 Number 13

"UNUSED ALIBIS" . . . .

Just a few days and a new year will come to us untracked by the footprints of man. his old year is coming to a close and we must admit that on so very many occasions e met the challenge before us with some alibi for not doing what we could and should ave done. Here are some lives that have brought much of beauty and worth to the orld, and yet had alibis they never used.

Did you know that Homer, the greatest poet of ancient Greece, was blind, as was ilton, one of England's greatest writers, and Prescott, great American historian, and elen Keller, one of the truly great women of this century?

Did you know that Charles Lamb spent the 21st year of his life in a madhouse, ttling insanity; that Stevenson was a hopeless consumptive who wrote his great tales adventure ("Treasure Island"), from a sick bed; that Beethoven became stone-deaf in iddle life, yet was then to write the "Moonlight Sonata"; or that Lord Byron was a ubfoot, and Carlyle endured chronic indigestion, or that Pope was a hunchback, and niel Webster was too timid to recite when he was a lad in school. Have you thought out Booker T. Washington, who made many worthwhile contributions to our life, id yet was a negro, and son of a slave, and a pauper!

Yet each one of these figures with patience, persistence, and prayer, or in more mmon language: grit, gumption, and guts, overcame their handicaps and left behind en a legacy of "unused alibis". Thank God for their kind!

There is the tiny poem one ought to think about as he approaches a new year:
"Tomorrow," he promised his conscience, "Tomorrw I mean to be good,"
"Tomorrow I'll think as I ought to, tomorrow Ill do as I should;"
Till age and his passions had written the message of fate on his brow
And forth from the shadows came Death with the pitiless syllable, "NOW!"

MY TRYSTING PLACE

I have a hallowed trysting place.
My morning shrine of prayer,
Where God and I meet face to face
To plan each day's affair.

I utter first some words of love
For all His tender care,
And thank Him from his throne above
For answer to my prayer.

I always ask Him to forgive
The many wrongs I've done,
And then he shows me how to live
The new day just begun.

He plans my pathway so complete,
I could not go astray;
He warns of dangers I might meet,
And then He charts my way.

I leave this sacred trysting place
With faith and strength renewed
Am ready then, life's path to face,
With peace and love imbued.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

Dear Christian Friends:

The Old Year is approaching its end and a New Year will soon be here. Yes, we must do as St. Paul has said, "Forgetting the things that are behind, I press on."

During this past year we have seen some wonderful growth in our Church School. This has been the greatest year that we have experienced in many ways.

We need to forget our pride and selfishness during the coming year and rededicate ourselves to higher goals and ambitions for the coming year. We want to do more in the area of Christian Education than we have ever done before. Our people expressing a deeper devotion to the Church of Jesus Christ. Lives will continue to grow into the likeness of Christ. We will see new dimensions of Christian faith demonstrated in the lives of our people.

You ask me how I know these things to be true? Because you are the kind of people you are. With your fine qualities, there is nothing, absolutely nothing impossible when the resources of God have been pushed across the dividing line of human history. This coming year will be our greatest without a doubt!

In your New Year's Resolutions, be sure to place God at the very top of your list of priorities. Resolve now that each Sunday will find you and your family in the study of His Word and Will for your life. Fifty-two Sundays in Church School and Worship Services will make the most profound difference in your life. When this time of the year comes around again, you will not even know yourself, for the difference it will make in your life.

Let me take this opportunity, to thank each and everyone for the lovely Christmas Cards and all of your expressions of Christian love at this Season of the year. Happy New Year and may God bless you! See you Sunday at 9:30 A.M.

John W. Williams,
Associate Minister

RECIPE FOR REST

When at night you sleepless lie,
And the weary hours drag by —
Lift your thoughts to God above,
Bending down to you in love,
Feel His presence by your bed —

His soft touch upon your head.
Let your last thought be a prayer,
As you nestle in His care;
Ask Him all your ways to keep,
Then — why then — drop off to sleep.

Be patient enough to live one day at time as Jesus taught us, letting yesterd go, and leaving tomorrow till it arrives.

Volume 22 Fort Wayne, Indiana, January 2, 1964 Number 14

"EVEN MORE IN '64"

The New Year will bring even more in '64 of the things it brought to you in the old ear. People generally find in days ahead what they found in the days gone by, for hey still look in the same old places, for the same ole things! Is it any wonder that hey still find the same old things?

But to those who greet every day's coming with eagerness and anticipation, the New ear will be filled with newness and a sense of mystery and adventure, knowing they lo not journey alone! A poem holds for me much meaning and I share it with you:

"There is never a day so dreary, But God can make it bright,
And unto the Soul that trusts Him, He giveth songs in the night,
There is never a path so hidden, But God can lead the way,
If we seek for the Spirit's guidance, and patiently wait and pray.

There is never a cross so heavy, But the nail-scared hands are there,
Outstretched in tender compassion, The burden to help us bear.
There is never a heart so broken, But the loving Lord can heal,
The heart that was pierced on Calvary, Doth still for His loved ones feel.

There is never a life so darkened, So hopeless and unblessed,
But may be filled with the light of God, and enter His promised rest,
There is never a sin or sorrow. There is never a care or loss,
But that we may bring it to Jesus, and leave at the foot of the cross."

Keep up your "DIME A DAY FOR UCFA" (UNITED CAPITAL FUND APPEAL). The ıst Sunday in every month is collection day for the mission funds. Let's do even more ı '64!

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

Dear Christian Friends:

The mythical figure of "Father Time" is whittling away the last remaining hours of 1963. With almost automatic certainty, we move toward the beginning of another New Year. Lest the approach of this year become nothing more than a monotonous repetition of another dawning, let us draw near to it with a sense of sobriety and sanity, trusting in God who gives us all our days.

There is no greater thrill that can come to man than to realize that he is a partner with God. To face the New Year with this fact should cause us to overflow with joy and happiness. This New Year represents a New World, one that has never been lived in by man. It is new because we approach it through a new dimension of a new day. Geographically, it may be the same old world with a few physical changes. But the amazing regularity the sun rises to remind us of the newness of each day. We have not passed this way before!

To be sure, that is only half the truth! We shall not pass this way again! A moment lost can never be regained. If you could invent a machine that could reclaim lost moments and days, you would have a tool more powerful than all the nuclear devices on both sides of the iron curtain.

The world of tomorrow can be claimed for God if we "walk wisely and redeem the time." We can redeem all our lost yesterdays when we face our tomorrows as followers of Christ. May our resolutions for tomorrow be sober and reflective. May they not be cluttered and clouded with nonsensical trivialities that we need never to concern ourselves with anyway. But may they be deep and moving, reaching to the very core of our natures and causing us to strike out for uncharted worlds of Christian living.

Keeping these ideas in mind, may we face the New Year realizing that a CHRISTIAN is . . .

A MIND . . . through which Christ thinks.
A HEART . . . through which Christ loves.
A VOICE . . . through which Christ speaks.
A HAND . . . through which Christ helps.

May we see you and your family every Sunday of the New Year? The Worship Hour and Church School will help you to become Christ's person in His world.

FROM DREAM TO REALITY

Often it is only a few steps from one's dreams to their accomplished reality. For ıe past several years we have had a Parish Plan of Shepherding the congregation on aper, and it has been one of our fondest dreams, that is, enlisting all of the strength nd power of the total congregation for the tasks that are God's. This week a committee again was busy selecting names of committed Christians for the task of helping shepherd this congregation. The membership will be placed in compact zones where feeling of togetherness will be promoted. We will cultivate every family group with- ı the zone for their continual spiritual growth. We will be urging their attendance t Bible Study and worship on Sunday morning, and beginning the first Sunday eve- ing in February be encouraging your attendance at the Bible Study group meeting at ıe Church. We will also be encouraging Bible Study and Cottage Prayer meetings in ıe homes of the zones. I know this plan to be the most thrilling promise before us ı this new year, but it is only a few steps from dreams to reality. When you are sked to share in bringing this dream to fruition, accept your share of God's dream, nd then help bring the miracle of Christian growth into our midst.

"A DIME A DAY FOR UCFA"

Yes, the first collection day brought nearly $700 for the United Capital Fund Appeal. his will bring the gospel to areas of our state, country, and world, where now a great eed exists; it will help provide added space for the orphans and aged in the Benevo- ent Homes of our Brotherhood; will provide a growing opportunity for training of min- ters, missionaries, chaplains, etc. and a whole host of missionary causes! Nearly 19% f the past year's budget was used for missionary outreach causes! This is a wonderful xpression of our Christian concern for the broken world round about us! Our prayer that we can continue to expand this percentage in an ever-widening expression of ur concern and compassion for a broken and divided world.

Your "DIME A DAY FOR UCFA" will bring health and growth of mind, body and ɔul, to those whose need is too great for words to detail. Jesus said, "If you care, ɔu will share . . . . "

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

Dear Christian Friends:

The most important fact we need to remember about Christian Education is that it must be "Christ-centered" to be Christian Education. That is, we cannot always make up our own answers to questions, we cannot use our own solution for the problems we face, we cannot make our goals the accepted standards of life. Each person must seriously confront himself with the image of Jesus Christ.

In an account of his flight over the North Pole in 1926, Richard E. Byrd tells of the importance of a small instrument called the "drift indicator." He explains that even when the plane was headed in the correct direction, the air currents in that region were so powerful and unpredictable that only by looking at this dial could the navigator be sure of keeping his course.

There are people who turn their private devotions into an apprehensive taking of their own spiritual pulse rather than a time of prayerful appraisal and of conscious growth. And this is a practice to be shunned. We all need a time when we stand off from ourselves and re-evaluate our lives in relation to the goals we have set. More than that, we need a time when we lift our lives to the Son of God for his scrutiny and inspection.

What about your "drift indicator?" Is there a stabalizing factor in your life that tells you when you have drifted off course and need to return to a pattern that will keep you headed in the direction of your true goal? We need to remember that there is a true "drift indicator" and that this instrument needs no human adjustment to keep it tuned.

Many countless hours are senselessly wasted by human endeavor to evaluate Jesus Christ in the scales of critical analysis. We tear his life apart, trying to decide what side is divineand what side is human. Let me say that he does not need our approval to justify his existence. But our survival desperately depends upon our living relationship to him as our Savior and Lord.

Through Christian Education, followers of Christ bring their lives into focus with Jesus Christ. When we are measured by divine standards, we are adjusting our course in life like the airplane that is guided in true direction by the "drift indicator."

Don't compare your life to some other person, but measure it in the light of the life of Jesus Christ! See you at 9:30 a.m. each Sunday.

SUNSHINE ABOVE THE STORM

In spite of the storm, last Sunday saw one of the largest Morning Services we've had in a long time. The early morning service was slim, but it was wonderful to have a fine early morning service in spite of the weather. But there was a rainbow of hope and sunshine above the storm clouds, for the elders being ordained and installed were here in force! It was indeed an inspiring service. We are looking forward to truly great things from this group of God's shepherds.

This coming Sunday will be the service in which our deacons will be installed. There are 66 men on the Board of Deacons and we believe most of them will be present for the service. There will be a reserved section in the front of the Sanctuary for the men who are to be installed. These men are not being installed into an honorary office, but committed to the tasks that are God's. We believe the greatest year in the history of this great church is before us. Help us to become the Church that God intends us to become, won't you?

Dr. E. Stanley Jones has said: "Whenever we have been troubled in conscience about our spiritual impotence we have added a new wheel, a new commission, or a new committee, a new plan or a new program, and in the end we have discovered that we have added one more wheel, but with little or no power to run either the old or the new. We are busy turning old and new wheels with h an d power instead of lighting central fires."

Dr. Jones was referring to the central fire of the Holy Spirit! I earnestly solicit your daily prayers for the coming of the Holy Spirit in abundance into the life of our congregation, and into our homes. It is as D. L. Moody once wrote: "The Spirit of God first imparts love; next inspires hope, and then gives liberty; and that it about the last thing we have in many of our churches."

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

A hunter friend tells a story of getting lost in the Black Forest and of searching with growing panic for a hint of a trail which would take him back to the highway. He failed to find a trail. But he came upon a man who knew the forest well and led him slowly through the dense woods until they came at last to the edge of the road where both hunters had left their cars.

Another friend of mine tells the story of getting lost in the mountains of Pennsylvania. He climbed to the top of the highest tree and saw the steeple of a church. He knew that he could find his way home if he could just get to that little white church. How striking these two stories are when they seek to bear out a deeper truth.

Man, trying to find his own way in this worldly wilderness, is oftentimes on the verge of panic and frustration. He is lost and knows it. He knows, too, that the longer he tries to manufacture a miracle of his own making, he is getting in deeper all the time.

What a blessing it is to know that in the woods of life there is SomeOne who knows the way home and is seeking to bring the lost to a place of safety and security. In this spiritual dilemma, Jesus Christ takes a man by the hand and says, "I am the Way, the Truth and the Life. No man comes to the Father but byme." It is much better to have an experienced Guide than to have a thousand other lost persons trying to tell you the way home. And that's just what Jesus does. He goes with you.

Then, the Church stands on the mountainside to let the weary and lost find their way home to the here is a story of a boy who never finished anything. He would grow tired of mak-g a kite when it was only "cut out", and would instead begin to build a toy city, hich in its turn he would desert for a sled, which likewise was never completed. e dreamed, and was carried in his dreams to "Half-finished Land." There the path the front door of his house was paved only so far; beyond that point he had to clam-r over a heap of dirt. The door itself had no lock. The floor was half-carpeted d the walls half-papered. When he sat down to breakfast he found that the eggs ere half-boiled. And at night he looked up from the half-made bed - directly at e stars, for the roof itself was only half-sealed.

d aren't we all somewhat like this lad? Do we not make our abode in "Half-finish-Land?" Jesus in Luke 14: 28-33 reminds His listeners to count the cost of half-ished tasks. and half-committed lives! Here is the real problem of the Church of sus Christ! Far too many people are content to live out their days in "half-finished d". We begin the race and the going gets tough, and we get "winded" in the e, and instead of adding more effort, we just begin to ease off, and then quit the e altogether!

ve you not heard: "He that endureth unto the END shall be saved!"

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION THE HOPE THE WORLD!

Dear Christian Friends:

While sitting at home the other Sunday Mr. Absentee, a member of the Church composed this prayer and passed it along to me. Let me share it with you. It goes like this:

"Almighty God, As I sit here this lovely Sunday morning surrounded by the paper and half listening to one of the big preachers over the radio, it has just come to me that I lied to Thee and to myself. I said I was not well enough to go to Church and Church School. This was not true. I would have gone to the office if it had been Monday morning. I would have played golf if it had been Wednesday afternoon. I would have been attending my luncheon club if it had met this noon. But this is Sunday morning, and Sunday sickness seems to cover a multitude of sins. God have mercy on me. I am not sick: I am lazy. Amen!

Christian Education teaches us that commitment to Jesus Christ takes precedent over all other commitments. It means that if we are well enough to play golf go to work, attend luncheon clubs we are well enough to demonstrate an interest in the affairs of God's Church.

How long would we hold a job if we offered the same lame excuses to the boss that we offer to God for not attending the service of the Church? May our loyalty to God not be overshadowed by our loyalty to the affairs of the world.

John W. Williams,
Associate Minister

BAPTIZED PAGANS

ugh Vernon White has written, "Too much of our Christianity today is little ıore than baptized paganism and , even with the passing of belief in saints and ›irits, the secular gods of modern life too easily slip into the terms and forms Christianity and leave men pagan at heart."

WHAT DO YOU THINK? IS HE CORRECT?

elen Keller has written, "CHRISTIANITY, RIGHTLY UNDERSTOOD, IS THE CIENCE OF LOVE." What about it, is she correct?

think that Helen Keller comes mighty close to giving a one sentence interpreta-ɔn of the heart of the gospel of Jesus Christ! "God is Love", wrote the apostle hn. Gaining the world giving one's body to be turned, impoverishing oneself the interest of religion without love will be useless and of no avail before God, ote the apostle Paul.

gin this moment and think about your relationship to God and to His Church, d to His people! Are you loving in your relationships to other people? Do you ve those who disagree with you? Do you love enough to be actively involved bringing Christ to the world?

us said, "By this shall all men know that you are MY disciples, that you love e another."

Let us be up and doing the will of the Father!

"THE FAMILY CHURCH" "AS FRIENDLY AS IT IS BEAUTIFUL"

Volume 22 Fort Wayne, Indiana. FEBRUARY 6, 1964 Number 9

"THE WORK OF THE HOLY SPIRIT"

The Amsterdam Assembly of the World Council of Churches had the following To say concerning the need of our time for spiritual renewal:

> "it is not within the power of man alone to create a new evangelistic movement. But the Holy Spirit is at work in men with men. In the past he has from time to time quickened the church with power from on high. It is our earnest hope and prayer that he will do a mighty work in our day, giving the church again wisdom and power rightly to proclaim the good news of Jesus Christ to men."

If we are to have renewal amd fresh life within the fellowship of the Church, then men and women, boys and girls, must bow in receptivity before the Holy Spirit. We must pray that the Holy Spirit will come upon us, cleansing us from littleness and sin, prodding us to become what in God's grace we are capable of becoming, committing us to the tasks which are God's.

Have you ever once in all your Christian experience prayed for the coming of the Holy Spirit into your life? Then begin at this moment to pray for the greatest power ever released to men - the power of God's spirit in your life.

SUNDAY"S Sermon: "At The Crossroads of Destiny"

Sunday evening Bible Study: Ephesians 2.
(" This world's ideas of living = death")

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

Dear Christian Friends:

Beginning Sunday, February 9, 1964, I will be conducting a Class on the meaning of discipleship for children in the 4th, 5th and 6th grades of public school. This includes ages 10, 11 and 12 of the Junior Department of the Church School. This class will meet during the 10:30 AM Worship Service in Fellowship Hall.

This Class is intended to serve as a guide and preparatory period for those who want to follow Christ and become a part of the fellowship of the Church. We will make every endeavor to instruct, inform and educate those who attend. But because of the very nature of discipleship, we will not attempt to make a decision for the children. Discipleship requires each person to make his personal decision to follow Christ. This class is designed to help young people to make an intelligent approach to his faith.

A person attending this class will not be compelled to "join the church," but he will be prepared if he so decides. This class will be open to those who have already been baptized and have decided to follow Christ. It is a joy to have those who have already made this step to come and join in this group. They are able to make a contribution to the others. And in fulfillment of Christ's marching orders, they participate in the evangelistic outreach of Christ.

Please make an effort to see that your son or daughter is a part of this class for the next six Sundays. see you in Church and Church School.

John W. Williams,
Associate Minister

"THE FAMILY CHURCH" "AS FRIENDLY AS IT IS BEAUTIFUL"

lume 22 Fort Wayne, Indiana, FEBRUARY 13, 1964 Number 20

"THERE IS MORE TO FOLLOW"

Rowland Hill used to tell a story of a rich man and a poor man in his church. e rich man desired to do an act of benevolence, and so he sent a sum of money a friend to be given the poor man as he thought best. The end just sent him $20 and said in the note: "This is thine, Use it wisely, there more to follow" After a while he sent another $20 and said, "More to follow". ain and again he sent the money to the poor man, always with the cheering rds, "More to follow." So it is with the wonderful grace God. There is always, "More to follow."

SHEPHERDS OF GOD

sterday afternoon the membership committee, after long and careful planning, ected "Shepherds for God"s Church." These men will be working in the olonies" of the church to develop a more active and responsible congregation of istians. They will be coming into every home to enlist you in active partici- ion and interest in the affairs of the Kingdom of God. If there are those whose nes are on the rolls of this church and prefer not to have them there and have not n in this church in ten or twenty years then when the "Shepherds of God" come ee you, just inform them of your desires. We intend to make every effort to en- your interest and your participation, and if there are those who have no inten- of ever coming out here to church, then don't let the piece of paper in these d files keep you out of heaven. If you haven't been involved in st's Church and His kingdom in years, you don't really have a church member- - regardless of any church's files to the contrary.

"THE FAMILY CHURCH" "AS FRIENDLY AS IT IS BEAUTIFUL"

22 February 20, 1964 21

"FIRST THINGS FIRST"

I hope each family has begun to place a silver coin each day in the plastic bag As our Easter Offering of Love for missions. I hope that every coin will be placed in the bag with a prayer for spiritual renewal in your home, your church, as well as in the world of our time. I hope that perhaps it shall become a family affair with each member taking a turn in placing the coin in the plastic bag with a prayer for the family group itself. May your coin range from a dime a day to a silver dollar! God bless you, one and all.

"THAT WE FAIL NOT MAN NOR THEE"

"That we fail not man nor thee" is the Week of Compassion theme for this year As the enclosed pamphlet puts it, "Your gift can:

- put a hoe in a farmer's hand
- send medicine to a refugee mother
- open a classroom door to a refugee child
- share milk with a hungry baby
- build a house for a homeless family
- provide clothing and food for the hungry and cold"

SERMONS to EASTER

Here are a list of sermon themes I shall be using from now until Easter. I hope you will be thinking with me and praying with me about these each week:

Sunday"s Sermon: "MAN'S QUEST FOR GOD"

To follow: "God's Quest For Man" "The Dilemma of Modern Man"

"Life's Essential Image" "If Christ Be King"

"I WAS HUNGRY ....."

The photograph of a scrawny Korean chil holding out an empty bowl never ceases t haunt me. When I set the family table and place an empty bowl at each place, I am startled by the thought, "What if I ha no food to put into them?" I do have food f the bowls; my family will be fed. But how can I escape my conscience if I do not he to put food in other empty bowls? Tod do this: Eat only what you need; give t those who are in need.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

Dear Christian Friends:

Right after Easter, the State Convention of the Christian Churches in Indiana will be held in Indianapolis. The dates will be April 3, 4, 5. CYF young people are a very vital part of this convention as they are an integral part of the life and work of the Churches.

WE WANT TO LET YOUNG PEOPLE IN ON A DEEP, DARK SECRET! If we can get enough to go, we want to charter a bus for the CYF groups from the three Christian Churches of Fort Wayne. in making plans for this, we estimated that the cost would be about four dollars per person. This is for bus fare only. The convention registration and Friday evening banquet for CYF would be in addition.

Plans are being made to have CYF attend the evening session of the convention and then go to Northwood Christian Church afterward for a "hootenanny" (however you spell it). The good people of Northwood are going to have the CYF as guests in their homes over Friday night. Breakfast will be served in these homes for CYF on Saturday morning, after which you will be taken to the convention hall. The bus will return Saturday afternoon.

PLEASE COME TO CYF THIS SUNDAY And let Shirley Naile, President, know if you are interested. We need at least fifteen from our church if we are to make the trip in this manner. The total cost of the trip would not be more than about $7.50 per person. West Creighton Avenue and North Christian are interested and we can have a wonderful time together. Let's all join the group and make this a wonderful experience.

John W. Williams,
Associate Minister

"THE FAMILY CHURCH" "AS FRIENDLY AS IT IS BEAUTIFUL"

Volume 22 Fort Wayne, Indiana, February 27, 1964 32

"JESUS IS STANDING CLOSE BESIDE YOU"

Justus, a disciple of Jesus in Lloyd Douglas' book, The Robe, says to Marcellus, the centurion who had been in charge of the crucification:"I only know that He is alive - and I am always expecting to see Him. Sometimes I feel aware of Him, as if He were close by ... It keeps you honest. You have no temptation to cheat any one, or hurt anyone - when, for all you know, Jesus is standing beside you."

"I'm afraid I should feel very uncomfortable, "Marcellus says, "Being perpetually watched by some invisible presence."

"Not if that presence helped you defend yourself against yourself, Marcellus. It is a great satisfaction to have someone standing by - to keep you at your best."Justus replies.

Like it or not, comfortable or not, He is beside you to keep you true to the best within you. I'm sure He knows our every longing, our every hope and dream, and our every failure to live up to our dreams, but through it all, He is beside us to help us because He loves us! And what a difference that makes!

Sunday's Sermon: "GOD'S QUEST FOR MAN"

"God necessarily initiates the process of His own Self-disclosure. Only God knows God, and only God can make God known! The intent of God's Self-disclosure is a human response. He seeks to make out of the children of men, children of God! Let Him! Help Him!

"CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD"

We never outgrow our need to attend Church School. The message of the Son of God must be applied to each day. Skeptics have countered with "You can't teach an old dog new tricks". That may be true, but you can teach old Christians and young alike that the Son of God has something to say about the world of our times.

Public Education has stressed the "Three R's", while Christian Education stresses the "Fourth R" ... Religion. Does the "Fourth R" have a place in your family? Is everyone in your home attending - CHURCH SCHOOL?

Some have said, "Church School is for the children and worship is for grown-ups." If this be the case, if our adults are so Christ-centered in their thinking, attitudes and deeds, our children should have some wonderful patterns to copy. But if we have not yet reached Christian maturity, the need still exists for us to grow into the likeness of Jesus Christ.

Let me remind you that Christian Education is not a selected course. It is a lifetime process of spiritual growth for you and your family. It means a lifetime of getting to know the matchless Son of God It means practicing Christian principles in relationship to other people. It means worshipping intelligently. It means deepened experiences for Christian families as they share the insights into God's Kingdom. It means enlarged horizons of thinking as the world about us is brought into focus with God's purposes and will.

If any member of your family is missing the Church School experience, his life as a Christian is incomplete. May we see you at 9:35 AM each sunday morning?

John W. Williams, Asso. Minister

THE CHURCH AND THE STRUGGLES OF OUR TIME

y should I give my allegiance and my time and money to the Church? When n and women are really serious in asking this question, they need to be remind- of certain facts:

There is no such thing as a solitary religion. (If it is solitary it is not religion, Jesus expressed religion as love to God and love to man. There can be no love nan unless life is lived out in relationships. (To be is to be in relations.")

The Church, in a sense, is an extension of the Life of the Incarnation. (The rch exists for the purpose of manifesting in time an Eternal Purpose.)

With all its faults & failures the Church is the best serving institution on earth. e church has many critics, but NO RIVALS in the work of human redemption! as filled the world with schools, hospitals, orphan, leper, and blind asylums churches!)

The Church contains the best examples of human life on earth! (Without the ch, one of three marriages fail, within the church less than one out of 50! over the service clubs in any community, and more than 90% will be church- !)

he Church Has Been and Is the Mother of Movements! It gave birth to the arts lucation, to reform, to missionary movements, TO DEMOCRACY! Democra- the child of THE CHRISTIAN FAITH! Rhode Island gave to the world dem- y, and Christian thinking gave democracy to Rhode Island! The Baptists and Quakers thought of God as Father, then men as brothers, and then of democracy as expressing that equalitarian attitude in government! DEMOCRACY IS FOUNDED ON A VIEW OF GOD, AND HENCE OF GOVERNMENT! Thomas Mann has written: "Democracy is the POLITICAL EXPRESSION OF CHRISTIANITY, IF THE ROOT OF DEMOCRACY (The Church)DECAYS, THE FRUIT WILL DIE."

When you neglect the Church, you work on the side of the forces seeking to destroy Christian institutions, and democracy itself!

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

A former minister in the State of Indiana tells a story of almost falling against a red hot stove when he was a small child. Only the strong hands of a loving father saved him from being burned severely. But his father's hands were so badly burned that he carried the scars to his grave. The minister related that each time he looked at the scarred hands of his father he was reminded of how much his father loved him.

Years after the War Between the States, General John B. Gordon sought the nomination for the United States Senate of his state. When his name was read in the state legislature, an old army comrade, who for some reason had turned against the general, rose to vote against the nomination. As the soldier stood his eyes fell on Gordon and upon the great scar on his face, a mark of valor and suffering. The old soldier was smitten with remorse and cried in great emotion: "I cannot vote against him; I had forgotten the scar; I had forgotten the scar."

During these days prior to the world-wide celebration of the days of triumph of Easter, let us not forget the suffering and agony of One whose hands were pierced and whose body was scarred that we might have everlasting life.

May we remember, too, the words of the Apostle Paul, "I bear branded in my body the marks of Jesus Christ." In heaven, God will not look for the battle ribbons but the scars that indicate we have been involved in the great conflict to overcome the kingdom of darkness and the Prince of Evil.

Here's a note to all of you from Dr. Spencer P. Austin, Director, Unified Promotion .....

Dear Friends:

Your partnership with us in the "ministry of reconciliation" is most encouraging I am personally convinced that only as men and women are reconciled to God can they have any hope of becoming reconciled to one another.

Enclosed is our treasurer's receipt for your recent remittance of $1,500.00. With it comes deep appreciation both on our part and on the part of Christian men and women around the world who are encouraged by your support.

Cordially yours,

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

Dear Christian Friends:

ALL YOUNG PEOPLE OF CHI RHO AGE, are requested to be present for a very important meeting Sunday, March 15, 1964 at 5:30 P.M. After the "snack supper" we will have a meeting on summer camping. All Chi Rhos who would like to attend camp at Barbee, please be present to receive the details and find out what is necessary for you to be eligible to attend.

ANY YOUNG PERSON WISHING TO ATTEND THE STATE CONVENTION in Indianapolis, April 2-5, 1964, should read the yellow sheet on the south entrance bulletin board. Applications for overnight housing may be secured from the Associate Minister. If you plan to stay over on Friday night, you must -- You Must -- have this sheet completed and returned no later than March 22, 1964. It will be forwarded from our office to the State Office.

THE PASTOR'S CLASS will hold its last session this Sunday at the 10:30 Worship Hour. This is the most important session of the six sessions and all young people who have been part of this group should be present.

LOOKING TO THE FUTURE the District One Chi Rho groups will journey to Marion for a visit to the Emily E. Flinn Home on Saturday, April 25, 1964. we will need transportation for this event, and we would appreciate it if you willnotify the Church Office if you are willing to drive your car. Our group is in charge of registration, and we will have to arrive at Central Christian Church about 10:30 AM. We will leave Marion to get home for the evening meal.

SEE YOU AND YOUR FAMILY IN CHURCH SCHOOL AND MORNING WORSHIP.

INCOME TAX TIME - This item has to do with a church member who believes that as soon as the Christian had paid his taxes to Uncle Sam, then he should get down to business and do all that he could for the church. This brings up the question as to whether or not a person should pay his taxes before figuring his tithes and offerings. God said that tithes and offerings were His. We will surely tithe all our income; All, doesn't mean after 20% has been taken out for taxes. A man in the $22,000 bracket was concerned about this problem. He had paid his taxes first for he felt that he could not afford to pay the tithe to God first. But here are facts for a taxable income of $22,000.

Paying taxes first:
Taxes	8,380.00
Tithes on balance	1,362.00
Total	$9,742.00
Paying God first:
Tithe	2,200.00
Taxes on balance	7,154.00
Total	$ 9,354.00

DIFFERENCE IN PAYMENTS -388.00

Paying the tithe first increased God's share by $838 and gave the tax-payer a net saving of $388. "Honor the Lord with thy substance and with the FIRST FRUITS of all thine increase;so shall thy barns be filled with plenty."(Prov. 3:9). Look at your own financial picture. Have you put God first?

"WERE YOU THERE SUNDAY?"

If you missed Sunday's inspiring worship service you missed one of the truly inspiring opportunities for creative fellowship in Christ. The Choir did a superb job! So very many of you expressed your deep appreciation as you left the service that we would be remiss if we did not take this special effort to express our deep gratitude for their constant efforts to make our fellowship in Christ more meaningful through music. Thank you, Bill Wetzel, and the soloists: Carl Smith Bob Cocherille, Janet Weicker, and the entire choir, and God bless you every one.

This coming Sunday is Palm Sunday. It has been marked by centuries of adoration and joy. It is one of the high days of Church fellowship and worship. Come in joy and adoration. Come in anticipation to meet your King.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

There is still time to select a prayer period on the Pre-Easter Prayer schedule. It will begin at 9:00 PM, immediately following the Maundy Thursday Communion. Only 34 spaces remain available. You may select one of the periods at the Coffee Hour in Fellowship Hall, Sunday March 22. When you select your prayer time, please be sure that you place your phone number in the space with your name. The second person ahead of you will call you when he comes out of the Chapel. This will give you thirty minutes to get to the Church for your prayer period. When you come out of the Chapel you call the person whose name appears in the second space below yours. If everyone cooperates, there will be no breaks in this continuous chain of prayer.

Placed in the Chapel to assist you in your prayer life will be the Bible, devotional literature, appropriate books and a prayer-request sheet. These are intended to help your imagination as you seek to grow. Please study the prayer requests of others and keep them in mind as you pray. Make your requests known that others may share them in their petitions to God. What a glorious privilege, this fellowship of prayer and love!

The Poet has said: "More things are wrought by prayer than this world dreams of!" And to this we reply, "How true, how true!" James said, "If any of you is in trouble let him pray ... believing prayer will save the sick man; the Lord will restore him and any sins that he has committed will be forgiven. You should get into the habit of admitting your sins to one another, and praying for one another, so that if sickness comes to you, you may be healed. Tremendous power is made available through a good man's earnest prayer!"

FIRST CHRISTIAN TIDINGS

"THE FAMILY CHURCH" "AS FRIENDLY AS IT IS BEAUTIFUL"

Volume 22 Fort Wayne, Indiana March 26, 1964 36

"I AM THE RESURRECTION AND THE LIFE" ....

We come once more to the celebration of Easter, a day when men lift up once more the highest hope and noblest aspiration ever treasured by the human heart. It is the Christian faith that because He lives, we too shall live! I hope many of you will make the effort to attend the early worship service to make room for the overflow crowd of Easter. Perhaps, if our attendances continue to grow, we will some day have to have 3 services on the special days.

The music Sunday was again a thrilling experience. Many said the music was so lovely it brought tears to their eyes, and a lump to their throats. The surest sign I know of that the message of song or sermon reaches the heart is the response of pure and deep emotion. No Church group anywhere has any more lovely music of pure worship and adoration than the First Christian Church. Last week, I forgot to mention one who has for a long time been one of the very keystones of our whole music program - Mrs. Lillian Scott. I have assured her it was a slip of the memory and not of the heart. I know you must know of the long hours of time she spends in practicing, with the choir, with the soloists, and by herself, perfecting the additional music that goes into making a worship experience, a lovely venture indeed. I hope you take the time and thought to express your gratitude to all these wonderful people who spend of their time and energy, to make our pilgrimage of worship, rich and rewarding beyond words to tell.

"THIRTY PIECES OF SILVER"

One of humanity's children betrayed our beloved Lord for thirty pieces of silver. For some years we have been making a special effort to redeem tha betrayal by our "Thirty Pieces of Silv Love Offering." It has been one of the largest offerings for missions and bene volence we have known. I pray that you will bring your "THIRTY PIECES OF SILVER" as a LOVE OFFERING for Christ.

HRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

ear Christian Friends:

d you know that the New Testament ospels have more to say about the death Jesus than any other single event of his e? According to Clarence Macartney, e space which the Four Gospels give to e death of Jesus is very striking.

Two of the Gospels do not relate the rth of Jesus, two do not relate his temptation; two of them have no record of the rmon on the Mount; two of them have account of his ascension into heaven; t all relate with fullness of detail the ory of his crucifixion and death.

One-third of Matthew, one-third of ark, and one-fourth of Luke is devoted the account of Christ's death, and one lf of John's Gospel to the LAST twenty ur hours of Christ's life. One third of e material in the Four Gospels has to with the events of the last week of e life of Jesus.

If the death of Christ was given such amount of space by these four auths - two of them apostles, and two of em (Mark & Luke) in touch with the ostles , the only explanation is that rist himself, by his words and his ath, made that impression on them.

Strangely contrasted, we see the biaphies of noted men of history. In a cent biography of Daniel Webster, just ve of the 863 pages tell of the death of is great statesman and orator. In Abraham Lincoln, A Biography", by icolay & Hay, there are 5,000 pages, id just 25 of these pages relate to the Lincoln's assassination and death. In recent life of the poet Shelley, just ree pages out of the 1,389 pages tell e sad story of Shelley's death by owning in 1822.

AN EASTER AFTERGLOW ...

Monday after Easter found the minister sick in bed with a bad case of the old-fashioned flu! The next five days were spent in bed fighting fever and aches, and inertia. But what an opportunity to think! I often think God must put a person on their backs to give them time for an upward look, and some leisure time to think, and to think about Him!

Sunday I brought the message to our great Northwood Christian church in Indianapolis, but I missed being home. This week and through the 17th I will be preaching in Oklahoma. I covet your prayers for a successful preaching mission. I shall be with Bobby Moorehead, a Timothy of my ministry in Mobile.

Nietzsche: "You must look more redeemed to me if I am to believe in your redeemer."

Is this not the spoken and unspoken criticism of the Christians of our time? if The world is to believe in our Redeemer we must LOOK and ACT more redeemed than most of us do!

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

Dear Christian Friends:

Several of you have asked me to share with you the poem that was used in last Sunday's Communion Meditation:

"THE LAST SUPPER"

DaVinci's masterpiece was done,
The holiest picture of all time,
Portrayed the face of God's own Son,
Appealing, ageless and sublime.

Beside our Saviour's hand divine
The painter's artistry had traced
A chalice in matchless design
Of gold and silver interlaced.

DaVinci called his friend to praise
Or criticize, as he might deem.
Long looked his friend with searching gaze,
Then Said, "That Chalice is supreme!"

One swift stroke brushed away all trace
Of regal chalice painted in pride.
"Men must see only their Saviour's face"
Da Vinci said of the Crucified.

What do you see when to worship you go?
By altar and windows are you enticed?
Or view the worshippers row on row?
Or see the face of your Lord and Christ?

-- Pliney A. Wiley

May we see you and your family this Sunday, in Church and Church School?

Volume 22 Fort Wayne, Indiana, April 16, 1964 89

"THE KINGDOM OF GOD ....."

According to Mark, Jesus began His ministry by saying, "The time is fulfilled. The Kingdom of God is at hand. Repent ye and believe the gospel." Has that realm dawned for you? Is the Kingdom here and now for you? Jesus said, "The Kingdom of God is within you." Is the Kingdom of God within YOU? If you possess only a vague notion of what the rapture of the Kingdom is all about, begin the pilgrimage now by asking God to make you a disciples of the Kingdom of God. To share in it is our birthright. To enter it means incredible happiness, to extend it is fullness of joy.

Asleep through the long winter, a bleak landscape bestirs itself in spring and blossoms into a throbbing, pulsating summer life. This is the recurring work of the God who promised, "While the earth remaineth, seedtime and harvest, and cold and heat, and summer and winter, and day and night shall not cease!

How profuse, how lavish, how extravagant are the provisions of God! The sheer exuberance of God's visible provisions is matched by the riches of His invisible grace. God has created us for an imperial life and kingdom with boundaries which are limitless. We receive from the earth the supplies for food; we receive from the Kingdom of God, forgiveness for sins, peace for troubled hearts, strength for feeble wills. We walk amid the lavishness of two worlds!

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

Dear Christian Friends:

We begin to live the Christian life when we recognize the gifts of God. Envy melts before the truth of God's generosity to us. Everything I envy is God's gift to some one else: intelligence, grace, wit, artistic genius, personal attractiveness. And what others find enviable in me .. that is also a gift.

Christianity began by recognizing God's gift to us. Before men recognized that gift, they crucified him. It took the Resurrection to make men see that. We must never resent the gift of God to others, but we must praise the Giver for giving.

Let us thank God for the intelligence of Colleague Abel. We thank God for the success of Competitor Baker. Our praise is due to God for Brother Charlie's spiritual growth. We thank the Lord for unspoiled loveliness in Sister Dolly's life. And how good it is of God to shower talent on Neighbor Easy's children!

Christian living continues in giving out sharing, lavishing ... a merry, humble pushing out from me whatever gifts I have been given, without thought of retaining them, boarding them, pawing them as if they were mine, mine, mine!

If a gift is something I share as soon as Possible with some one else, I shall not be concerned with that comparison of my gift with your gift which is the ground of envy.

May we learn to share our gifts, whatever God has given us, that the Kingdom of God may truly come on earth!

AMONG OUR SICK

Mrs. William Ganter was in Parkview Hospital for a few days last week.

Mr. Harry Peterson is still in Lutheran Hospital but is getting along fine.

IN SYMPATHY

We wish to express our heartfelt sympathy to Mrs. Edwin Teeters and her family, in the recent loss of her husband, Edwin Teeters. Also, our sincere sympathy is extended to Mrs. M. Teeters and her family, in the loss of her son, and brother.

ATTENTION . . . PARENTS!

Recently, there has been an influx of new babies and new mothers in the Nursery, and we wish to urge all mothers to see to it that their diaper bags and baby bottles are well marked with name tags.

Also, the Nursery committee respectfully request that no one drink coke or pop while in the Nursery. We shall appreciate your cooperation in these matters. Thank you!

NOTE: There is an opening, at the Church, for part-time work for a dependable young man to operate and keep clean, the Off-set machine. This is a 2 day, 2 hour per day, job. If interested call Mr. Naile, 747-7698, or Mr. U 442-8191.

"RESCUE THE PERISHING, CARE FOR THE DYING" ...

The words of this old hymn comes to me now as I think of the story by a minister of The Gospel Herald. The unforgettable story tells of a young boy who is dying and of his father. The lad said to his dad, "Am I very ill?" The father nodded "Yes". The lad said, "Dying", and was answered by an affirmative nod, as tears flowed down the cheeks of the father. Then came the unforgettable words: "Don't cry dad, when I get to heaven the first thing I will do is to go up to Jesus and tell Him that from as long as I can remember you have been trying to lead me straight to Him."

The one divine imperative of any father and mother, should be to lead their loved ones straight to Jesus! Are there any parents you know whose children cannot say that their parents have been doing their very best to bring God to their homes, and their loved ones to God? If you know of any, pray for them, they will need the love of God, if ever their little ones face an uncertain future.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

Dear Christian Friends:

All about us are the barriers that cut off men's view of the wide vistas. We need eyes of the soul that penetrate with x-ray vision. If we begin to have the eyes of our soul enlightened, we will see beyond the quick satisfaction of hate to the long joy of forgiveness. We need to see beyond the appetite to the pleasures of self-control. Let us see beyond greed to luxury of giving. Past gold to the pleasures of contentment.

When we widen our horizons and begin to look on life through a spiritual perspective, God gives us a new largeness of heart. We are able to see past revenge to the strength and wisdom of forgiveness. We are able to see past blinding pride to sunny healthfulness of humility.

May our prayer be that we shall see past profit to usefulness; past success to self-approval; past passion to poise; past the heat of desire to intelligent good will; past the glare of power to the abiding beauty of service; past the rank, poisonous growth of self to the fragrance of living for others.

May God grant us the power to see beyond the dark night of despair to the dawn of renewing hope; past gloom to glory; past death to eternal life; past things and men and events to God. May God truly open the eyes of our souls!

May we see you and your family at Worship and Church School each and every Sunday?

"I DON'T CARE TO GET INVOLVED ....."

Often we refuse to follow the commandments of God lest we become involved in His programs! Can you possibly imagine the implications of God's unwillingness to get involved in His world? And the next time you are tempted to say, "Why doesn't God do something? Remember, He already has! Paul's letter to the Ephesians begins in 1:4 by saying, "Consider what God has done" ..... and then Paul goes on to tell what God has done, but man refuses to accept.

David, in 2 Samuel 24:24, said, "I will not offer to God that which cost me nothing!" Do we have as much faith and love for God as David had? So much of our giving to God, whether of time or talent or treasure, costs us nothing!

Evaluate what your relationship with God is "costing" you! And if you must honestly say, my relationship to God costs me very little indeed, then ask yourself why? Let the Christ of the Cross of Calvary be the mirror into which you then look!

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

Dear Christian Friends:

"THE MAN IN THE GLASS"

When you get what you want in your struggle for self
And the world makes you a king for a day,
Just go to the mirror and look at yourself,
And see what THAT man has to say.

For it isn't your father or mother or wife
Who judgment upon you must pass:
The fellow whose verdict counts most in your life
Is the one staring back from the glass.

Some people may think you a straight-shootin' chum
And call you a wonderful guy,
But the man in the glass says you're only a bum
If you can't look him straight in the eye.

He's the fellow to please, never mind
all the rest,
For he's with you clear up to the end,
And you've passed your most dangerous,
difficult test
If the man in the glass is your friend.

You may fool the whole world down the pathway of years
And get pats on the back as you pass,
But the final reward will be heartaches and tears
If you've cheated the man in the glass.

"I WASH MY HANDS OF THE WHOLE AFFAIR"

ng centuries ago a man called Pilate washed his hands of Jesus, or so he thought! is is the way of man, when he is brought before the judgment bar of difficult oices, he attempts to wash his hands of involvement. It is not the way of God!

ng ago in ancient Nazareth, amid Galilean Hills and wild flowers, amid the comrt of his friendships and faith, Jesus could have washed His hands of man, but beuse He did not, you and I have the chance of heaven, rather than hell! after l, what had He done to cause the misery and sin of the race? Why should He ave the peace of His soul to face the ingratitude of a wayward and reluctant eople? He could have washed His hands of men ... but thanks be to God, He did t! He took upon himself the burdens of our humanity! This inability to wash is hands of us led Him to Calvary. And, remember, only because He could not ash His hands of you and of me, the nail-pierced hands lifted the bars from the ison of death, and flung wide the gates of heaven to all who like Him, refuse to ash their hands in the water of indifference when the call of the Kingdom comes.

you are attempting to wash your hands of involvement in the Kingdom of God- n't! It is the way to darkness and death!

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

"WORTHY CHRISTIAN LIVING"

Let brotherly love continue. Heb. 13:1.

As children of the Heavenly Father we need constantly to be reminded of those things that lead to a life pleasing to Him and that will most certainly bring blessing and satisfaction to us. Until maturity comes, instruction is a necessity.

Hebrews 13 is practical counsel: Always practice love (1) Hospitality is vital, and carries its own reward (2) Share the burdens of adversity suffered by others (3). Practice purity of life, and remember that God will unfailingly bring sinners into judgment (4). Shun covetousness, and be satisfied with the presence of the Lord in your life. He promises to supply every necessity for this life and the life to come (5). Follow leaders who set a worthy example of faith and life before you (7). Remember that Jesus Christ is the same today as for those who in the past have gained rich satisfaction from Him (8) Avoid strange doctrines, or any not taught in the word (9) Ours is not a faith that reaches its full experience on earth, but in heaven, through Christ the crucified (12). Here we bear reproach, but remember eternal blessings are to be ours in Him. (13, 14)

"BY WHAT AUTHORITY"

Recently in a news conference new New Orleans, Dr. Martin Nieomoller, When asked concerning the inclusion of differing races in the Church stated, that the world needs to remember that the Church was not, and was never intended to be a democracy, therefore could not alter the terms of admission into the Kingdom of God. He was absolutely correct, only God and His Son have the right to dictate the terms of admission into the Kingdom of God. You see Christ gave His life that thechurch should come into being. He came from God with the blueprints for the Kingdom of God and when He left the terms of admission, they could not be altered then, or now. Pray tell me, who ever gave pope or minister, king or commoner, the right to vote upon the terms of admission into the Kingdom of God ?

Sunday is Pentecost! It marks the anniversary of the coming of the Church into the world through the impowering of the Holy Spirit. When convicted men cried out for the terms of forgiveness, and inclusion into the love and fellowship of God, Peter gave them God's answer. So far as man knows, neither God nor Christ has ever altered them. By what authority do men tamper with the revealed will of God?

SERMON: "THE CHURCH FOR WHICH CHRIST DIED."

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD !

With the dawn of the Christian Era there came a new way of life upon the earth. Man was never to be the same. All because Jesus Christ lived, taught, died, and lives again. His followers enthusiastically went out to challenge and conquer the world for Him Notice the fantastic difference in their lives, the changes that took place, the sudden shifting from perilous pessimism, and dreadful doubt to conquering confidence and daring display of faith.

In relationship to God through Jesus Christ man discovered a new sense of worth and dignity. Man does attain that dignity in Christ, and apart from Him that dignity disintegrates into disgrace. Man also must have a realization of responsibility. The Apostle Paul says, "I am a debtor." Apart from a sense of responsibility man becomes just another animal. .... We must therefore awaken the soul to share the responsibility of a spiritually sick world.

John W. Williams,
Associate Minister

HAVE YOU LOST SOMETHING?

'Have you lost something overboard, Squire?" Hugh asked Blennerhassett who was staring down into the water". "Aye, Hugh, that I have". "I guess its gone then. There's six feet of water below there". Then Hugh asks, "What is it you have lost?" 'Do you see this handrail?" Blennerhassett asked. "I'm leaning on it and you are. That's what it's here for, to lean on. To keep you and me from falling in. Well that's what I've lost. The handrail! Something to hold me back when I get near the edge. It has to be strong and it has to be there. Men call it GOD! I'm looking for it."

Here in First Christian Church are men and women in earnest quest of life's handrail! We seek for the City whose Builder and Maker is God. At any moment we may reach for the handrail only to find it gone, and in those desperate hours we will know how much we have really lost! Don't let the lovely summer hours drive a wedge between you and your closeness to God. We are walking along the rim of God's eternal world and without the Handrail, may slip to oblivion.

The early worship service is a most lovely experience. If you are planning on a game of golf, a trip to loved ones, etc. come to the early service dressed "as you are". Worship in the calm beauty of an early morning set apart for God. You'll be happier for it

This Sunday at the 8:30 A.M. service I will speak on "Except You Be Born Again"; and at the 10:30 AM, Dr. Jacob Cunningham of California, son of our own beloved Mrs. Cunningham, will bring the morning message. Let's make these truly memorable services.

CHARACTER

E. Jay Ritter

It isn't the tranquil and placid seas
That bring out the sailor's skill,
It's the winds and waves that pound his ship,
And toss it about at will.

It isn't when life itself is calm
And skies serene and blue,
It's the storms you meet without defeat that bring out the best in you.

Life's storms are really a test of skill,
And surely we'll find someday
That the honest test brought out the best
And cast all fear away.

"LEST WE FORGET ....."

or a quarter of a century our world has not known peace! It has insanely bathed God's good earth by the blood of humankind! Were you aware this morning that he front pages of your newspaper recorded the grim story of a world still at war? Does it matter so little, the spilling of human blood, that we have at last taken ven the horror of war, as a matter of course? So long as men die on the other de of the world from us, and so long as we know prosperity, what does it matter o us if we talk of hate and war, of death and chaos? Surely those whose hearts herish hate and provoke fear and unrest, have a special session with God all to hemselves still coming!

es, good men and women, deeply sincere, hung the Son of God upon the Cross f Calvary! It was the sincere men of their times who forced Socrates to drink the oisoned hemlock, who struck down Lincoln, who brought civil strife to our own ation. Beyond the rim of our day and time there stands the cruel cross of Christ s a reminder that fear and hate can, and often does, destroy the truth of God.

s the nation turns to Memorial Day, remembering those whose lives were cast nto the fires of war, dying for dreams their heirs lacked courage to bring to ful- llment, let each one of us remember that we can come to this day only because nnumbered men and women died to destroy the old world of their time. The task f building the new order remains for you and me. Our friends and loved ones died o destroy a decadent order, we must live to build a world made in the image of he Kingdom of God. This is our unfinished task.

CHURCH LIBRARY

The Church Library is badly in need of additional books. Probably some of you like us, will be unable to go home for Memorial Day because of the miles and time involved Maybe, you too, would like to donate to the Library Fund in memory of a loved one, or friend.

Please make your check payable to First Christian Library Fund and send it to the church office. On the inside front cover of each book purchased will appear: "Given to First Christian Church in memory of (name of your loved one). Please send the above information along with your check.

CHANGE IN THE TIME OF WORSHIP SERVICES

The worship services will begin at 8:00 AM and 10:00 AM. beginning this coming Sunday morning and continuing through the first Sunday in September The early service continues to be a strong one and it is believed that it will continue to grow in strength during these summer months. If you plan a trip, a summer outing with the family, a game of golf with friends, plan to begin by being in the worship service of your Church.

If one really believes in the facts of the gospel, then it is a supreme privilege to be allowed to share in this grandeur of spiritual opportunity, and you and I are committing unpardonable folly by neglecting life's highest treasure!

Your church challenges you to live and think of your life in terms of ultimate worth. Christ is no mendicant begging for your handout! You owe to Him unqualified allegiance as Son of God and Saviour of men!

Really, are not most of the things for which men spend their lives, really transient and often tawdry? The Gospel of Christ helps us to see that some of life's trinkets which we have valued so highly, are actually worthless, and in their pursuit we have missed the real treasures because a foolish generation has pasted cheap labels on them!

This coming Lord's Day is CHILDREN'S DAY! It is a day when the total offerings through the Bible School is for WORLD WIDE MISSIONS We are coming to see that the word "foreign" does not really apply to the mission of the church.

It is only one side of the coin of the church's witness to Christ It is just as important to win the man across from you on Main Street, U.S.A., to Christ, as it is to win one in Africa, but no less important to bring the gospel to the people on the other side of the world as on the other side of the street. It is hoped that every one of you will want to share in the missionary outreach of your church. Bring your offering to the Bible School or to the morning worship services.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

Sunday, June 7, is CHILDREN'S DAY! It began with a small group of children offering their money that the gospel of Jesus Christ could be proclaimed to children all over the world.

Perhaps, the meagerness of that offering was overcome by the purity of dedication and the sincere spirit of those first young children. Anyhow, this small beginning long ago, has grown to become one of the outstanding missionary offerings of our churches. It is strange that this small beginning reminds me of the widow who gave all that she possessed. The pennies of the children on the first Children's Day and the Widow's Mite certainly stand to challenge us to greater gifts and service.

The following goals have been suggested for each class this coming Sunday:

Men's Class	$ 25.00
Ladies" Class	20.00
Friendly Class	30.00
Progressive Class	60.00

Let's reach our goal of self-dedication in loving response to the love of God that caused His Son to die on a cross for our sins.

LIVING EVERY MINUTE OF EVERY DAY

After her death, Emily is given an opportunity to go back to a scene of her childhood in Thornton Wilder's drama, "Our Town". Thinking of the life she has lived and of her failure to appreciate its significance, she exclaims:"It goes so fast! We don't have time to look at one another . . . I didn't realize! So all that was going on and we never noticed . . . One more look. Good-by , world. Good-by Grover's Corners . . Mama and Papa. Good'by to clocks ticking . . . and Mama"s sunflowers And food and coffee. And new-ironed dresses and hot baths . . . and sleeping and waking up. OH, EARTH, YOU'RE TOO WONDERFUL FOR ANYBODY TO REALIZE YOU! Do any human beings ever realize life while they live it? - every, every minute?"

Ask yourself the same question ! Do you ever realize the wonder of life, every blessed moment of it? When one listens to all the grunting, moaning, whining and complaining of the human race, he wonders if people ever see the sunrise, or the glory of its setting, or if they see the splendor of a rose, and the emerald green of fresh cut lawns, and if they ever heard the laughter of a child! The journey along earth's paths is a one way walk, and unless we are living with a sense of its wonder and glory every minute we are wasting the most precious commodity earth has ever known.

Someone tells of a small child on his way to school for the first time having lost his birth certificate, and upon returning home cried to his mother, "I've lost my excuse for being born!" In our day and age there are millions who seem to have lost their excuse for being born! It was George Bernard Shaw who suggested that the epitaph most appropriate for millions of men and women might read: "Died at thirty, buried at sixty." When we stop thinking, loving, planning, appreicating, and enjoying the promise of tomorrow, we have died within, and only the burial service is postponed through the wasted years!

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

Have you ever heard the statement, "The Church needs to revise itself and catch up with the world?" What an assumption! I am convinced that modern methods of communication present new and different methods of telling the "Good News" of Jesus Christ. But the message does not have to be altered to fit the method by which it is conveyed. To be sure, the message was divinely presented to meet the condition of man. This was God's doing, not man's. Man was in need of a Savior then just as he is today. An aspirin may be just the thing for a headache. But it is a poor suggestion for cancer. The followers of Jesus may have the right to employ different means and methods of communication. The message of God that we are to bear is change less.

Have you grasped the underlying implications of this above false premise? Marx taught that history was a product of the determining economic factors. Christianity has taught that history is the product of spiritual forces with the Cross and the Empty Tomb as its center. Marx's man was, and is, an animal evolved mechanistically from the primeval slime with no spiritual significance. What happened at Calvary conveys a message not that man has ascended from beasts, but that man has fallen from his holy estate and that Jesus Christ died to redeem all men.

The Church's message hasn't changed for 1900 years! True, some men have changed, but the message hasn't! The Church does not need to conform to the world, but the world must be brought to the foot of the Cross through the doorway of the Empty Tomb! That's what Christian Education means!

John W. Williams, Associate Minister.

"WHERE IS THE CHURCH"

The Roman Catholic Church takes the position, "Ubi Petrus ibi ecclesia" (where Peter - or his successor - is, there is the Church); but the Protestant Churches have taken the position: "Ibi Cristus ibi ecclesia"(where Christ is, there is the Church!) Too often the Church is thought of as that pretty, or impressive, building we pass on Sundays! But the Church to others is the place where they have been sustained in tragedy, and where men in peace and in battle, have sought and found, God's sustaining grace, which led them to face life with courage, and death with hope!

The Church can be a place where the deepest experiences of life are brought into the presence of God. All the high moments of human experience - such as birth, marriage, baptism, death, etc., can become "windows" into eternity, or sacraments, as they relate life back to God. The Church of the living God must be a fellowship in which men seek for the will of God alone, neither afraid to challenge the ways of men which are inconsistent with that eternal will, nor attempting to please men at the price of distorting the Word of the Lord! The Church must be a fellowship without frontiers; a pilgrim people on the march, its face set toward the coming Kingdom of God, looking forward to the "city which hath foundations, whose Architect and Builder is God."

When the Architect and Builder of the universe designs the structure of life for His own worship, men must, like it or not, submit their lives before His grand Design for approval or disapproval. In this terrible hour of destiny there must be a revival

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

Did you know that one of the basic ideas of communism is the theory that class struggles are inevitable? Isn't it strange that right here in America and around the world we see evidences of class struggle and hatred? It isn't so strange to the ones who have eyes to see and ears to hear.

Our world has been described and twisted and diseased. But I'm not so sure that it is the world that is twisted and diseased as it is the people in it who have been feeding at the trough where class hatred has been dispensed. We see e idences on both sides of the fence where the seeds of doubt, deviltry and discord have been sown, some of it even in the name of justice and Americanism.

Race has been set against race, labor against management, rich against poor, educated against the ignorant and vice-versa. The idea of divide and conquer did not originate with Adolph Hiler. It started in the Garden of Eden. When sin first entered into the world, where was Adam in the instance Eve succombed to temptation? They were separated! Yes, they were separated from one another and from God!

The Church of Jesus Christ is the only way our world will ever come to experience a "classless society". When men and women receive "the adoption of sons and daughters of God" through Jesus Christ they will become brothers and sisters and the eternal struggle that began in the Garden of Eden will be ended with God as the victor and Satan as the vanquished.

RE: CHURCH PARKING LOT!

Dear Christian Friends:

Through the years since we have been in our new building, we have been waiting and hoping and praying for the time when we could have the parking lot surfaced. But bids in the past have been in the neighborhood of $20,000. The Trustees and Finance Committee felt this price was not realistic. Within the last several weeks we have received a bid of around $5,000 for black-topping the lot, and after much consideration the Trustees have recommended to the Official Board that they accept this bid and that we attempt to raise the money for this project.

We know all our people are interested in having this work done and in order to give you an opportunity to do your share toward making this a reality, a chart is being prepared which will be marked off in squares and each square will be sold for $10. When all the squares are taken and the money collected, we shall have sufficient funds for our project. According to the action of the Board this must be accomplished within a short period of time, a matter of several weeks, after the chart is in readiness.

Many have indicated their interest and approval with substantial pledges (taking up multiple squares) to the plan. No work will be started until all the money is on hand. This will be a forward move for First Christian and we are counting on your prayers and your financial support in this effort.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

Dear Christian Friends:

The missionaries who preach the Gospel in faraway corners of the earth where the people have never heard of Jesus have many interesting experiences. There was a missionary in India who had in his wayside audience an old shepherd from the hills; the man's only clothing was a dirty blanket fastened with a big thorn. He seemed to be deeply moved by the words of the missionary who was telling his audience about God.

After the missionary had finished, the shepherd approached him. He was eager to do something in acknowledgement of what he had heard. He said, "Sir, I am willing to give my little plot of land to the great Father of whom you have been telling us." The missionary told him very kindly that this was not the kind of gift required.

The man thought a minute and said, "I will give my pet lamb to Him". Again he was informed with much tenderness that this offering was not what the Father wanted.

At last, not knowing what to do or say, the old shepherd flung himself at the feet of the missionary, exclaiming, "Then I will give myself to your God!" Thus he gave the offering that is most pleasing in God's sight.

God refuses to "play second-fiddle." We must give our very lives as "living sacrifices".

unday's Sermon: "THE DECLARATION OF INTERDEPENDENCE"

HEAVEN'S OPEN WINDOWS

Overwhelming blessings, overflowing happiness, benefits beyond computation are guaranteed pledges made by the all powerful Lord of heaven and earth to those who recognize His lordship and acknowledge it in the way He has specified. To those who thus qualify themselves He makes this amazing promise: "I will...open you the windows of heaven and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it...." Malachi 3: 10.

Here is a plain and positive promise by the Creator of the universe to the faithful tithepayer that the God of the harvest - Ruler of the sun, the dew, the clouds, and the soil - will manage all things to provide an abundant and certain harvest,... and guarantee a full and satisfying crop to every faithful husbandman who puts God first in his affairs.

Joel records a similar promise, made to those who faithfully obey the Lord: "Fear not, O land; be glad and rejoice: for the Lord will do great things ...Be glad then, ye children of Zion, and rejoice in the Lord your God: for he hath given you rain ...And the floors shall be full of wheat, ...And ye shall eat in plenty ... and praise the name of the Lord your God." Joel 2: 21-27. God will pour thru "the windows of heaven" such overwhelming blessing and happiness and satisfaction that you will be unable to contain them, and they will overflow to others about you ..." We must always keep in mind that such a blessing is conditioned upon the injunction, "Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse."

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

Dear Christian Friends:

Oftentimes we learn the truth by our mistakes, and do believe me, we make enough of them to know what they are. A little girl came home from Bible School one Sunday with a mistaken idea that carried a great truth. The family had just moved to the city and the little girl camehome from her first session at the new church. Her parents asked what she had learned. She replied, "Oh! My teacher is Jesus' grandmother" "What do you mean?" asked the mother. "That couldn't be." "Yes she is," said the child. "She was talking about him all the time."

Just recently another story came to my attention. A little girl kept making a mistake every night when she said her prayers. She kept saying, "Our Father who art in New Haven." The parents wanted to know if they should correct her even after she persisted that her version was right.

I, for one, felt that the child knew more than we gave her credit for knowing. For God is in New Haven, in Fort Wayne and every other place that loving, obedient hearts discover him.

It certainly is true that our mistakes do lead us to greater reservoirs of knowledge some times. All things are not necessarily good, but "to those who love God and are called according to his purpose" they do work together for ultimate good.

Let us look at our mistakes and ask God to give us the ability to love him more. May our mistakes be stepping stones to doing his will. For when we do his will the ultimate end is good.

John W. Williams,
Associate Minister

ON OUR PRAYER LIST

These are worrisome days for our minister. Let us all remember him when we pray.

Mrs. Albert Egly entered Lutheran Hospital this week for eye surgery. She is in Room 460.

Mrs. Wm. (Marge) Lehman underwent surgery at Lutheran Hospital last Monday. She is in Room 238.

We are happy to report that Bro. Jack Sweeney is recuperating nicely. He is at home.

"THE FAMILY CHURCH" "AS FRIENDLY AS IT IS BEAUTIFUL"

Volume 22 Fort Wayne, Indiana, August 6, 1964 45

HAVING FOUND GOD'S JOY ....

A poor negro woman was talking to her employer, a gloomy Christian, if such a person is a possibility (can one be a Christian and still be gloomy?) and the conversation went something like this: "Oh, Nancy, it's well enough for you to hum and sing and to be so happy now; but I should think the thoughts of the future .. would sober you. Just suppose, for instance, you get sick and are unable to work, and suppose your present employer moves out of town and you can't find another job, or suppose ...." ...."Wait a minute, honey chile, I NEVER SUPPOSE! The Lawd is my Shepherd, and I KNOW I shall not want! And honey chile, its all dem supposes as is making your life so mis'able. You better give dem all up and just trust in de Lawd!"

Ah, yes, its all true, the believer is always joyous, but who ever heard of a joyful supposer?

It was my privilege to worship one Sunday in the little Church tucked away in the Pennsylvania mountains where I worshipped as a boy. It was the Church in which I was baptized and committed my life to our Lord. What hallowed memories stirred within my heart! In moments of reflection our dreams of yesterday come to the fore and we yearn for the deep awareness of His Presence, for the awesome mystery of His Creative and Redemptive Power! In days gone by all of us, I am sure, stood on the threshold of our "tomorrow" with a vision and a shining dream.

Take the time now and again to dust off the dreams that have dulled with the passing years. Yearn to feel anew the thrilling awareness of one day lived in full commitment to Him, and the joy that comes thereby. I pray that every family of this congregation will seek for God's joy made full.

Sunday's Sermon:
"LIVING IN A DISEASED WORLD"

WEDDING BELLS

David Mullins and Mary Alice Truby were united in marriage on Saturday, July 25, in the Chapel. Brother John performed the ceremony. Our best wishes and congratulations go to this young couple.

. . . . . .

THE ART OF HAPPINESS - Happiness is the art of finding joy and satisfaction in the little privileges of life; a quiet hour in the sun, instead of a faraway journey, a little outing in the nearby woods, instead of long trips away; an hour with a friend, instead of an extended visit with relatives; a few pages of a book, instead of hours of reading at a time; a flash of sunset, a single beautiful flower, a passing smile, a kindly word, a little gift bestowed anonymously, a little thoughtfulness here and there as the days slip by. These are the crumbs of happiness. Do not despise them, lest when the evening find you, you be a-hungered and disconsolate.

LET'S OPEN THE DOOR IN '64

In, CROWD CULTURE, Bernard Iddings Bell, has written, "The Church has need to stop regarding itself as an end to be served and to resume acting as instruments for God to use in the rescue of human beings from worldliness, from self-centered incapacity. For Christians, this means for God as He is in Christ thus to use it."

Surely the time has come when Christians should stop regarding themselves as ends to be served and to become servants of the Servant of God. We must open the door of our hearts if Christ is to enter in power. Strange indeed, that the Lord of Lords should have said, "Behold, I stand at the door and knock, if any man will open to me I will come in and sup with him and he with Me." It must mean He will not enter where He is not desired or wanted. God does not batter down our hearts and demand allegiance, but God seeks through love to enter into fellowship with those who will love Him. LET'S OPEN THE DOOR IN '64!

The mud and ankle deep water holes are just a matter of a few months away. There has been presented to each of us an opportunity to open the door to a blacktopped parking lot. Many, but not most, have already shared in making this a reality. Time is growing short to make our dream a reality. If you have not shared - do it this week! When everyone lifts the load gets lighter for all! "LET'S OPEN THE DOOR IN '64!

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

Dear Christian Friends:

The theme of the coming International Convention in Detroit is "Beyond Words -Power". Christianity has always been a movement of power. Don't confuse it with the power of a bulldozer, but rather identify its power with the spiritual forces that have changed world history and human life. If Christianity is mere word repetition and formal rite, we should subscribe to creed expressed in "The Materialists Twenty-Third Psalm" Here it is:

Science is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down on foam-rubber mattresses;
He leadeth me beside six-lane highways.
He rejuvenateth my thyroid glands;
He leadeth me in the paths of psycho-analysis for peace of mind's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of the Iron Curtain, I will fear no Communist, for thou art with me; and Thy radar screen, thy hygrogen bomb, they comfort me.
Thou preparest a banquet before me in the presence of the world's billion hungry people;
Thou annointest my head with home permanents; my beer glass foameth over.
Surely prosperity and pleasure shall follow me all the days of my life,
And I shall dwell in Shangri-La forever.

(Edward K. Ziegler, Author)

May David's Twenty-Third Psalm be the expression of our faith through deeds. May God's power fill our lives to meet the needs of today's world.

John W. Williams,
Associate Minister

FROM THE PASTOR'S STUDY

Back to School, back to Church, and for many back to God. Strangely enough, the glorious summer weans many a heart from the fellowship of the Family of God. Perhaps like the summer of human life, the summer of our year lulls us into believing our need of God isn"t too great. Like the spare tire of an automobile, needed only for emergencies, God is laid aside until some personal crises arises before He seems truly needed. But like that spare tire, we may look for it in our hour of greatest need and find that through our neglect it isn't there One time when my car had a flat and I got out the spare tire I found that it two was flat! I had never needed it and had never checked it to find out if it was in operating condition. Many of God's children never make periodical check-ups on their spiritual life, and when the hour of crises comes are startled to find out that their hand-me-down faith is inadequate. As winter follows summer, we may be certain that the winter hours of life will come as surely as the gay and bright summer hours of living. What preparation have you made? Checked up on your relationship to God and His Son lately ?

The Bible School classes need your help to get back in the full swing of things, so who not bring someone with you this Sunday and swell the ranks of those who are studying God's Word.

The Choir needs your help! Why not make the effort required to help produce the finest Church music in the land? Many of you men could lend a voice to this great choir, and by helping in the music of the Church help build a greater fellowship for the Lord. They meet each Thursday evening at 7:30. Why not make the effort this week!

WHEN THE FALL RAINS BEGIN the mud and water will make our parking lot one big "mess", and the mud tracked in will help destroy the carpet and tile of our lovely Church. If you haven't made your contribution on paving the parking lot, do so now! Others have contributed a little over $3,000 toward keeping your feet out of the mud, and the mud out of your Church, so why not help them finish the task this week!

THE STEWARDSHIP OF GIVING

God loaned me life and I must pay
Him back a portion of each day
In living service; I must give
A part of every hour I live
In thoughtful, kindly deeds to others
Who are my sisters and my brothers.
God loaned me coins I may not spend
For any wasteful, selfish end.

They are a trust that I must hold
As sacred. All the world's bright gold
Belong to Him, and in my spending
I must repay His gracious lending.
God put his love within my heart,
A love I ever must impart
To a world in desperate need of care,
All things God gave me I must share.

This is the stewardship of living
A spontaneous and a joyful giving.

--Grace Noll Crowell

Giving is one of the graces of the Christian life, not a burden. Seeking empties a life; giving fills it.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

Recently a young lady had a birthday party with a cake and all the other refreshments. The cake was beautiful to the eye and appealing to the stomach. She knew that one desire could not be granted without frustrating another one! In the most dramatic fashion the saying "You can't eat your cake and keep it, too," was demonstrated to me.

People in that region say that it is true that a man once lived on the state line between Florida and Alabama. It is declared that he purposely built his house with the line extending through the center of the house. The Tax Assessor in one state thought that he was being taxed in the other state and vice versa. Finally the two Tax Assessors met and discovered that he was paying no taxes in either state. The Judge ruled that he must pay taxes to the state in which he slept. Two detectives were assigned to watch and report the location of his nocturnal repose. Lo and behold, the bed had been placed lengthwise across the state line, enabling him to sleep in both states.

How frustrating it must be to a God who loves and cares for us when we seek to enjoy all of the privileges with out ever sharing any of the responsibilities! Or, closer to home, how discouraging it must be to those leaders who search for responsible people in vain, only to discover that those who refuse want the very best for their children and become the most critical if they don't get it! "If a man gives his life for my sake, he shall find it." You can have your cake and eat it, too. But you must give it to keep it.

John W. Williams,
Associate Minister

"THE FAMILY CHURCH" "AS FRIENDLY AS IT IS BEAUTIFUL"

Volume 22 Fort Wayne, Indiana September 17, 1964 51

FROM THE PASTOR'S STUDY

There is an old story about Abraham Lincoln that aptly fits these days of high ices. While attending a Church Bazaar, Abraham Lincoln tendered a $20 bill to ay for a bunch of violets. The lady at the booth, making no attempt to return any hange, gushed, "Oh, thank you, Mr. President." Lincoln reached down from his eat height and gently touched her on the wrist, saying, "And what do you call is?" "Why, Mr. President, that is my wrist. What did you think it was?" "Well," awled Lincoln, "I though it might be your ankle, since everything is so high ound here!"

ell, things are high, and it costs to run a city, a home, a government, or a church, d thinking people don't try to run a home on the same level of monetary outgo day as they did 20 years, or even 10 years ago. When the taxes go up this year the tune of another $1.36 or so, it will merely mean that all property owners ll merely add that much more to their taxes, just as we have been adding to our ocery bills, and clothing bills, etc., all through the year. The same ought to be ne of our Church! We ought to be giving substantially more each year as income es and costs go up. Your church does not live in a vacuum and the costs affect r life even as they do yours. Paving the parking lot is just one of the rising costs meeting our church commitments. We need to put up the funds, get it black- pped, and get on with the real work of the Kingdom of God.

FLOYD BOSCHET NIGHT . . .

Next Wednesday evening, September 23, we are going to honor a trusted friend and staff member of this church for nearly 20 years, Floyd Boschet. During the long winter months Floyd came as early as 6 AM to insure the building would be warm and properly cared for. He always came early and when necessary stayed late, and during all of those years was one of the vital assets of First Christian Church. It is to be a carry-in dinner and more information will be sent your way, but plan now to attend and let's brighten the life of the man who made our Church a thing of cleanliness and beauty.

PARKING LOT PROJECT

The Official Board at their meeting on Tuesday night of this week, voted to list in the Tidings all the names and amounts of those who have so generously contributed to date, to the parking lot fund. These names and amounts will appear in next week's Tidings. We must reach the goal of $6,000 by the first of October or the project will have to be postponed indefinitely. Those wishing to have their names appear in this list will have through next Sunday to get their contributions to Mr. Weber, or mailed in to the Church office before Tuesday .

A man's greatness is measured by his kindness; his education and intellect by his modesty. His ignorance is betrayed by his suspicions and prejudices and his real caliber is measured by the consideration and tolerance he has for others.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

Dear Christian Friends:

The Church School Committee of the Christian Education Dept., has scheduled Promotion Night for October 2, at 7:30. At this time, each class will be promoted and introduced to the new teachers.

Award pins will be given for perfect attendance. All parents are asked to visit the new teachers who will be guiding their children during the coming year.

The promotion exercises will cover all classes from high school down through the Nursery. Refreshments will be served in the Fellowship Hall following the visitation. The program will begin in the Sanctuary and conclude downstairs.

Today, (Tuesday) at 10:55 A.M. we saw Mrs. Helen C. Sapsford off on her way to her home in Wellington, New Zealand. Mrs. Sapsford is the mother of Mrs. Jas. Naile. It was a pleasure to have her in our fellowship for the past eighteen months. She never seemed like a stranger in our midst, except for the times when she would tell of her faraway home. Other than that, she immediately took her place in the work of the Church, assisting in the Church School and in many other capacities. We wish her a safe flight home, and our prayers are that we shall see her again soon. In the meantime, we will miss her. Plans are almost complete for the Fall session of the School for Christian living, beginning Sunday, November 1st. Chi Rho and CYF Sessions will begin on Sunday night Oct. 2nd. Also a Sunday evening session for 4th, 5th and 6th graders is being planned.

Let us see you and your family in Church School this Sunday!

Associate Minister

Volume 22 Fort Wayne, Indiana. September 24, 1964 52

FROM THE PASTOR'S STUDY

urely the Lord was in our midst in a real way this past Sunday morning! There was wonderful attendance at the early service and a full house at the second. There ere responses to the invitation at both services and one could sense the power of od in a real way. Thank God for the coming of His Spirit! Let us pray for His com- ng upon us, and pray that He will be able to use us. If the great experiences of your fe in the Spirit are all in the past something is wrong! The Spirit of God seeks to dwell our lives daily and the great moments of our life in Him is in our todays nd in our tomorrows!

unday's Sermon will be dealing with the "NEW MODELS FOR '65". Read the 2nd nd 3rd Chapters of Paul's letter to the Colossians this week in preparation for the orship Hour. Study other related passages concerning this theme such as Romans 2:1-2; Ephesians 2:10; 1 Peter 1:2; and Galatians 5:22. The "Threat and the Pro- ise of Nuclear Power is here to stay", but are we?

is a proven fact that the best way to remember new facts is to tell them to some ne else, and in the process you learn as you share. What is true of memory is true the spiritual life - if you want to deepen your life in Christ, tell someone else hat Christ has meant to you, and means to you today. Tell someone else about our Church and what its services mean to you. Invite your friends and neighbors Church as often as you invite them over for bridge, or out to the golf course! our faith will be as evident to other as your skills in other areas of life. emember the old song, "Lord lay some soul upon my heart, and win that soul rough me, Oh, may I ever do my part to lead that soul to Thee." What a theme r times like these!

FORD PHILPOT CRUSADE

The First Christian Church has accepted the responsibility of having 300 seats filled on Wednesday, September 30, for the Ford Philpot Crusade to be held at the Memorial Coliseum. These 300 seats are reserved for us and our guests so make plans now to attend and invite your neighbors, relatives and friends to go with you and sit with the members of First Christian Church. If you haven't been contacted by your Sunday School Class, tickets are available at the Church Office. Tickets are free.

MY CHRISTIAN RESPONSIBILITY!

Great responsibility rides with me every time I drive an automobile. There is responsibility to my family, They depend upon my ability to avoid accidents. There is responsibility to the public. They assume I am a safe, competent driver. There is responsibility to those who ride with me. They depend upon my abilities as a safe driver. I am not recognizing my responsibility when I pass a car at high speed on a curve or a hill, every time I disregard a slippery road, every time I exceed the speed which permits my reflexes to react normally, everytime I drive when my reactions have been slowed down for any reason, and every time I crowd too closely to the car ahead of me. The golden rule teaches me how to live with my neighbors and recognizes my responsibilities toward them. It calls for an alert conscience and nowhere is it more vital than when I drive a car. My driving reflects the kind of person I am. By the Golden Rule I am my brother's keeper and as such I must be careful about endangering his life and limb on the road. Let us drive and live by the Golden Rule!

HRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

ear Christian Friends:

ne of the great joys of working with congregation like this one is to see e channels of communication draw r people closer together and to share Christian concern for each other.

ssibly many of you have already re-ived your copy of the new Church embership Directory. It is being dis-buted throughout the membership by e Membership Development Depart-ent, Ralph Church, Chairman.

l Church School Teachers and Class cretaries are requested to checkmark class members for future reference. haps there are some in your class o are not members of the Church. ase add their names to the direct- and make this a tool that can be ful to God's Kingdom.

you get acquainted with those in ur neighborhood parish, you will nt to go through the Directory and derline the names of those in your up. Know your leaders in your group e last request: Keep your Church mbership Directory where you can d it. The best place that I know is ide the telephone directory. By con-ntly using it and referring to it, you l feel that you are being drawn ser to your fellow members and you l get to know them better.

olume 23 Fort Wayne, Indiana. October 1, 1964 No. 1

ear Christian Friends:

We in the office, experienced a real thrill when we read is letter, and we wish to share it with you:

Dear George: I just finished listening to your second worship service via radio, and ant to thank you for the content, warmth, and challenge of your messages. You see am on my 22nd day at Parkview following a light heart attack on August 28th. But most of all I want to share with you the blessing that was mine last Sunday orning. It had slipped my mind that you have communion every Sunday morning, ut when I realized your early remarks were leading up to this, I suddenly felt a al desire to share in it. The only thing I had here was a piece of soda cracker and ater . . . but believe me, that was enough. I don't know when I've had a more eaningful communion experience. As tears streamed down my cheeks, the pre- nce of Christ seemed so near and I realized once again that all who love the Lord e a part of 'the fellowship of the Saints.'

I just wanted you to know that your radio ministry was a real blessing to one shut- . I am improving daily and will probably get to go home, so I have much for hich to give thanks."

"THE FAMILY CHURCH" "AS FRIENDLY AS IT IS BEAUTIFUL"

Volume 23 Fort Wayne, Indiana. October 8, 1964 No. 2

FROM THE PASTOR'S STUDY

This past week I read an article by a distinguished Churchman, one who has been both minister and editor of a large Christian magazine. He made the following remark:"...the average congregation could grow approximately 50% without adding another name to its rolls! If the present members themselves would grow in zeal and interest, in knowledge and love of their brethren, in Bible study and love of the Lord, then church attendance, financial support, evangelistic zeal, and missionary activity would advance by at least half among those now enrolled. Then you could n't keep the additions from coming?"

Another astute Church historian has said that the greatest missionary field in the world in our day lies within the Church! First Christian Church believes this is true and also believes that the Church of our Lord is permitting men and women, boys and girls, to slip into hell by allowing them to believe that nothing is required of them before God except a once-for-all dip in the baptismal pool! You couldn't buy a scrawny chicken at the corner market for such a cheap bargain ... and the Kingdom of God is no bargain basement affair! The Word of God has pointed out that "not every one who cries Lord, Lord, shall enter the Kingdom of Heaven, but he WHO DOES THE WILL OF MY FATHER WHO IS IN HEAVEN. Many will say to me, Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and cast out demons in your name, and do many mighty works in your name? And then will I declare unto them, I never knew you; depart from me, you evildoers." (Matthew 7: 21-23)

But note: Jesus does not indicate the people lied about their relationship to Him in their words or in their marginal works, but that at their very hearts they were committed to the Kingdom of God. Most of us can not even say we have "prophesied in His name", or "done mighty works in His name", nor "cast out demons" in His name, how then, when our works are below those whom our Lord condemned to hell, can we hope for salvation on the claptrap commitment we offer to our Lord? .....

FROM THE PASTOR'S STUDY

What a wonderful day it was Sunday, our guest minister, Herbert Penry, Jr., from Thomasville, N.C. brought a meaningful sermon! His spirit was most wonderful and the fellowship we shared in Christ our Lord we will long treasure. If you were absent you missed a spiritual feast indeed! Thank God for two wonderful services in which our wonderful young people furnished the first choir, and the adult choir did its usually fine sharing of their talent. The people were warm and responsive to the visiting preacher's sermon. Three people came forward for confession of faith & Christian Baptism: Mr . Joseph (Helen) Eifrid, 3402 Woodrow; Greg Allen, 306 E. Maple Grove; and Miss Myrtle Peterson, 3431 Logan St. Welcome, and God bless you.

The first Sunday evening in November we will begin our Bible Study Group and Adventure in Christian Family Life. A suggested time has been 5-6 PM. Bible Study. The schedule will be firmed up and announced next week! Dust off your Bibles, and set aside an hour or an hour and a half for the Sunday evenings in November through until Palm Sunday.

We urge each home to begin a covenant of prayer for our E. M. C. PROGRAM! We are working prayerfully to enlist Every Member in Christian Commitment! Will you pray for your Church? Your minister? Your own life and home? Will you truly seek for God's will for your life in these desperate days? The Word of God tells us that "Jesus came unto His own and His own received Him not, BUT to those who DID receive Him, He gave THEM power to become sons of God". If you want this power, you must accept His program!

DO YOU HAVE A TRUCK?

Our Primary Department children have collected about two tons of old paper which in order to sell they must get to the Paper Company in Huntington. This is why they need the volunteer of a truck. Parents of the children will do the loading and unloading of the paper. The money will be used to buy needed material and equipment for the Primary Department. If you have such a truck, we would appreciate the use of it some Saturday soon. Please call Mrs. James Naile, 747-3789

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

Dear Christian Friends:

This coming Sunday evening at 5:30 PM our youth groups, Chi Rho and the Christian Youth Fellowship will begin their fall program here at the Church. The Chi Rho Fellowship is designed for young people in the Junior High age group and the Christian Youth Fellowship is pointed toward young people of the high school age.

Every young person is automatically a member of one or the other of these two groups, if he is a member of the Church. One way that a person demonstrates his seriousness in regard to an organization to which he belongs is to attend the meetings of that organization.

Both these groups will provide fellowship on a Christian level of living. At the same time, programs filled with fun and exciting times will be presented. This year each young person to attend this group will be re-challenged to personal commitment to Jesus Christ and the Church. Only the Church of Jesus Christ can offer to the young people of this day and time what the world with all its pleasures and allurements cannot -- inner peace.

Young people, the world is waiting for committed lives such as yours to point the way to victorious living in the fellowship of Jesus Christ, the Living Savior! Make it your business to strengthen these groups and yourself through personal dedication.
Be present and on time!

John W. Williams,
Associate Minister

"REVIVE THY CHURCH BEGINNING WITH ME"

Dr. Samuel M. Shoemaker, famed Episcopal minister, wrote a book with the above title. It is one of the most thought-provoking books it has been my privilege to read. In it he makes the following statement:

"Judgment must begin at the House of God. We cannot go through the world winnowing between chaff and wheat, separating between sheep and goats, parting men from their sins by calling them into new life, unless first we apply the process drastically to ourselves. If the church of our day is to bring again to the world the faith and answer that it needs, something tremendous has got to happen to the Church as we know it."

He points out that in the fellowship of the church men and women ought to find the inspiration to transform the homes where they live, and the institutions in which they work, and to find victory over habits which in our hearts we know to be out of harmony with the Lord Jesus Christ!

Will you be in prayer with your church that all of us might draw as near to the original "fire" of God as is humanly possible, that our hearts might be strangely warmed, and our lives wonderfully changed into the likeness of sons and daughters of God?

After Sunday's services, and as I was about to begin our Sunday dinner, the phone rang, and it was our friend beloved, Herbert Penry, the Lord's minister in North Carolina. He was reporting the thrilling results in his home church upon sharing with them his experience of fellowship in our midst a week ago. He said there were responses to the invitation that they had prayer for and worked with for years! Then he said with warm laughter, "Brother George, if I had a baptistry here in my church the way you have in yours, I'd have waded right in and baptized about half of my congregation!" The Lord's hand was upon our coming together, of this I am sure. We ask you to pray for Brother Penry and his ministry. Pray for your Church and its ministry. Pray that the fire of God will warm our hearts and homes for Him!

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

In the January 1964, issue of the "READER'S DIGEST" there is an article entitled, "The Biggest Thing Since Mass Production." This article deals with the subject of "value analysis". The purpose of "value analysis" is to discover dollar savings for consumers and tax payers.

What does this have to do with simple, everyday Christianity? Plenty! The formula that works for industry will work for Christ and the Church if it is applied properly. Millions of dollars are being saved, not by cheapening products, but by eliminating useless manufacturing costs. The article goes on to say, "Specialists trained in value engineering develop an enthusiasm that is like a religious fervor"!

Essentially the process involves three steps or three questions: (1) WHAT DOES IT DO? The answer must be reduced to two words, a verb and a noun. (2) WHAT DOES IT COST? The answer should already be known, but frequently is not. This should be a real eye-opener. (3) WHAT ELSE WOULD DO THE JOB, AT WHAT COST?

If this same procedure were applied to every single aspect of life, we would see thrilling changes taking place in dramatic ways. Our energies would be spread over a wider area of need and we would realize more concrete advances for our Lord's Kingdom.

I would personally challenge each of our teachers to apply this formula to each teaching session in the planning stages. Look at the objectives of each session. Examine your tools, Decide what you want to do, in two words. Which tool (teaching method) would do the job better? Does this exercise edge us closer to being like Christ? If it does not, use one that does.

"TO BE A FOLLOWER OF CHRIST"

Someone has said a follower of Christ is a Christian with a mind through which Christ thinks, a heart through which He loves, a voice through which He speaks, and a hand through which He helps. Is that not a wonderful concept of what it is to be a Christian?

Zwingle once said that "a Christian man's task is not to talk grandly of doctrines, but always to be doing hard and great things with God." He was stating the truth of God in words familiar to all of us, for we also have a saying that goes like this, "What a man is speaks so loud one can't hear a thing he says".

Christian unity will be a lonely road stretching onward into emptiness and frustration if quested for in thought forms and patterns of conformity alone, but if we keep before us the face of Jesus Christ, and in our hearts a loving compassion for his broken and bleeding children, we may be startled to look into the face of God as we bend over His broken world. In love and fellowship one with another, we will find the oneness our world so desperately needs.

Mark Twain, returning from a triumphant tour of Europe, honored by great universities, kings, etc., came home to be greeted by his daughter who said, "Daddy I guess pretty soon you will know everybody but God!" I'm afraid in our world we are concerned about everything except God. We will change our world when we change our emphasis from the secular to the sacred, from temporal matters to spiritual concerns. Make your life and your home centers of eternal life and power!

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

What happens to you when you attend Church School? Anything? If Church School is the place where "Christian Education" is taking place, something should happen! Or perhaps we should call "Christian Education" another name, like "churchly education of churchly people."

John R. Fry, in his book entitled, "A HARD LOOK AT ADULT CHRISTIAN EDUCATION," says, "Church School classes and informal study groups are filled with adults who refuse to learn, who resist change."

Learning is not just memorizing facts and data. This may be a part of the learning process, but it is not the whole of it. Learning means growth. To continue in the same old patterns and habits year in and year out is to emphasize with unmistakeable clarity that we haven't learned anything about the Christian way of life! But let us make one more fact clear. Change for the sake of change is not learning, either. You heard about the person who wanted to be different and started parting his hair from ear to ear, didn't you? He just wanted to be different and his one remaining friend asked him how he liked his new hair fashion. He replied, "I like it just fine, except when they try to whisper in my nose." Our example is Jesus Christ! The goal of Christian Education is to help people to grow toward his likeness. If everyone in our Church had already achieved that, Fort Wayne would be a different place. The whole world would be different! But you and I know that we haven't reached that zenith. Perhaps we have reached a plateau. But we need to keep on climbing and growing. Growing in the grace of Jesus Christ!

EVERY MEMBER COMMITMENT SUNDAY

After long months of preparation the Day of Decision and of destiny has come! Groups of prayer and Bible Study have been established and anyone wishing to participate in such a group should contact the church office and we shall get you in touch with a group meeting in your area.

The world is coming close to a decisive moment, and mankind shall move upward toward the sunlight of reason, or downward toward mental and spiritual darkness, and that "darkness may last for a thousand years." And many will say, "well, so what, there is nothing I can do about it!" But there is! Have you read of what one woman did in helping save Brazil from a communist take-over? The stirring epic is told in the book section of November's Readers' Digest. It is well worth your reading!

What can we do about the decisions which shape world affairs? You can pray about them! You can lift heart, mind and soul before the throne of God for guidance in behalf of men who make the final decisions. We can become involved in the concerns of the Kingdom of God. Stop the devil's insidious slogan, "Ah, why bother!" Become involved in plans and programs that can help usher in a new era in world history! You can share in a significant manner financially! We cannot move outward in involvement, until we have deepened our commitment of faith and pray or. We can no longer talk a radiant faith only to allow it to die on the vine of noncommitment. You say that if you enlarged your financial support of the Kingdom of God it might mean imposing a limit on "things" you'd like to have? If your heart yearns for peace and power in the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, and if you aresincere at the root of your being in wanting a better world for your sons & daughters - then we will follow the admonition of our blessed Lord when He said, "SEEK YE FIRST THE KINGDOM OF GOD AND HIS RIGHTEOUS NESS AND ALL THESE THINGS SHALL BE ADDED UNTO YOU ...

THIS SUNDAY THE CALLERS WILL COME TO URGE YOU TO COMMIT YOURSELF TO PRAYER ... TO FELLOWSHIP IN THE HOLY SPIRIT ... AND TO A DEEPENING INVOLVEMENT IN THE UNDERGIRDING OF THE PROGRAMS WHICH ARE GOD'S BY OUR FINANCES .....

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

Dear Christian Friends:

One of the greatest needs of man today is a chance to engage in solitary introspection. We call this "soul-searching". There are many stopping places in life that give us this opportunity. It doesn't have to be in the Church Worship Service, but it can be. For unless we take spiritual inventory, we never get anywhere.

In his "DIARY OF PRIVATE PRAYER John Baillie has compiled a list of penetrating questions that we should ask ourselves in our quest for spiritual depth. Do we fall short and fail to be true to our own accepted standards? Do we practice self-deception in the face of temptation? Do we choose the worse when we know better? Do we fail to apply to ourselves the standards of conduct that we demand of others? Are we blind to the sufferings of others and slow to be taught by our own? Are we complacent towards wrongs that do not touch our own case and over-sensitive to those that do? Are we slow to see the evil in ourselves? Are we hard of heart towards our neighbor's faults and, yet, ready to make allowances for our own? Are we willing to believe that God has called us to some small task and our brothers to a greater one?

I am certain that we are all guilty, if we are truthful with ourselves. We would have to check many of the above in the minus column of life. Yet, we cannot glory in our guilt. We must ascend the stairway to the spiritual stars and seek celestial peace. The glory of it all lies within the framework of God's mercy and grace that permits us to grow as His sons and daughters.

John W. Williams, Associate Minister

Volume 23 Fort Wayne, Indiana. November 15, 1964 7

EVERY MEMBER COMMITMENT BEGINS

As the 64 callers for lunch prior to beginning their calls in the homes of this great church, it was pointed out that of the 60 financial commitments, 35 indicated an increase! We urge each home to begin to pray every day for insight into God's will, for an awareness of His Presence, and for the joy of His power. We urge each Christian to begin a daily experience of reading His divine Word, and to witness to someone every day about the fellowship of Christians in the Body of Christ, His Church. We urge you to ponder your financial support of Kingdom Causes in the light of God's Word. Some will say, what I do is no one's business but my own . . but let me say that you are dead wrong friend! What you do is God's business and someday according to His Eternal Word EVERY MAN (every life) will stand BEFORE GOD and give account of his "stewardship"! I Agree that giving is a matter between a man and his God, but let's not use that to cloak our unwillingness to really be concerned about the Kingdom of God. Heaven will not be gained on "our own terms" but if we make it, it will be on God's terms! Have you read the 25th Chapter of Matthew lately?

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

Dear Christian Friends:

While reading a book loaned to me by a friend, I was thrilled by the words of the poet, Edgar A. Guest, when he penned the verses of "ON THE LAST DAY". Let me share his words with you.

"With one more day to live, and only one
I wonder what great task I'd work upon.
Granted full strength for those fast fleeting hours
I wonder on what deeds I'd spend my powers.

The fancy comes that I should run to see
The countless friends who have been kind to me,
And I should pause, the while I rushed along
To beg another's pardon for some wrong.

I think I'd waste no time on selfish deeds
But only labor for my spirit's needs,
As one about to journey far away
Goodbye to all I've known I'd want to say.

I'd have no vain illusions then for fame,
I'd see how cheap are things men strive to claim.
For that last day allowed on earth to me,
I'd be the man I've often wished to be."

Friend in Christ, we have no guarantee that all the tomorrows will be ours. So Christian Education must teach us that each today may be the last. Let us live that we may be the people we often wish to be.

John W. Williams,
Associate Minister

WHAT SAY YOU?

Prof. Alfred North Whithead, professor and philosopher, has written, "In such a moment a people may rise to the greatness of an opportunity, seizing its drama, perfecting its art, exploiting its adventure, mastering the network of relationships which form the very being of the epoch. Or they may collapse before the perplexities confronting them. At such a time it is our business as philosophers, students, and practical men to recreate a vision of the world, including those elements of reverence and order without which society lapses into riot."

Imminent in our society is chaos and challenge, explosive new ideas and power, setting mankind in motion, but lacking the vision to give direction. Peoples are on the dead run, and society is in a great upheaval, and the church needs to challenge our day to a commitment larger than class interests, or partisan advantage, or even "our way of life"; we need to challenge men and women, boys and girls, to begin to live in the Kingdom of God here and now! Let us discover for our lives a sense of mission, and let us involve our lives in a deeper commitment to the way of the Christ and His cross! Let the objectives of Christ become the objectives of His followers! Let the pain of the world be more evident on the altars of the Church. Only as His disciples become agents of self-giving love, burdened with the cares and concerns of a broken and bewildered humanity, will the Church be relevant to our day and time!

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

Dear Christian Friends:

This week my column is used for the purpose of calling the attention of all young people past high school age to come to Church School this coming Sunday with an offering of canned goods. A Thanksgiving food basket will be given by our class, THE YOUNG ADULTS, to some needy family to express our gratitudefor God's goodness to us. Anyone else wishing to contribute unperishable foodstuffs, please bring them to the Associate Minister's office before Wednesday, Nov. 25. We could use some cash to buy a turkey or a ham, too!

ANYONE IN THE WESTSIDE OF FORT WAYNE who would be interested in joining a "Growth by Groups" meeting for Sunday nights, please call Mrs. John Williams. If you are interested, get in touch immediately. The groups are limited in number of people participating. This group would meet following the School for Christian Living.

John W. Williams, Associate Minister.

"THE FAMILY CHURCH" "AS FRIENDLY AS IT IS BEAUTIFUL"

Volume 23 Fort Wayne, Indiana. November 26, 1964 No. 9

WHAT'S HAPPENING TO OUR WORLD!

The thing that is happening to this generation is that which happened to the three generations of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. Jacob could say, "My father's God, the God of Abraham, the Awe of Isaac." (Genesis 31:42-Moffatt). God was God to Abraham; he had ventured forth with Him, this "Friend"; He was intimate and first hand and real. But in the next generation God was not "the God of Isaac", but only the "Awe of Isaac." He had faded and become second hand. Still Isaac stood in "Awe" of his father's God. In the third generation - in Jacob's - the result of this gradual fading of God began to be shown in the decaying morals of Jacob; moral rottenness appeared. He stole his brother's birthright. He was ready to take the main chance without regard to God.

The same thing has happened to us! Our forefathers had a firsthand experience of God. The next generation clung to the Church for their father's sake, but God was only the "Awe" - the afterglow of a fading faith. The third generation is reaping the result of a fading faith which is producing decaying morals and a decayingcivilization. Our loss of God is working out in moral decay to be found everywhere. We seem to be going to pieces morally, for we have gone to pieces religiously. We have lost God and have thus lost the basis of morals. Unless we return to a personal experience of the love of God, we cannot, in our time, hope to save our sons and daughters from godlessness.

Thanksgiving is a national holiday set aside to recognize the blessings of Almighty God. Strange if we find no One to whom we can give thanks, because we have lost Him, If ever we knew Him to start with! Pray that a new consciousness of the living God will come to Americans! Let us be in fact, "One nation, under God, indivisible".

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

Dear Christian Friends:

Under the direction of the Christian Education Department and the Church School Committee, headed by Mrs. James Naile, we are undertaking one of the most comprehensive programs of evangelism that we have ever experienced. You will be hearing more of the details in your Church School Class.

Will you give it your very best? Will you support this program with your whole self? The story is told of a court clown of the twelfth century who went into a great cathedral one day to worship. Upon entering the magnificent structure, he went immediately to the altar, and there before the holy place he went through his regular routine of tricks and stunts. Some monks standing toward the rear of the cathedral noticed the queer antics of the clown and accordingly rebuked him for what they thought was desecration of the house of God. But in reply the clown said in all earnestness, "THIS IS ALL I POSSESS, THIS IS ALL THAT I CAN DO, AND I WANT TO GIVE GOD THE BEST THAT I HAVE."

Have you been giving God the best that you have? Come to the hours of study and worship. At least give God your time and life in preparation for living!

John W. Williams, Associate Minister.

ced in the paper the notice, "Just 24 shopping days left" until Christmas! you noticed how similar the conditions of our world and the world into which came? Strife, military confrontations between world powers, killing and be-lled, racial unrest, bitter prejudice, etc., all were present when Jesus came earth. What did He do about it? He lived and taught the credo of ethical without frontiers of class or creed. Whatever parts of our world today reflect asure of civilization, reflect in turn a measure of Christian Faith. It is not ating the facts to say that wherever man can point to his life and times and "there is man at his best", he must also say, "There is the result of Christian nce!

s our world finds a deeper commitment to Jesus Christ, and to His Holy King-men will move steadily toward the edge of darkness, a darkness many emi-scientists are saying may last for a 1,000 years! It is just that simple! May hristmas season be a time for spiritual growth. Let us help keep Christ in mas! Without Him, there will be no Christmas worthy of the name.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

Dear Christian Friends:

One of the songs that we used to sing at the dinner tables before the evening meal at Johnson Bible College was, "Lord, lay some soul upon my heart and love that soul through me, and may I ever do my part to win that soul to Thee."

Years ago a traveling man by the name of E.R. Graves spoke to his friend; S.M. Sayford, and kept his name on a private prayer list. Sayford became the secretary of the Evangelistic Association of New England and led C.K. Ober, a student at Williams College to Christ. Mr. Ober found and influenced, in Cornell University, John R. Mott, who was struggling over the problem of his life's work. He chose Christian service, especially in the behalf of youth, as his career. The result of Mott's choice is endless, for he has influenced more young people to choose Christian callings in the world field than any other living man.

Can you trace your spiritual ancestry? Do you know the name of the person or persons who caused you to want to follow Christ? They may be many, but to be sure, there had to be at least one. For that is the way that the Gospel is shared, from person to person.

Looking to the future, have you done your best to pass on what you received? Paul said to the Corinthians, "For I passed on to you Corinthians first of all the message I had myself received . . ." How long has it been since you prayed forGod to "lay some soul upon your heart? Will you do it right now? If the Christian message ends with us, there will be no Church to carry the Gospel to the future.

See you and your family in Church School and Worship Hour.

THE RENEWAL OF THE CHURCH

Many articles are being written across the land by theologians concerning the need for renewal with the Church. As you think of First Christian Church, you must be thrilled as I am that there are so many signs of spiritual renewal and growth. Twice Sunday our worship services were well attended, the second with a capacity attendance, and the third session on Bible Study had 75 - 85 in attendance in the cold December evening. We have four groups which meet regularly for Bible Study and Prayer and several others in the making! Thank God for His "power at work within us!"

Sunday saw eight men and women make their decisions for Christ : . . .

Mr. & Mrs. Jack KAmmer, 3820 Hiawatha Blvd
Mr. & Mrs. Dave Kreischer and Mike, 1214 W. Oakdale Drive
Mr. & Mrs. Fred Campbell, and Dianna Sue, 705 W. Wildwood

We welcome these fine people into the fellowship of this congregation. We pray that each one shall find an area of service to Christ which will deepen and enrich their spiritual growth.

Sunday is WOMAN'S DAY in the life of this Church. It has been the day set aside annually to lift up the missionary tasks of the Church. A guest speaker will be present, Mrs. George Earle Owen, from Indianapolis.

The JOB'S DAUGHTERS will be present as Carole Weesner is their Honored Queen this year. We are looking forward to their coming.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

Dear Christian Friends:

Reading a book loaned to me by a friend I came across a poem that I would like to share with you. It is entitled, "IT MATTERS MUCH," and it has a strange and simple message that might come to us at Christmas time from one who was a Babe in a manger.

"It matters little where I was born,
Or if my parents were rich or poor;
Whether they shrank at the cold world's scorn,
Or walked in the pride of wealth secure;
But whether I live an honest man,
And hold my integrity firm in my clutch,
I tell you, brother, plain as I am.
IT MATTERS MUCH.

It matters little how long I stay,
In a world fraught both with joy and care;
Whether in youth I am called away,
Or live till my bones and pate are bare;
But whether I do the best I can
To soften the weight of adversity's touch,
On the faded cheek of my fellow-man,
IT MATTERS MUCH."

Robert Louis Stevenson said, "So long as we love we serve; so long as we are loved by others I would almost say that we are indispensible; and no man is useless while he has a Friend."

John W. Williams,
Associate Minister

"THE FAMILY CHURCH" "AS FRIENDLY AS IT IS BEAUTIFUL"

Volume 23 Fort Wayne, Indiana. December 17, 1964 No. 12

CHRISTMAS AND THE CHRISTIAN FAITH

Once more the Christmas season is upon us with all the tinsel and trappings of a pagan holiday. A busy merchant recently told me that, "because of business which blesses us all, I'm glad", but then he added, "But there isn't much Christianity in it, is there, reverend?" Does your heart rejoice that the world has so secularized the Day of Incarnation that we quite literally celebrate a Christian festival of joy in ways which are foreign to Christian principles? Have you ever asked what has happened to our observance of these Holy-Days to make then become in actual fact - mere Hollow-days?

I have become deeply concerned of late by the signs within the fellowship of the Church of our Lord that humanism and secularism is the true faith of those who would call themselves Christians. The Christian Faith proclaims that God came to earth in the Person of Jesus Christ, that the Son died on Calvary's Cross to redeem men from bondage to sin, and that he rose from the grave, for death was powerless before the Spirit of the living God, to offer life eternal to those who would become "temples of the Spirit of God." Be honest about it, this is Christianity! This has been the theme of God's messengers since the night the angels sang, and the great tidings of wonderful joy came to all people! It was not the tidings of full stomachs of warm clothes, of better housing, etc., as important as these all are, but it was the tidings which went like this, "Fear not! Behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, for there is born unto you this day a SAVIOUR, WHO IS CHRIST THE LORD!" We have gone far afield in making the heart of the church's message one of materialistic humanism. But we have lost in the process so very much that is of God, and of the Spirit. We often explain the loss of Christian Faith and the sense of wonder by saying, "Ours is a very complex age and society, and things just can't be as they once were." But don't be so sure! The Word which was made Flesh and dwelt among us is real to countless millions in today's world! Their lives have been blessed beyond all understanding, and they know a willingness to share His life and spirit, and to them the wonder and the joy of His Presence is a living experience!

For millions it will be Christmas without Christ, the result of a secularized humanism. It will be one of eating, drinking, laughing, going into debt to impress others, etc. For other millions Christmas will mean pausing to ponder the amazing grace of God in the Incarnation. It will be a season of thanksgiving, of prayer, of worship and adoration, and of giving to others in love and devotion! Thank God that so very many of you will be sharing Christmas with Christ!

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

You will soon wake up to discover that the day has come for which we have all waited so long. Christmas Day will be here sooner than we expected. It seems that it takes forever for Christmas to come, especially for the children. Part of the joy of Christmas is to be found in the eager expectation.

We like to have things rush upon us with great haste! When the future holds something that we know we will treasure, we are overrun with anticipation. But have we lost some of the meaning of Christmas when we reach the point we exclaim, "Oh, I wish it were all over and done with!"? Exasperated souls, plunged into futile irritability, nerves rubbed raw we plod along counting the hours and days until the gifts are open, the wrappings discarded and the tree thrown out.

Suppose you had to wait a lifetime for Christmas? Think of it! A lifetime! There were those who did, and still it did not come for them. The Apostle Paul said, "In the fullness of time, God sent forth His Son. "Ah, but finally it did come to those who awaited the birth of Jesus Christ. Those who lived and died without having received the promised Saviour were not disappointed. For you see, faith is its own reward! For faith leads us to love and love leads us to God..

Wait then with patience and Faith and Christmas will come for you. And when it does, you will never be the same. For the coming of Christmas means the coming of Christ into your lives. The pagan world tries to celebrate Christmas but it can't! For Christmas is a matter of the heart and not the holiday. It can be celebrated only by those who know Jesus as Lord and Saviour.

IN MEMORIUM

Mrs. A.S. (Cornelia) Betz, a faithful and devoted member of the church, passed away last week. Burial was on Saturday. She will be missed by her many friends in the church.

FIRST CHRISTIAN TIDINGS

"THE FAMILY CHURCH" "AS FRIENDLY AS IT IS BEAUTIFUL"

Volume 23 Fort Wayne, Indiana. December 24, 1964 No. 13

A word of appreciation for the marvelous attendance at the worship experience of the church yesterday. The evening program presented by the choir and members of the '58 Class was a beautiful and inspiring program of music and pantomime. The attendance was marvelous.

We welcome into the fellowship of this church Mrs. Ellen Murrey, and pray for her an enriching experience with Christ her Lord within the fellowship of the family of God.

Here is a test for your New Year's resolutions: "Every advantage that I had gained I considered lost for Christ's sake. Yes, and I look upon everything as loss compared with the overwhelming gain of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. .... How changed are my ambitions! How I long to know Christ and the power shown by His resurrection: now I long to share His sufferings, even to die as He died, so That I may perhaps attain, as He did, the resurrection from the dead." (Phil. 3:7-11)

Here is the essence of Christian faith! It is putting all life into a new perspective with Christ as center of ambition and aspirations, and the ultimate reach of the soul Godward in the hope of eternally sharing the life of God. All else is rubble compared to this advantage!

I pray that all of us will be able to say with the great apostle, "How changed are MY ambitions!" May our ambitions in the new year be to become more fully Christian!

"Put Christ back into Christmas"!

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

Dear Christian Friends:

It was wonderful of you to send us cards at Christmastime! We appreciated each one more than you will ever know. It is our prayer and hope that you and your family have had a merry Christmas, but more than that, that you had a Christian Christmas where the Son of God was exalted.

Looking to the future, have you made your New Year's resolutions? What about your New Year's revolutions? Revolutions are in the making all over the world and many people are disturbed by the news they hear from remote areas. We are always disturbed by revolutions, because we disturb the status quo. Any suggestion of the unknown suggests fear and trembling as a way of response. We don't like to change, because our established patterns and customs provide a comfortable margin and base of operation for "a stable future".

I like to startle people when I am asked about my occupation. When introduced to strangers, it tickles me to tell them that I am "a revolutionist". Have you started a revolution lately? You should try it sometime. For if you are a Christian that is exactly your business. Get together with some one and plot the over throw of Satan. Don't believe that revolutions end with the plotting, either.

Frequently the news tells of some Marxist that has been shot by a firing squad for "betraying the revolution". But what about Christians, who by "subversive inactivity", betray the revolution that would enthrone God and dethrone Satan? If you aren't causing revolutions, you are betraying the true revolution. Will there be a revolution in your life this coming year? If the Holy Spirit comes to line in you there will be!

FIRST CHRISTIAN TIDINGS

"THE FAMILY CHURCH" "AS FRIENDLY AS IT IS BEAUTIFUL"

Volume 23 Fort Wayne, Indiana. December 31, 1964 No.14

HAPPY NEW YEAR!

Here is a text or two to use in your New Year's resolution:

"The Lord is near; have no anxiety, but in everything make your requests known to God in prayer and petition with thanksgiving. Then the peace of God, which is beyond our utmost understanding, will keep guard over your hearts and your thoughts, in Christ Jesus "
(Phil. 4. 6 - 7)

" . . . I have learned to find resources in myself whatever my circumstances. I know what it is to be brought low, and I know what it is to have plenty. I have been very thoroughly initiated into the human lot with all its ups and downs -- fullness and hunger, plenty and want. I have strength for anything through Him who gives me power."
(Phil 4: 11-13)

May God meet you on the threshold of the New Year and you may stay close to Him through all its days, amid whatever circumstances you may have to face.

would stop. I Said to myself, "My he must be some fellow to have travelled to all those cities." As I grew older, I discovered to my disappointment that he had never been to a one of these cities. CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD!

Dear Christian Friends:

One of the main purposes of Christian Education is to help people discover the meaning of life, in general, and the purpose of their life in particular. G. K. Chesterson is reported to have advised some students seeking a new rooming house that their first question to the landlady should not be whether she served bacon regularly for breakfast and changed the bed linens every week, but, "Madam, what is your view of the universe? .....

Christian Education seeks to give people a faith by which they may live victoriously and happily ever after. But first of all, we need to be able to answer this question satisfactorily. "What is your view of the universe?""What am I doing here?" "Where am I going?""What is my purpose in life?" "What are my basic necessities?" "How far do I dare pursue comforts and conveniences?"

You see, Christian Education is the hope of the world, not because it seeks to merely train minds in the area of accepting creeds and vocalizing our religion. It is the hope of the world when it issues forth in faith that guides our living in every day. We may learn to sing the songs of the Church, recite scripture verses, and remember sacred stories as well as give logical reasons for our theological concepts. But we must begin to demonstrate that we are the salt of the earth and the light of the world!

Yes, Jesus called for demonstration, not debates. He challenged men to show results in their lives, not to give excuses for low-living. As a small boy, the station master in a train station used to thrill me as he called off the names of the cities where the outgoing train
